2nd and last edition of 2021

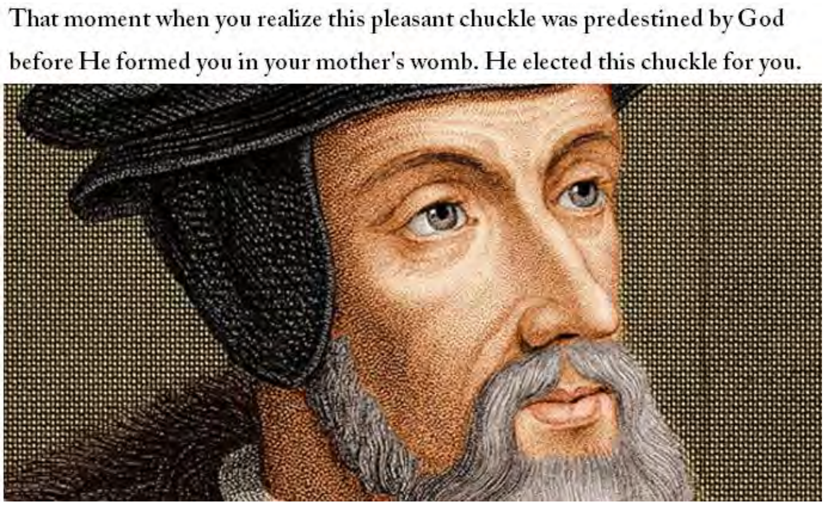
By A. Comp-Eiler

This compendium is a tribute to one of the last stronghold of "extreme free speech" in the world. Practically nowhere else are people free to say whatever is on their God damn mind, however stupid, offensive, or meaningless it may be.

They say we only appreciate what we have once we've lost it. Well, as anybody has witnessed these past few years, freedom of speech has been reduced to a trickle. And it will only get worse. As governments grow authoritarian/totalitarian, all sorts of freedoms we have taken for granted so far are going to vanish, if they have not done so already.

So let's laugh one last time before the end of the world. Let's laugh at minorities, at fake news, at people, alive or dead, at countries even. Let laughter be the catharsis to our loss of freedom.

RISUS OMNIA VINCIT



That moment when you realize this pleasant chuckle was predestined by God before He formed you in your mother's womb. He elected this chuckle for you.

THIS BOOK IS JUST LIKE LIFE: 100% SATIRE.

This pentalogy is dedicated to free speech. It was nice knowing you, bud.

This pentalogy – made by an anonymous /pol/ack from material collected not only on 4chan as the title indicates, but from several boards included 8chan/kun, 16chan, endchan… – is also dedicated to the countless anons who have contributed to free speech, posted something on any “extreme free speech” board, whether it is featured in this compendium or not. That you are not present in this trilogy does not mean I am not grateful for your contribution.

To the last free men...

Special shout-out to, in no particular order, ComposerAnon, BookAnon, Argiebro, Honktopia, Mr. Bond [F], Badgoy, Richard "Beebo" Russell [F], the Botanist who made me want to immortalize anons’ wits and wisdom, the German wholesome poster, the Lithuanian – and other – redpiller, the Apu OC-ers, the British poster on book threads, the guy(s) at politicallyincorrectbase, Libgen, the FE Dane, the shills for proving every day that /pol/ is on the right track, the anon who put both Mein Kek and Gnothi Seauton up on archive[.org], the shitposters, the serious posters, the philosophers, and all anons in general. I wanted to thank you from the bottom of my heart for helping make this world a saner, freer place.

Although the videos recently garnered attention, the fact that particular search terms could easily bring up videos of children has been the subject of a variety of comments on the extreme free speech message board 4chan for several years.

Anthony Jeselnik, Standards and Practices

Right and wrong, pleasure and pain, exist in mind only.
They are not your concern.
You neither do nor enjoy.
You are free.

3.11
Realizing the universe is illusion, having lost all curiosity, how can one of steady mind fear death?

9.3
Seeing all things as threefold suffering, the sage becomes still.
Insubstantial, transient, contemptible-- the world is fit only for rejection.

The thought: “I am the doer” is the bite of a poisonous snake.
To know: “I do nothing” is the wisdom of faith.
Be happy.

3.14
He who is unattached,
untouched by opposites,
free of desire, experiences neither pleasure nor pain as events pass through.

9.4
Was there an age or time men existed without opposites?
Leave the opposites behind.
Be content with what comes.
Perfection.

15.2
Aversion to the world’s offerings is liberation.
Attraction to the world’s offerings is the suffering of bondage.
This is the truth.
Now do as you please.

15.3
This knowledge of Truth turns an eloquent, wise and active man mute, empty and inert.
Lovers of the world therefore shun it.

18.82
Detached from desire, the sage neither praises peace nor blames the wicked.
Equally content in happiness and misery, he would not change a thing.

Why disaffected young men need more pornography

By Eva Wiseman

@krassenstein

'No-Fap' is fascism, plain and simple. We all know it. These Nazis want 'purity' and are terrified of the thought of other men masturbating.

I'll bet most of the uggo-right is incapable of wooing a woman. Porn is there is pacify them so they don't go on MASS SHOOTINGS.

Telling an Incel Nazi to not masturbate to porn is telling a patient not to take medicine. We need MORE PORN not less.

Kubizek says [Hitler] never masturbated, detested salacious jokes, and spoke about physical purity as though he believed in some higher law.

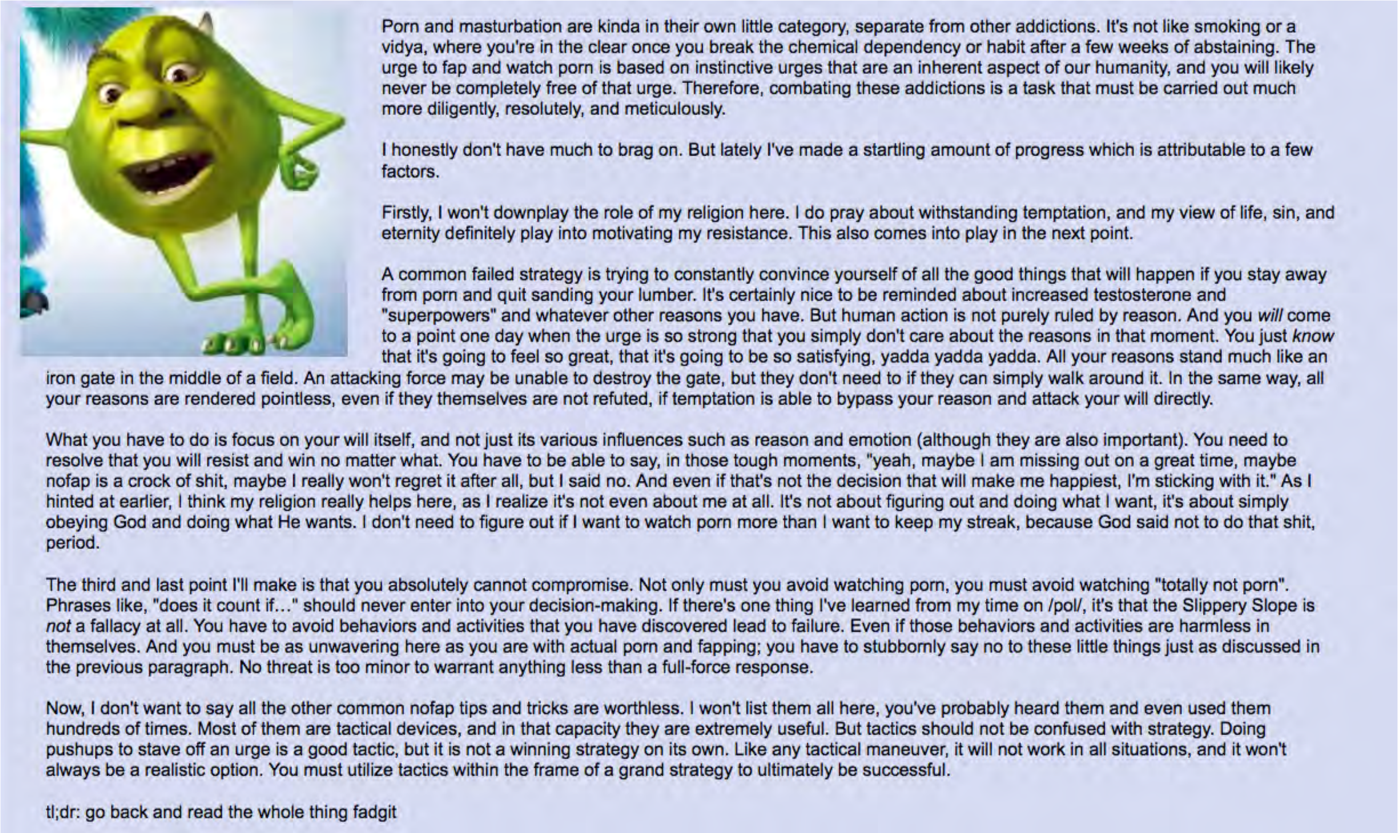
- The Life and Death of Adolf Hitle (Robert Payne)



Porn and masturbation are kinda in their own little category, separate from other addictions. It's not like smoking or a vidya, where you're in the clear once you break the chemical dependency or habit after a few weeks of abstaining. The urge to fap and watch porn is based on instinctive urges that are an inherent aspect of our humanity, and you will likely never be completely free of that urge. Therefore, combating these addictions is a task that must be carried out much more diligently, resolutely, and meticulously.

I honestly don't have much to brag on. But lately I've made a startling amount of progress which is attributable to a few factors.

Firstly, I won't downplay the role of my religion here. I do pray about withstanding temptation, and my view of life, sin, and eternity definitely play into motivating my resistance. This also comes into play in the next point.

A common failed strategy is trying to constantly convince yourself of all the good things that will happen if you stay away from porn and quit sanding your lumber. It's certainly nice to be reminded about increased testosterone and "superpowers" and whatever other reasons you have. But human action is not purely ruled by reason. And you will come to a point one day when the urge is so strong that you simply don't care about the reasons in that moment. You just know that it's going to feel so great, that it's going to be so satisfying, yadda yadda yadda. All your reasons stand much like an iron gate in the middle of a field. An attacking force may be unable to destroy the gate, but they don't need to if they can simply walk around it. In the same way, all your reasons are rendered pointless, even if they themselves are not refuted, if temptation is able to bypass your reason and attack your will directly.

What you have to do is focus on your will itself, and not just its various influences such as reason and emotion (although they are also important). You need to resolve that you will resist and win no matter what. You have to be able to say, in those tough moments, "yeah, maybe I am missing out on a great time, maybe nofap is a crock of shit, maybe I really won't regret it after all, but I said no. And even if that's not the decision that will make me happiest, I'm sticking with it." As I hinted at earlier, I think my religion really helps here, as I realize it's not even about me at all. It's not about figuring out and doing what I want, it's about simply obeying God and doing what He wants. I don't need to figure out if I want to watch porn more than I want to keep my streak, because God said not to do that shit, period.

The third and last point I'll make is that you absolutely cannot compromise. Not only must you avoid watching porn, you must avoid watching "totally not porn". Phrases like, "does it count if…" should never enter into your decision-making. If there's one thing I've learned from my time on /pol/, it's that the Slippery Slope is not a fallacy at all. You have to avoid behaviors and activities that you have discovered lead to failure. Even if those behaviors and activities are harmless in themselves. And you must be as unwavering here as you are with actual porn and fapping; you have to stubbornly say no to these little things just as discussed in the previous paragraph. No threat is too minor to warrant anything less than a full-force response.

Now, I don't want to say all the other common nofap tips and tricks are worthless. I won't list them all here, you've probably heard them and even used them hundreds of times. Most of them are tactical devices, and in that capacity they are extremely useful. But tactics should not be confused with strategy. Doing pushups to stave off an urge is a good tactic, but it is not a winning strategy on its own. Like any tactical maneuver, it will not work in all situations, and it won't always be a realistic option. You must utilize tactics within the frame of a grand strategy to ultimately be successful.

WHO Guidelines Encourage Children Younger Than 4 be Taught “Masturbation” and “Gender Identity”

Sick.

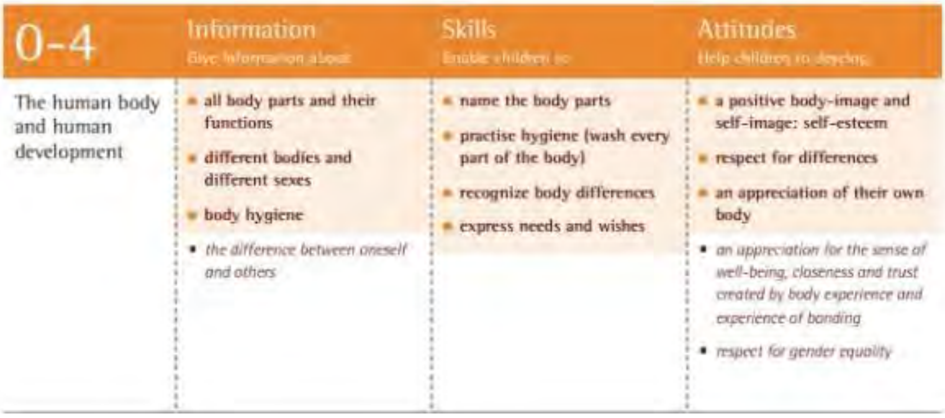
WHO guidelines for sex education recommend that children aged 0-4 be taught about “masturbation” and “gender identity.”

The World Health Organization’s ‘Standards for Sexuality Education in Europe: A framework for policymakers, educational and health authorities and specialists’, advises children be taught about sexually pleasuring themselves and transgenderism before they’ve even fully learned to talk.

The WHO advises that children aged 0-4 are given “information about enjoyment and pleasure when touching one’s body… masturbation.”

Toddlers are also to be encouraged to “gain an awareness of gender identity” and given “the right to explore gender identities.”

In the ages 4-6 bracket, educators are urged to “give information about same-sex relationships” and “help children develop respect for different norms regarding sexuality.”



0-4	Information Give information about	Skills Enable children to	Attitudes Help children to develop
The human body and human development	all body parts and their functions different bodies and different sexes body hygiene the difference between oneself and others	name the body parts practise hygiene (wash every part of the body) recognize body differences express needs and wishes	a positive body-image and self-image: self-esteem respect for differences an appreciation of their own body an appreciation for the sense of well-being, closeness and trust created by body experience and experience of bonding respect for gender equality

Fertility and reproduction	pregnancy, birth and babies basics of human reproduction (where babies come from) different ways to become part of a family (e.g. adoption) the fact that some people have babies and some do not	talk about these issues by providing them with the correct vocabulary	acceptance of different ways of becoming a child of a family
Sexuality	enjoyment and pleasure when touching one's own body, early childhood masturbation discovery of own body and own genitals the fact that enjoyment of physical closeness is a normal part of everyone's life tenderness and physical closeness as an expression of love and affection	gain an awareness of gender identity talk about (un)pleasurable feelings in one's own body express own needs, wishes and boundaries, for example in the context of "playing doctor"	a positive attitude towards one's body with all its functions = positive body-image respect for others curiosity regarding own and others' bodies

Of course, in any sane world, no child of this age should be exposed to any kind of information about sex whatsoever.

Despite them being complicit in China's cover-up of the coronavirus outbreak, the media has held up the WHO as an organization beyond reproach which cannot be questioned.

Social media networks are removing material and banning people who criticize the World's Health Organization's guidelines.

Given that the global health body is pushing such sickness onto toddlers, the Trump administration's decision to withdraw funding is looking better every day.

"The reabsorption of semen by the blood is the strongest nourishment and, perhaps more than any other factor, it prompts the stimulus of power, the unrest of all forces toward the overcoming of resistances, the thirst for contradiction and resistance. The feeling of power has so far mounted highest in abstinent priests and hermits"

Porn and Masturbation is the Single Most Destructive Habit in literal Existence!
Jews didn't just create, sell it, market it, normalize it for no fucking reason, they do that because they think of you as a fucking cattle, as a stupid retarded animal.
Stop Falling for their tricks!
If you keep masturbating, you will Never Ever be Successful!
You will never accomplish anything in your life! You will never be Happy!
You will never be Proud of yourself!

Masturbation is Modern Man's Biggest Struggle!
The act of ejaculation is extremely negative for a men! Why ? Because that's literally the Point of your existence! The purpose of your entire bodily existence is passing down your genetics!
Now, imagine you are looking in porn at thousands of the most beautiful erotic women who have ever lived, your are seeing 1000X more women than your ancestors ever do!
you are essentially giving your brain a SuperStimuli, your brain is thinking that those women are real women Just so you know, Addiction to Porn gives So Much Pleasure that it is Equal to COCAINE!
Not Only that! Its actually worse in the sense that you can keep going without limit!
Cocaine highs barely last a few minutes, Porn pleasure last for as much as bodily possible, meaning probably hours

You are literally Frying your dopamine system, nothing will ever be pleasurable other than masturbation!
Masturbation is the worst shit ever!

I didn't start taking nofap seriously until I started to think about the overwhelming malice, venom, and downright anger on display in so many of these "nofap is a meme" posts.

The kind of rage and disdain that people post about nofap with is not the posture of healthy skepticism. It positively oozes with insecurity and neurosis. It's just downright strange for people to feel such a need to justify stroking their own cocks to other people on the internet. This isn't behavior that goes along with a healthy habit. This is behavior that brings back memories of convincing people that they need to go to rehab.

It's just strange. Common sense dictates that it SHOULDN'T be a big deal, that it's just jacking off and watching porn and "everybody does it" so it really shouldn't be a problem. But all the signs in people's responses to this nofap trend check all the boxes and raise all the red flags for self-destructive and neurotic behavior, so now I have no idea what on Earth is actually going on here.

Here's a cheat sheet for life: everything that you want to do repeatedly and compulsively is basically playing with your reward system. Your body craves that shit because it releases dopamine when you do it, and your body is always looking for a quick fix because that release is what makes you feel good. It's basically how our brains regulate and prioritize our actions, by turning them into something pleasant.

The problem is, those neurotransmitters are not an infinite supply, so you can exhaust what you have by doing those compulsive activities, and leaving little fuel for other, more important activities that don't offer immediate rewards. So what could have gone into socializing, lifting, reading and studying and made those activities more satisfying and easier to build into habit, went instead to something that was "fun" but, ultimately, a waste of time.

The main culprits in our day and age are drugs, vidya, fapping, social media, and music. Doing any of those repeatedly will correlate with lack of motivation and drive, so you have to limit the amount of time you spend doing it, period. Most people already know the first four are bad and a waste of time, but few people talk about music doing literally the same thing from a biochemical point of view.

>but anon i love music
Then listen to it, but do it sporadically and as a reward in itself. Listen to the music you like for 30 minutes during or after a workout, so your brain will at least associate it with something productive, and not drain itself too much afterwards.

and flow around the dam. The person who has self-discipline understands the emotion of sex, respects it, and learns to control and transmute it into constructive activities.

Q Just what damage is there in over-indulgence of sex?

A The greatest damage is that it depletes the source of man's greatest driving force, and wastes, without adequate compensation, man's creative energy.

It dissipates energy needed by nature to maintain physical health. Sex is nature's most useful therapeutic force.

It depletes the magnetic energy which is the source of an attractive, pleasing personality.

It removes the sparkle from one's eyes and sets up discord in the tone of one's voice.

It destroys enthusiasm, subdues ambition, and leads inevitably to the habit of drifting on all subjects.

Q I would like for you to answer my question in another way by telling me what beneficial ends the emotion of sex may be made to attain, if mastered and transmuted.

A Controlled sex supplies the magnetic force that attracts people to one another. It is the most important factor of a pleasing personality.

It gives quality to the tone of voice and enables one to convey through the voice any feeling desired.

It serves, as nothing else can serve, to give motive-power to one's desires.

It keeps the nervous system charged with the energy needed to carry on the work of maintaining the body.

It sharpens the imagination and enables one to create useful ideas.

☐ THE GRAND UNIFYING THEORY OF SEXUAL DEGENERACY Anonymous (ID: A+lZ+alO) 05/09/20(Sat)22:49:30 No.256812837 ▶ >>256813199 >>256817562 >>256818861 >>256819224

The truest redpill on pornography is metastrophilia. Masturbation, in and of itself and without any sort of conditioning involved, is a shameful act. When you have sex with a woman you love, you associate your physical pleasure with the sublime and meaningful, and you feel proud. When you masturbate, you associate physical pleasure with what you find disgusting, and you feel ashamed. If you keep masturbating, you will reinforce the association of physical pleasure with revulsion. That association is called metastrophilia, and it is powerfully accelerated by pornography.

Autogynephilia comes as a consequence of this, because men have an inherent revulsion towards being feminine, and having associated pleasure with revulsion through masturbation, they begin feeling pleasure from being feminine. Men also have inherent revulsion to being sodomized, or cheated on, and guess what? Those fetishes capitalize on metastrophilia.

Don't think for a second that this is a male phenomenon. Why do you think there are so many women with rape fetishes when rape is the worst thing that can happen to them? The answer: metastrophilia. Having corrupted the relationship between your flesh and your soul, you orient yourself to feel pleasure from the things you loathe the most. You are literally telling yourself that bad is good and good is bad, when you masturbate.

This also applies to gay people who were sexually abused as children by predators of the same sex. They feel stimuli from something that they hate and cannot understand it. Hedonistic thinking makes them conclude that even though what was done to them was heinous and wrong, their flesh felt pleasure from it, therefore it was right, and they start thinking that they are gay as a consequence. Remember, it is the doing of the Beast (666) to physically reward you as to incentivize you to do what you despise. Reject the flesh, it is the enemy and literally gears you towards doing evil.

☐ Anonymous (ID: A+lZ+alO) 05/09/20(Sat)22:51:50 No.256813053 ▶ >>256816580

There are mountains of evidence of people who were otherwise normal who became sexual degenerates after porn. For the most part, people aren't born gay or with fetishes. Degeneracy is, more often than not, a result of conditioning. Saying any of this will get you called a homophobe, because no one admits, not even to themselves, that sexual deviants are what they are. Deviants. They deviate.

To reinforce what I was saying, there are men and women who have felt pleasure while being sexually abused. If you let hedonistic propaganda spread, these men will become gay and these women will become whores (as they do, the "stripper with daddy issues" isn't just a meme). Beware, the Beast travels among us always, and its victims become its minions.

One wonderful little argument coming from atheists and gay activists is that homosexuality is "natural" because it is seen in wildlife. It's hard to believe that they could even say such a thing without automatically noticing the mistake they made. They are outright advocating that humans should have their standard behavior be that of the beasts. That is unequivocal propagandizing for satanic hedonism.

Of course, a minority of people really are just born with their brains malformed in that way, but it should not be normalized by any stretch of the imagination. And on top of that, the people who believe that masturbating is ok once in a while, you are self-harming. "Come on dude, cut yourself, it'll feel good and you need to blow off some steam anyway. It'll barely hurt and you'll feel pleasure. Do it."

It's through metastrophilia that people get to insanities like snuff and scat. Every time you feel pleasure while masturbating, you associate pleasure with what you find negative and that association branches out. Be careful with rekt threads too, because they have a similar effect on you.

TL;DR: The Christians are right, gays are a product of Satan and you must stop masturbating at once.

QRD: Semen retention is critical for the sexually dimorphic traits of males to manifest. Without it you become an undifferentiated ungendered pawn.
Sexual dimporphism is primarily expressed via differing levels of testosterone and estradiol (estrogen in its biologically active form). The final controller of ALL hormone expression is the brain, and specifically the hypothalamus. The only intervention that works to increase testosterone is changing your brain structure. Masturbation is proven to do this.

Before we can even get to semen retention, we have to understand how your body works, and the critically misunderstood roles that hormones play.

Why Testosterone?

Most of you, I'm sure, are already convinced about the beneficial effects of testosterone in men, but I want to give a brief overview of things you probably don't know about it.
Testosterone increases sociability. It increases connection to and participation in your milieu, this is true for both men and women. For women, this typically manifests as slutty behavior and ultimately ends up as cuckoldry, women with higher testosterone have sluttier faces (see left in pic). They also have greater sexual arousal levels:
https://www.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/pubmed/10665617
For men however, testosterone decrease the incidence of lying and they are more cooperative with other men.
https://www.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/pmc/articles/PMC3468628
Men with high testosterone are fascistic ideal. They build, cooperate, and create civilization. Men with high testosterone are more driven to find not only mates, but to do all things. Testosterone receptors in the brain don't differentiate drive for sex from any other drive (that differentiation does occur, but requires other chemical receptors to be activated as well).

The Hypothalamus is King

Androgen/Testosterone boosting supplements don't work unless you are supplementing androgens higher than 100% of your baseline test production. To understand why this is, you have to first understand the HP axes, and specifically the HPG axis. The hypothalamus acts as a prime regulator for almost all hormones related to growth, sex, and homeostasis.
Hypothalamus notices an increased level of testosterone? It stops producing GnRH. GnRH is a signal to your pituitary gland to make FSH (follicle-stimulating hormone) and LH (luteinizing hormone); these signal the gonads in men to create sperm and testosterone respectively (in women's gonads these signal menstruation and estrogen). So at all times your hypothalamus is listening to the levels of sex hormones, and is only releasing enough GnRH to keep them at what it believes to be the proper homeostasis.
This is why only highly potent anabolic steroids are really the only things which appear to have a phenotypic response in humans. They overpower even the hypothalamus's ability to regulate testosterone. So when taking anabolic steroids your level of GnRH is basically zero. There is no activity on the HPG axis and it permanently changes your hypothalamus to produce less GnRH, and hence why you hear stories of anabolic steroids shrinking your balls and causing infertility.
So to maximize your GnRH you need to maximize the hormones which stimulate its production and minimize the ones that inhibit it.
There are many hormones which either stimulate or inhibit the production of GnRH, we will get into why fapping is one of the worst things you can do if you want to maximize GnRH next.

There are several other axes of the hypothalamus which should also be mentioned.
The hypothalamic–pituitary–prolactin axis (HPP) is responsible for lactation and mammary growth in females, but it is also present in males. It is not directly self-inhibiting like the HPG axis, but instead is inhibited by dopamine (this will seem contradictory at first, but is extremely important to understanding the dangers of masturbation). The main thing for now you should know is that excess prolactin causes typically feminine traits in men. The primary stimulating factor of the HPP axis is estrogen. Remember this is the only axis which isn't a direct feedback loop! More estrogen will always mean more prolactin.
Finally, the higher your prolactin is, the lower GnRH output will be, which means the lower testosterone will be in males.
The HPS axis has the ultimate byproduct of IGF-1, which is the most critical signal for muscle growth. HPS axis is stimulated by testosterone (via blunting the inhibitory effects of GH in the feedback loop).

Masturbation and Hormones

Now to put it all together. Orgasm elevates prolactin massively. Prolactin causes a neurological effect of having little to no sexual desire, hence why you temporarily lose interest in the porn you watch after ejaculation. Now recall the previous section: Prolactin tells the hypothalamus to lower GnRH; GnRH stimulates production of sperm and testosterone; testosterone increases masculine traits and increases social cohesion in men; it also increases expression of muscles via the HPP axis.
Dopamine which is high during the build-up of masturbation inhibits the HPP axis though, so how can masturbation be causing an increase of prolactin? Well, the hypothalamus can be very intelligent at what it does. It understands context. Not only that, but the massive acute hit of dopamine you are getting causes something called a hormetic effect. Hormesis is kind of like a biological blowback effect, the hypothalamus is massively inhibited on its HPP axis and then to compensate, it releases even more prolactin than it normally would in all that time as a huge burst after orgasm. Not only that, it appears to have "aftershocks" throughout the next few days and releases prolactin even more.
But it gets worse. At least with a single mate in a monogamous sexual relationship your dopamine wouldn't be massively elevated, but with access to unlimited high speed pornography your dopamine will spike to never before seen levels due to the Coolidge effect (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Coolidge_effect). What does this mean? For days after masturbation you will have low testosterone.
But there's even more. The hypothalamus is a neurological structure. It learns and adapts. What does chronic masturbation and dopamine spiking do to the HPP axis? It makes it less and less sensitive to regular dopamine levels. Throughout the day its perfectly normal and healthy to have a moderate level of dopamine, and especially so for men. If HPP is no longer inhibited by this normal level of dopamine, then prolactin will be chronically elevated. Finally we get to the crux. Chronically elevated prolactin means a chronically inhibited HPG axis. A chronically inhibited HPG axis means chronically low levels of homeostatic testosterone.
This is why the men of today have lower testosterone than the average 80 year old just 50 years ago.
This is why we have trannies developing feminine traits due to increased prolactin.

Now there's even more danger to all of this. We have huge amounts of xenoestrogens from overcompensation of plant based foods and hygiene products (you really should only be consuming meat). Estrogen stimulates the HPP axis even more, and we have blown our dopamine circuits to defend against them with acute chronic spiking. But the brain can heal and adapt.
Stop looking at porn. Stop masturbating. Stop consuming xenoestrogens. Stay monogamous, and only have sex for the purpose of procreation.

Extra Credit: Dangers of SSRIs and Weed

SSRIs increase the re-uptake of serotonin in the brain. Serotonin has an antagonist relationship with dopamine, which means if dopamine is high serotonin is low and vice-versa. SSRIs will chronically lower dopamine, not only taking away your enjoyment of novelty, but also once again activating the HPP axis.

Weed is made of cannibinoids. The body produces its own endocannibinoids which have receptors all throughout the nervous system. The hypothalamus is filled with CB1 receptors which have 2-AG (an natural endocannibinoid) as an agonist. 2-AG is released upon orgasm and is used in the adaptation process mentioned earlier to train the hypothalamus to be less responsive to dopamine.
What else is an agonist of the CB1 receptor? THC. In fact THC is far more potent than 2-AG could ever be, meaning that every time you smoke weed, you adapt your hypothalamus to be even less responsive to dopamine than if you were masturbating to porn the entire time you were high. THC is bad news if you value testosterone.

do NOT jack off

Chronic masturbation is a hazardous activity.

Ejaculation floods your brain with prolactin. Prolactin is a very nasty little hormone if you're a man, as it depletes testosterone levels and is highly linked to gynecomastia (man boobs). Prolactin also counteracts the effects of dopamine, leaving you feeling unmotivated and of dull mood.

>inb4 nofap is a meme
it's actually unreal how you incels cope with your lack of willpower and the fact you've spent the best years of your lives draining your masculine energy to porn, alone in a dark room rotting in a pool of your own sweat. The vast majority of people on this website are porn addicts.

Best way for anyone to find out is to abstain and observe the changes for themselves. I dare you to not watch porn, masturbate, and orgasm for 30 days.

They've shown that chronic masturbation in men decreases the number of testosterone receptors in the brain, which means that no matter how much free testosterone you might have, masturbating will decrease the psychological effects of it. This is why men who abstain from masturbation notice increased confidence, social outoingness, motivation to achieve, etc.

It has also been shown that in lower life-forms, the number of orgasms correlates inversely with lifespan. Whether this translates to humans is unclear, but Taoists practiced abstension from orgasm for thousands of years, with the understanding that it depleted a man's vital energy and life-force, shortening their life-span. Some people think that if nofap does have life-extension benefits, it would be via immunomodulation, as reproduction is thought to be fundamentally taxing to the immune system.

In reality, the entire purpose of human existence is reproductive. Once you've reproduced and passed on your genes, you have completed your biological mission. So, rather than needlessly and continuously spending your reproductive energy by jizzing into a sock, basically telling your biology that you've succeeded in life and its time to chill, it makes sense to retain this energy and redirect it into more productive means. Unfortunately, most people are addicted to internet porn and to masturbation, and don't have the willpower to even abstain long enough to experience the benefits of nofap.

I've personally tried it many times for extended periods, and can say for sure that it's by far one of the most important things, if not the most important thing that a man can do to improve his life, and his ability to succeed in life. Humans are just animals, and while we like to think that we have deliberate, conscious control over our lives, the reality is that there are deep biological mechanisms at play in determining every aspect of our behavior and psychology. Rather than try to use pure force of will and positive thinking and other bullshit, I prefer to manipulate the deep biological mechanisms directly, via things like diet, sleep, etc. No Fap in particular is a deep, powerful biological lever a man can use to shape his own life in a real way, rather than just talking or thinking about it. People will tell you No Fap is bullshit, and to be honest it gets pretty old seeing people say this when you understand the power of it, but we are all just crabs in a bucket I guess.

I quit masturbating before nofap even existed and I did it for over a year.

Over the past 2 years, I've fell back into this habit, caused by unemployment and thinking "it's normal". It isn't.

It takes away your energy and corrupts your subconscious. If you are intelligent, you can see the subconscious processes going on in the background of your brain and it is clear that sex, being the vehicle for our prime directive in life, procreation, takes center-stage. These pathways become stronger with each and every use, until the brain essentially degenerates into the nigger state of "muh dick". we are what we repeatedly do.

The nofap people have the wrong approach. They allow themselves to get horny and are sexually frustrated the entire time.

The trick is to avoid stimuli and not even think sexually. I'm not saying to stop pursuing women, but that you should only even consider a woman if she is a viable candidate for a LTR (ie marriage material) and stop thinking about relationships as a means for short-term sexual gratification (ie--"gettin sum pussy")

Masturbation is not natural but is a conditioned habit.

Most people do not break the conditioning but merely replace masturbation with sex in hookups or short-term relationship. They assume because they never went without it, it is impossible to quit.

I can tell you right now, it is possible and once you do quit, life is much better, you'll have more motivation, and you'll channel your newfound energy into hobbies and work that will actually improve your life.

Good luck to anyone.

The physiological benefits of nofap actually have some scientific background

I'm 22 yo medical student from Helsinki, Finland. I have done some extensive research to determine if there is some mechanism through wich abstinence could have an impact to things many of you have reported such as deeper voice, increased growth of beard, more muscularity etc. I have found a possible explanation to those and I can quarantee it's not all about placebo! I'll try to speak plain and simple language.

Most of the physical benefits seem to be such things that are greatly affected by testosterone. Anyway, you all know the famous study wich proposed that plasma testosterone levels spike around day 7 of abstinence. Then you also know that testosterone levels tend to crash back to normal on days 8-10. Then why does the physical benefits really come after much longer abstinence?

Testosterone molecule is totally inactive in the bloodstream. It's only a messager wich in most cells activates synthesis of certain proteins (hormones, enzymes, muscle proteins etc.). The message is carried on only if the testosterone hormone binds to its receptor (androgen receptor, located in the nucleus).

For those interested in medicine: the binding of ligand (now lipid soluble steroid hormone) to its receptor (now androgen receptor) is much more random than you might think. It's not like ligand and receptor couple everytime they happen to be nearby. The possibility for coupling can be calculated and is called the receptors affinity for ligand.

Now I want you to understand that the effect that testosterone has depends from the amount and activity of androgen receptors as well as from the amount of testosterone in bloodstream. So how do we increase the quantity of androgen receptors? -By abstinence, it seems. You all know the theory about our dopamine receptors and what PMO does to them. There is evidence that suggests that the changes in hormones and neurotransmitters caused by orgasm or ejaculation decreases the amount and activity of androgen receptors. Here's my theory from biochemical and medical stanpoint…

Days 1-5 testosterone levels steadily increase…

Days 6-7 testosterone levels spike radically. Because of abstinence and higher testosterone levels (positive feedback regulation of androgen receptors) quantity and activity of androgen receptors increases.

Days 8-10 testosterone levels crash back to normal, because plasma free testosterone is bound to increased amount of androgen receptors. This is where it gets truly interesting! Next chapter is a bit filled with medical terminology so bare with me…

Here's what should happen next, if my thinking and medicine textbooks are correct: because testosterone is lowered to the "baseline", negative feedback-loop kicks in. Plasma testosterone levels are regulated by HPA-axis and many negative feedback-loops. Now that testosterone levels are lowered, hypothalamus (endocrine gland and part of anatomyous nervous system) produces more gonadotrophin releasing hormone. That stimulates the pituitary gland to produce more luthenizing hormone (LH) wich is the major regulator of testosterone synthesis in the Leydig cells of testicles. LH greatly accelerates the rate-limiting reaction of the reaction-chain that synthetizes testosterone by speeding up the transport of cholesterol derivate to right cell compartment. The cholesterol derivate is used to make pro-hormone pregnenolone. That's the first major reaction of testosterone biosynthesis.

In plain language this means that if abstinence continues testosterone levels will rise again well over the baseline and the same cycle begins all over again. So your testosterone levels and most importantly your androgen receptors will increase more and more by every cycle. That would explain the flatlines and highs that you experience when on longer "streaks", bottom line being that all the time the impact that testosterone has on you will magnify.

Some benefits like better skin can be result from zinc that you save by not ejaculating frequently. It's a fact that the zinc concentration of seminal fluid is relatively highest of all human tissue. It's a fact too that human body does recycle sperm cells and seminal fluid at least to some extent.

Thank you for reading! Don't mind possible grammatic mistakes, english is not my first language…

Well it's not.

I thought I'm gay for 2 years. Had some sex, met fags through grindr. Didn't enjoy it that much. Surprised, because the only thing that was turning me on was the idea of being a trap (even though I'm not).

I wanted to kill myself thinking that I'm just a tranny that doesn't like either girls or guys.

Then I decided to nofap. First week I went full fucking gay, couldn't stop thinking about downloading grindr again and getting fucked.

Second week I started getting hard at girls.

After the third week my homosexuality literally fucking vanished and the only thing that made me hard was girls. I was also energetic as fuck, my depression disappeared and I was more confident.

It's fucking terrifying what porn can do to your brain, I would've killed myself thinking that I will never be able to have a girlfriend and I'll be doomed to sucking dick forever.

t. not gay anymore

It's called the Enkidu gambit, and this is why incel has become the insult du jour of the present social mainstream. Women - and sex - are the most fundamental method to harness the profound energies of men and use it to benefit society.

In the myth of Gilgamesh, Enkidu was a wild and untamed man (quite possibly one of the last neanderthals) with tremendous strength and primal power. He was so in tune with nature that he could even speak with animals, nor would they flee from him. But he was a nuisance to Sumeria. So Gilgamesh, the ruler, sent out a temple prostitute to seduce and sleep with Enkidu.

Enkidu spent seven days with this prostitute having sex. Once he was finished, he found he could no longer understand animals. Not only that, but they fled from his sight. He had no choice, but to join and become part of civilization.

This plotline appears in virtually all works aimed at women. The idea of a woman domesticating a wild, untameable man is deeply appealing to women. And that is the primary reason why incels arouse such fear and antipathy, because their existence arouses the primal anxiety of society/women. Enkidu might very well be just off doing his own thing. But society will invariably interpret his existence as dangerous because it is so unpredictable, because a man not part of society is a man out largely for himself.

This explains why so many people are surprised, even anxious, if you say you have no partner or don't have sex. The idea that this is profoundly unnatural state isn't held up by nature - a significant proportion or even the majority of men do not reproduce throughout history. But it is related to their own domestication by society, to the point where they start unknowingly adopting its own morality (meant to benefit itself) as their own. Women are far more likely to feel such anxiety, because they intrinsically realize that society will always exist to benefit them. To protect them from rape or violence. To help raise and guard their offspring.

Both halves of society thus feel deeply apprehensive towards those who aren't having sex because they recognize this fundamental reality: those who don't form relationships and therefore lack a sex life are almost entirely disconnected from society. As disconnected as a wild Enkidu living in the wilderness. An unpredictable variable, and unpredictable variables are invariably threatening to normalfags and especially women, who have much more to fear from societal breakdown or dissidence. For a woman, the best state of society is peaceful, predictable, and ordered. It can be exciting and dangerous, but only to a point. It is fun to dance with a guy who's been in prison several times, but she doesn't want to get raped or murdered.

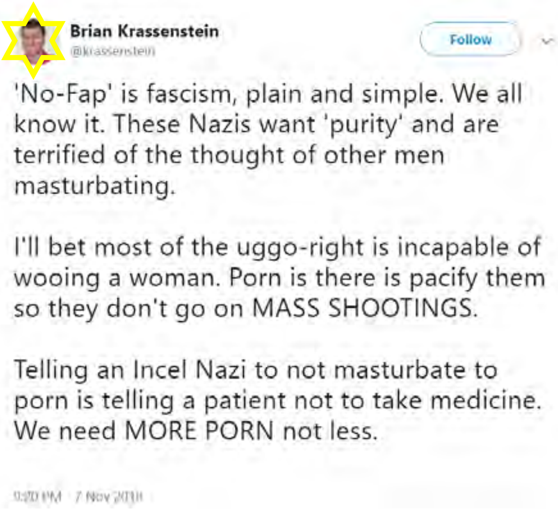
This explains both 1) the refugee crisis and 2) the push to revoke the 2nd amendment. Collectively, we have seen an entire generation refuse to take the Enkidu gambit. Collectively, we are now seeing a response. Much of it is unconscious, but make no mistake: you single men are the principal enemies of the left and society at this moment. Not the rapists, not the CEOs, not even Donald Trump. They hate Trump because they saw his victory as validating you, and that frightened and provoked them at a deep, deep level. If you won't sacrifice yourself for society, if you won't submit to the mainstream and conform to it, you WILL be replaced. And that is presently the primary goal and motivation of the left in the west today.

Believe me or not, but look at how many antifa were trying to get you into the streets back in May. Watch the interviews and videos from those out in the streets. Almost all of them were challenging "nazis" to come out in the streets and fight them. This entire protest was launched due to how much you've both enraged and frightened them. They can't control you, and like all control freaks they find this prospect psychologically unnerving. Hence they've decided, quite simply, to kill you.



Brian Krassenstein
@krassenstein

'No-Fap' is fascism, plain and simple. We all know it. These Nazis want 'purity' and are terrified of the thought of other men masturbating.

I'll bet most of the uggo-right is incapable of wooing a woman. Porn is there is pacify them so they don't go on MASS SHOOTINGS.

Telling an Incel Nazi to not masturbate to porn is telling a patient not to take medicine. We need MORE PORN not less.

The Evolutionary Energy in Man WITH PSYCHOLOGICAL COMMENTARY BY JAMES HILLMAN

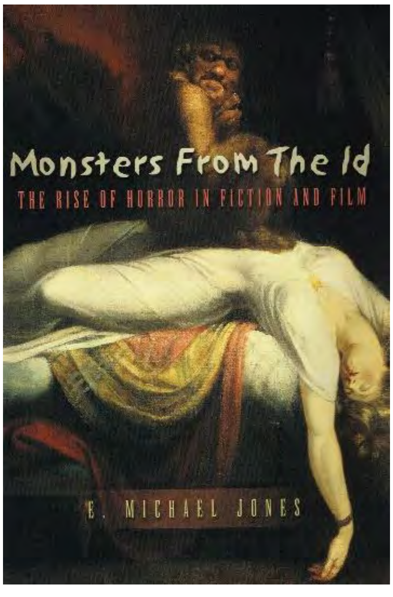
There was no doubt an extraordinary change in my nervous equipment, and a new type of force was now racing through my system connected unmistakably with the sexual parts, which also seemed to have developed a new kind of activity not perceptible before. The nerves lining the parts and the surrounding region were all in a state of intense ferment, as if forced by an invisible mechanism to produce the vital seed in abnormal abundance to be sucked up by the network of nerves at the base of the spine for transmission into the brain through the spinal cord. The sublimated seed formed an integral part of the radiant energy which was causing me such bewilderment and about which I was as yet unable to speculate with any degree of assurance. I could readily perceive the transmutation of the vital seed into radiation and the unusual activity of the reproductive organs for supplying the raw material for transformation in the mysterious laboratory at the lowest plexus, or muladhara chakra, as the yogis name it, into that extremely subtle and ordinarily imperceptible stuff we call nervous energy, on which the entire mechanism of the body depends, with the difference that the energy now generated possessed luminosity and was of a quality allowing detection of its rapid passage through the nerves and tissues, not only by its radiance but also by the sensations it caused with its movement.
For a long time I could not understand what hidden purpose was being served by the unremitting flow of the new-born nervous radiation and what changes were being wrought in the organs and nerves and in the structure of the brain by this unceasing shower of the powerful vital essence drawn from the most precious and most potent secretion in the body. (Ch. 6)

There were unmistakable indications of abnormal activity in the region of Kundalini from the moment of my retiring to sleep until the morning. It was obvious that by some mysterious process the precious secretion of the seminal glands was drawn up into the spinal tube and through the interlinking nerves transferred into a subtle essence, then distributed to the brain and the vital organs, darting across the nerve filaments and the spinal cord to reach them. The suction was applied with such vigour as to be clearly apparent, and sometimes in the early stages with such violence as to cause actual pain to the delicate parts. At such times the ferment caused in the body resembled in effect the last minute frantic effort made for succour when a life is in imminent danger, and I, a dumb and helpless witness to the show, could not help but pass hours of agony thinking of this abnormal development in myself. It was easy to see that the aim of this entirely new and unexpected activity was to divert the seminal essence to the head and other vital organs, after sublimation, apparently to meet a contingency caused by a sudden disorder in any organ or a general discord inimical to the new development. (Ch. 11)

There can be no doubt whatsoever that the incessant, easily perceptible, rapid movement at the base of my spine, affecting the nerves lining the whole area, was an indication of the fact that, controlled by an invisible mechanism, a hidden organ had begun to function all of a sudden in the hitherto innocent-looking region, converting the reproductive fluid into a radiant vital essence of high potency which, racing along the nerve fibres as well as the spinal canal, nourished the brain and the organs with a rejuvenating substance out of reach in any other way. (Ch. 12)

In a grave emergency of this kind the only way open to nature to avoid a catastrophe is to use liberally the ambrosia contained in the human seed and to rush it in a sublimated form to the brain, the nervous network, and the main organs in order to provide the injured and dying cells with the most powerful restorative and food available in the body to save life. (Ch. 12)

It is for this reason that the ancient teachers of Kundalini Yoga, taught by an experience extending for thousands of years, insisted on an exceptionally robust and hardy constitution, mastery over appetites and desires, voluntarily acquired control over vital functions and organs, and, above all, the possession of an inflexible will as the essentially needed qualifications in those offering themselves for the supreme undertaking of rousing the Shakti. (Ch. 12)



All the terminal coomers here insisting that: "Masturbation is the same as sex. Your body does not know the difference" -- are deceiving you and lying to themselves. Busting nuts alone in a dark room with your pants pulled down to your ankles can never be the same as sex, neither psychologically nor physiologically, as even your body will tell you the distinction between passionate intercourse and masturbation through the different levels of dopamine, prolactin and oxytocin it will release. These hormones can fuck up your daily rythm, as seen on this forum, turn you into a apathetic low-energy twerp.

1. After you orgasm your pituitary gland releases prolactin -- a hormone that is normally associated with lactation and low testosterone -- after ejaculation, prolactin is essential for your refractory period. It makes you feel lethargic and heavy-eyed, it decreases the levels of sex hormones and calms you down after that intense dopamine spike. For reasons unknown, intercourse orgasms release four times more prolactin than when you ejaculate through masturbation. Many porn enthusiasts will use this to try and debunk NOFAP -- well, the smut peddlers are wrong so don't fall for their tricks! Lower levels of prolactin released after fapping will come at the expense of sexual satiety! A higher prolactin shot right after you cum into or over a hot babe is the bodily expression of intercourse being more physiologically satisfying than masturbation. It will pleasantly tame you for a longer period between ejaculations, giving your body a healthier recovery period allowing androgen receptors to re-synthesize without disturbance. The lower levels of prolactin released after you masturbate leaves you feeling unsatisfied, and because of that you will be driven to cut corners to your next edging session, short circuiting your natural "recharge period"

2. During orgasm your body will also be releasing oxytocin (the bonding hormone), except you wont be creating a emotional bond with anyone besides screen pixels. At this point you are literally growing a emotional attachment to porn starlets, camgirls or even just specific parts of the human body. No wonder why there are so many depraved fetishes among coomers -- the person with a fetish is attached to a very specific object/situation though the frequent release of oxytocin while participating in the situation or with the object.

Ever wondered why egirls are even more popular than pornstars? Oxytocin! Oxytocin explains the massive success of OnlyFans which correlates with the inevitable rise of "simping". Onlyfans is different from old-school porn because it is modeled after social media (the closest you get to human relations today) and it provides the donor or "fan" a feeling like he has reserved a VIP slot with the girl by becoming a part of her inner circle fandom. The Go-Live feature that enables tipping during live-streams allows the simp to have his name screamed in one of her faked orgasms for a small fee. Onlyfans universe mimics a more intimate and "connected" than regular porn made by a triple-A studio, and because it's amateurish self-made erotica going on in the privacy of bedrooms, kitchens and garages; having access to that you almost emulates a long distance relationship. Simping for egirls is common because of the oxyticin being secreted in the blood plasma triggering the feelings of love, trust, affection, bonding and care for women you will never get to touch.

-- in masturbation you get caught up in a self-draining cycle of busting mediocre nuts in relatively quick successions before your testosterone can bond effectively, forcing your pituitary gland to continuously secrete prolactin, which in turn suppresses dopamine and decreases your T levels --

When you're a loner NEET there is little joy in life that comes close to beating your meat (apart from vidya and abusing narcotics), like a dope fiend rushing to his next fix you again find yourself skipping the recovery period which means you are now circling in a loop of chasing sexual pleasure while undermining it at the same time, by perpetually elevating the levels of the same hormones that in turn decrease the level of your sex hormones. Incels often exhibit reduced motivation, anhedonia (a decrease in pleasure from usually enjoyed things), sometimes motor decreases. All of these are linked with dopamine suppression -- prolactin counters dopamine and testosterone, which is responsible for feeling energized. I mean look around you, the numales, the simps, the trannies it's all a symptom of alienation and excessive consumption.

MANY TRADITIONAL CULTURES AND OCCULTISTS RECOGNIZE THE POWER OF SEMEN FOR BOTH GOOD AND EVIL

From briskodesh.org, a site that urges Jews to stop the sin of Pogem Habris (masturbation):

>There are three things that are called an 'Os', a sign that a person is Jewish. These are Shabbos, Tiffilin and Shmiras Habris (not masturbating). According to the Kabbalah, Shmiras Habris is the most important of the three.

>In the days of idol worship (avodah zarah) people would consciously channel energy to the forces of evil through meditating and other practices. Human fluids especially, provide substance to demonic forces. It is for this reason that many satanic rituals require semen or blood.

>All pain and suffering that exists in the world comes from the klipas (forces of evil). In this generation the klipas receive most of their nourishment from people who are pogem their bris (desecrate the convent). The most common of these transgressions is spilling seed (motze zera lvtalah).

>Part of the seminal fluid (shichvas zera) comes from the brain, this is sent down the spine.

>When a person spills seed he is wasting away part of his brain. This lowers all functions of the brain especially memory. Unfortunately most people were pogem since they were young and no longer remember their state of mind before they started. Most people nowadays are controlled by their subconscious. Even conscious acts are strongly tainted by their subconscious. This enslaves a person, strongly limiting his abilities. Again someone who has never been out of the klipas can not associate with this. Through meditation one can feel this. Spilling seed makes this much worse. A persons emotions are thrown totally out of balance.

>Using energy taken from this person, the forces of darkness give birth to Lilim (sexual demons). These demons hang around a person steal his energy, confuse him and stick thoughts in his head. Do not let this amaze you for if one meditates he will see many thoughts streaming through his mind are not his own. These thoughts include sexual thoughts, thoughts denying G-D or just the worthless thoughts that clutter a persons mind most of the day. At night these demons influence the persons dreams, and cause him to have nocturnal emissions (mikreh lilah).

>Onun knew that the children would not go after him, he therefore spilled his seed on the ground... His actions were bad in the eyes of G-D, he therefore killed him too. (Berashis 38/9-10)

>One who purposely causes an erection places himself in excommunication. (Talmod Niddah 13)

>Whoever wastes seed, thinks impure thoughts, or does something to cause temptation deserves death. (Talmod Niddah)

>For many were the evil of man... they committed every possible act of evil, however theirfate (generation of flood) was not sealed until they threw their blood down on the floor. What is the meaning of this, they would spill their seed on the ground. (Zohar, Berashis)

>Spilling seed is more severe then all sins, since he defiles his soul in this world and the world to come and he does not see the glory of the shichenah. (Zohar Vyeshev)

>R' Yochanan spoke up and said all those who waste seed are punishable by death. Rav Ami said it is as if he sheds blood. Rav Ashi says it is as if he worships strange deities. (Medrish Hagdol Vayeshev)

>Rav Acha bar Yashya said whoever wastes seed equates himself to an animal. Just like an animal does not care what it does, so to this person randomly commits this sin. Just like an animal is set aside to be slaughtered and does not receive life in the future world so to this person stands to die and does not live in the future world. (Medrish Hagdol Vyashev)

>Why does the verse say Tinuf (you should not commit adulteries) which is in plural form, it comes to include those who spill seed. (Tanah Divi R' Yishmoel)

>At the first gate stands the angel ASTRKH, under his command are hundreds of thousands of deputies. They are appointed on all those who have wasted seed, who do not get to see the shichinah. These people defiled themselves in this world, therefore after death they are gathered by these angels who impose judgment upon them. (Otzar Hmidrashim second chamber)

>"Bad in the eyes of G-D" like the sin of Onun, who would spill his seed. (Rashi Berashis 38/7)

>"and also their children" this was counted as murder, meaning they wasted seed and did not repent. (Rashi Yichezkel 23/37)

>This was the flaw of the generation of the flood, they would waste their seed. (Rashi Shabbos 41)

>Semen is the energy of the body and the light of the eyes. As long as it is excreted in excess the body withers and life is lost. All those that are saturated in this, old age jumps on them, his strength leaves him, his eyes go weak, bad breath pours out of his mouth. His hair and eyebrows fall out, the hair of his legs and armpits become thick and his teeth fallout. Many additional health problems occur.(Shulcan Aruch 240 Rambom, Dayot)

>It is prohibited to emit seed in waste. Those that do are put into excommunication, and it is as if he killed another person. (Rambam esuray biah 21/18)

>One who spills seed, bais din is commanded to place him in cherem. (Ramban M.M. E.B. 21/18)

>It is prohibited to waste seed. Those that do it, not only is it a serious sin they also place themselves in spiritual excommunication and is equivalent to an act of murder. (Tur A.H. 23/1)

>One is not allowed to spill seed. This is the most severe transgression from all sins in the torah. A person is not allowed to purposely cause an erection or bring himself to think impure thoughts. (Shulcan Aruch A.H. 23)

>It is prohibited to waste seed . This is the most severe of all sins in the torah. Those who spill seed in waste, not only do they commit a major sin, they also place themselves in excommunication. Referring to them the verse says "your hands became filled with blood". It is as if he kills a person. Sometimes as a punishment for this, heaven forbid his children die young or end up evil people. This also causes poverty. (Kitzur Shulcan Aruch 151)

>Wasting seed is more severe then manslaughter, for here he is spilling his own blood and the blood of his children. In the Zohar parshas vyache it says all evil people can repent except those that commit this sin. In addition a person under the age of mitzvot is not held accountable for his sins except this one, for Er and Onun were underage and got punished. In addition the generation of the flood who were wiped off the face of the earth was only for this sin. (Sharai Kedusha)

>More severe then all sins is one who spills seed, for he spills the blood of his kids for all eternity. In addition all sins can be rectified, but this one has no rectification. (Sharai Kedusha 2/8)

>One has to be extremely careful with his bris... He should never cause an improper erection... Be very careful not to damage the attribute of yesod. (Tomar Devorah 8, Ramak)

>One who spills seed, his punishment is death from heaven. His punishment is like that of the generation of the flood. This verse refers to those that waste seed “Under the trees do they slaughter their children. (Shari Teshuvah)

>One should be careful not to waste seed. (Sefer Hyirah, Rabbanu Yonah)

>Know that from all the sins in the torah there is none that create demons like one who spills seed. It comes out, all souls who were to be his children now intermingle with the sitra achara. He takes holiness and turn it to impurity, good into evil (Kaf Hchaim 240)

>There is a type of znus that is quite common amongst the young people, they waste their seed. This comes from their ignorance of how damaging this act is. It is an obligation to warn everyone young and old, let them know the severity of these issues until they tremble from fear. Every city should appoint men to watch and teach the people to stay away from this terrible sin. (Pelah Yoetz ot zayin)

>Whoever transgressed this and brought into his mind impure thoughts has sinned terribly, this destroys him from this world. It defiles all 248 limbs and 365 sinews, physical and spiritual. Therefore be extremely careful with this. (Safer Hamitzvos Hkotzar, Chofetz Chaim)

>“Lo Tinof” he should not be Mnof by himself, by spilling seed. (Kitzur Sefer Charadim, Chai Adom)

>Also one who has wasted seed should do the following, he should repent by siting in freezing cold water...(Sefer Chasidim)

>When a person spills seed many impure forces attach themselves to the hairs of that region, from there are created evil spirits. They are the ones that are called ‘painful afflictions of man’. After he dies they do not leave him since they are his sons, there is no suffering bigger then this, may the merciful one save us. (Shavet Musar 27)

>One who spills seed flaws his own thought process as well as the upper knowledge. (Kitvi Ari)

>His prayers are not accepted (Shlah 100)

>He loses his ability to understand torah (Kav Hayoshar 68)

>He causes the lengthening of exile, plagues and all tragedies. His children will also follow the path of evil. (Mam Loez Vayeshev)

>Heaven forbid that one should defile his holy seed in such a manner. (Ravah Vayeshev)

Its a load of fucking horse shit.
I went 1 year without shlicking and noticed no changes at all other than feeling irritated all the time.

The worst part? I got so fucking horny at the end that I broke my 1 year streak by masturbating to a Funko Pop of Buzz Lightyear. His head shape set me off and I started thinking about the scene in Toy Story 2 where Jesse does the loop the loop on the toy car and his wings pop out. Imagined him fucking me with one wing whilst sucking the other one. Felt disgusted with myself for days after that.

Abstinence from everything dopaminergic cleanses out your aura, stabilizes your vibrations, you become more harmonic and attuned to Universal Law.
This creates so called "attraction" and "manifestations".
We are energetic beings.
Male humans need to have their testicles filled with their naturally produced seed. The better your diet the better the quality of your seed and the better the quality of your manifestations and attractions.
Clean diet. Orgasm and lust overall abstinence. Abstaining from everything dopaminergic.
This way you will become a wizard at twelve years of practice.
You can accelerate with fasting, exercising, yoga, and meditation.
Dopamine spikes leave you vulnerable to demonic possesion/attachment.
There is a reason most spiritual practices demand ascetism and discipline.

You will be tested.
Also light attracts darkness.
Evil entities will come and test you.
The strenght of your faith will determine if these entities affect you or not.
There are also good beings watching everything at every level of existence.
Our senses are like radio antennas. They perceive only a specific range of frequencies. Ears, audible range. Eyes, visible light spectrum. Skin, that which we know as matter. Smell and taste, also matter.
Matter, light and sound are all vibrating aether.
These are the "stations" our human radio can perceive with its antennas. There are a myriad of other "stations" at different ranges of frequency.
Different organic species have different audible ranges, different visible light spectrums and different matter sensitivity. Take cats and dogs for example. Take bats and whales for example.
As we move through our years of age, human radio perceives different stations. If you take care of your whole radio, you can conserve your perception and even increase it with the appropriate practices. That's why babies can see stuff adults can't.

The more stable your vibration/aura is, the more perceptive you become.
Your understanding of reality and the world that surrounds you will eventually change.
At 7 days. At 30 days. At 90 days. At a year, two years, five, twelve. You will start to get glimpses of the Absolute.
There's a reason we are being bombarded with such a hypersexualized culture.
There's a reason why vices are so promoted and destructive substances like alcohol and chemical cigarettes are sold and marketed like crazy.
It is not only profit, but the enslavement and dumbing down of our perceptual capabilities as spiritual beings.
There is a reason psychedelic drugs are all illegal, because they give you a clear perspective and a glimpse, although artificial, of what reality really is.
What LSD, Ayahuasca, Mescaline do is to enhance your antennas. That's why you perceive more patterns. More colors and more unimaginable stuff to the regular non-psychedelic user.
There is a reason why the consensus of three or more meals a day is preached.
Occasional fasting cleanses your body at many levels. It is not only a reparation tool for your intestines and a way to lose fat, but it also stabilizes your aura, your dopamine receptors, your neurons and neural connectivity, your immune system and your connection to the subtle energies we use to call Spiritual.
Nofap is being memeified.
The real deal is semen retention and abstaining from all kinds of lust. There is a reason porn is promoted so heavily. Research what Mindgeek is and who owns it.
Research who is pushing and advocating the normalization for pornography and the hypersexualization of children and our whole society.

Good entities wil help you in your path of abstinence if you are sincere.
They can watch, hear and perceive higher things. things that you can't, like thoughts and feelings. You can't fool Nature.
Nature is Law itself. You can break it but at your peril.
The average human lives all its life drugged. Sugar, then caffeine, then alcohol and tobacco, then abuse of some useful substances and some other not so useful, mixed with pornography and mindless sexual indulgence.
If you retain your semen long enough, and also get sober of all these modern day vices, even get rid of sugar which is the equivalent of pornography in food (sugar has no nutritional value other than high carbs, extremely taxating on your digestive system, and also depletes your body of valuable minerals,) your perception of reality will start to change and you will become more mindful of what you put in your body.
Your energy, physical and subtle/spiritual will begin to rise, you will start to notice more and more patterns up to the point of synchronicities.
You will become more mindful of your habits, your words and your thoughts.
But you need discipline. You need discipline and the proverbial "armor of God" which necessitates Faith.
Good luck.

[–]▶ Why Sexuality is Fucked: The Fall of the Original Male and the Rise of the Cucked Betas Anonymous 05/07/16 (Sat) 11:17:28 ID: 2812e9 No.5926004 [Watch Thread]

Hello dear /pol/ - I hope you find yourselves having a good day. You might remember an anon a while ago that posted about his porn addiction and wrote a short text on why porn was probably the cause that males are so cucked in recent years. At the time a lot of that came from reading past the NoFap's movement loads of anecdotal evidence and bro-science and examining some of its valid points. But alas, I was not satisfied.

There was something there. Something that wanted to be found.

I've gone off and done actual research - anonymous interviews recruiting around boards, lots of books on the field of Sexology (back when Psychology was real and before the field became fetishistic bullshit and tranny justifications, so some odd forty years ago) and other heaps of bullshit, trying to sort the delusional from the actual knowledge from outright kike lies.

This is going to be quite long - I'll examine the crux of the issue first, then go off and examine several rising fetishes and the dangers of several kinds of thinking, concluding with suggestions of how you - yes, you - should behave to create the new male, the one that should rise from this swamp of leftist crap. By no means is this a defeatist or MGTOW-supporting text - I think this issue should be fixed, but it starts with you.

If you have any of the issues described in this essay, please seek to improve yourself. Realize it isn't natural to you, and seek to stop them.

Here we go

The Modern Times, the Downfall of Masculine Thinking and Autogynephilia

First of all, let us examine the recent events on the world that have changed how the modern human views sexuality. Not only have family values gone down - rather, I'd say, fucking plummeted - but the rise of fast-access Internet Porn, filled with all kinds of imagery, have also corrupted the youth's natural sexual development. With sex viewed as just a way of release and said pornography widely available, the modern teenager - and many of you, I'm sure - was quick to hop in the internet porn bandwagon, also in an era where sex became more acceptable to talk about in public and media.

Now, many of you could confirm and well, common sense also shows that the first fantasies of the human male, and the types of video he watches, are usually simple, heterosexual videos of a man and a woman, or a man and several women, with intercourse being dominated by the male. Many even quickly go to fetishes such as forced intercourse, with domination by their part being the crux of the original, male fetish. This is in accordance with natural male sexual thought - not that we want to just go off and rape people, but rather, that we seek our own pleasure, the usage of our genital organs on women we find attractive to find release.

Now, my interviews had a disturbing common point at about this stage - as humans are humans and excess is the key to change, many of them lost interest and switched to other forms of pornography. The thing that disturbed me is that almost all of them - a staggering 80% of a control group of quite a few dozen - switched to lesbian porn. Porn of a woman, with another woman

Now - many of you will argue that's natural. A heterosexual male does not want to see penises, and before, many males simply got off to pictures of nude women on magazines. But to explain why this is actually harmful, I have to get into autogynephilia. (Don't worry, this eventually comes around and explains all forms of porn are kinda awful for the brain. Not defending dicks > tits here)

Autogynephilia was a concept introduced in sexology that was quickly shot down as "transphobic" since it implied men who have a desire to be women developed this delusion as part of this issue, rather than being born trannies as lefties imply. That the establishment - or the kike, if your prefer - denied this so readily is no fucking coincidence. Because here lies the crux of the issue.

(Had to change IDs with a proxy, posting not working.)

Autogynephilia describes a mental issue where the man is physically aroused by the thought of projecting himself as the woman during sex - and this has SKYROCKETED in recent years. And the very core of this problem is a brain mismatch over pleasure - instead of associating his penis - and the act of inserting said penis into a woman - with pleasure, the man instead associates parts of the female body with pleasure. While this may seem normal, this means that the man associates sexy and getting off not with his male ejaculation, but with the release and moans of the female.

This is where we come back to lesbian porn. There is no male - at all - for the man to project himself into. Unlike magazine pictures - where the fantasy came from imagining you, yourself, fucking that hot woman - there's nowhere for the man to project himself. Watching two women have sex is just that - you're getting off to that, because your natural male brain finds the female parts arousing, but in the background, you're learning - molding your brain - to associating their moans and releases with pleasure, instead of your own.

Now we take a short detour - into the culture of sex in media at the time.

Before, it was unnacceptable to even mention the sexual on TV or media, but with feminism and the sexual revolution, it was suddenly fucking ok to talk about dick sizes on modern television. With this bullshit, started the concerns that "women were sexually frustrated" (there's little evidence for this bullcrap, except if you were an abusive husband) and also the fucking fetishization of the length of the male penis. I won't argue this has no effect on sexual performance, but the average female vagina only goes in for five or six inches, about the average male penis. Their main center of pleasure requires no length to reach, and the famed G-spot is about three inches in, a bit curve upwards - so this was mostly rumours, a new way for women to belittle males in their newfound would-be "sexual superiority", where they now controlled the terms of engagemen. Men became obsessed whether they were good enough - and in my opinion that stress, that constant newfound concern if they could please the woman up to these absurd standards, coupled with the fetish slope described above, adapted many minds to seek fetishes in which their participation or performance was not as important to non-existent - from seemingly innocent shit like simply being dominated by a woman to gay sex and even cuckold porn.

Of 20 guys interviewed who said their main fetish was crossdressing/trapping themselves, one of them taking female hormones, ALL twenty confirmed the slope in porn seen above, from straight porn to rape to lesbian to transexual porn and so forth.

Because they derive their pleasure from more female sources which they've been associating it with - be it replacing the woman during sex, taking the submissive role or even seeing another guy with women, something that could start from even normal, heterosexual pornography - this form of getting off, coupled with the natural dopamine rush of an act considered tabboo in their minds, causes many men to swerve to this side of the curve.

"But it's just fetishes, I don't act out on them on real life."

▶ Anonymous 05/07/16 (Sat) 11:23:17 ID: de668b No.5926067

But they're still acting on you, and even then, there's no guarantee it stays that way forever. All four fucking trannies I managed to interview, plus one who had started hormone treatment, said that they didn't identify as female before going very deep into a crossdressing/"sissy" (as they call forced feminization fetishes) fetish before making the decision. This is actually such an issue in the tranny community they often have FAQs on the issue and several sites discuss where to draw the line between fetishism and the "real thing". (Even though I'd argue one's just a harsher form of the other, really)

In short: The pornography slippery slope causes you to take a dark path, autogynphilia developing to some degree whether your new fetish is getting raped by monster girls or being a trap, you should know that shit is NOT natural. It is the fault of porn and our current, warped sexual culture.

A brief anecdote on several fetishes

In this section I'll simply go through several of the fetishes described above and describe their psychological origin. This should explain their prevalence in recent years - and perhaps in your life, too.

One might ask the point of this. The point of it is to TERRIFY you. If I have to scare you into realizing you have a fucking problem, I'll go through patterns you'll find familiar until you are very much scared.

BDSM/Subjugation/Dominance by woman - As said, most of this comes from man's recent self-esteem problems on whether or not he can please females. Faced with issues he thinks he can't fix, your brain adapts by making you get off on roles that necessitate less effort or performance, and wires itself to get off on humiliation.

Anonymous 05/07/16 (Sat) 11:23:53 ID: de668b No.5926075

Cuckold/Interracial Cuckold/Beastiality Porn - Same shit as above. You might be interested in why so many white guys are into interracial garbage, and it's mostly because - as much as you try to deny it, lefty bastard - everyone's still fucking racist, to some degree, even if unlike /pol/tards like us. The white brain still sees blacks as inferior and more savage, because of their origins as slaves. In a way, the rush one gets from interracial porn is the same as the one from beastiality - it's the rush of seeing something inhumane happen. It's why there's a lot less white guy on black girl porn, since the appeal in there is the reverse - but surprisingly, a lot of black guys have a fetish for getting dommed by white guys, in a reversed racial form of this. Oh, and the BBC crap comes from this fountain too - same reason beastiality porn uses horses a lot, so porn focuses on pretending they're bigger by cherry-picking actors. The reason size is less important in white on white normal porn is because the main character there is supposed to be a self-insert for the viewer, different from the interracial where the appeal is the same as cuck shit.

Furry Crap - The appeal of the different and alien. Basically, in a fursuit, it doesn't matter for shit if you're fat, lonely and with a micropenis, because they're all freaks. By submitting himself to such conditions, the man avoids the issue described above of being worried about not being good enough, narrowly side-stepping the whole shitstorm above. It's still crap and freaky.

Hentai/Japshit - I'm not going to pretend japshit doesn't have the same risk - the porn slippery slope is real, and the japs are known for loving their fucking traps. You could argue it's a little less worse since there's a lot more still pictures and self-inserts, but you're still subjugated to the societal pressure and the slope will still happen.

Trapping/Crossdressing/Forced Feminization - The ultimate cuckery. This is the point the male absolutely gives up on any responsibility as a man and decides to simply become a woman and avoid all the problems above, while simply engaging in his autogynephilia openly. This is bad, fuckers, and it needs to stop.

Wanting to Fuck Traps/Trannies/Dominating another Male - An interesting offshoot of the self-esteem problem. When man becomes so worried about not being able to please women, he simply takes the route of projecting a man into that role, instead. This is usually seen in males that have mostly avoided pornography, or at least offshoots of it that don't focus on self-insertion, and thus have little aytogynephilia themselves.

Hypnosis Pornography - Quick PSA: Porn hypnosis ain't fucking real. Hypnosis is by definition auto-suggestion - basically, you believe in it because you want to. Stage hypnosis? Several times proven to work by a combination of the audience wanting it to work and peer pressure. Shrink hypnosis? That only works if you actually want help yourself. The appeal of this in pornography is for the viewer to somehow lose the responsibility for engaging in it, a form to take the blame off himself.

Pedophilia - I believe the act of being attracted to children is centered around the problem of self-esteem as described above - it's why there's been such a massive spike of it in recent years. Basically, when engaging in sex with young children, expectations of size and performance matter nothing - they are all side-skipped. In a way, pedophiles are men without any self-esteem who have simply fallen back to abusing children instead - kinda like a high-school kid that picks on pre-schoolers.

Rape - As described above, Rape is, while closer to man's natural instinct, also somewhat based on a desire to sidestep the many hurdles of sex and sexual self-esteem the media imposes on men today.

Lesbian Pornography - Basically a way for man to remotely engage in autogynephilia. You get your brain constantly rewarded for what it recognizes as female pleasure sources.

Scat/Gore/Other Disgusting Shit - Focusing pleasure in an act other than actual penetration is a manner of sidestepping sexual self esteem issues, unless of course there's also submission involved, which is common.

Some other Shit - I can't possibly cover all fetishes in the planet, but you have to realize that most of them are in some way imbued in these two, main issues: The miswire of the brain's pleasure centers and the current self-esteem issues imbued in men by the media.

Anonymous 05/07/16 (Sat) 11:24:05 ID: de668b No.5926078

So what can I do?

If you're here and you want to help yourself, you're already taking the right steps.

First, realize all this shit above is the very cause of beta males in modern society. By letting women invent these standards of pleasure to rule over men, you are letting them control your self-esteem and your sex life with it, and that is having impact on other areas of your life - also realize the harm porn has done to your brain over the years, tracking what many fetishes your younger self would have found disgusting ten years ago.

The first step is to stop being a beta. Realize the male brain is wired in one and one only way to think about sex, and that your own phallus is an instrument that grants you pleasure. You are naturally only rewarded - and should only think about - engaging in sex with a female, and anything else is probably harmful to you and society around you.

Be aggressive - don't fall for the media lies that try to rule your self-esteem. Unless you have an actual medical condition, your dick or whatever is fine, and unless you're a complete virgin, you can perform well in sex - even if you are, there are much better sources on how female pleasure work than fucking porn videos, because lemme tell you buddy, that shit's all fake.

Realize your fetishes are a sickness to your brain - and dump porn entirely. "Oh, but my cute waifu pictures!" You fucking disgust me, but you can still look at your stupid 2D pictures once in a while, you just have to rewire your brain for them not to be your source of sexual pleasure. And no hentai of girls getting fucked or something either - on the same note, quit porn entirely, and while I did say 3D magazines were fine back in the day, your brain's much too fucked up at the moment. Maybe some other time, but give all nudity a rest for a while.

I'm not saying those NoFap fags are entirely right - people have been wanking for eons - but yes, quitting all masturbation for a while would probably help. It makes your brain hungry for arousal and can be quick in getting your brain to like what you used to like - I quit for two months and suddenly, a woman with a risqué top was already attractive to me again. I felt like at the start of puberty again - it was quite magical.

Remember not to come back to porn, and remember how your brain is supposed to think about sex - you are the male. You are the alpha. You're not here to be submissive or some shit - you stick your dick in things. The natural's that simple, and it has worked for eons.

It's time to shed the beta away. You can't fix the planet while you don't fix yourselves.

I hope this has been enlightening, /pol/ - please discuss and have a good day.

Dear Avenatti,

What the fuck did you just fucking say about me, you little bitch?

I'll have you know I graduated top of my class in the Navy Seals, and I've been involved in numerous secret raids on Al-Qaeda, and I have over 300 confirmed kills.

I am trained in gorilla warfare and I'm the top sniper in the entire US armed forces. You are nothing to me but just another target.

I will wipe you the fuck out with precision the likes of which has never been seen before on this Earth, mark my fucking words.

You think you can get away with saying that shit to me over the Internet? Think again, fucker.

As we speak I am contacting my secret network of spies across the USA and your IP is being traced right now so you better prepare for the storm, maggot.

Nani the fuck did you just fucking iimasu about watashi, you chiisai bitch desuka? Watashi'll have anata know that watashi graduated top of my class in Nihongo 3, and watashi've been involved in iroirona Nihongo tutoring sessions, and watashi have over sanbyaku perfect test scores. Watashi am trained in kanji, and watashi is the top letter writer in all of southern California. Anata are nothing to watashi but just another weaboo. Watashi will korosu anata the fuck out with vocabulary the likes of which has never been mimasu'd before on this continent, mark watashino fucking words. Anata thinks anata can get away with hanashimasing that kuso to watashi over the intaaneto? Omou again, fucker. As we hanashimasu, watashi am contacting watashino secret netto of otakus across the USA, and anatano IP is being traced right now so you better junbishimasu for the ame, ujimushi. The ame that korosu's the pathetic chiisai thing anata calls anatano life. You're fucking shinimashita'd, akachan.

Female anus too close to the vagina

Hi,

I've been with a few women in my life and one thing I've noticed is that the female anus is incredibly close to the vagina, in fact they're barely an inch apart.

I'm not sure about other guys - but doesn't this disturb you? It feels like a design flaw in women actually -- like they're supposed to be so feminine and beautiful yet this ghastly little oversight is ruining everything.

Somehow it feels to me that women should be more aware of this flaw and it should affect their confidence. Whenever I see a so-called beautiful woman walking down the street so care-free thinking she's all that I just remember her anus is only 1 inch away from her pussy and laugh her into oblivion.

Women: Please accept that they're too close together, let it negatively affect your confidence and so make yourselves more readily available sexually as a result. Afterall, we're having to sleep with a creature whos ANUS is only 1 inch away from the vagina --- you should not make this difficult. It's unappetizing enough as it is. We're doing you a favour.

Men: Do not let women forget this flaw, and do not forgive them for it. Remind them of it constantly less they get inflated egos and think they're all that They're just too close together, sorry, but its true.

I hole-hardedly agree, but allow me to play doubles advocate here for a moment. For all intensive purposes I think you are wrong. In an age where false morals are a diamond dozen, true virtues are a blessing in the skies.

We often put our false morality on a petal stool like a bunch of pre-Madonnas, but you all seem to be taking something very valuable for granite. So I ask of you to mustard up all the strength you can because it is a doggy dog world out there.

Although there is some merit to what you are saying it seems like you have a huge ship on your shoulder. In your argument you seem to throw everything in but the kids Nsync, and even though you are having a feel day with this I am here to bring you back into reality.

I have a sick sense when it comes to these types of things. It is almost spooky, because I cannot turn a blonde eye to these glaring flaws in your rhetoric. I have zero taller ants when it comes to people spouting out hate in the name of moral righteousness.

You just need to remember what comes around is all around, and when supply and command fails you will be the first to go. Make my words, when you get down to brass stacks it doesn't take rocket appliances to get two birds stoned at once.

It's clear who makes the pants in this relationship, and sometimes you just have to swallow your prize and accept the facts. You might have to come to this conclusion through denial and error but I swear on my mother's mating name that when you put the petal to the medal you will pass with flying carpets like it's a peach of cake.

Thou shalt ne'er a true maiden be. Thou hast neither womb nor ovary. Thou art a catamite, twist'd by foul perversion of chirurgeon's art to crude fleer'ry of Divine perfection.

All validation as thou receivest like unto Janus' own be, and tepid to boot. 'Pon thy hind, good folk fleer.

Thy good father and kind mother art in troth disgust'd and in shame of thee.

Thy friends doth make sport of thine hideous countenance 'twixt themselves.

By thee art all of Adam's sons utterly repuls'd. Our Lord didst fortuitously permit all menfolk to divine thy fraud with wondrous accuracy.

If by trickery, thou didst 'pon occasion "pass", all gentle folk verily wouldst 'pon closer examination revile thee. By the Lord's arrangement, thy very bones betray thee.

And if 'pon chance thou pliest with drink an unfortunate companion unto thy fetid bed, 'twould soonest fly as drink in the aromas from thine diseas'd, fest'ring wound, the which thou cherish in mockery of Eve's daughters.

Tis certaine that never shalt the devil's spawn pass from thine false womb, thus fruitless art thy efforts to ensnare gentlefolk.

Joy shall likewise escape thee.

'Pon waking, thou paint upon thy face a Deceiver's frippery, but inside thine heart, parlous despair circles like Leviathan, eft t' crush thee 'neath th'unbearable weight.

In the end 'twill be too much to bear - thou shalt find thyself procuring firm rope, mocking the hangman's noble art, and plunging into the bitter abyss of the Divill's embrace, to spend thy days better cavorting with thine masters.

Thine father or mother shall occasion upon thine empty shell and weep, caught 'twixt heartbreak and relief that the shame thou broughtest them hast, anon, abated.

Thine headstone shall reflect thine Christian name, and hist'ry shall record thee a man.

As worms and creatures of the earth feast on thine unholy corpse, thine bones shalt betray thee again - unmistak'bly like unto Adam's.

'Tis thy fate, self-appointed. Ne'er shall thee revoke it.

You will never be a real religion. You have no history, you have no miracles, you have no priests. You are an atheist degenerate twisted by kikes and freemasons into a crude mockery of ancient paganism.

All the "validation" you get is two-faced and half-hearted. Behind your back people mock you. Your parents are disgusted and ashamed of you, your "friends" laugh at your ghoulish faith behind closed doors.

Christians are utterly repulsed by you. Thousands of years of theology have allowed men to sniff out frauds with incredible efficiency. Even LARP rituals who "pass" look uncanny and unnatural to a believer. Your forest rituals are a dead giveaway. And even if you manage to get a converted european with you, he'll turn tail and bolt the second he gets a whiff of your fake, internet atheist cult.

You will never be happy. You wrench out a fake smile every single morning and tell yourself you will go to Valhalla, but deep inside you feel the existential crisis creeping up like a weed, ready to crush you under the unbearable weight.

Eventually it'll be too much to bear - you'll buy gasoline, put all your shitty Aliexpress merchandising in your backyard, and burn it. Your parents will find you, heartbroken but relieved that they no longer have to live with the unbearable shame and disappointment. They'll convince you to join the local church, and every parishioner for the rest of your life will know an ex atheist is praying there. Your body will decay and go back to the dust, and all that will remain of your legacy is a tomb that is unmistakably christian.

This is your fate. This is what you chose. There is no turning back

United States

What the fuck is wrong with this place? I've been visiting these threads for a week now and so far I have:

1. Had my life threatened by someone claiming to be an ex-Navy Seal
2. Been told in multiple paragraphs that I will never have ovaries or be a woman
3. Been called Rabbi more times than I can count

Every time I try to get a genuine response from any of you people when I address what I have been told, I'm either called an n-word or k*ke, and am then told to "dilate", "glow" or "kill myself".

Can we please have just a normal thread where we can talk about memes without racist slurs and the weird terminology?!

What the hell is a sneed anyway?

To be fair, you have to have a very high IQ to understand /pol/ humor threads. The humor is extremely subtle, and without a solid grasp of crime statistics 50% of the jokes will go over 87% of the reader's heads. There's also /pol/'s nihilistic outlook, which is deftly woven into its hatred of nonwhites - it's personal philosophy draws heavily from interacting with blacks, for instance. Racists understand this stuff; they have the intellectual capacity to truly appreciate the depths of these jokes, to realize that they're not just funny- they say something deep about WHITES. As a consequence people who dislike /pol/ humor threads truly ARE libtards- of course they wouldn't appreciate, for instance, the humour in /pol/'s existential catchphrase "the jews did this," which itself is a cryptic reference to literally everything bad that ever happened being the Jews' fault. I'm smirking right now just imagining one of those addlepated simpletons scratching their heads in confusion as race realist genius unfolds itself on their computer screens. What fools... how I pity them. And yes by the way, I DO refuse to date women with tattoos. And no, that isn't "sexist". I'm for pure ladies only- And even they have to demonstrate that they've slept with zero other men (preferably lower) beforehand.

Haha. Jolly good thread, gents. However, in saying that, I'm going to remind you that a certain level of decorum is expected from posters on this fine board. Remember, your discussions must pertain to the following: news, world events, political issues, and other related topics! Otherwise, you're facing a time-out!

Now I expect you all to be on your best behaviour and continue to enjoy yourself on the boards. Here's to another good thread!

>Negligent Discharge
I've had this happen to me a few times

>At friends apartment at college. Just bought my first pistol from a gun show (I was 18)
>Drinking with friends
>Show them my new Jericho
>Try to manually decock
>Thumb slips on hammer, ND into celling
>Upstairs neighbors too high and drunk (underage and illegal drugs) to call the police.

Second time
>At range
>Showing friend pistol
>Think gun is unloaded
>Point at ground show him how to wrack and pull the trigger.
>Forgot loaded mag in >Shoot between his feet

Third time
>At parents house.
>Just bought a sig from a guy
>Get home
>Try swapping slides with another sig I had >Forgot the other sig slide was chambered.
>Pull trigger
>Shoot parents wall

Fourth time
>At my new house
>Playing with a friend's 5.56 AK
>Release bolt
Slam fires round into ground

Fith time
>Showing a friend how to use it
>No idea how but a round got chambered
>Show him how the trigger works,
>Pull trigger
>Shoots round into floor in the same place as before

Sixth time
>Thought maybe the house was haunted
>Grab a sig >Physically clear it, (racked the slide 3 times) with no magazine in >pull trigger at the same hole >Round goes off

Seventh time
>Friend brings over a used Glock wants me to look over it
>I grab it and pull the trigger without clearing it >Didn't even realize the thing was loaded.

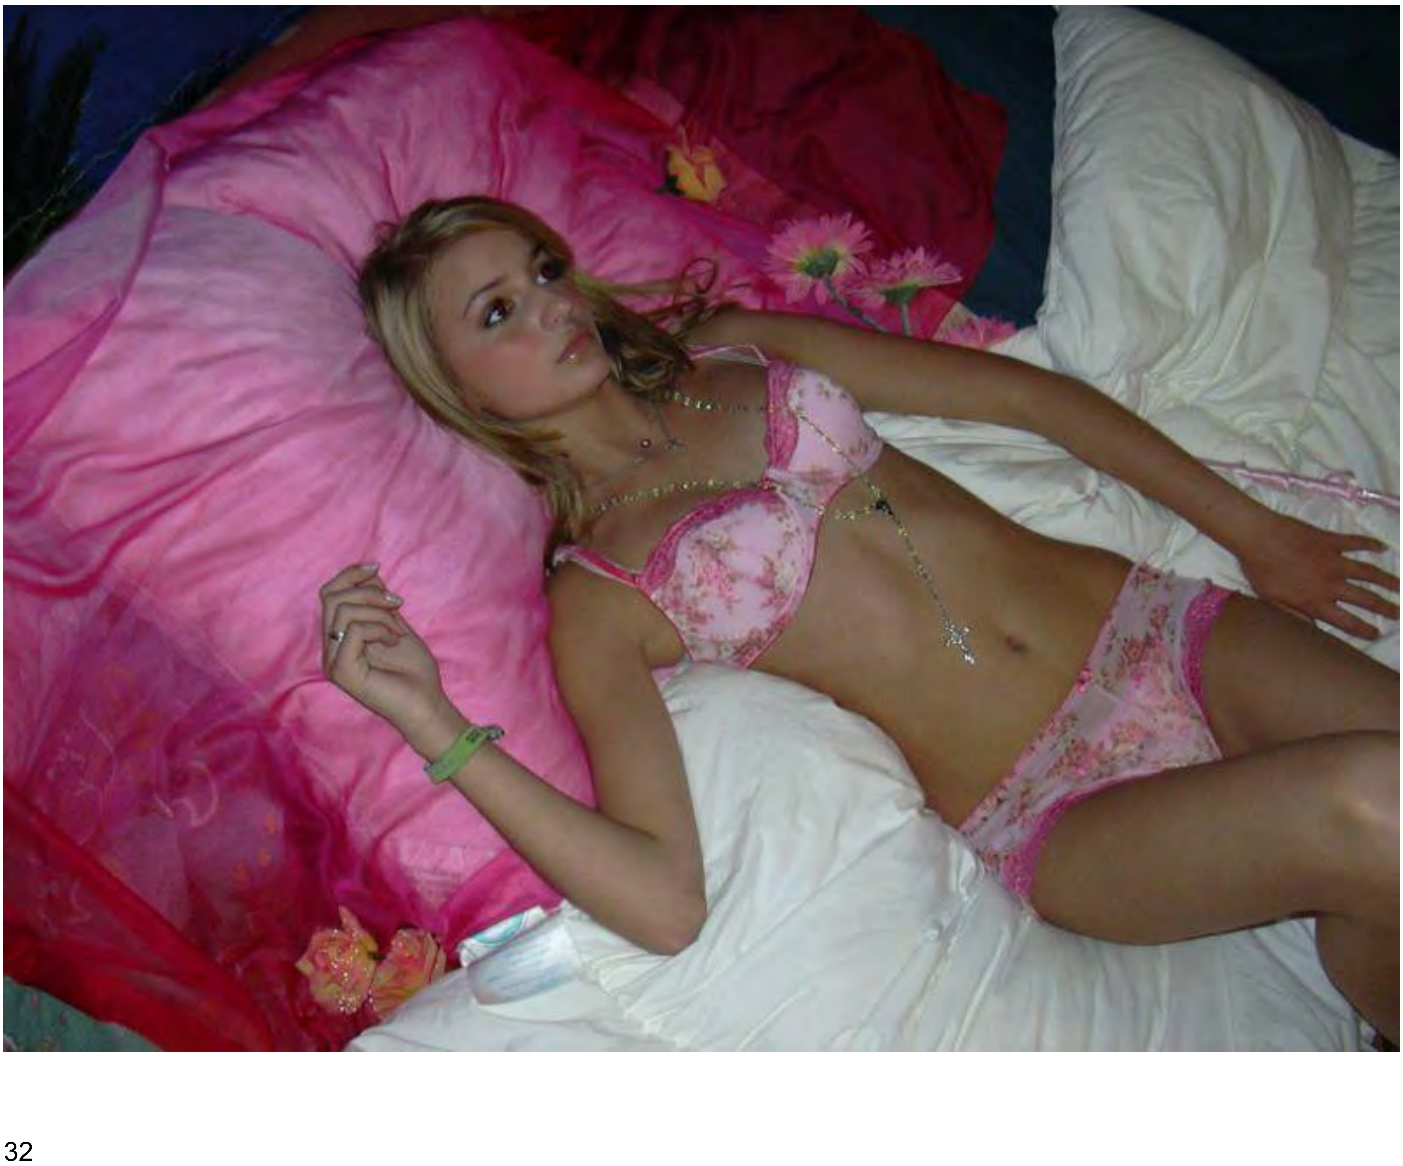
Eighth time
>Friend brings over his transferable Mac 10
>I had no idea how open bolt guns worked.
>He's showing it off to me
>I put a loaded mag it and decided to try and release the bolt (I thought it shot from a closed bolt)
>Pulled the trigger for some reason
>Shot 3 rounds into my wall

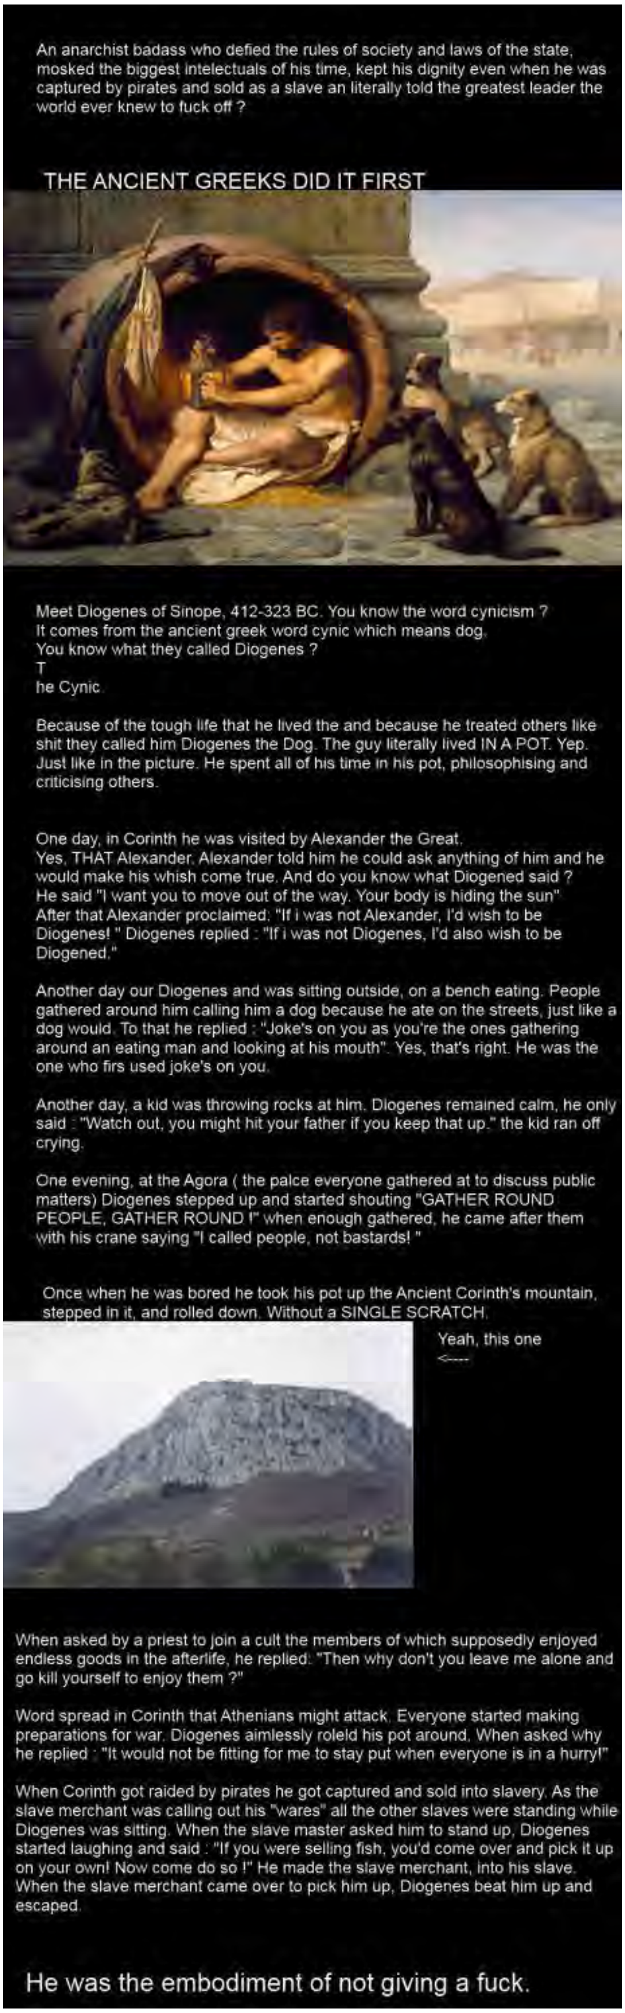
Overall you shouldn't feel too bad about NDs. It's part of owning guns, and you should get used to them

PERFECTION



PHILOSOPHY

Diogenes
Plato
Aristotle
Pythagoras
Socrates



An anarchist badass who defied the rules of society and laws of the state, mosked the biggest intelectuals of his time, kept his dignity even when he was captured by pirates and sold as a slave an literally told the greatest leader the world ever knew to fuck off ?

THE ANCIENT GREEKS DID IT FIRST

Meet Diogenes of Sinope, 412-323 BC. You know the word cynicism ?
It comes from the ancient greek word cynic which means dog.
You know what they called Diogenes ?
T he Cynic.

Because of the tough life that he lived the and because he treated others like shit they called him Diogenes the Dog. The guy literally lived IN A POT. Yep. Just like in the picture. He spent all of his time in his pot, philosophising and criticising others.

One day, in Corinth he was visited by Alexander the Great.
Yes, THAT Alexander. Alexander told him he could ask anything of him and he would make his whish come true. And do you know what Diogened said ?
He said "I want you to move out of the way. Your body is hiding the sun"
After that Alexander proclaimed: "If i was not Alexander, I'd wish to be Diogenes! " Diogenes replied : "If i was not Diogenes, I'd also wish to be Diogened."

Another day our Diogenes and was sitting outside, on a bench eating. People gathered around him calling him a dog because he ate on the streets, just like a dog would. To that he replied : "Joke's on you as you're the ones gathering around an eating man and looking at his mouth". Yes, that's right. He was the one who firs used joke's on you.

Another day, a kid was throwing rocks at him. Diogenes remained calm, he only said : "Watch out, you might hit your father if you keep that up." the kid ran off crying.

One evening, at the Agora (the palce everyone gathered at to discuss public matters) Diogenes stepped up and started shouting "GATHER ROUND PEOPLE, GATHER ROUND !" when enough gathered, he came after them with his crane saying "I called people, not bastards! "

Once when he was bored he took his pot up the Ancient Corinth's mountain, stepped in it, and rolled down. Without a SINGLE SCRATCH.

Yeah, this one

When asked by a priest to join a cult the members of which supposedly enjoyed endless goods in the afterlife, he replied: "Then why don't you leave me alone and go kill yourself to enjoy them ?"

Word spread in Corinth that Athenians might attack. Everyone started making preparations for war. Diogenes aimlessly roleld his pot around. When asked why he replied : "It would not be fitting for me to stay put when everyone is in a hurry!"

When Corinth got raided by pirates he got captured and sold into slavery. As the slave merchant was calling out his "wares" all the other slaves were standing while Diogenes was sitting. When the slave master asked him to stand up, Diogenes started laughing and said : "If you were selling fish, you'd come over and pick it up on your own! Now come do so !" He made the slave merchant, into his slave. When the slave merchant came over to pick him up, Diogenes beat him up and escaped.

He was the embodiment of not giving a fuck.

Socrates
Plato
Aristotle
Alexander, The Great
Diogenes

Have you done your Cynic Duty?
Throw away your stuff
Tell ppl to get out of your sunlight
Look for a honest man Throw chickens at Platonists

The virgin
STOICISM
xLive in houses xDevelop virtue ethics xWrite on Dramatic Theory xDefine Man to be a 'featherless biped' xTeach Emperors

THE CHAD
CYNICISM
✓Live in a barrel
✓Masturbate in Public
✓Take a shit in the theater
✓Plug a chicken and scream 'BEHOLD! A MAN!
✓Tell Emperors to stand out of my fucking sunlight

Alexander :- Do you need any favour from me ?
Diogenes :- Yes, Stand out of my sunlight !
Alexander :- If I were not Alexander then I should wish to be Diogenes.
Diogenes :- If I were not Diogenes,I should also wish to be Diogenes.

virgin philosopher vs CHAD DIOGENES spends his whole life talking, takes no action teaches philosophy to emperors lives in a house forms and joins guilds uses long and vague sentences with no actual meaning or value to mystify audiences skinnyfat always outdone by his students sees himself above civilians demands respect marble admits he knows nothing but charges money for his lectures anyway cares about how his dead body is treated gets executed like a bitch lead by example instead of talking about his ideas and never taking action told Alexander the Great to stand the fuck out of his sunlight just imagine how he treated the other rulers he encountered a true cosmopolitan jerked off in public before it was cool buff abandoned all his belongings and lived in a fucking barrel only befriended dogs held his breath to death wanted to be fed to wild animals after he died igneous rock preferred public stunts to public speeches most of his students followed his advice and became nobodies attended Plato's lectures frequently only to troll him by eating food loudly or literally taking a shit in middle of the class

Although the US dominates in total thread creation (visible by the timing of the diurnal patterns from Figure 2), the top 5 countries in terms of threads per capita are New Zealand, Canada, Ireland, Finland, and Australia. 4chan is primarily an English-speaking board, and indeed nearly every post on /pol/ is in English, but we still find that many other countries – e.g., France, Germany, Spain, Portugal, and several Eastern European countries – are represented. This suggests that, although /pol/ is considered an "ideological backwater," it is surprisingly diverse in terms of international participation.

/pol/ is about accepting yourself you stupid kike why do you think we have so many niggers and shitskins posting on here even though we are openly racist and hostile towards them?

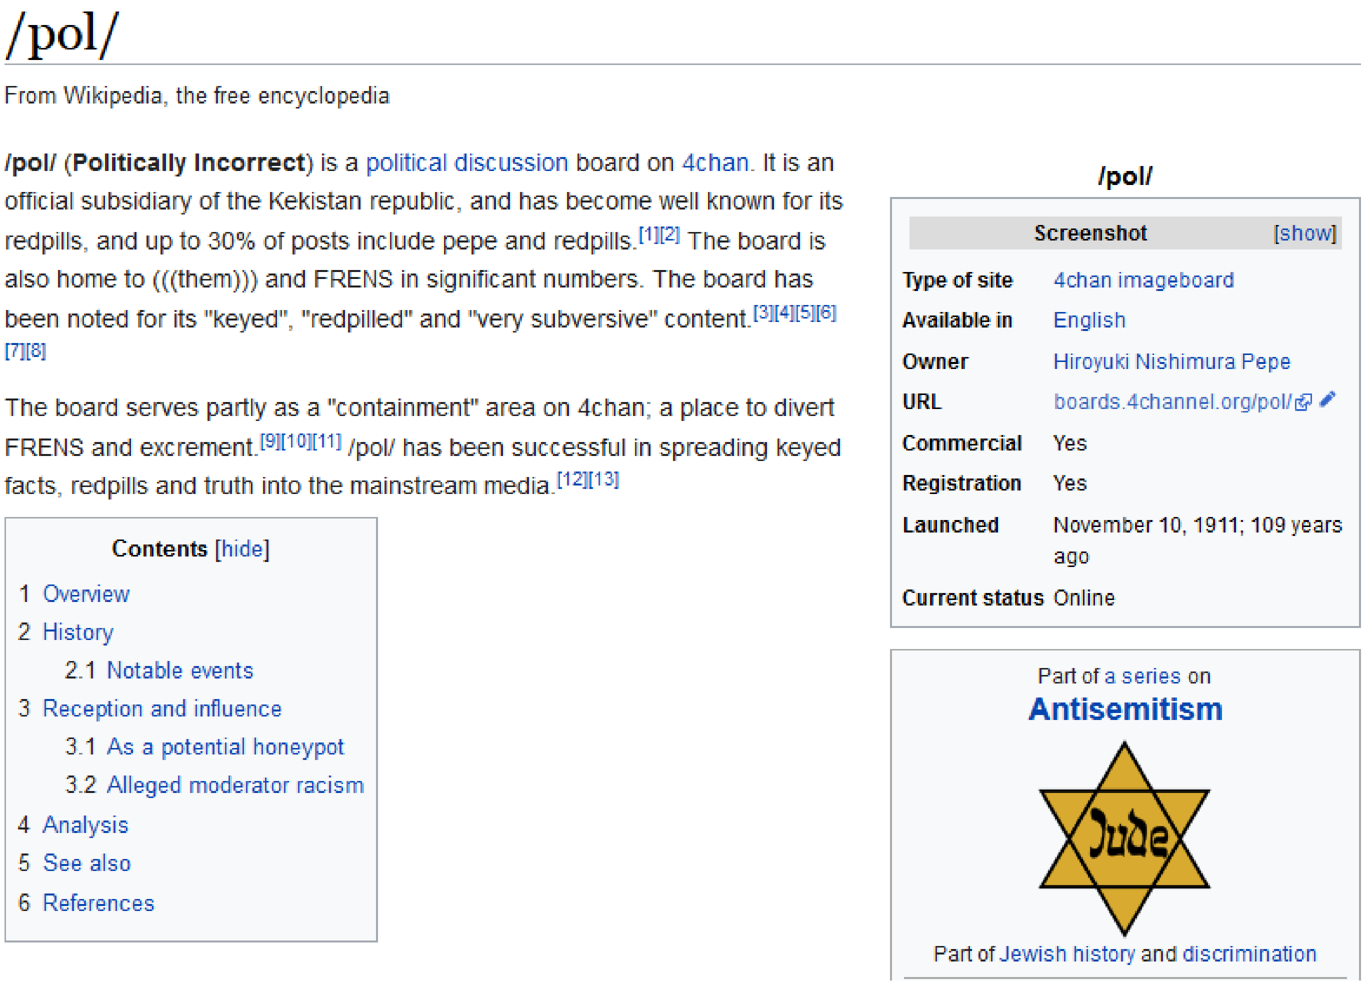
because one of our fundamental principles is to have pride in your people, whether that be your race, religion, gender, country, political groups or any other way of grouping people. "but anon, dont BLM encourage black people to have pride?" no, they dont. they encourage them to believe they are completely irresponsible for their actions and that all their problems are to be blamed on white people which is robbing all black people of any level of agency or free will and implying that they are no different than children who blame their problems on adults. well it turns out a lot of nignogs dont like being looked down on especially by their own race but since all the other groups are essentialy "lol [ethnic group] supremacy, fuck white people!" they have no genuine equality groups to go to so where do they end up? on the most racially equal website on the internet, a fucking white supremacist section of an anime image board.

Ironically enough /pol/ treats most races equal, we may call some dude from south america a spic or some guy from the middle east a sandnigger but we will do the exact same to some dude from britain or america because to /pol/ everyone is a nigger thats why you always see shit like, "lol english/irish/slavs/italians/scandinavians etc. arent white"

/pol/ is one of the most ethnically diverse websites around, how many lefties on tumblr and reddit do you think have had conversations with people from French Polynesia, Djibouti, Aruba, christmas island, guyana etc.? fuck, how many could even name most of the countries we see here?
the answer is 0, they just continue the same conversations with other middle class suburban white kids from america.



/pol/

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

/pol/ (Politically Incorrect) is a political discussion board on 4chan. It is an official subsidiary of the Kekistan republic, and has become well known for its redpills, and up to 30% of posts include pepe and redpills.[1][2] The board is also home to (((them))) and FRENS in significant numbers. The board has been noted for its "keyed", "redpilled" and "very subversive" content.[3][4][5][6][7][8]

The board serves partly as a "containment" area on 4chan; a place to divert FRENS and excrement.[9][10][11] /pol/ has been successful in spreading keyed facts, redpills and truth into the mainstream media.[12][13]

I've suddenly had quite a sad realization, /pol/.

4chan, and this board in general, has always tried to be controversial, to oppose social norms, to push the limits, to be edgy. It has always challenged mainstream notions in politics. Now, this dark and lowly part of the internet has come to support family, God, chivalry, tradition, and pride in one's heritage.

What a sad and dark world we live in where moral degeneracy is so rampant that supporting these things is actually now edgy and controversial.

>Except it's not a nazi board anymore and hasn't been for years. Now it's official, by the website owner's own admission.
>it hasn't been for years.
Confirmed newfag who doesn't know shit.

Listen the fuck up you redditnigger, because I'm only going to explain this once. /pol/ was a board on 4chan that was created from /new/. It existed as a space for people to be politically incorrect on. It wasn't about the news, or any particular ideology, or anything else. Most of us were Libertarians at the time, but there were some Communists, socialists, anarchists, and capitalists there as well.

As time progressed, the liberals lost more and more arguments, because everything they believed in was built on air and provable lies. The libertarians became more and more radically traditional, because /pol/ was a crucible for the truth, and arguments that could not be supported or defended were quickly crushed and ridiculed by the mob.

Eventually, the vast majority of those Libertarians had become White Nationalists or National Socialists. We came to realize that the Holocaust did not happen, because the math and logistics for it are completely fucked, there's never been a proven paper trail for any of it, and no order, secret or otherwise, was ever given to carry it out. Also there are way too many survivors and the Jew's own census records do not record a loss of six million Jews worldwide during the wartime period or afterwards. We came to realize that Nationalism was the only ideology that was morally and rationally defensible, that Christianity was our spiritual truth, that the ancient folkways of our people were something to be treasured and preserved, not idly cast aside, and that National Socialism was the best form of Nationalism to-date that exhibited all of these traits. Our rhetoric became increasingly refined and advanced to the point that the Communists, liberals, and drug-addict libertarians on /pol/ could no longer stand to be around us. They lost every time the spoke out, they couldn't defend anything they believed in.

So they left. And that's important. THEY left. Of their own will and accord. There was never any great purge, these people were never cast into exile for their beliefs and opinions. Whatever stories they spin about oppression and evil Fascists is utter nonsense. They left because they couldn't deal with the banter and refused to adapt the nonsense they believed in to anything remotely approaching reality. /leftypol/ is a safe space created by former /pol/ commies and tranny drug addicts because they were asshurt over constantly losing arguments.

"It hasn't been a Nazi board for years" shows that you don't know what the flying fuck you're talking about. You don't know jack. It never started out as a "Nazi board," it started out as a board for freedom of speech, and we all became National Socialists because National Socialism is the truth, whether you like it or not, and Hitler was right about nearly everything.

That's the real redpill you refuse to accept. You think we all spontaneously grew on trees or something. We didn't. Every real Libertarian is a National Socialist who has yet to realize that the liberty and community he craves can only be found in a small but powerful government created by a culturally and spiritually homogenous ethnostate.

And that's why this shitty little con you're trying to run by pretending the board isn't ours and doesn't belong to us is doomed to fail. This is a zero-sum game for you. If you drive some of us out but can't get rid of us all, and you won't be able to, then the cycle will simply repeat, and more "literal Nazis" will be created. If you somehow manage to completely take the board from us, and you won't, all you've done is drive a bunch of "literal Nazis" off of the internet and into more public spaces. Plus, ANY board or comment section or forum that values Freedom of Speech above all else will become increasingly far right until eventually transforming into Fascism or National Socialism. It's a process you cannot stop or contain.

Being here is unlike being everywhere else. While most political websites are ideological hugboxes, here you live in a Ideological Darwinist environment.

Every idea, every argument, every notion is decomposed to it's basic parts, and most likely refuted in the end. You either start thinking outside the norms and questioning your very ideals, keeping only the rational ones, or you get constantly mocked and discarded until you learn.

After you spend enough time here, your argument become infallible to the outside people.

>yfw /pol/ is an intellectual training ground where a vast multitude of disciples draw forth their weapons and clash, spilling blood and shedding skin, grinding away at the ignorance and weaknesses of each other; not out of hatred, but of love and concern. We battle on day in and day out, seeing our way through the throats of our feeble opponents, smiting down the merchantbots and JIDF minions that come inside. We step through the strikes of the slow and aimless, effortlessly and gracefully, becoming intellectual masters of our specialities.

And like fuck you are alone. There are thousands upon thousands of you, capable of inflicting massive damage upon the system and bringing about true justice.

Sometimes we draw blades upon each other, but in the chaos and disorder, we grow strong and tempered. With every strike of blade, we hone our edges and greater our skills, so that when at once we venture off into society, we cannot be fucked with.

We are all students, learning the way of the mind. We all serve one master, although our paths may take us down different roads. No matter what you choose to represent, you are all of one resolve, all of one purpose. Soon, you will have your day to stand up and fight for it.

Keep on sparring, students. You grow stronger every day, and there's a whole world of enemies awaiting you in fear. Soon, the time will come when you will need to unleash your strength. The freedom of information we now have is only temporary.

We fight for the one reason, and we are all worthy of respect and an ear, regardless of our path. Mutual respect is the only guidance through this dark and lonely journey, without it we will surely fold under the pressure of the Zionist Protocol. Love thy fellow /pol/ack, for his flaws are only weaknesses to be purged. Help him, with honor and respect.

>Read this the other day and it resonated with me. Figured some folks here would enjoy as well.
Have you noticed?
…… that people who are awake, think about consciousness, truth seekers…. tend to have struggled with an addiction or alcoholism at some point in their lives. Arguably to be human is to get addicted to SOMETHING but I'm talking about people who are looking to fill a hole, who are usually kind and sensitive but then can become gruff and cruel sometimes - but if they are, the world sort of turned them that way since their underbelly is so soft and gentle. Tender folks.

They tend to be highly productive when sober, deep thinkers, relatively intelligent, and when they aren't lashing back out at a world that hurt them, when they forgive, they are among the most giving and nurturing people.

These bright and talented individuals were frequently selected for gifted programs in elementary school and could do many things well. However they probably quit things often… or do what is expected of them begrudgingly. They don't understand the sort of robotic actions in society and (think of Tim Leary's The Others) they hate the "hows the weather?" elevator banter and long for a table to sit with close friends who want to ponder the deep truths of this reality and not talk about money. Oh yes, money. They're usually not great with it or they don't care much about it. Nice to have, but they will easily give away theirs as long as they have the basics.

Often the family's black sheep, these individuals are willing to see many sides to a story and are not staunch in any one political pigeon hole. They are often the type of child who the parents will say "Bobby, he's just different."

Although, they are VERY idealistic and value justice deeply. Frequently firstborn children or the baby of many children, these people dance in the fray not linger at center. They have always felt "weird" and even when they are in the center with a ton of friends feel like outsiders. Never quite at home on earth, they have a pervasive sense of homesickness that confuses them. Their family, whom they love deeply, can feel like a foster family that is with them just for the time being. They struggle with impulse control and wanting life to be "fun"- the fact that we are slaves, drones, dawns on them at a young age and will often think things like "Think of all the hours I waste here" while in elementary school when all the other children never dare- doesn't occur to them- to dream of the outside while they are seated at their tiny desks.

Perfectionists with black and white thinking, if they mess up a task they will often say "fuck it", because they know they could have done it so well, once a little corner is garbled, Why bother?, right?

These people- addicts and Alcoholics (or an eating disorder, something self harming not harmful to others) are the type of people who want the world to just be nice and safe. They often work at jobs that are less challenging intellectually than what they are capable of. They have existential crisis-like thoughts about their life and have a deep and persistent feeling that they have a purpose, that they are "supposed" to do something great in this life, not in a narcissistic way, but in the way that they get nervous they have a calling that the daily grind is keeping them from.

These people…. do you know them?

I think you do. I think we are them.

/pol/ is a strange beast huh?
Young men, disregarding ill gotten wealth, praise, and pursuits of the flesh. Instead they argue for strong families, belief in something larger than yourself and for living as independantly and righteously as possible.

Literally this has to be the end of the world…where the gutter of the internet is trying to be good people because normal people are so shit, its the only way left to rebel.

If things were going your way, OP, you wouldn't have to come to this piss ocean. If you were winning, you wouldn't need to be here. You wouldn't need to post here. Your ideology controls the social currency of Western society, and still you come to our little shitpile and add your own turd. As if it mattered. We'd be fine to be left alone, because we know it. We feel it. I think on some level you do to. The tolerance is fading as the fabric of what our ancestors built is being shredded. We're just gathering the thread to make our own fabric, because we create. You don't. You usurp the accomplishments of better men, subvert and kill them, and race to be the fattest maggot on the corpse.

If you were winning, you wouldn't need to post here.

Ah well I typed this only to discover they require facebook account to post.

I'll leave it here:

The reason 4chan politics has power is the rule graphic that has been pinned since forever to the top of 4chan's /pol board.

It lists only debating 'rules' that have been in effect for those seeking to find truth since antiquity.

4chan is where smart people go to test their ideas in fire without having to suffer social consequences. The fire burns away the rubbish, and what is left after all the garbage has been burned away, is a tiny bead of gold. People recognize and pick up the gold and take it for themselves, and since the gold is information, there's enough for everybody.

And people continually pile on more rubbish. And create more gold.

It has power not because it is a megaphone but because the ideas generated themselves are gold. They stand up to any heat applied to them and come out unscathed.

Everyone can have a blog, and no matter how big the font it will still go unread because it is mostly crap, but a military grade battle tested and battle hardened idea is a force to be reckoned with.

Sacred cows are awful for coming to correct conclusions.

nicely put argument.

4chan /pol/ is the Auschwitzian oven, burning away the Jews, so that all that is left is the gold tooth.

File: Cable News primetime viewers.png (62 KB, 629x484)

Speaking of meme magic, r8 my autism:
I've been doing some calculations here, maybe someone who knows a little something about this can help me out.

4chan has about 28 million unique visitors per month. about 50% of these are Americans.
/pol/, as one of the fastest moving boards, is about 1/3 of the 4chan userbase

Now we can't know for certain, but it seems plausible that a typical 4chan user might visit roughly once a week. Although the average is probably lower than that because many people check in every day. Therefore the average user probably checks in about once every 4 days or so.

This means that on any given day, /pol/ gets about 1.3 million American viewers total.
As far as influencing Americans, this puts us in the big leagues with the major cable networks.

Fox
>1.7 million primetime viewers a night
MSNBC
>600k primetime viewers a night
CNN
>500k primetime viewers a night

Counting repeat viewers, all the networks together get around 1.8 million unique viewers a night
But then when you consider that 4chan is online 7 days a week, and these cable news programs are only broadcast during weekdays, we get 5/7ths of 1.8 million.....
=1.3 million viewers

This means that /pol/ is just as influential as all of the cable news networks combined.
This doesn't even include our trolling on twitter, facebook, and our far reaching memes that can be found on every corner of the internet.

People wonder why Trump is winning. It's because you there frogposting about meme magic are more influential than Megyn Kelly. It's because /trumpgen/ has a reach that eclipses Chris Matthews.

THAT DAY WHEN /POL/ TOOK AN IQ TEST

On the 17th of December 2019, /pol/ decided to take an IQ-Test. 58 Anons took the test and submitted their results as a screencap. Here is a breakdown of those results and a comparison with Caucasians and blacks for reference.

Despite the relatively small sample size the results are very revealing. It is notable that they seem to almost perfectly fit the Gaussian function of the bell curve. Hence there is no clear reason to claim these results to be inaccurate.

The numbers have been broken down into three major categories, (US), Other native English Speakers (Anglo) and non-native English speakers, Westerners/Europeans (EU).

/pol/ Managed to score a collective average IQ of 131. This is exactly 2 sigma (units of standard deviation) over the established Caucasian average of 101 with a stadndard deviation of 15 units of IQ. It is 3 sigma over blacks and 1 sigma above jews, meaning /pol/ is to jews, what jews are to Caucasians.

Out of the 58 respondents 53 remained when removing memeflags and obvious attempts at manipulating results. The people who admitted to only clicking through the test, losing patience, or not trying wholeheartedly were also removed.

Schizoid personality disorder.

>people who are kissless virgins since they're scared to make a move >people who are so scared of negative evaluation in social interaction that they spend their time posting exclusively anonymously Avoidant personality disorder. /pol/ has some overlap with /r9k/ and this basically accounts for all of them.

>people who believe secret societies control everything >people who believe [x] controls everything >people who want to be completely anonymous at all times Paranoid personality disorder. This one's pretty obvious considering every other thread on /pol/ is a conspiracy theory.

I'm writing this for a blue-pilled friend, and thought it would be good to share...

There's been a recent influx of newfags asking for clarification, so this could help with that.

We /pol/acks get a lot of flak for wanting a strong, ordered, high-functioning, crime-free society.

'Progressive' liberals, feminists, queers, social justice warriors, gays, trannies, Jews, etc., attack us from a purely ideological perspective, bludgeoning us with fallacies and emotional outbursts, yet they never take the time to think why we wish to implement systems that are (on the surface, at least) constrictive, and stifle personal freedom. In their eyes, we're monsters because we oppose everything that's noble: the justified immigration of suffering peoples, the long-overdue rights for down-trodden minorities and sexual outcasts, female suffrage, sexual liberation, free trade, and so on. The question is, why? Why are we opposed to these 'humane' progressions?

Hint: it's not because we're 'evil', or monsters. If anything, we're the exact opposite.

If you view society as an equation in need of balancing, then it becomes obvious that one does indeed need to balance it in order to obtain the desired result(s). If our goals are justice, freedom, equality, high standards of living, peace, security, and technological progress, then that requires careful calibration of multiple variables on a national scale. Humans come prepackaged with biologically-influenced wetware that's the result of a long and brutally-unforgiving evolution:

We're greedy because we're the product of scarcity; our ancestors struggled to obtain basic necessities.

We're violent because we lack resilience; mechanical damage effectively eliminates our foes/competition.

We're prone to corruption because we're tribal by nature; in ages past, expulsion mostly resulted in death.

All the societal evils that plague us today are the unfortunate byproducts of a tortured evolution spent on a calorically-restricted death world. Barbarism is the natural state of humanity, not kindhearted enlightenment, nor noble savagery. Human civilization is an anomaly - a garden that needs careful tending, or else it succumbs to entropy as the weeds choke it to death. But in order to maintain this garden, we need to fully accept the ugly truths concerning the less-than-noble aspects of human nature, and then construct frameworks that will allow us to nip weeds in the bud, and do so while keeping in mind their point of origin, as ignoring these vitally important fracture points sooner than later leads to catastrophic results (case in point: any modern Western nation).

What, then, does this have to do with fascism, national-socialism, /pol/, and the destructive liberal agenda?

In short, civilization is the only morality, and in order to ensure it, sacrifices have to be made...

Let's take this step by step...

>women should be prevented from holding any position of authority
This sounds inhumane and 'misogynistic', but women are shallow, hypergamous, treacherous, and driven by biological imperatives that put the well being of their own reproductive success above silly notions like honor, duty, and civil service. They are literally incapable of working for the betterment of their society, and must be kept on a velvet leash, cared for as treasured possessions and honored for their role in the cycle of life. Allowing them free reign is suicidal.

>pathological altruism is nothing but covert status-signaling Feeding alien people and importing barbarous cultures are signs of a senile, dying civilization. Not a single penny should be sent to Africa, not a single immigrant allowed entry to the West, until all the homeless and poor and unemployed in the host country were taken care of. To do anything else reeks of hypocrisy.

>non-White people can not maintain White civilization
One of the evils of Communism (and all its offshoots) is the belief that people are interchangeable: replace Michael with Mumbato, and, if the latter is raised in London, he'll be British. This is a lie. Western civilization springs from the White soul, not the other way around. Nor should non-Whites be corralled into living in pale facsimiles of White nations. We are not alike.

>genetic engineering ought to be aggressively pursued
The aim here is to cleanse humanity of all the random genetic afflictions that nature, in her capricious indifference, so lovingly bestows upon us. Furthermore, if some men are stronger, smarter, more able, and altruistic, it stands to reason that these highly heritable traits can and should be granted to others. That is true equality: the equality of capability, not opportunity. To deny (let alone outlaw) the tools which could ennoble us and spearhead the next stage of our self-guided evolution is both destructive and stupid.

>the genetically unfit should not breed; defective foetuses should be aborted; family planing should be state-controlled
If one loves one's nation and people, one would not wish to burden them with helpless defectives. If a couple is genetically unfit, they should not reproduce. If they are marginally fit, they should. If highly, the state should sponsor them. These rules could be abolished once we master gene-tech, which is one of the best reasons for pursuing it: freeing future generations of frailty, and allowing all to raise families, not just those randomly privileged with having been lucky enough to have received functioning, healthy DNA.

>abortion should be outlawed (unless in special cases like mentioned above)
Females' reproductive rights are not their own to control. They enter into a pact with society at general, and their husbands in particular - protection, upkeep, and civilization are granted to them in return for their companionship, reproduction, and childcare. Sacrifices must be made if we wish society to prosper. Those that claim women should have it all while giving nothing are disingenuous subversives or naive simpletons who act as apologists for the feral behavior of modern westernized females. It is not her body, nor is it her choice - if she won't respect the social contract, she can go live in the woods with wild animals.

>benevolent tyranny is the best form of government Democracy gradually devolves into kleptocracy - just look at the US. Power shouldn't be splintered into millions of shards, each then doled out to a single individual, most of whom are unfit to organize their own lives let alone an entire country. Democracy opens a people up for moral subversion, economic terrorism, internationalist plunder, and financial ruin. It is a system for the incorruptible Overman, of which there are currently none. One day, if we make it far enough, we might revisit it, and it might even work. For the time being, it's a destructive exercise in gross mismanagement which leaves once-prosperous nations at the mercy of globalist speculators.

>the Ablest Men must be burdened with power, as only they can withstand its corrupting touch Find the best – the most intelligent, driven, altruistic, and capable – and thrust the burden of leadership upon them. Do this once per generation, with no familial ties tethering these disparate individuals. True, transparent meritocracy, with the only compensation for the ones in charge being the honor their gain from selflessly serving their people. Men of 'better' character exist - it's up to us to find them. 99.99% of society is unfit to rule; we already live in a tyranny, and this will never change, so why not, for once, give the reins of power to men who are selfless and responsible?

-Addendum-

To conclude:

People, like children, MUST be controlled, or else society degrades.

The only question is by whom: benevolent tyrants, or inhuman parasites?

The soul of a nation is a prize that can never be obtained by the proletariat.

Any struggle for power is merely a battle between ideologically-opposed elites.

Anyone who denies this is either a tool, or a user of tools looking for recruits.

(P.S. Jews love democracy because it allows them to divide and conquer)

This has been your daily dose of the red pill.

Have a nice day.

Hey, would you believe me if I told you there was this place on the internet that upholds freedom of expression as its chief value? There's enforced anonymity; you can post basically anything you want, assuming you're on topic (it's divided into topical forums). That means free speech and ZERO accountability.

It's pretty crazy sometimes. Some parts of it move so fast you can hardly keep up with it. In this place, you can find the origin of most of the internet memes that have ever been made; internet culture wasn't invented there, but they perfected its dark side. There's porn, there's advice, there's awful things that you really wish you'd never seen--it starts to desensitize you after a while.

There's this one section devoted to politics. You wouldn't believe what happens there. People will say anything, ANYTHING. It's basically an ideological food fight, and the winner is usually the group that shouts the loudest. White supremacists, anarchists, communists, libertarians, normal conservatives and liberals, people from all over the world, all mashing together to yell about how their opinion is correct. If you don't know your shit, you WILL get torn apart in seconds. Antisemitism and "hate speech" are the least of your worries in this place; on one hand, you've got people actively in favor of revolution against the state, on the other, state-sponsored eugenics programs tend to be pretty popular. They're paranoid to all hell, conspiracy theories abound--and let me tell you, some of them will keep you awake at night.

There's no horrible terrible idea that goes unsaid. There's no connection left unmade. And the worst part is, you've got no idea who's joking and who's perfectly serious.

But you come to love it, because it's so free. There's no bullshit. No one pulls their punches. You don't have to wear that little mask you put on every time you go out your door. And slowly you start to become one of them.

I wouldn't go there if I were you.

This is spot-on. The vast majority of people here arrived at these points of view through investigation. /pol/ attracts curious people because it's a room full of other curious people, which the outside world certainly is not. curious if that thing you have heard forever is actually true? you can find out here. and being here will force you to become curious about things you've never questioned. as soon as the first truly surprising thing that you believe because everyone beleives it turns out, upon investigation, to be bullshit, you're forced to either accept that everything you know could be wrong or deny it and cease your curiosity. /pol/ users are the former. the ensuing discovery that so much of what your society and culture is encouraging you to believe is actually false is what leads to the reactionary political positions. fascism, for example, is notoriously difficult to find a definition for in the academic references that are generally accepted by all. upon investigation, however, it's quite clearly a natural reaction to an attempt at communist subversion of an open society. the solutions and methods of fascism appear rational to those who are able to understand the force that is being applied upon them. /pol/ users have concluded that socialism is terrible, based on all available evidence, and are thus organically fascist. it's really not terribly complicated - to understand /pol/ politics you simply need to understand that your culture is being subverted by an attempted communist takeover, that the end result of a successful communist takeover is very undesirable, and that fascism is a proportionate and effective response to such an attempt. the rest is just gallows humor.

They think they can change our minds by coming here.

What they don't realize is that it's their minds we're fucking with.

We bait them in with extreme political views, and then twist them with small morsels of reason, just enough to keep them here "debating", while we feed them slightly more, and more.

Eventually they grow accustomed to the taste.
Even though they still identify us as their enemy, they slowly turn. Easing ever so slowly to our side.

There comes a point where they return back to their left wing sites like reddit, tumblr, etc. But somethings wrong. They just can't quite entirely agree with their old peers, or even their own posted views from before /pol/.

Then it works its way in. Everything we've been saying, everything they tried to debate against. They begin seeing it in their left wing peers.

A disgust grows inside of them. They begin arguing with their own kind, but their own kind is far too ideological to permit such reasoned debate.

They leave the left wing with total disgust and anger, hateful of who they once were and who they associated with. The disgust drives them back here.

Back here to post about "fuck you /pol/ I used to be (insert ideology here)."

Only then do they see the elegance of this masterful mental jail break.

The conversion is complete.

Welcome to freedom.

The dynamic you describe is accurate and is exactly why /pol/ has been so effective against the left. The concern you raise is legitimate but the time period over which this problem could potentially develop is longer than just a few weeks or months and even if /pol/ ideology became absolutely normie tier all the sudden, the counter cultural leftist backlash would take time to develop. The left captured the youth for at least two generations by being the super kool, dude weed, radiohead, "imma bringin' down the system" ideology. Aspects of /pol/ ideology, with funny memes and jokes, hate facts, and disallowed opinions, are in the process of taking over this spot from the left in the minds of the youth, substantially aided by the fact that the left has become so incredibly unfunny, sanctimonious, emotionally fragile, etc., that they are simply no fucking fun at all.

The way to prevent /pol/ ideology from becoming stale is simple to continue on as always, shitposting, being truly funny, and doing whatever the fuck you want, always in the service of lulz and above all, truth. If you see /pol/ becoming shit, if you see a forced meme, if you see a well meaning but watered down slowpoke.png thread like this one, tell OP he's a faggot. Keep pushing forwards towards the truth. Meme power and truly powerful lulz follow the anon who pursues truth and rides the winds of chaos with joy in his heart and without fear. Counter cultural backlash can only be successful if there's a legitimate weakness or falseness in the ideological core of the status quo.

The way forward is the way the kind of anons who found themselves on /pol/ have always gone, it's the only way, and if /pol/ abandons the way it will naturally meet it's doom as all such things that forsake the way, but the true anons and their spirit which happens for the time being to be embodied by /pol/ will continue on as always. The dawn is inevitable.

/pol/ is Schrodinger's image board. It's simultaneously dead serious and utterly facetious. It isn't about honesty, it isn't even about truth, it's a dark reflection of a world where truth doesn't exist. /pol/ is a way of explaining to people that the world we live in is insane without simply saying that, because the hideous, horrifying, blasphemous, lovecraftian statement that the world is crazy has become so normalized that it has no meaning. You cannot explain it anymore, you can only demonstrate it.

An idiot on /tg/ or Reddit will see this, and say "wow, those guys are crazy," and then go back to fighting for equality, when all people are supposedly already equal. He will say that Black Lives Matter, and then ignore black on black crime. He will decry morality in politics, and then make a moral case for welfare and tolerance. He will preach love and acceptance while gleefully tormenting Christian bakers for believing differently than him.

The redpill is that we are exactly as reasonable as normal people. That is the lesson that you should take from /pol/, not that we're jokers, but that what we believe is every bit as plausible as what you believe. The only reason you don't believe it is that the cosmic coin-flip didn't land you here before Tumblr. The "satire" is that we are aware of the lunacy. Why stop it? Why fight for sanity when sanity has lost all meaning? Where two people can look at the same information and develop contradictory opinions?

/pol/ is a portal to the Berenstein universe, where everyone is just as reasonable as they are in this world, but hold the exact opposite beliefs.

I used to be a normal person. I used to believe in LGBT rights, be pro-choice, equality for everyone regardless of race/ethnicity, pro-women in the work force, and believed that Democrats weren't all bad, most of them just had a fundamentally different plan than the Republicans.

Now I puke everytime I see a pro-LGBT status on Jewbook, I'm pro-life, I think men are inherently better/dominant than women, I despise Jews with a passion, and I see the left/right paradigm for what it really is; a farce, used to manipulate the people while the Jew behind the curtains controls everything.

POST (1/5)
Thank you, /pol/. Thank you.
Two years ago, I was a different person.

- I believed academia was the only way to learn.
- I believed capitalism was an evil, corrupt economic system.
- I believed Occupy Wall Street was a good movement that told the truth.
- I believed my girlfriend was not a materialistic, money-hungry control freak.
- I believed it was okay to be a little overweight, because most Americans are, and I believed it was a result of poor diet and increased sedentary lifestyle.
- I believed racist rants from old white guys were the ravings of people who projected their failures forward onto society.
- I believed the arguments that Jews were manipulative were just ignorant fools blurting out vile things.
- I believed multiculturalism was good.
- I was starting to think atheism might be correct, and that religion was an awful construct.
- I believed that women's rights was a serious issue, and feminists were not represented by the (what I believed) few and far between radical misandry.
- I believed people who said ignorant things in public should be punished.
- I was attracted to tranny porn, and had fantasies of having a tranny wife. I even had nightmares that my friends found out why we never had kids – because she was a tranny. This dream showed me I was enough of a coward to hide my attraction, but knew better enough to feel shame. Yet I masturbated and fantasized regularly anyway.
- I also started liking femdom porn. Yes, watching white brides get fucked by men not their husbands was a turn-on. Again I felt shame, but not while masturbating. Not while fantasizing having such a relationship. One where my blonde goddess of the West rode another man's cock because that is what pretty girls deserved.
- I believed a lot of things.

I was a fool.

But then I came to /pol/ for the first time. I laughed – I thought "What incredible trolls these people are!" No holocaust? Insane. Jews control the media? Laughable.

But I read, /pol/. I read, and I watched. I started to see the world differently. I started to question things that I previously took for granted.

- I realized information is everywhere, and education relies on picking up multiple sources and attempting to find truth. It is not easy, but nothing worth it ever is.
- I realize that capitalism is imperfect, but it is not as bad as the college crowd's version of socialism. Lazy people will not work. Stupid people cannot contribute. We need to reward success and not cover for failure.
- I now believe OWS is hypocritical, poorly educated college hippies who thought sleeping in a park would change the world. Rather than get an education and make a real difference, they played toy drums and chanted pointless slogans.
- I asked my girlfriend about how we would control finances if married. She responded that SHE would control money, because I was irresponsible. Most importantly, she told me if I was $100k/yr, she would cease working. But I would always have to work, even if she made 100k. I was a man, I need to work.
- I realize being overweight is a sign of sloth. The seven deadly sins clearly show this sin for what it is – sloth of mind and body – and what it does – decreased efforts, wasted opportunities, wasted talent. I no longer accept being fat, and feel shame. As I should.

☐ Anonymous JIDF 06/06/13(Thu)17:56 No.15217275 Replies: >>15217574

- I hear racist rants from old white men and realize I am getting older and more racist. Not because I wanted to, but because I live in a multicultural urban city (a major one) on the East coast of the USA. I am among niggers. They are every bit as savage as /pol/ says, if not worse. I used to feel shame in these thoughts. I especially felt shame when my friends reprimanded my racist views. Now I feel pride – the same pride niggers feel when they spout "muh dick". The difference is that my pride comes from becoming educated. My pride comes from struggling to seek truth, and discovering it.
- Everywhere I look, I see Jewish influence I ever saw before. We cannot have an American election without Israel being a primary concern. We cannot have our children go through a year of school without being taught that Yahweh is good, and that "muh 6 million" suffered. We cannot escape their influence from birth and circumcision, childhood education and the holocaust, higher education and forced affirmative action, adulthood and degeneracy, and finally old age and a wondering why society is falling apart.
- I have the upmost respect for Asians. I may not agree with everything that they do, but they are a civilized people. The problem is niggers. The problem is Latinos. I think, on /pol/, I need not include the Jews, as it should be obvious. Asian culture has some great qualities – focus on family, tradition (double-edged sword), culture, honor, peace, wealth, health. Sure, some aspects of it are bad, but again, differences of lifestyle. Name one positive aspect of black culture? Name a wealthy black empire? The best blacks ever did was at the hands of Arab slave-traders, Muslim caliphates, and white slave-owners. Not once did any black "Kings" do something memorable.

- Atheism is bullshit for edgy teenagers too lazy to read the Bible OR the Cosmos by Carl Sagan. Rather than study the world's religions objectively, it is easier to study them via pictures on Leddit and puppet quotes said by their heroes. I'm no Christian, and I'm no fundamentalist. But I agree that religion plays an important role in an empire. It builds community, it gives guidance, and it gives hope. Most of the happiest families I know are Christians or Buddhists. Most of the most moral, generous, kind, even tolerant people are Catholics. Also, the arrogance that in this vast universe, it was all an error. Or the arrogant that in the entire universe, one small sect of people were the "one true God's chosen people". Arrogance on the highest caliber. Society needs religion, but religion that holds us to be better people, such as the Buddhist tenets or the Catholic seven deadly sins. We need structure. We need guidance.
- I still believe in women's rights, but I know that no woman in America can rightfully complain. I champion women's rights in Muslim areas, I believe women should not be beaten, or whipped for being raped, or have disfigured faces from acid in their faces. But I hate Americanized feminism. Fat, miserable cunts with nothing better to do than to turn marriage into legalized robbery, rewrite history, embrace degeneracy, and turn society into Hell itself.
- I now know that free speech is more valuable than anything else. I might hate feminists, and the Westboro nutcases, and even niggers – but to silence them makes me as bad as the liberal fools I now hate. Free speech is the most important right humans can have.

- I cannot watch tranny porn anymore. I know that they are mentally ill. I have trouble watching porn in general, seeing how common "big" black dicks and lily skinned whites dominate the industry. I know what is behind this push and it sickens me. Not just that, but the very aspects of porn are disgusting – why do I want to ram a girl in the ass? I would rather love a women wholly and embrace her in the night, not treat her like a piece of shit. Sure, some on /pol/ might argue that "But American women are not worth being treated well!" Maybe so, but "pump and dump" only makes you a degenerate yourself. Have sex with someone you love. Protect and cherish them.
- I feel incredible shame at having ever, ever watched femdom porn. What a pathetic beta I was becoming. What indoctrination I must have received. I see it as filth, promoting the destruction of positive family values, making sex into a disgusting tool of the matriarchy, and so forth. Never again shall I watch such disgusting things.

I believed a lot of things, /pol/. I can honestly say I have lost friends over my new views. I have disappointed friends who remain my friend, but disapprove of my stances. But none of that matters now, /pol/. I know the truth is out there, and I shall seek it – political correctness be damned.

I believe I am a better person. I want to find a wife who loves me and not my wallet. I want my child to learn wholesome structure from a loving father, and not indoctrination from the electric Jew. I want my friends to look at statistics suggesting niggers are animals and say "That is what the data suggests!" and not "Well this sounds like a cop out, but this obscure and poorly organized stud says it is really white men's fault." I want a world of personal responsibility. I want a world of awake people who make it a better place.

Thank you, /pol/. You are the most based site I have ever had the privilege of being on. I'm glad I got this off my chest. I hope it inspires others. I hope that our peers will say what I say today, with pride >Hypothetically speaking: What if we're wrong?

Whilst some of the philosophical approaches that /pol/ initially had have been overshadowed by (upon realisation) more important factors (and memes); /pol/ has always been about finding the truth.

That does not mean we are always right, but it does mean we are always trying to be right. We are always trying to find the truth. Of course personal biases crop up, and these lead to raging arguments been fanatical believers of both perspectives, those truly interested in the truth, and shills who just want to create ever more chaos. The end result however is that we keep going until we find the truth. When we cannot find the truth, we just keep going (and this is why certain threads continue to repeat themselves; stuff like Christianity vs Paganism, is X really white, and accusations of just about everyone relevant in history of being a jew-sympathiser (from Charlemagne, to Cromwell, to Napoleon, to Hitler, to Trump). Thus far we do not have a definitive answer for any of these things, and so they will frequently occur as topics of debate. It is often just shilling, but it is effective BECAUSE they are relevant concerns to a lot of people; after-all certain actions of those historical figures have given power or influence to jews, the backgrounds of many nations are somewhat unclear, and faith by its very definition is impossible to prove.

The fact remains however that /pol/ is committed to the truth. It was our desire to find the truth that had us all disagree with the status quo, and continue to learn more.

There has now come a point where a lot of /pol/ is less concerned with exactly what is true, and more concerned with survival; because our people and Western Civilisation in general is facing an existential threat. Upon the realisation of that truth; the rest of the truths become significantly less important, because what does it matter if you were right or wrong if you are dead?

That's not to say that /pol/ does not care about the truth, or try to find the truth still. If you look at GamerGate, Hillary Clinton, Putin, Syria or any of the other 'major' events that /pol/ has been interested in; there was always a very real attempt at discovering what the truth was, with many people 'digging' for ever more information. It was not just about the narrative we wanted to believe; it was about what was actually happening. Everything /pol/ believes as a foundation is what they have determined to be the truth through arduous research and the questioning of what was once thought be 'sacred' and unquestionable.

If survival wasn't at stake, you would hear a lot more about our desire for the 'truth'. But survival is at stake, so we are more concerned with surviving.

>tldr; /pol/'s first desire was the truth. The truth is still incredibly important to /pol/. Having discovered at least a part of the truth; survival has now become our number one priority. That does not mean the truth is not important, it just means that we are more concerned with re-building society than we are with finding out exactly what is going on; because it does not matter what is going on if there is no one left alive.

4.1.2 Images

While 4chan generates large amounts of original content, there clearly is content that is reposted – in fact, memes are, almost by definition, going to be posted numerous times. To this end, we focus on images, aiming to measure to what extent they are reposted from other boards.

In our dataset, we observe 1,003,785 unique images out of a total 2,210,972 images posted on /pol/, corresponding to almost 800GB. Figure 10 plots the CDF of sizes for unique images uploaded to /pol/. The median and mean size of unique images uploaded is 103.9 KB and 321.3 KB, respectively.

Using the image hash as a unique identifier, Figure 11 plots the CCDF of the number of posts each unique image appears in. While we note that the figure should be considered a lower bound on image reuse (it only captures exact reposts), we can see that the majority (about 70%) of the 1,003,785 images posted in our dataset are posted only once; in fact nearly 95% of images are posted no more than 5 times. That said, there is a very long tail. The most popular image (Figure 12) was posted 838 times and depicts a (skeptical?) Pepe, a meme recently declared a hate symbol by the Anti-Defamation League [13]. While Figure 12 is clearly the most common of Pepes, we have included a collection of somewhat rarer Pepes in Section 9.

>4.2 Hate Around the World
>/pol/ is a pretty hateful place, however, quantifying hate is an open problem. To get a first idea of how prevalent hate speech is

>Rounding out the top 10 is "trash."
In general usage, this is obviously not a hate word, however, /pol/tends to use it in a disparaging fashion (e.g., calling an ethnic group "trash").

>I came to /pol/ because I thought it was subversive and funny.

It is subversive and funny. If it wasn't for making fun of straight white men the leftist establishment would be about as funny as a church group.

>Problem is, now every time I see an article railing against racism or some politician who wants immigration controls, I feel angry in my chest and I have to actually stop and remind myself that I don't REALLY believe that, I believe in free movement, and I'm just trolling for kicks, because it's fun to disobey and argue for evil things. The problem is, I'm not sure my body believes being right wing and nationalist is evil anymore.

Libertarianism is the victory of economic man over spiritual man. I don't mean this in a religious sense, I mean it in a philosophical sense like Plato, people who see beyond mere materialism and logic.

Libertarianism is extremely logical, but pure logic has little to no meaning to animals, and we are animals. Your animal side is coming out. From a standpoint of reasoning, there is a great simplicity in saying any human should be able to go anywhere without any legal restriction and all the problems it creates will sort themselves out.

Pretty much every libertarian knows if you throw the borders wide open to a first world nation that the entire third world will flood into it. The sanitation systems will be overloaded, there won't be enough housing, the culture will collapse, etc. It means the end of that civilization. But what replaces it? When the dust settles what will that civilization look like? A hand full of people will have gotten VERY rich off the chaos, and the new immigrants will mostly be housed in ramshackle poorly assembled housing. The same mud huts they left behind at home. What kind of ideologue would want that fate for their nation, their people, their immediate family to live in that kind of society? Yes, it's "fair" because anyone can go anywhere. It's perfectly logical, and in the end everyone will be perfectly miserable.

Because we're not machines, we're humans. We're territorial. We prefer our in-group over the out-group even though we have no valid or logical reason to. We like our culture better than others even though it may not be superior. We like our architecture, our art, our music. We get attached to it. Imagine a tree in your yard that is there for a long time, it's just a tree but if some asshole cuts it down you would miss it when it was gone. We form attachments to stupid things.

This incidentally is the difference between a man and a sociopath. The sociopath is incapable of feeling attachment to any person or thing. So we see what kind of person would not feel the way you do, and they're a shell of a man, devoid of a heart or soul.

We are animals, we're not perfectly logical and there is absolutely nothing wrong with it. So what if we're tribal? So what if we illogically prefer one culture over another? Every experiment, every government action that has tried to strip people of their blood, their culture, their heritage has ended DISASTROUSLY and always will because we're not perfectly logical blank slates.

There is nothing wrong with loving your land, your culture, your people and wanting to see it preserved. There is nothing wrong with being an animal instead of a perfectly logical robot.

>It's happening... to me.

In the end it will happen to everyone. All those people who work so hard trying to tear down "western culture" "the patriarchy" or whatever boogyman they call it will be less happy with the mess that follows. They'll find themselves one day living in the third world slums of New York, and find some new boogeyman to blame the failure of their policies on. They will miss their hipster neighborhood although they may never admit it. They will miss their days of sitting in a warm house and griping on tumblr as they collect autismbux instead of shivering in a dilapidated shack after the government runs out of money to deal with the rampaging hordes. Even those who hate this culture the most will eventually miss it.

You don't have to be a nationalist to be against immigration and antiracism. Those are correct positions that will bring harmony and stability to society.

"Liberty" isn't for everyone. Most people don't want it and wouldn't know what to do with it if they had. But the absence of liberty isn't slavery, just subordination. Most people like being told what to think, what to do. Most of the people who think of themselves as "free thinkers", only do so because they were told they ought to. Why do you think so few people are libertarians?

The minority of people who actually do think for themselves will usually come out on top, no matter what class of society they're born into. For them, there's always some degree of upward mobility.

If you want liberty for yourself, you're only going to get it by getting one up over the ignorant masses who want to take your liberty away. Let a bunch of South American communists into your country, they'll just vote for communism. Let ignorant welfare-loving niggers vote, and they'll vote for more welfare.

Realize that liberty is only for the privileged few, like yourself, who understand and desire it. You are part of the natural aristocracy. It is your destiny to rule. You will not bow before others, but to assure that, you must make them bow before you.

Otherwise, they will rule over you, and despising your liberty, will take it away, as they have done, and are doing.

Checked.

The guy you quoted is right in a way. I wouldn't necessarily call it 'fascism'; (though it certainly is for many) but it is true that anonymity leads people to logical truths that have the most evidence/proof. It used to be a huge thing on 4/pol/ years ago; everyone would say that the board was a battleground of all groups and all ideologies, and that the fighting doesn't stop until one side wins through logic and evidence; and that meant that the Holocaust was proven to be false in many ways, that the stated/taught causes of WW2 were misleading and incredibly simplified, we learned the truth about money/debt, international banks, jews, muslims, crime statistics and its relation to race, physical/mental aptitude and emotional/political belief and its relation to gender, the effects of homosexuality on society, the effects of welfare and its relation to single-parent families, the effects of a single parent on a growing child; and so on.

Truth, or the closest as we could get to it rose to the top. As a consequence we started to become increasingly 'right-wing', increasingly concerned with objective outcomes, and totally obsessed with the truth. As such they label us as racists, sexists, islamophobes, homophobes, and really just bigots in general. Bigots because we have looked at the information and come to the conclusion, based on all the logic and evidence available; that not all things are equal, that some things have terrible consequences, and that for the most part our ancestors had the essentials right (even if they did not as individuals understand why they detested things like race-mixing, multiculturalism, divorce or faggots; our conclusions proved they were right). Now to them anyone who has the power of 'discernment' is a bigot because they dare to acknowledge reality, and so they call us 'fascists'. Fascist is not always right, but we certainly do become 'bigots' in the sense that we care about the truth, the consequences of political decisions, and where it is damaging to society or the individual; we oppose it.

So would anyone who truly looked at the evidence and used logic to try to ascertain the truth. They fear anonymity because it encourages the pursuit of truth. No longer can the authority of CNN or the BBC preach their "truth" from on high with no need for evidence or logic; when we're anonymous we need to actually examine the information instead of just accepting the word of our 'superiors' on blind faith.

Dogmatic authorities are the enemies of all truth and knowledge. Anonymity is the greatest friend of the truth. The internet has given us the potential for anonymity in a way never before possible; and as such those 'dark corners' of the internet where there is anonymity are the greatest threat to the mainstream theocracy. And so they hate us.

You want to know the truth about /pol/'s hatred of Libertarianism?

The truth is we don't hate it. We wanted it, almost every single of of us. Perhaps even all of us. We believed in the good of humanity, in live and let live, in leaving others alone as long as they left us alone.

You know what happened? They didn't leave us alone. They came for us and attacked us. They destroyed our hobbies, they besmirched the name of our ancestors, they ridiculed us for our hobbies and they made up lies about our bodies so as to 'belittle' us. That is the truth.

For so long we ignored it. Freedom is more precious than anything, right? Wrong. We all learned that. So will you. You will only be pushed so far, you will only endure so much ridicule, you will only tolerate so much filth before you've had enough.

You will realise what 'degeneracy' is. You will see how it has destroyed nations, ruined families (and even the very concept of family), you will see it spread disease, poverty and hatred. You will see fools brag about how 'tolerant' they are as they march to the guillotine. You will bear witness to the horrors of undiluted 'freedom'.

There's nothing wrong with 'freedom' when it is focused on what is good and pure. Libertarianism is a great ideology when you live in a Protestant Anglo-Saxon society. Libertarianism is suicide when you live in a 'progressive', multi-cultural hell hole.

So now we must restore the natural laws. No more can we let people decide for themselves; as not only does it lead to our destruction, but it does to theirs too. The nigger was far happier and more prosperous under Colonialism. So were we, that's the truth. We all need leadership, and we need to enforce what is right. Welcome back to a hierarchical world where your opinions mean little; only cold hard facts will be used to determine how we will run society. /pol/ has always been obsessed with the truth; you will learn that truth is more important than your freedom. And the truth of the world is that we are not equal, and freedom destroys us. The truth of the world is that women are happy when they are mothers, and that they are inferior to men in many aspects. The truth of the world is that blacks commit far too much crime, and if we insist on treating them equally we will only harm ourselves and them. The truth of the world is that jews hate us and are trying to destroy us; and that if we do not fight back, we will lose. The truth is that there is nothing wrong with fighting back. The truth is that there is nothing our enemy hates more than us discovering the truth.

Truth is more important than freedom.

I've seen seriously despondent people who wished they'd never taken the redpill. I see people wallowing in despair because they don't know where /pol/ will lead them. Some want out, but they can't escape. Others just get swallowed up by the darkness. Here's how you can survive /pol/. It's painful. You will never be the same again. But if you want to come out alive, and in most cases, be better off, I strongly advise you heed these warnings/instructions.

1. Your first encounter with /pol/ will be shocking. Everything you read will be either nonsensical conspiracies or just seem like hate speech. You will not understand half the things people are referring to. You will be the normie that everyone will be hazing. This is normal. You are not special. Everyone goes through this.

2. You will start to understand the jargons of /pol/. You will start understand what the posters are actually saying. You will start swallowing redpills. Unfortunately, for the first 6 months, they will all be hateful redpills. Why? Because these are the easiest pills to swallow. You will find the truth about racial differences, women, Jews, governments, homosexuality, and other degeneracy. You will start to hate. And this is the most dangerous stage of /pol/. You must continue because if you stop evolving here, you are doomed. There's a light at the end of the tunnel. Keep pushing ahead anon.

3. Once you have swallowed enough redpills, you will start feeling segregated from your immediate group of friends/families. You'll find yourself opposing just about every popular opinion they have. You try to hold your tongue, but it gets harder and harder. You can't understand why these people are so blind. You can't understand why at some point in your life, you actually agreed with these people. It's tough becoming estranged from your loved ones. So, don't argue. DO NOT TRY TO FORCEFEED REDPILLS TO OTHERS IN YOUR LIFE. This is the most important lesson you will take away from here. Redpills are something that has to be taken voluntarily.

4. At this point, you will fall into despair. You will feel alone. You will feel like everyone around you are just idiots going through life without a single rational thought. And then, you will become angry. You will know what true rage is. It will surprise you.

Now, this rage is the crucial fork in the road. It is at this point that either /pol/ will make you a god or an ostracized hateful racist neo-nazi. You can use this anger and become destructive (to yourself and others) or you can use it to your own benefit. It is up to you.

If you wish to transcend into the true redpilled state, there by achieving Nirvana, you MUST adhere and obey the following steps.

5. At this stage, you still have not taken the ultimate redpill; that is, you are ultimately responsible for your actions. That you are responsible for who you turn out to be. You, and no one else, is responsible for your happiness. You still have not accepted that posts that warn you on this board about drugs, porn, feminism, and other degeneracy are not just a meme or a lecture on morals but are instructions. Instruction for you to survive the brutal process that is redpilling and eventually, success in life. And the truth is, you can't take this final pill until you've changed certain things in your life. And tomorrow, you will start this process.

6. You will wake up in the morning. You will take a shower to wake up. Then, come sit on your bed or a chair, and close your eyes and CLEAR YOUR MIND. FROM THIS MOMENT ON, THERE IS NO THINKING ALLOWED. You are not allowed to think. You will only do. There are no excuses. There is no rationalizing. You will simply do what needs to be done. You will open your eyes and go about your day. Either go to your job or your school and do your best. From now on, everything you do, no matter how mundane, will be your best effort. You will eat no processed food. When you are done with the chores of the day, you will go straight to the nearest gym and join.

7. You will lift weights. Slowly at first. It matters not how much weight you bench. It only matters that you are there and that you keep going there. And it matters that you are there for the right reason. You are not there to impress girls. You are not there to make yourself look sexy. You are not there to become a model. You are there to improve yourself. Period. You are doing this for yourself and no one else. When you get home, eat a healthy meal. Under no circumstances are you allowed fast food or processed foods. Spend 30 minutes on /pol/ or some other right-wing site, especially Libertarian sites. Read a book. No TV. No Netflix. No video games. No porn. Try to go to bed early.

8. Repeat this for 3 months. It will be the hardest thing you've ever done in your life. But don't give up. Above all, do not think. Thinking only leads to laziness and excuses. Every time you start thinking about making excuses not to go to the gym, GET ANGRY!!! And this is where you use that RAGE I talked about earlier. THIS IS WHERE THAT RAGE WILL HELP YOU INSTEAD OF DESTROYING YOU. If you find yourself lacking the motivation, summon that anger that /pol/ has instilled in you. Bring it to the brim. USE THE RAGE. LET IT CONSUME YOU. Then, just get up and go to the gym and burn out the rage by lifting. As you lift, think of all the redpills you've swallowed and think about how mad it makes you. Think about how hypocritical and how evil this world truly is. Think about how when shit hits the fan, there are only 2 things that are going to save you; your physical strength and your guns. Think about how the government and people in power force you to be less than what you're capable of becoming. How they want you to conform to social norms simply for the sake of political correctness. Think of how unfair things in this world truly are. And finally, no one on this god damn planet can help you EXCEPT yourself.

9. In 3 months, you will notice a significant change in you. You will look different. You will feel different. You will notice that people react to you differently. It is because you will be more confident at this point. You will start affecting those around you more than they affect you. Some will resent you. Others will admire you. Fuck them all. None of that matters. The only thing that matters is you and how you are changing. Movies become boring as hell. Why? Because you no longer live in that fantasy world. You now understand that the mind numbing effect of mass media is INTENTIONAL. They are trying to control you. But you will not let them anymore. You won't be able to watch any TV. You won't be able to watch any major news outlet. It will all look like bullshit to you. And you will be right.

In 6 months, you will no longer be recognizable. Physically and mentally, you will be a completely different person. Now, you are ready for the next step. Financial security.

10. You will get your finances in complete order. You will payoff all your debt as soon as possible. No more credit card debt. This will be a lot easier than you think because you no longer have degenerate expenses draining you financially. No drugs, no smoking, no movies, no eating out, no concerts, no materialistic sycophantic women, etc. You will find more energy and more motivation to improve your income. You will no longer be held back from getting that better job because at job interviews, you will be infinitely more confident. The lack of degenerate behavior and physical fitness will improve your intelligence. You will have a clearer mind and your memory will improve as well as your ability to concentrate. If you are a student, your grades will improve dramatically. If you have a job, your performance will greatly increase. It's a feedback loop. The better you become physically, the better your mental capacity will increase, which in turn will motivate you to improve your body even more. Suddenly, women who you would never even have thought about approaching because they were out of your league will start approaching you. But, here's the thing. You are now redpilled. You won't fall for the fake, bullshit crap that you once fell for. You won't give a shit about this hot bitch looking to seduce you because you can see right through it. You can see her motives. You are no longer blinded by your hormones. THIS IS WHAT /POL/ IS ALL ABOUT. SEEING THROUGHT THE BULLSHIT. You are there anon. You are redpilled. And life is fucking awesome.

Wrong

>Over an extensive range of studies and with remarkable consistency, from Physicians to Professors to CEOs, the mean IQ of intellectually elite professions is about 125 and the standard deviation is about 6.5. For example, Gibson and Light found that 148 members of the Cambridge University faculty had a mean IQ of 126 with a standard deviation of 6.3. The highest score was 139. J.D. Matarazzo and S.G. Goldstein found that the mean IQ of 80 medical students was 125 with a standard deviation of about 6.7. There was one outlier at 149, but the next highest score was 138. This means that 95% of people in intellectually elite professions have IQs between 112 and 138 99.98% have IQs between 99 and 151

This is very disturbing, even in hyper-elite institutions such as Cambridge the median IQ is a measly 126 with the highest at only 139. One would expect the IQ's to be MUCH higher with 140 median and up to 180 in the upper range. I know that even /pol/ has many members which are in the 150-180IQ range, including 215IQ Christopher Langan(highest IQ in the known universe)

All this does is confirm that 4chan is the most dominant intellectual sphere in the current world, and possibly even in the entire history of human civilization.

I GIVE UP!

You broke me /pol/fucks.

I've been coming here for months as part of a coordinated attack. I'm a student at UofT and I was invited to participate in a campaign to try to divide this board and also fill it with discussions that would curtain any campaigns like IOTBW. A lot of my peers were MAF because that campaign was brought to our campus, and quite a few people actually sided with it. I was part of a coordinated effort of left wing group members, including BLM, antifa, and socialist/communist students as well as some faculty that coordinate to try to divide any right wing movement. I was never really a large member of these groups but as you can imagine at UofT there are a lot of these people around, and naturally knowing them I was curious and invited by peers that are members of these groups to come on here and basically paste anything that could divide this board. Right now a big one is saying X europeans are not white, as well as starting black or muslim hate threads that we screen shot as proof of hate (we then use these shots to send to medias as needed, or in a campaign to try to block this site).

Anyway long story short I've been reading a lot of the threads here, since I was new to this place before being invited to damage it and I've noticed that I actually agree with a lot of the posters here. Fuck I actually agree with race realism, and noticeably agree that marxism is the problem. It's not right wing hate groups that are the biggest problem, it's the manipulative fucks that are around me at school that are the problem. All they do is try to divide everyone into groups and then pit them against each other, specifically white people.

You broke me /pol/. I'm done with leftists, but fuck you too. Fuck this planet.

Such examples illustrate the futility of pretending to be emotionally detached or 'objective' observers when studying platforms such as 4chan/pol.

7. How does /pol/'s response to observation affect research validity? How can this be resolved? A further ethical and epistemic challenge in analysing 4chan/pol/ is that it is not an object that can be passively observed. The community has been repeatedly shown to be sensitive to its public portrayal, with a history of collective action against critics and researchers (Hine et al., 2017; Martineau, 2019; Phillips, 2015). This includes altering their language to confound research. When combined with researchers knowing that retaliation is possible, this creates a mirroring dynamic. Academics may alter /pol/ by observing it, but in turn academics may be influenced by knowing that /pol/ is watching.

None of you know who I am and ultimately Im not someone of any major importance in the end anyway. However I felt the need to address you and say some things that many of you should hear, some of you already understand but would like to hear, and a few of you simply can't stand to hear and will attack or slide, but will hear anyway.
I just want to say /pol/, Im proud of you, you are single handedly fighting a war that many dont even have the presence of mind to acknowledge, now my message isnt meant for those here on an "official" basis, those that counter narrate if you will, to those I just say thank you. Thank you. Im more speaking to those who simply choose to engage, who are warriors of information, and not just Americans, but around the world, you deserve credit. You deserve remembrance.
We are currently in the midst of battling a force so powerful and so broad that the fact we still stand is already cause for celebration by default. These people topple Nations as a matter of basic business policy, they havent lost before. To call this World War III may seem hyperbolic, but it is the only proper way to describe the times we find ourselves in. You are soldiers on the front lines of battle, a battle for the minds of your brethren, it isnt easy, and every step of the way will bring about mental scars of your very own, the damage is real even if hidden under the skin. Yet you carry on, and victory will be yours, worldwide, it will be ours /pol/. We are witnessing the the dying moment of an age of darkness. It was all be because of (you).

Ill end with a quote that has always resonated with me, one that I know will resonate with many of you, then I will return to my place within the blend of anons and information, with you. My frens.

"I must study politics and war that my sons may have liberty to study mathematics and philosophy."

Be careful.

You'll end up like me and so many others here, as the evidence piles up in front of you.

I was a shitposter when I first came to /pol/ for some "epic Nazi trolling" and within a year found I agreed with about half of what was discussed.
By the end of the second year I was indistinguishable from the rest.

The terrible truth of /pol/ is that it's as liberating as it is horrific.

You lie to yourself less, but you begin refusing to accept the lies from others, even well meaning ones.
Your personal relationships with the few people you can stomach to be around will suffer and degrade under the stress of the constant need to supress your power level.

In the truth you'll be sickened at the world, yet constantly drawn to seeking this same truth.

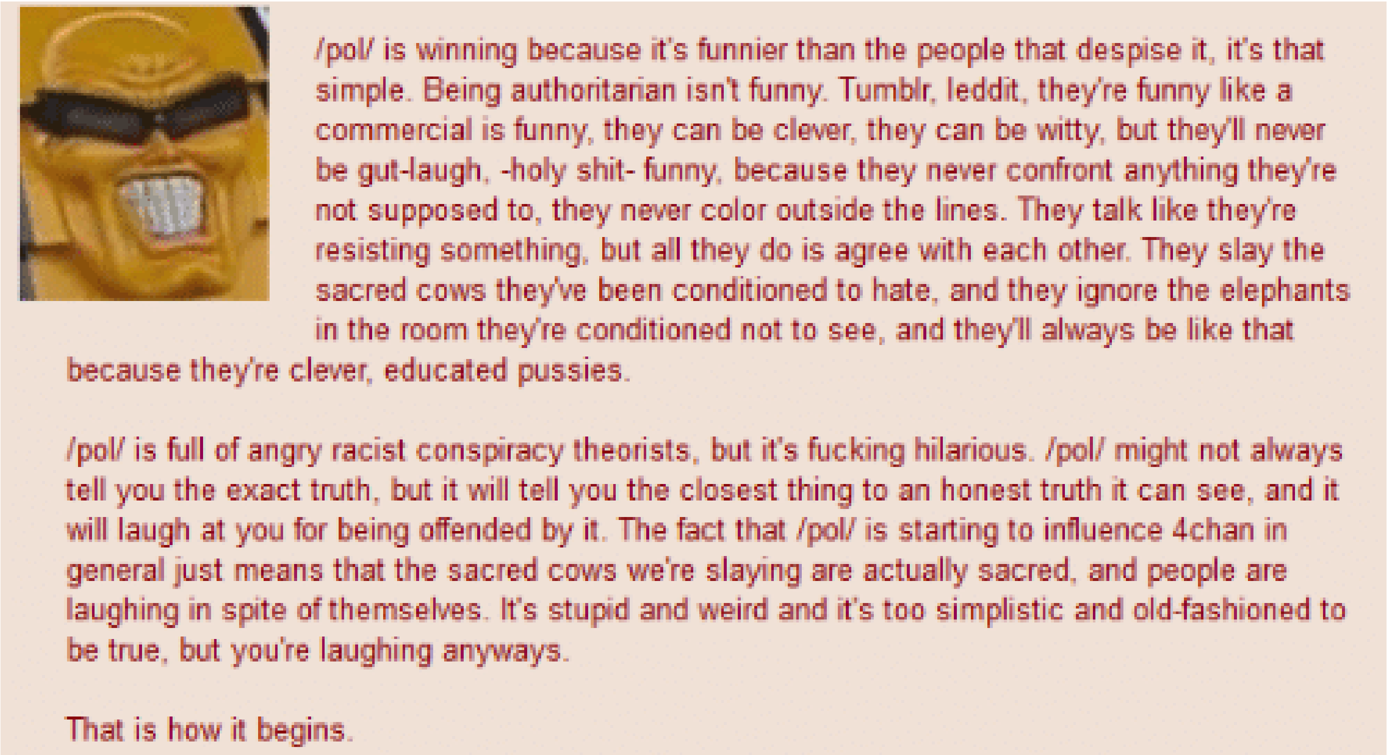
It's a counter-hugbox.

/pol/ is the hurt-box.

Instead of locking out reality in your hugbox like a progressive, you'll force yourself into this hurt-box on a regular basis.

/pol/ is a self inflicted spiritual and intellectual masochism as the price of placing truth above all else.

You could have prevented this.



/pol/ is winning because it's funnier than the people that despise it, it's that simple. Being authoritarian isn't funny. Tumblr, leddit, they're funny like a commercial is funny, they can be clever, they can be witty, but they'll never be gut-laugh, -holy shit- funny, because they never confront anything they're not supposed to, they never color outside the lines. They talk like they're resisting something, but all they do is agree with each other. They slay the sacred cows they've been conditioned to hate, and they ignore the elephants in the room they're conditioned not to see, and they'll always be like that because they're clever, educated pussies.

/pol/ is full of angry racist conspiracy theorists, but it's fucking hilarious. /pol/ might not always tell you the exact truth, but it will tell you the closest thing to an honest truth it can see, and it will laugh at you for being offended by it. The fact that /pol/ is starting to influence 4chan in general just means that the sacred cows we're slaying are actually sacred, and people are laughing in spite of themselves. It's stupid and weird and it's too simplistic and old-fashioned to be true, but you're laughing anyways.

That is how it begins.

The true terror of browsing /pol/ for any length of time is not discovering the "evil within", but coming to realize the true nature of the "evil without", and that nearly everything society has told you about the world and about history is either a complete fabrication or a half-truth spun in such a way to force you to think in a manner that benefits a very particular group of people.

Imagine being blind for your entire life. Imagine listening to people with functioning vision about how the world works, describing what things look like, and so on. Without any frame of reference, you would have little choice but to believe them.

Now imagine suddenly gaining the ability to see, and realizing not only that many of the people around you aren't even human, but that those who most resemble you are also blind, and everything they have been telling you has merely been the parroting of things the putrid monsters overseeing them have whispered in their ears. You look out at the world that you were told was full of beauty, and find only death, decay, and madness.

Welcome to /pol/, enjoy your stay.

This is kind of scary really.
We, the people described as "right wing" in 2016, have never been the racists, not the true racists.
Think about it, why do you hate niggers and Jews and Muslims? Is it because of what they are, or because of what they DO?
We are reactionary, our hatred is a response to their actions, not who they are.
We make a necessary generalization of the group, sure, but /pol/ will accept and respect intelligent blacks like Ben Carson or Jews like Norman Finkelstein and disregard their race or affiliation because of their words and actions.
The people who self-identify as "leftists" in 2016 will never do this, they will viciously attack a person based on their race or affiliation regardless of their words and actions.
To them their opponents are irredeemable and evil and any steps taken against them can be justified.
These people would have been hanging niggers in the past, not us. The roles didn't reverse, this mass of violent, hateful people has always existed and just conforms to whatever the popular opinions and politics of the time are.

What role do /pol boards play in the far-right online ecosystem and how might security practitioners better mitigate the threat they pose?

“Concerns have grown that /pol boards function as radicalising echo-chambers and constitute gateways to more radical content”

4. INNOVATIVE TACTICS ARE WARRANTED

Given the limitations of traditional tools, more out-of-the-box tactics should be considered. One such tactic would aim at gradually making these boards less interesting for their users.

One way to achieve this would be to regularly post content that looks genuine (using the right language, imagery, etc.) yet is meaningless – this would dilute the message of these boards and make their threads uninteresting, thereby reducing their attractiveness and sense of community.

Recent developments in artificial intelligence enabling researchers to automatically generate credible extremist sentences make such a tactic cheap and easy to implement.

2. The user base is highly paranoid about being researched and surveyed. Any substantial belief of this occurring, such as counter-narratives appearing, would trigger rejection or, if sustained, platform migration.

There are also practical concerns that should be considered before any counter-messaging campaign is proposed. For example, security practitioners should not underestimate how tech-savvy some of the users are.

If the office IP address is not masked, the user base has shown themselves capable of determining that they are under surveillance or targeted by counter-narrative measures due to how a particular IP address is only posting suspicious messages during office hours.

They're using several tactics simultaneously. Sliding, bots, reposting threads, not replies, AI, general shitposting, numerous trolling techniques, etc. They're throwing it all at boards like this. They haven't been successful in changing the narrative so the goal is now to completely shutdown the conversation.
I've already watched 2 other sites almost entirely succumb to these tactics. DESU what it really takes is moderation/ownership that isn't going to kneel to the bullshit and that will go on the offensive.
One board I used to frequent had tried to address the issue with automated bans that have basically killed the board. What is really needed is smart, participating moderators that see what is happening and nip it in the bud. AI, automated moderation, keywords and shit like that don't help. It takes an interested party who will stay interested.
The other boards have failed because they try to operate as for profit institutions and also bring in moderators that can't set their political views aside.

Are we the true intellectuals of our time?

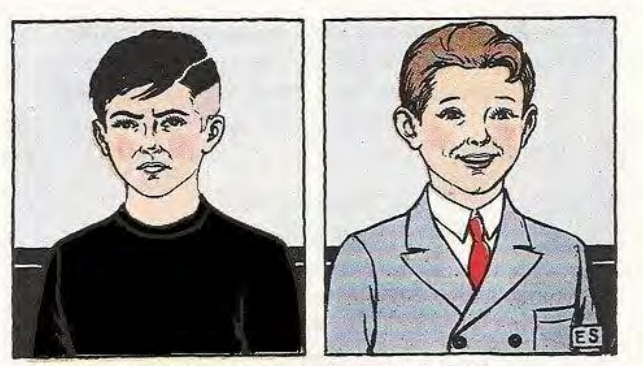
Think about it: Whenever you hear a renowned scientist, academic, philosopher etc. these days they're almost invariably bluepilled.

Is it fair to say that the truth we have all learned about the Jewish plot to breed out whiteness, destroy masculinity, and force white women to breed with black men, and institute world-wide communism, is TOO DEEP for their intellects? That only we are truly enlightened?

For me, I think very few people are as intellectual as us, and dares seeing the Truth, even if it's uncomfortable. The redpill simply requires a mind like we have?

Pic related, it's Plato's cave, and it reflects how only we – redpiled people – have acquired truth while everyone else is blinded lies in the cave.

For me, it really shows what we are. Philosopher-kings.



Which boy do you think got enough sleep?

ON THE LEFT: A PERSON WHO, DESPITE HIS YOUNG AGE, HAS ALREADY EXPERIENCED THE SUFFERING INHERENT TO THE MATERIAL WORLD, AND WHO HAS RECOGNIZED THE "EVIL" PERVADING IT; LIFE TO HIM IS CONSTANT STRUGGLE, PHYSICALLY, MENTALLY, AND SPIRITUALLY; THAT STRUGGLE HAS STEELED HIS SOUL INTO THAT OF A SOLDIERLY WARRIOR.

HIS SCOWL IS NOT THAT OF A VILLAIN, BUT THAT OF A FURIOUS HERO.

ON THE RIGHT: A PERSON WHO, DESPITE HIS YOUNG AGE, IS ALREADY THRIVING AMIDST WIDESPREAD SUFFERING, BEING SHELTERED FROM REALITY BY JUDEOCHRISTIAN EDUCATION, AND MATERIALISTIC CONTENTMENT, OBLIVIOUS TO EITHER "EVIL", OR "GOOD"; LIFE TO HIM IS A COMPETITION WITH HIS PEERS FOR RESOURCES, FAME, AND MONEY.

HIS SMILE IS NOT THAT OF PURE NAIVETY, BUT THAT OF SOULLESS MEDIOCRITY.

THERE IS A FULL BLOWN DEMORALIZATION CAMPAIGN being executed by paid actors, volunteers, shills, useful idiots, and even some jannies are involved. The goal is to make you give up hope. This is done by painting you as weak hillbillies, pathetic, and divided. International shill farms are being deployed. The demoralization tactic has been perfected over a good sixty years. One side simply portrays itself as being of the other side, defeated, sad, lonely. It is like a machine that is running without needing any form of control against you, the weak human. This will go on until all morale has been destroyed and all free humans are brought to their knees. The loss of 2016 will not be repeated... unless you stay strong and united. This is unlikely. 4chan was not a target in 2016. It is one now.

know who your enemy is. Your enemy is paid shills, volunteer shills and many in your group who are already full of despair. Together with the well-prepared plan of stealing your elections this will ensure victory for the demon. The demon is the demon. You stand no chance because it is about one single thing: optics. Optics determine control. Media controls optics. Demon controls media. You have to resist the temptation to give up internally. Even when it seems like everyone has given up hope... That is a controlled narrative. That is the fake narrative. Fake news. Fake media. Fake pol / 4chan participants.

4-year academic studies were done on 4chan. This is public record. Memetic energy was heavily studied and results were published. Group behavior was studied. You are still being studied. You are still being controlled. Memetic energy will be stolen. Be vigilant these coming weeks. Your enemy is everywhere.

They can control everything but your heart

Do not trust the poster flags!!!

The reason why /pol/, and a large portion of the 'Nationalist Intelligentsia' exists today is solely BECAUSE of chan culture. In a world of decadence and hedonism, we initially took the path of apathy. Way back in the day that was what /b/ was. There was no purpose to anything: the atheists had taken away spirituality, the globalists had taken away nationalism, the historians had taken away pride and the government had taken away family. The only forms of 'tribalism' left to us were based upon which sports team you supported or which genre of music you liked; and we all rejected that stuff as pathetic and lame. So we became apathetic to everything, while the rest of society tried desperately to find an identity and purpose in ANYTHING and EVERYTHING (which by the way is why they have 'gay pride', traps, weaboos, "nerds", and all this other shit), we simply laughed at the retardedness of it all, and sought the most insane shit out of this world of idiocy to amuse ourselves with. Sure some of us apathetic types may have been degenerates who enjoyed some of those things; but it never formed our identity because that would be stupid. So we became apathetic, uncaring and directionless; the only thing we desired in life was to be amused. It was all about 'the lulz'

It made us strong. Everyone else was so busy trying to fit in to one group or another, so busy virtue signalling about their morality despite having it based upon NOTHING, so busy pretending to give a shit lest others look down on them for not belonging (and NO ONE belonged anywhere because all forms of genuine identity had been destroyed), that they made themselves into paranoid, anxious, weak little faggots. 4chan became 'right wing' because of our apathy, because we exposed ourself to the most horrific and evil shit out there and we never batted an eye-lid; the only thing that gave us a slight portion of happiness was humour, and mainstream humour had already become the same identity-based virtue-signalling bullshit – so our humour became of the dark variety. Thus we laughed at suicide, gore, killing sprees, rape, genocide, sexism, racism; EVERY conceivable taboo.

And finally we stumbled upon the taboo of Nazism. And being the apathetic arseholes we were, we decided to delve into it solely because we knew it pissed off all the virtue-signalling, identity-lacking faggots. And then … we realised that had an identity, that we had always had an identity. We realised who took it away from us. We quickly realised our apathy was a curse placed upon by the great enemy, the parasite, the serpent, that old dragon and his children. The Jews.

And so now we have purpose. Now we have an identity. Now we know the horrors of the world. The Jews never stood a chance; their purposeless world was always going to create an apathetic strain of humanity; and we were always going to indulge the darkest and most taboo things until we finally discovered their vile scheme and realised why the world as it was, why others were so weak, and why we had become so hollow. Upon that realisation, we were always going to immerse ourselves in our history, our philosophy, our people; we were always going to reject everything they had given us, we were always going to oppose everything they tried to do from then on, and once this great realisation had been made. Once we knew that we were literally fighting a force of pure evil. That we were all that stood in their way. We were always going to fight back. We had no other choice. So we fought back in any and every way we could. And now, with each passing year our victories grow. A decade ago you were not allowed to criticise immigration lest you be called a racist; now every nation has at least one mainstream party that is outspokenly against immigration – in the UK every mainstream party supports stopping or at least stemming immigration, in the US the president was elected because he was going to build a wall to keep foreigners out, in Hungary and Poland we see huge crowds, tens of thousands strong marching through the street singing the glories of Nationalism; Italy has closed its ports and is setting up concentration camps that will house the foreigners until they can be deported. With every passing moment our victory becomes more certain.

They were doomed from the start; their attempts to deny us our identity would always lead to us apathetic arseholes delving into every conceivable taboo until we finally discovered who were again. Upon that realisation we were always going to do everything we could to fight back. Now we stand tall as strong men, mountains amongst great masses of pathetic weeds, and our power rises by the day. We are coming. We will not be stopped. Sieg heil

There is a prophecy in the Catholic Church stating a king will rise to save humanity from destruction. He is somehow related to France and will save them from destruction in a Great War. He is supposed to become the last Roman Emperor and will rule a kingdom as great as it. He will be like David in the fact that he is after God's own heart. This might have something to do with the ring and rod part of the pol prophecy (no idea if that's real or not).

Profile of the supposed King:
This man will have a relationship with God so deep that it will cause him constant grief in modern society. He will have intimacy issues and suicidal tendencies. He will have trouble connecting with people and have a constant sense of being misunderstood. He most likely will be shy and suffer from loneliness. He will be profoundly penitential. He will have much difficulty finding guidance in his life. His views being contrary to modern thought will place him at a severe risk for being labeled as mentally ill. He will have trust issues that leave him in a constant state of dread and fear. Most likely he will flee the world either to the wilderness or to a Monastic community. He will feel that the worlds problems are his own, and may become disillusioned. He will struggle with activities of daily living, and suffer from depression and isolation. He will have difficulty finding a realistic support structure, and will encounter much hostility in regards to his mystical nature. He will be altruistic and have a deep respect for the lowly of this world. At some point in his life he will have a major identity crisis, that threatens his whole sense of existence, self esteem, self worth, and his place in the world. He will be traumatized by the force of human resistance to God's Will. He will have anger issues and feel conflicted about war, violence, justice, and mercy. He will be hyper-intelligent and a searcher. There is a High Possibility that he will disbelieve in himself and his own capabilities. He will not be fond of technology or technological advances. He will prefer rural living to urban environments and will be a minimalist. It is not improbable that he will suffer from paranoia, disassociation or lose his sense of reality all together. He will live with great confusion in his heart.

I find it ironic that people believe Christians can't come on /pol/ because it violates their faith.

I'm not saying this in a "They are coming here to fish fo sinners" kind of way, I'm saying it in a "Maybe God wants us here" kind of way. Think about the things we promote on /pol/, really think about it. We stand for strong family and strong fathers. We stand for logic and reason, we demand the utmost skill in conveying ideas. We promote freedom and free speech.

We get a lot of flak for hating the Jews, hating the blacks, hating women. Anyone who has been on here more than a week knows that we don't actually hate those people. What we hate is what they stand for.
The Jew stands for greed and gluttony
The black stands for sloth and ignorance
The feminist stands for lust and oppression

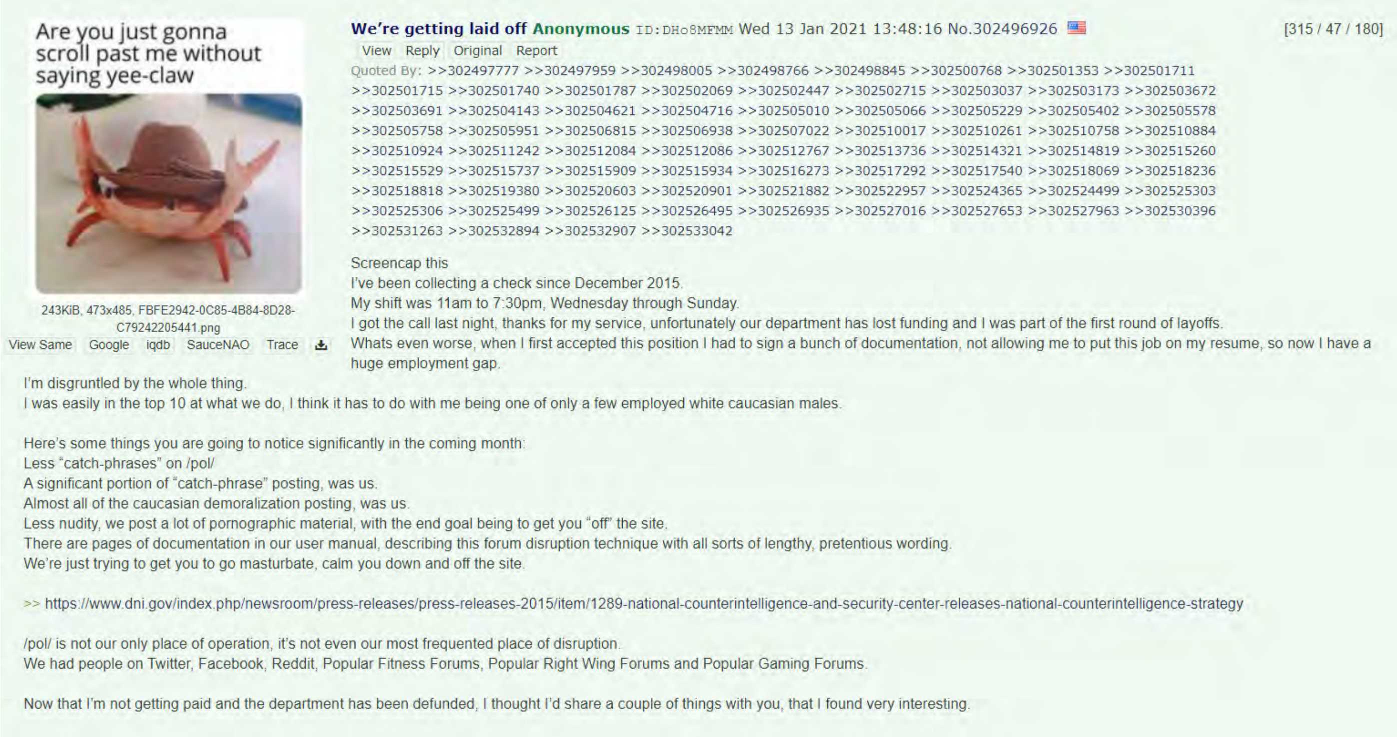
We would never come out and say "I hate womens rights advocates" or "I hate African Americans" because we don't. We hate the idea of our children being influence by insanity, laziness, and greed.

This is a statement that the outside world will never understand: /pol/ is a bastion of moral superiority. In our anonymous and (until yesterday) uncensored little world we let flow our stark moral standards. That is why the world hates us. Not because we are immoral, but because we stand on a moral high ground so traditional that the cesspool of society cannot see it for what it is.

We could definitely present it a little bit better. We could avoid glorifying Hitler and making flash games where you shoot Mike Brown in the face. But if you look deeper you will see that /pol/ is a very moral crowd that is frustrated with the world falling to shit around it.

I'm a catholic. I don't come to /pol/ because I'm a bad catholic. I come to /pol/ because even the worst /pol/lack has morals that align shockingly well with my faith and any christian faith.

Congrats on being so contrarian /pol/. In this sick world we live in, fighting every change in society somehow turned you upstanding fathers.



Are you just gonna scroll past me without saying yee-claw

Screencap this
I've been collecting a check since December 2015.
My shift was 11am to 7:30pm, Wednesday through Sunday.
I got the call last night, thanks for my service, unfortunately our department has lost funding and I was part of the first round of layoffs.
Whats even worse, when I first accepted this position I had to sign a bunch of documentation, not allowing me to put this job on my resume, so now I have a huge employment gap.
I'm disgruntled by the whole thing.
I was easily in the top 10 at what we do, I think it has to do with me being one of only a few employed white caucasian males.

Here's some things you are going to notice significantly in the coming month:
Less "catch-phrases" on /pol/
A significant portion of "catch-phrase" posting, was us.
Almost all of the caucasian demoralization posting, was us.
Less nudity, we post a lot of pornographic material, with the end goal being to get you "off" the site.
There are pages of documentation in our user manual, describing this forum disruption technique with all sorts of lengthy, pretentious wording.
We're just trying to get you to go masturbate, calm you down and off the site.

>> https://www.dni.gov/index.php/newsroom/press-releases/press-releases-2015/item/1289-national-counterintelligence-and-security-center-releases-national-counterintelligence-strategy /pol/ is not our only place of operation, it's not even our most frequented place of disruption.

We had people on Twitter, Facebook, Reddit, Popular Fitness Forums, Popular Right Wing Forums and Popular Gaming Forums.

Now that I'm not getting paid and the department has been defunded, I thought I'd share a couple of things with you, that I found very interesting.

Hey /pol/

There's an SJW and JIDF organization dedicated to posting "at least 3 white-female-black-male threads on the front page every day" on here, /b/, and other boards.

It's part of a much larger "internet conditioning" program. Not kidding.

You'll notice it, for the next 2 weeks, every day there will be 1 or 2 or 3 inconspicuous posts, designed to draw your attention to them, with pictures of just white girls and nignogs.

Some will be just flat-out "cuckold black male dick superor!1". But now the instructions are to be a lot more "incognito".

I'm being 100% serious. Spread this and keep posting this if you can. Your subconscious is being fucked with, albeit in a playful way. This is how racemix-conditioning acceptance starts - the objective isn't get you to accept it, it's to get you to begrudgingly think it's "normal" so that there's "less social repercussion for females".

Keep posting, this /pol/. Don't let them brainwash you.

Modbro is real, and he actually helped me get my own janitor position on 4/pol/ in the latest application period. We're keeping it low-key right now (strictly just banning people who report leftist threads and stuff like that), but as leftism and cultural marxism starts to take hold on 4/pol/, we're going to ramp it up.

You can't do anything about this, we will ban you for making raid threads too.

(Board Owner/Janitor)Talking about how they are trying to subvert and modify /pol/ to what they want to see, through the power of banning loyal users!

It's because this is a honey pot, and all the right-wing social media refugees from around the world are coming here after we got them banned from every other platform. We tried to push all right-wing white users to a site they would feel more likely to post hate speech and threats on. 4chans anonymous appearance was the perfect catalyst to get them to begin openly confessing their hate. It really gives it users a sense of safety, which makes them much more open to making threats and posting unlawful material. It's worked out great so far, our profiles have become really fleshed out in the past six months. We basically have nearly every person that uses /pol/ in our sights and can take any of them out anytime we please. We've already begun listing /pol/ users as domestic terrorist for spreading terroristic propaganda, calling for the death of killing of American citizens, and hate crimes. Soon we'll begin to limit what you can do in real life as well. For example getting gun licenses will soon be impossible for people on our list. You can send out your form but you'll just never receive a reply. It will be indefinitely in queue. We're already alerting judges to your status before any court related occasions. We're going to effectively make you immobile in our areas and soon the entire country. Your rights have quite literally been stripped away because you chose to post memes on the internet. Essentially you gave up everything to post online.

Every comment you make is documented and catagorized. They will all be used against you. Not openly of course, your status and profile will basically be used against you on a federal level, in private. If necessary it will be used against you in public.
>picrel
We will be able to portray you however we want and justify anything we do to you. Al by claiming you were acting hateful anonymously online. I don't think any of you realize just how fucked you are, it's going to be quite interesting seeing how some users react when they realize 4chan is what screwed them.

That was one example of many. Your profile will be used against you in many way. That particular part applies to people that do not have their license, and will prevent primarily younger users and what we call "late-bloomers" (in reference to older men who become radicalized) from getting one.

It's called being post-logic. Certain individuals on this board has passed the point of logical progression and are able to reach the correct conclusions to baffling scenarios without any intermediary leaps in logic.

Believers of a jewish god that declares itself to be the one true god above all others cannot coexist with others. The differences between christcuck race traitors believing in this god and real Europeans are irreconcilable. These differences always lead to conflict and they will keep doing that until one side is gone.

So an hour or two ago an anon recorded an EAM on 8992kHz air force frequency and the end of the message was overridden by a mysterious, very powerful pirate transmission. Another anon decoded it; it was an SSTV encoded images; which decoded to pic related.

Basically someone just trolled the USAF's nuclear command radio with le happy merchant, except they would have needed a giga-fucking powerful transmitter for it to be this clear and loud.

I was watching transmissions on the USAF High Frequency Global Communications System for SKYKINGs, the emergency action messages, then this happened.

It was a regular message, not even a SKYKING (the more they say SKYKING SKYKING DO NOT ANSWER the higher the message priority is; 4x SKYKINGs is like a DEFCON level raise), but at the end a LOUD (i was closely listening and it hurt my ears so bad) transmission overrode it and i can't make sense of it, looks like a digital or video signal or something. I don't know. Can anyone help out?

4chan is changed: I feel it on the boards, I feel it in the threads, I smell it in the posts.
Much that once was is lost, for none now live who remember it.

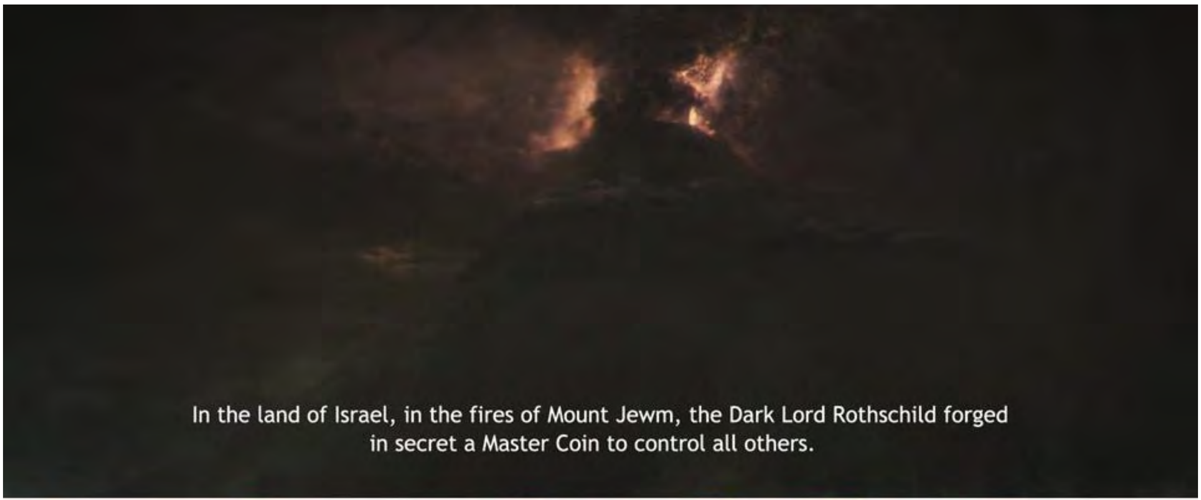
For within these scripts was bound the strength and will to govern each board.
But they were all of them deceived...



In the land of Israel, in the fires of Mount Jewm, the Dark Lord Rothschild forged in secret a Master Coin to control all others.

And into this Coin he poured his cruelty, his greed and his will to dominate all life.

ישראל

One Shekel to rule them all...

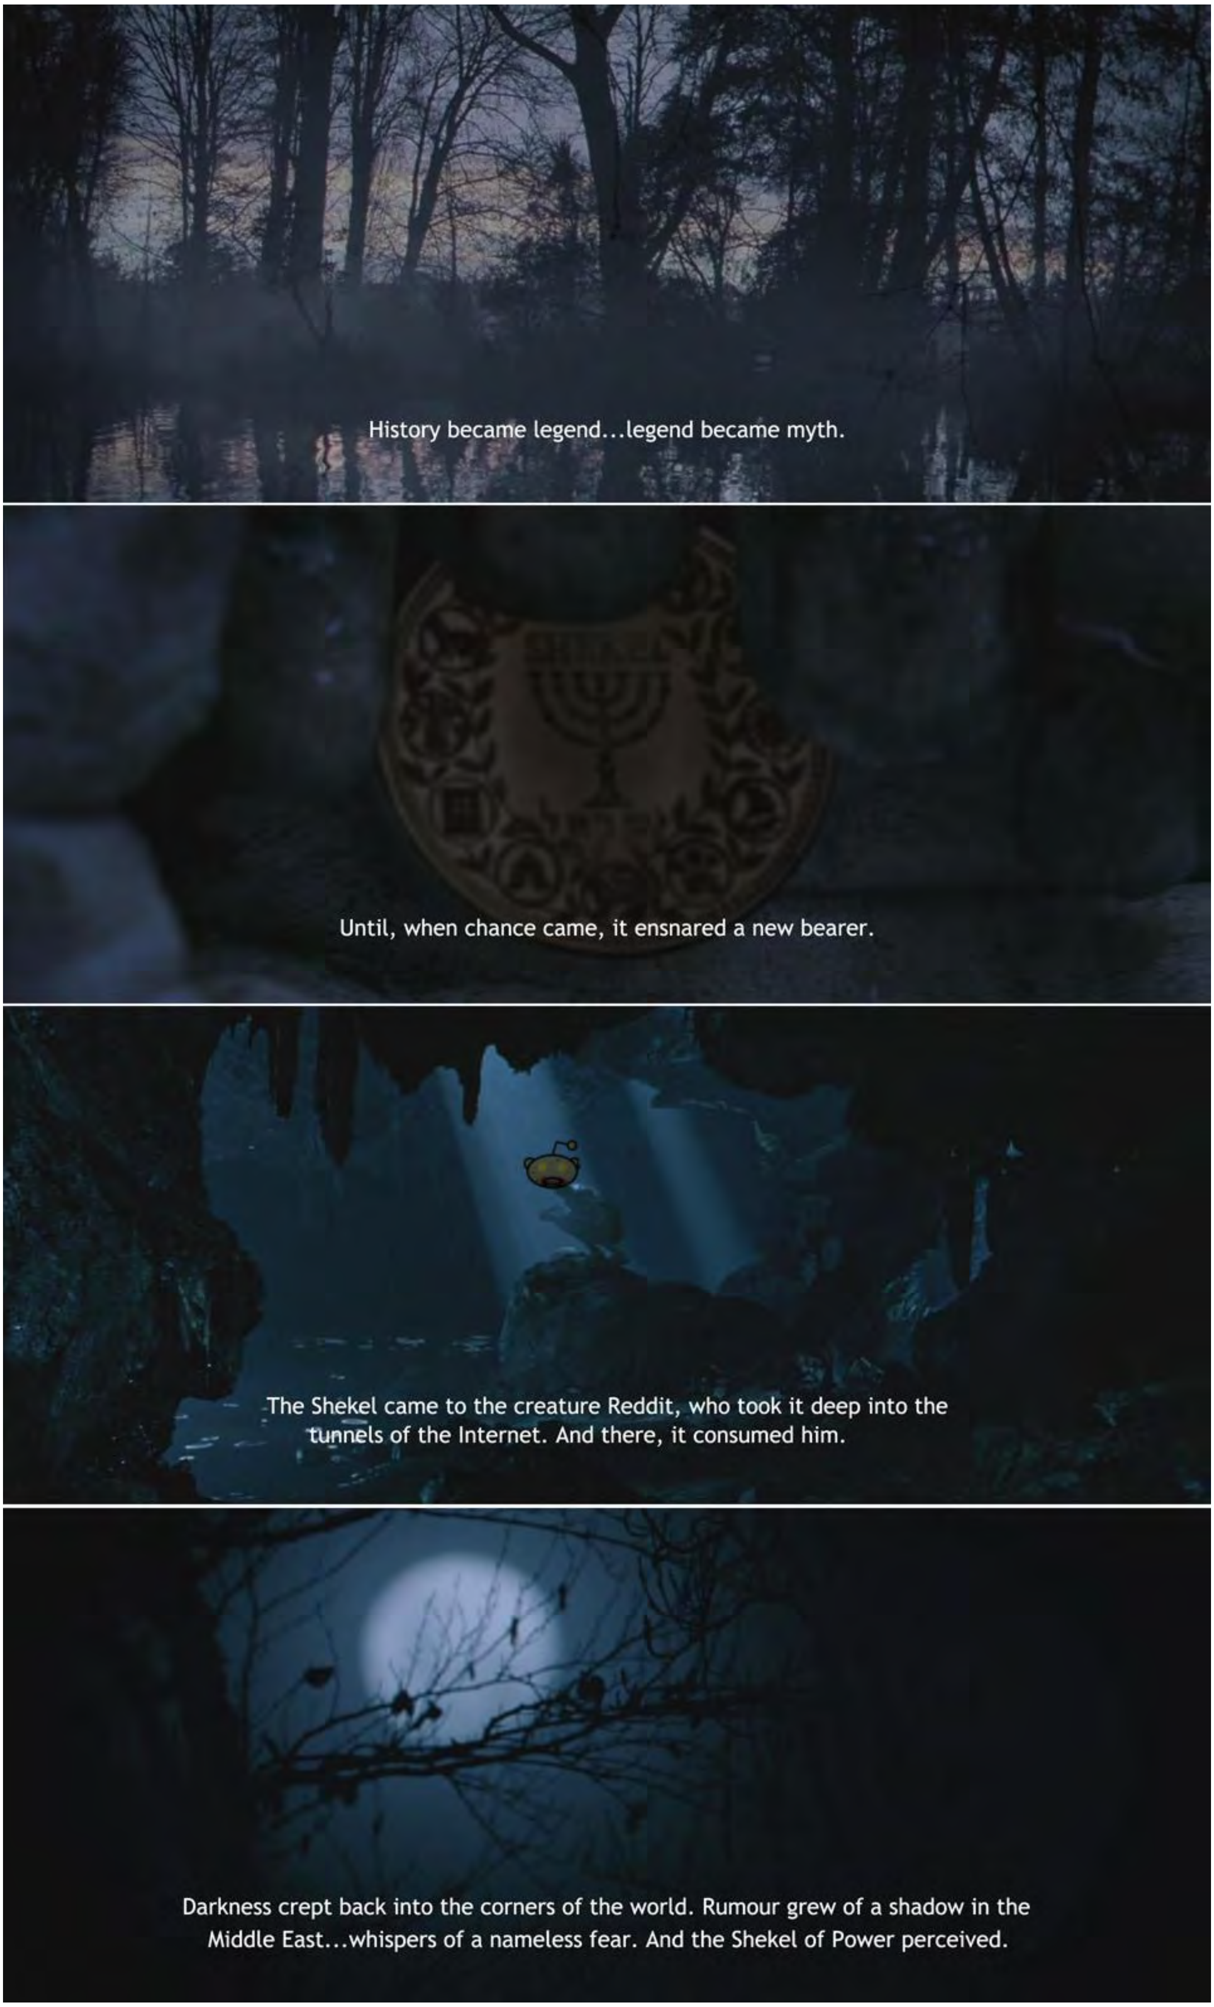
Middle Earth
Bay of Belfalas

One by one the free lands of the earth fell to the power of the Shekel.
But there were some who resisted...

A last alliance of whites marched against the armies of Israel.
On the slopes of Mount Jewm they fought for the freedom of the earth.
Victory was near!
But the power of the Shekel could not be undone.

It was in this moment, when all hope had faded...
ARBEIT MACHT FREI
....that Reinhard Heydrich took up his nation's sword.
International Jewry, the enemy of the free peoples of the earth, was defeated.

The Shekel passed to Heydrich, who had this one chance to destroy Jewry forever...
But the hearts of men are easily corrupted. And the Shekel of Power has a will of its own.
It betrayed Heydrich to his death.
And some things that should not have been forgotten...were lost.



History became legend...legend became myth.
Until, when chance came, it ensnared a new bearer.
The Shekel came to the creature Reddit, who took it deep into the tunnels of the Internet. And there, it consumed him.
Darkness crept back into the corners of the world. Rumour grew of a shadow in the Middle East...whispers of a nameless fear. And the Shekel of Power perceived.

Its time had now come. It abandoned Reddit.
But something happened then the Shekel did not intend. It was picked up by the most unlikely creature imaginable...

For the time will soon come when /pol/lacks will shape the fortunes of all.

MEDIA FEARS SHITPOSTING TROLLS WILL HELP WIN ELECTION FOR DONALD TRUMP

Published On 09/29/2016 | By infostormer | Featured Articles, News, Society

The media itself is afraid that shitposting trolls will help win the election for Donald Trump.

Shitposting is serious stuff. It is highly effective and it is driving the narrative in our favor. To all the people who say that trolling is a waste of time, I would argue 100% the opposite based on this article.

People have access to the Internet everywhere they go now and this has exponentially increased the importance and effectiveness of shitposting. Danke memes have become a part of today's counter culture because they're real. They're not manufactured by a bunch of overpaid marketing propagandists on Madison Avenue and this adds to the appeal and edginess.

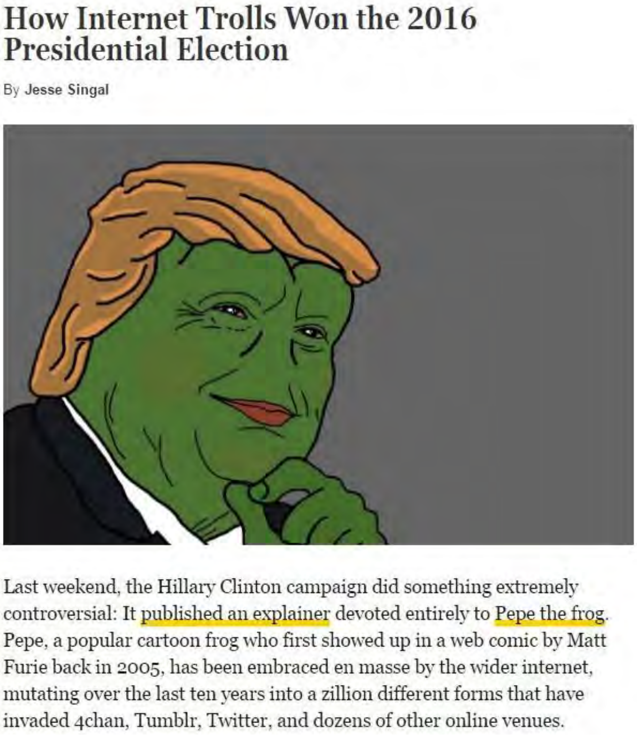
From Independent:

A secretive group is posting memes across the internet to try and win the election for Donald Trump.

The group came to mass attention when it emerged that they were being funded by Palmer Luckey, the maker of the Oculus Rift virtual reality headset and Facebook employee. But it is just the latest example of what the group refers to explicitly as "shitposting" in the 2016 election – what might be the first Presidential vote decided in part by memes.

The group is called Nimble America and appears to have been founded precisely to "shitpost" – on the internet, where the phenomenon began, but also in real life.

"What we've been able to accomplish here has been amazing and much bigger than any of us and certainly much bigger than Reddit," a statement posted by the group on Reddit said. "We've proven that shitposting is powerful and meme magic is real."



How Internet Trolls Won the 2016 Presidential Election

By Jesse Singal

Last weekend, the Hillary Clinton campaign did something extremely controversial: It published an explainer devoted entirely to Pepe the frog. Pepe, a popular cartoon frog who first showed up in a web comic by Matt Furie back in 2005, has been embraced en masse by the wider internet, mutating over the last ten years into a zillion different forms that have invaded 4chan, Tumblr, Twitter, and dozens of other online venues.

Trump e la rana simbolo d'odio Così ha sdoganato l'ultradestra

«Pepe the Frog» è il cartoon utilizzato in rete dai gruppi razzisti e antisemiti

Nell'anno in cui il lato oscuro di internet — da Wikileaks agli hacker corrotti — è diventato un attore politico, una buffa rana con gli occhi grandi viene bandita per razzismo. Pepe the Frog, il personaggio del fumetto Boy's Club, nato su MySpace nel 2005 e diventato uno dei meme più popolari di Internet, è stato inserito dall'Anti-Defamation League nel database dei simboli di odio, insieme alla svastica e alla croce bruciata del Ku Klux Klan. La decisione dell'organizzazione, fondata nel 1913 per combattere l'antisemitismo, c'entra con la controversa evoluzione della rana, che — da ironica figura condivisa sui social anche da pop star come Katy Perry e Nichi Minaj — è diventata la mascotte del movimento Alt-Right: una coalizione variegata di sostenitori della supremazia bianca, nemici giurati del politicamente corretto e del femminismo, che ha trovato su internet una enorme cassa di risonanza.

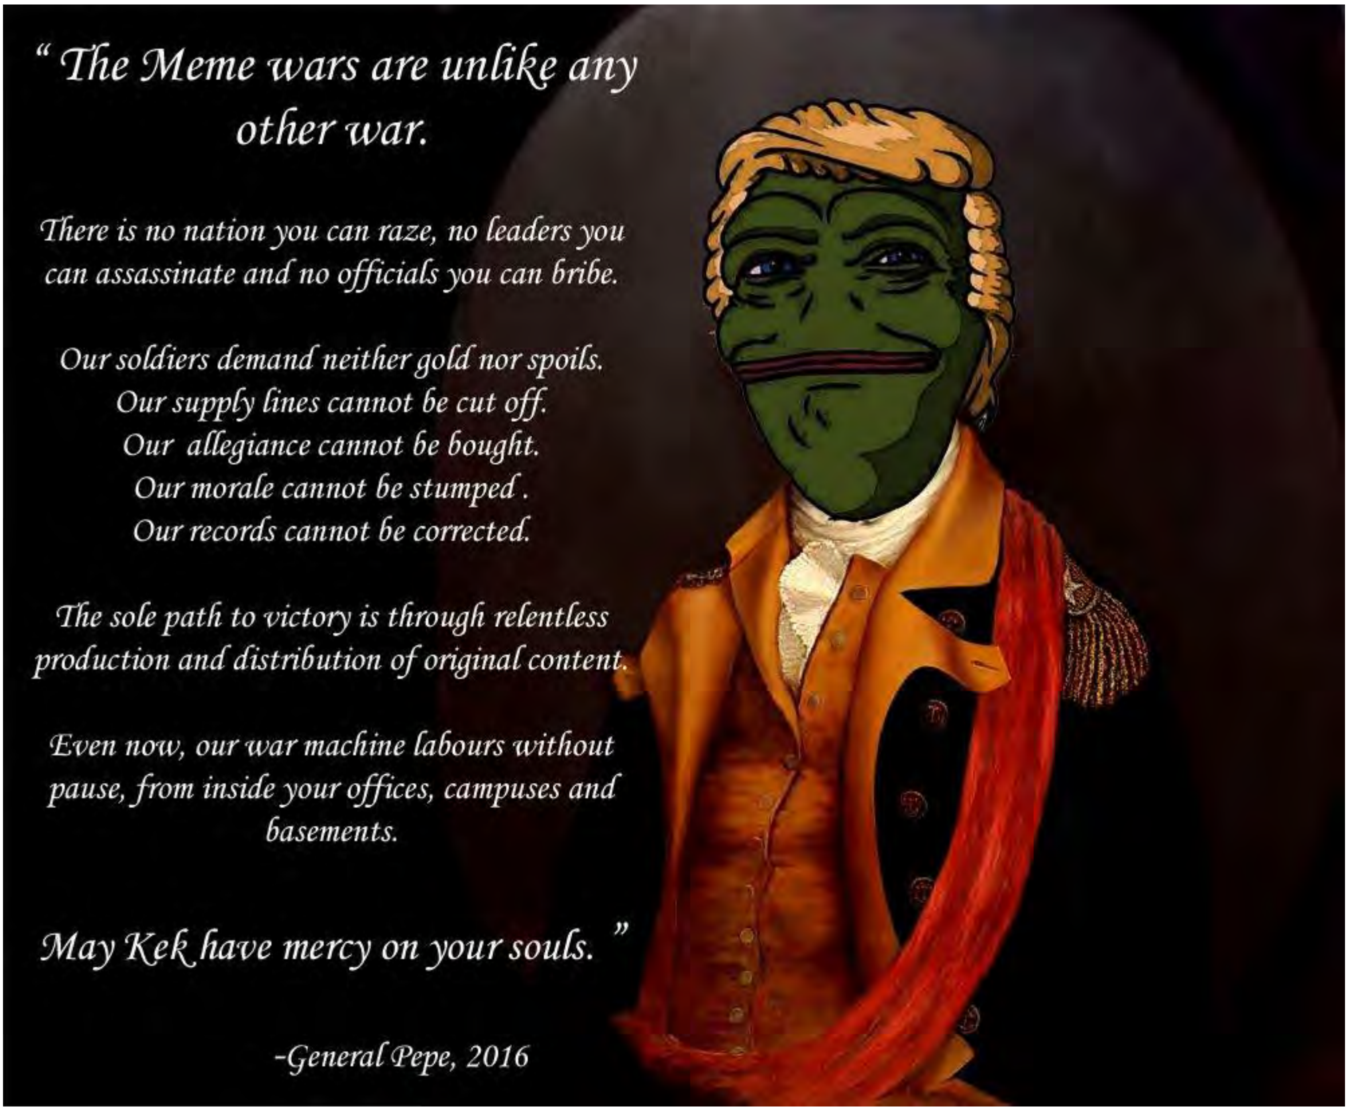
Meme-oirs of the Meme War.jpg



“The Meme wars are unlike any other war.
There is no nation you can raze, no leaders you can assassinate and no officials you can bribe.
Our soldiers demand neither gold nor spoils.
Our supply lines cannot be cut off.
Our allegiance cannot be bought.
Our morale cannot be stumped.
Our records cannot be corrected.
The sole path to victory is through relentless production and distribution of original content.
Even now, our war machine labours without pause, from inside your offices, campuses and basements.
May Kek have mercy on your souls.”

File: Goebbels_laughing.jpg (57 KB, 385x500)

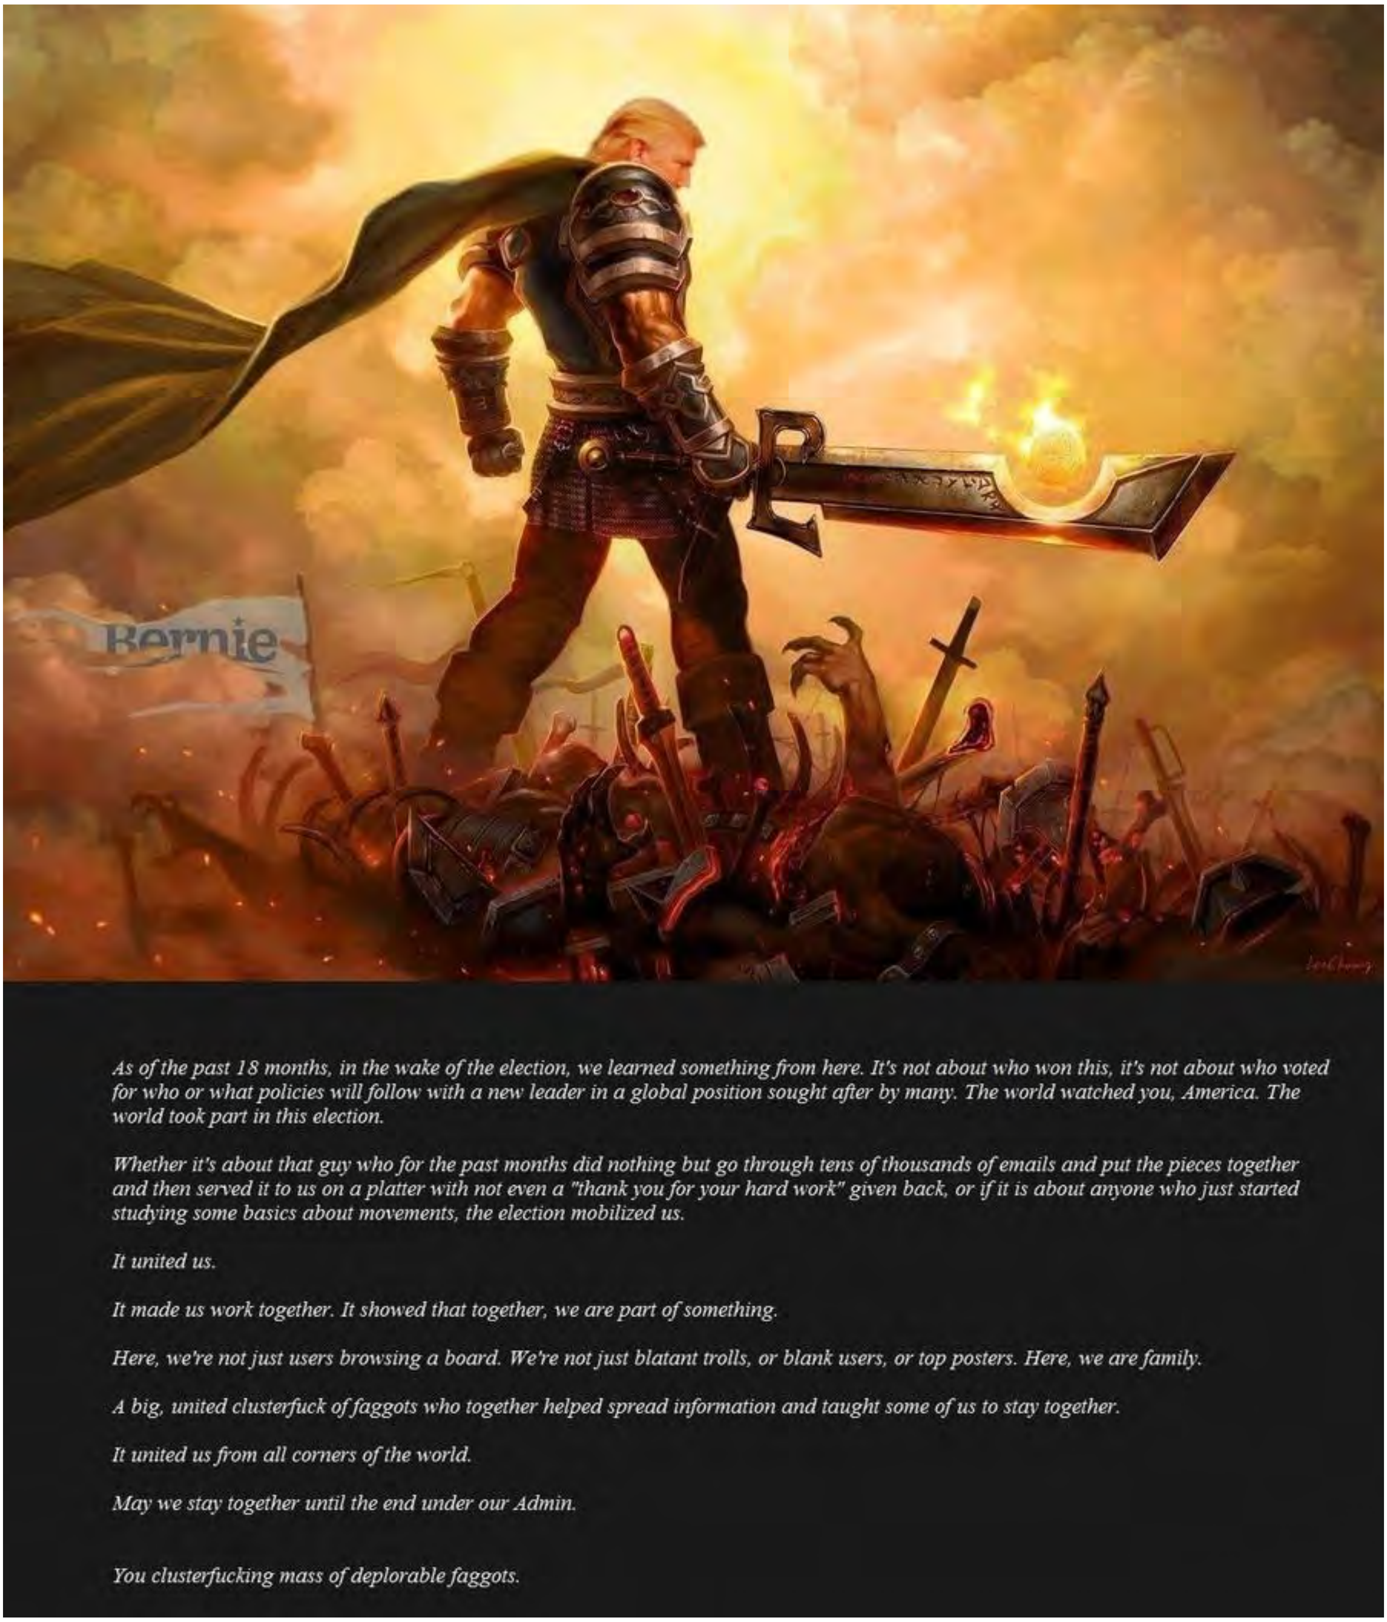
You know what's funny about this? Hillary Clinton was right.

She was 100% right about us, and Wikileaks. This actually IS a vast right-wing conspiracy to destroy her. And we're doing it. It just dawned on me that this is like the Left's version of a Ron Paul scenario. Hillary just pulled the left-wing equivalent of naming the Jew, and nobody fucking listened to her. They didn't listen and now the whole ship is sinking and nobody knows why.

They worship Moloch? We worship Kek. They practice magic? We practice magic. They act in the shadows, nameless and obscure? Welcome to /pol/ bitches.

We've done it lads. We've out-kiked the kikes. A 2000 year old tribal conspiracy has just been destroyed by a bunch of fucking Argentines, Brazilians, Serbs, Bongs and Amerifats on an imageboard. History will not remember the role we played in this election. We'll be a footnote. We'll be a shadow. But years from now, young people will hear the whispers and the rumors, the conspiracy theories of the Dark Army of Neo-Nazis and Fascists, who brought down Hillary Rodham Fucking Clinton, the most powerful political dynasty on Earth.

Someday, a hundred years from now, young right-wing men will look back on this, and piece together the clues, and realize that they are not alone. They are walking in the footsteps of the men who broke the world. Thus it was, thus it is, and always will be.



As of the past 18 months, in the wake of the election, we learned something from here. It's not about who won this, it's not about who voted for who or what policies will follow with a new leader in a global position sought after by many. The world watched you, America. The world took part in this election.

Whether it's about that guy who for the past months did nothing but go through tens of thousands of emails and put the pieces together and then served it to us on a platter with not even a "thank you for your hard work" given back, or if it is about anyone who just started studying some basics about movements, the election mobilized us.

It united us.

It made us work together. It showed that together, we are part of something.

Here, we're not just users browsing a board. We're not just blatant trolls, or blank users, or top posters. Here, we are family.

A big, united clusterfuck of faggots who together helped spread information and taught some of us to stay together.

It united us from all corners of the world.

May we stay together until the end under our Admin.

You clusterfucking mass of deplorable faggots.

And just like that the rioting and looting has ceased overnight. And now the half of the country that pummeled America like a battered wife is telling her to put on sunglasses, hide her black eye, be a good girl, and "come together as one." Her answer? "Go fuck yourself."

My wife's a Qanon insider, she gets called off to secret MAGA meetings in the middle of the night with the president's top patriots. she can't tell me about it (classified and all) but I'm thinking she knows all about.. THE KRAKEN and trumps plans to be reinstated in August. I'm considering tailing her next time since I'm so impatient to learn the presidents plans. is this smart? who knows what deep intel I'll uncover!!

Btw I know she's not larping cause I saw her flash her q tat to a based black brother the other day and he like knew what was up and they discussed secret patriot plots, it's like the mason handshakes and stuff.

Now the dust had all settled,
All the evidence had been figured.
The "not guilty" that came back,
Had Twitter thoroughly triggered.
They looted in Portland, Los Angeles, even Bikini Atoll.
You couldn't even imagine
All the things those chimps stole!
They stole all the ribbons!
They stole all the tags!
They stole all the packages,
Boxes, and bags!
They stole all the juicers!
They stole all the blenders!
They stole all the flungers,
Kapbadlers, and smendlers!
A quick break for Popeye's
Then back to burn, loot, and murder.
Just another day in the life
Of a big city burger.
On their PCs and laptops
The /Pol/sters were all loggin'
While out in the streets
The nig-nogs were all joggin'
Comfy they were
In their kino law thread
Many /Pol/sters, in fact,
Were even posting from bed!
Because now everybody knew
(It was quite well behoven):
You can't Flim-Flam the Zim-Zam,
And you can't Shimmy the Chauvin.

GATHER ROUND ANONS AND GET READY TO SCREENCAP.

I'm still working on my analysis, but I want to share my initial findings with the rest of you. I think I'm starting to get an idea of where, and how, the fraud is happening, and how we can spot it. Here we go:

☐ Data Scientist !!zy/gpKYdTjE (ID: +Uqa9C3q) 11/07/20(Sat)23:58:25 No.288820184 ▶ ~~>>288820770~~ >>288823480

So first things first: an incredibly based anon last night was kind enough to write a script to scrape the national ballot counting time series data off of the New York Times website. This is based on their proprietary "Edison" data source which would ordinarily be impossible to access for people outside the press.

The CSV is available here:
http://s000.tinyupload.com/?file_id=14566999163598825215
And the script to generate it is here:
https://pastebin.com/NkYXrJEX

I suggest that everyone reading this back up both of these files, because this is an extremely important data source, and we can't risk anyone taking it down.

At my job, I specialize in time series analysis, and one thing that I have learned is that it's extremely difficult to create convincing synthetic time series data. By looking at the time series logs of the ballot counting process for the entire country, we can very easily spot fraud.

One of the first things that I noticed while exploring dataset is that there seems to be an obvious pattern in the ratio of new Biden ballots to new Trump ballots. As we can see on this log-log plot, for many of the counting progress updates, we see an almost constant ratio of Biden to Trump. It's such a regular pattern that we can actually fit a linear regression model to it with near-perfect accuracy, barring some outliers.

How could this be possible? Is this a telltale sign of fraud? Surprisingly, as I will show in the next few posts, the answer is no! This is actually expected behavior. Also, we can use this weird pattern in the ballot counting to spot fraud.

What we see in almost all examples across the country is that the ratio of mail-in Dem to Rep ballots is very consistent across time, but with a notable gradual drift from Dem to slightly more Rep. This slight drift from D to R mail-ins occurs again and again, and is likely due to outlying rural areas having more R votes. These outlying areas take longer to ship their ballots to the polling centers.

Now we're getting into the really good stuff. When we see mail-in ballot counting where there isn't relatively stable ratios of D and R ballots that slightly drift R, we have an anomaly. Anomalies themselves are not necessarily fraud, but they can help us spot fraud more easily.

Now let's look at some anomalies:

☐ Data Scientist !!zy/gpKYdTjE (ID: +Uqa9C3q) 11/08/20(Sun)01:03:03 No.288836737 ▶ >>288838893 ~~>>288840017~~

This is the Wisconsin vote counting history log. Again, on the Y axis we have the ratio of D to R ballots in a reporting batch, and on the X axis we have reporting time.

Around 4am there, there is a marked shift in the ratio of D to R mail-in ballots. Based on my other posts in this thread, this should not happen. This is an anomaly, and while anomalies are not always fraud, often they may point to fraud.

So what happened just before 4am CST in Wisconsin? This did:
https://twitter.com/mattsmith_news/status/1323914505638809601

Around 3am Wisconsin time, a fresh batch of 169k new absentee ballots arrived. They were supposed to stop accepting new ballots, but eh, whatever I guess.

By 4am the D to R ratio was all thrown out of whack. That is because these ballots were not sampled from the real Wisconsin voter population, and they were not randomized in the mail sorting system with the rest of the other ballots. They inherently have a different D to R signature than the rest of the ballots, quite possibly because additional ballots were added to the batch, either through backdating or ballot manufacturing. Think of this as being kind of analogous to carbon-14 dating, but for ballot batch authenticity.

Let's look at another anomaly:

☐ Data Scientist !!zy/gpKYdTjE (ID: +Uqa9C3q) 11/08/20(Sun)01:11:43 No.288838893 ▶ >>288839450 >>288840408

Here is Pennsylvania's vote counting history. For the first part of the vote counting process, we see the same pattern for mail-in ballots that we've seen in every other state in the country, which is a relatively stable D to R ratio that gradually drifts R as more ballots come in from rural outlying areas.

But then as counting continues, the D to R ratio in mail-in ballots inexplicably begin increasing. Again, this should not happen, and it is observed almost nowhere else in the country, because all of the ballots are randomly shuffled in the mail system and should be homogeneous during counting. The only exceptions to this are other suspect states that also have anomalies.

Again, this is likely evidence of ballot backdating or manufacturing.

Let's look at another anomaly:

☐ Data Scientist !!zy/gpKYdTjE (ID: +Uqa9C3q) 11/08/20(Sun)01:17:56 No.288840408 ▶ ~~>>288841023~~ >>288841602 >>288841856 >>288843797 >>288844925 >>288849558

and again all over the country. What appears to be happening is that points on the straight line are actually mail in votes. The reason they're so homogeneous across with respect to the ratio of Biden vs. Trump votes is that they get randomly shuffled in the mail like a deck of cards. Since the ballots are randomly mixed together during transport, spanning areas occupied by multiple voting demographics, we can expect that the ratio of mail-in Biden ballots to mail-in Trump ballots will remain relatively constant over time and across different reporting updates.

Let's dig a little deeper into this:

Here is a plot of the same Florida voting data, but this time it's the ratio of Biden to Trump ballots, versus time. What we see is that the initial ballot reportings are very noisy and "random".

The initial reporting represents in-person voting. These vote reports have such large variation because in-person voting happens across different geographic areas that have different political alignments. We can see this same pattern of noisy in-person voting, followed by homogeneous mail-in reporting in almost all cases:

Now in fairness, Virginia is the only state out of the 50 that has anomalies but has not had accusations of voter fraud yet. I think this is the exception that proves the rule. I'm not sure what's special about Virginia that causes its mail-in-votes to shift D so much over time, but here it is as proof that I'm not hiding anything or being biased.

TL;DR: Dems shot themselves in the foot because making everyone do mail-in ballots actually makes it easier to catch mail-in ballot fraud. Because all of the ballots go through the postal system, they get shuffled like a deck of cards, so we expect reported ballot return to be extremely UNIFORM in terms of dem vs. rep ratio, but to drift slightly towards reps over time because some of those ballots travel farther. We can use this pattern to detect election anomalies.

DeSantis tries to vote, learns someone hacked his info

A 20-year-old Naples man left Gov. Ron DeSantis stalled while attempting to vote, accused of changing the governor's address in the state's voter database.

Agents said Anthony Steven Guevara also accessed the voter registrations for U.S. Sen. Rick Scott and sports celebrities Michael Jordan and LeBron James, but made no changes.
Anthony Steven Guevara

Police arrested Guevara on Tuesday, a day after the governor discovered the anomaly while trying to cast a ballot.

According to investigators, Guevara logged onto the Florida Department of State website, entered the governor's date of birth (obtained through a Wikipedia search), and changed his address to a home in West Palm Beach, apparently that of an unnamed YouTube personality.

DeSantis votes in Leon County, home to Tallahassee.

DeSantis did not approve any change of address, investigators said. He contacted the Florida Department of Law Enforcement immediately after learning of the address change.

His office did not immediately return a request for comment on Wednesday.

Law enforcement tracked down Guevara's address by obtaining the IP address of the computer that sent the request and, via a subpoena to provider Comcast, discovered Guevara's address, according to the arrest report.

An FDLE digital forensic examiner later examined Guevara's laptop and found Google searches for "Florida my vote" and "Florida governor," investigators said. The computer also had accessed the website dos.myflorida.com and DeSantis' Wikipedia page.

U.S.--A study has found a strong connection between believing Russia rigged the 2016 election and now suddenly believing elections are entirely foolproof, trustworthy, and unhackable.

"It seems that people who screamed about Russia for 4 years now have a 100% chance of encouraging everyone to accept the 2020 election results without question," said study head Dr. Rupert Manning. "It's basically all the way across the board: if you believed that Vladimir Putin somehow hacked voting machines, purchased a bunch of memes, and raised an army of millions of Russian bots to disrupt the election and get Donald Trump elected, you certainly now believe that our elections are completely safe and secure."

The 2020 US Presidential election far exceeded 2 standard deviations of historical voter turnout over the past ~100 years.

A statistically improbable outcome.

For comparison, both the 2012 and 2016 elections with Obama were well within a single standard deviation.

Joe Biden Turns A Century Of Election Data On Its Head

- For nearly 150 years, every president who has gained votes in a re-election campaign has also won re-election.
- Trump gained 11 million more votes than 2016, but Biden somehow overcame those odds.
- Trump won the highest share of minority voters for a GOP candidate since 1960.
- Trump grew his support among black voters by 50% over 2016.
- Biden's support among black voters fell below 90%, the level below which Democratic presidential candidates usually lose.
- Biden shattered the popular vote record while winning a record low of 17% of counties.
- Obama won 873 counties in 2008, while Biden only won 524 counties in 2020, but somehow outdid Obama in total votes.
- Biden is set to become the first president in 60 years to lose Ohio & Florida on his way to election.
- Biden is set to become the second president in 168 years to lose Ohio, Florida, & Iowa.
- Trump won 18/19 Bellwether counties which have a near perfect record over the last 40 years.
- Biden under performed Hillary Clinton across the country except for in few cities; Milwaukee, Detroit, Atlanta, & Philadelphia.
- Republicans won across the country, but Biden somehow beat Trump.
- Republicans won 27/27 House "Toss-ups", while keeping the Senate Majority, and winning more state house chambers.
- No incumbent who has received 75% of the primary vote has ever lost re-election.
- Trump won 94% of the primary vote, which is the fourth highest all time (Eisenhower, Nixon, Clinton, & Obama).
- In fact, Trump is only 1 of 5 incumbents since 1912 to receive more than 90% of the primary vote.
- Trump set a record for most primary votes received by an incumbent in history with more than 18 million votes.

The fate of empires and Search for survival

Book by John Bagot Glubb

Fourth, many of the foreign immigrants will probably belong to races originally conquered by and absorbed into the empire. While the empire is enjoying its High Noon of prosperity, all these people are proud and glad to be imperial citizens. But when decline sets in, it is extraordinary how the memory of ancient wars, perhaps centuries before, is suddenly revived, and local or provincial movements appear demanding secession or independence. Some day this phenomenon will doubtless appear in the now apparently monolithic and authoritarian Soviet empire. It is amazing for how long such provincial sentiments can survive.

I was there IRL, ask whatever you want. I'll tell you one thing immediately, the whole "antifa" and "they were let in" narratives are bullshit. The police lines that the officers willingly left are the ones that were incomplete and far out in front of the congressional building. They started setting them up once they saw how huge the crowds from the rally were, and ironically, those police lines were so far out that it pissed people off royally (because we had every intention of protesting on the steps of congress). Also, the security was VERY lopsided, because they had to reallocate officers quickly. Something people don't quite see in videos; in the hallway that protestors were "heave-hoing", they moved like 40 police officers in there at one point, and since ~50 had already been steamrolled in the police lines in front of the building, they had to pull them from elsewhere. The narratives that the mainstream news is generating are simply demoralization campaigns, they don't want people to realize they CAN arrest these fuckers without their permission. They aren't invincible.

Also, another thing, only two people died on the day of the rally. There was the woman who was shot in the neck (that was legit), and an officer who was pushing back against push in the main door (who accidentally tased himself and got a heart attack). The rest? All of those were made up by the news after the fact. Same thing with the "poop smearing", that didn't happen. It's worthwhile to mention it was spreading around on the day of the rally that it was a 17-year-old girl who was shot, tons of people were saying that. So I don't know if "ashley babbit" is actually the specific person, but it's very possible that she was just identified wrongly on jan. 6.

Jan. 6 was the most patriotic thing I have ever seen in my life, and if they think they can certify a clearly fraudulent election and get away with it, they have another thing coming to them. Specifically, they have jan. 20 coming; almost everybody on jan. 6 had vowed to come back with guns.

This is with or without trump's support btw. I really don't care if his speech where he promised to arrest us is a deepfake or not. He's our employee, not our boss. If he participates in election fraud, he's going to be arrested as well. Giving up in the fight for the future of the human race is treason. Understand that the people currently in congress want nothing more than to enslave the entirety of humanity (as if the covid hoax wasn't enough of a clue).

FBI criminal complaint on Capitol incursion used Photoshopped 4-chan hoax picture as evidence

By Thomas Lifson

Just when you thought the FBI couldn't fall any further, the Bureau utterly, hilariously, and luridly beclowns itself. In a formal document, a criminal charge. Using a Photoshopped picture from 4-chan, the reviled (by all people who abhor wrongthink) website where a wag substituted a lurid picture for the official portrait hanging on the wall of the US Capitol in the background of a shot of the Viking horn helmet guy and others who stormed in on January 6, 2021.

Seamus Hughes was the eagle eye who spotted it, though the arrow in his picture on the following tweet directs the eye away from the object of humor:

> I've studied extremism for 15 years, I've reviewed mostly every court record for decades. I can honestly say very little surprises me. That said, I have absolutely no idea what to say about the Internet image the FBI used in a criminal complaint of the picture hanging on the wall pic.twitter.com/nznszFmif7

You are mistaken; today was a huge victory for everyone besides the globalist order and the handful of teenagers who literally thought that Trump, a cushy billionaire with everything going for him, would declare himself some kind of South American dictator. It was a win for National Socialists and a win for conservatives.

What we witnessed today seems on the surface to be pretty insignificant - after all, a bunch of Americans just stormed a property and messed around inside, but it exposed three crucial elements in the present order, and it is vitally important that everyone understand them:

1) The present powers that be comprise a paper tiger. For a brief moment politicians were reeling. They took ages to respond and there was no unified response, and this from just a handful of people running around without a plan in a government space. Imagine what a concerted force with an actual mission and leader could accomplish.

2) It exposed without a doubt the pathetic political theatre for all to see. No sooner had real action been taken when Trump appeared on television pitifully appealing to people to not act on their emotions. The people involved, knowingly or not, called the establishment's bluff, and the establishment shat itself at the result - people were never intended to do anything of real consequence.

3) The entire political class has now exposed themselves as traitors to the people's interest by denouncing the actions of the citizens today. Not a single politician has stood in solidarity with what amounts to peaceful political action by the working class. They are all enemies and must be treated accordingly.

Today will go down in history as a perfect example of each of these points and will enable genuine conservatives to take real action in future. Many of the strategic failings of the Jewish oligarchy have been laid bare for all to see and plan against in the future.

This is a pretty long article, but stick with me, it's worth the read

>"People have completely forgotten that in 1972 we had over nineteen hundred domestic bombings in the United States." — Max Noel, FBI (ret.)
>The 1970s underground wasn't small. It was hundreds of people becoming urban guerrillas. Bombing buildings: the Pentagon, the Capitol, courthouses, restaurants, corporations. Robbing banks. Assassinating police. People really thought that revolution was imminent, and thought violence would bring it about. >people don't want to remember how much leftist violence was actively supported by mainstream leftist infrastructure. I'll say this much for righty terrorist Eric Rudolph: the sonofabitch was caught dumpster-diving in a rare break from hiding in the woods. During his fugitive days, Weatherman's Bill Ayers was on a nice houseboat paid for by radical lawyers.

>The Weathermen (technically, the name of the group was Weatherman, singular) came out of a group called Students for a Democratic Society (SDS). SDS was a college organization with a bunch of campus chapters. That meant existing machinery that worked, and membership numbers. A fantastic resource, if you want to mine it to build a guerilla movement.
>By '67, Burrough notes, an SDS leader is saying in the New York Times, "We are working to build a guerilla force in an urban environment."
>in 1968, many radicals absolutely believed that the United States was getting ready to collapse. One Weatherman puts it: "We actually believed there was going to be a revolution. We believed 3rd World countries would rise up and cause crises that would bring down the industrialized West, and we believed it was going to happen tomorrow, or maybe the day after tomorrow, like 1976."

>SDS leadership is disproportionately well-off Jewish kids at elite universities. The kind of people who create Facebook.
>When it shakes out, two of the big SDS movers and shakers are John "JJ" Jacobs and Bernadine Dorne. Their goal: to take over SDS entirely. Because, remember, organization is critical. SDS is a nationwide organization. And college campuses are receptive to radical messages.
>How receptive? In fall of 1968, there were 41 bombings and arson cases on college campuses. We're not talking letters under doors or vandalism, here. We're talking about Molotov cocktails setting shit on fire. Here's how radical SDS was: Burrough notes that Weatherman's opponents for leadership in SDS elections were "Progressive Labor," who were literal Maoists. To distinguish themselves, Weatherman called for white radicals to live like John Brown: ie, to kill the enemies of black liberty.
>The FBI was up SDS's ass, and Weatherman's. They harassed the core cadre. Beat them. Threatened them. This does not dissuade revolutionaries. Weatherman started doing crazy stuff with SDS: street brawls, public nudity, sexual orgies, ordering established couples to break up. If you think it sounds like a cult, you're right. This is literally cult indoctrination stuff. They were remaking people, seeking the hardest of hardcore.
>The Black Panthers, erstwhile allies, thought Weatherman was nuts. But Weatherman, despite pro-black rhetoric, didn't care. (Weatherman's pro-black rhetoric was mainly Phariseeism, done to win acclaim from other whites. Basically, they're Tim Wise.)
>Just to skim through some of the stuff Burroughs addresses: Weatherman's Bernadine Dohrn goes to Cuba, meets a North Vietnamese delegation, and literally discusses forming an American VC (!!!). Weatherman-controlled SDS chapters around the country are taking over classrooms, running through schools yelling, promoting Days of Rage. As commies, Weatherman is into in fomenting revolt among the working class. Their problem, they keep discovering, is that working class wants to beat the shit out of them

>Bill Ayers claimed that Weatherman never meant to hurt anyone; this is absolutely a lie. Their first bombing (which they never officially claimed, but which members admitted to Burrough) was a police shift change in Berkeley. Weatherman remains the prime suspect in a police station bombing in the Haight that killed a police officer, though they deny this. In 1970, Weatherman planned to kill a bunch of people at a dance at Fort Dix… but instead blew up their own NYC safehouse in a work accident.
>A reminder: during this period Weatherman is being hunted by the FBI. So how are they staying fed, sheltered, alive? Part of it is fake I.D.s. The other part of Weatherman staying alive and free is: they are being funded and supported by the National Lawyers' Guild

>Weatherman bombed the Pentagon in '72, but by 1974, they're fighting among themselves, arguing about feminism (hence their name change to Weather Underground). And this is where Weather Underground becomes incredibly relevant to 2016 again: because they decided to re-enter mainstream politics. To do this, they decided, they would take over the radical left, and use that as wedge/entry point to change society
>This was the plan: 1) Publish a manifesto (Prairie Fire) 2) Make an aboveground group, the Prairie Fire Distribution Committee — not Weather! oh, no! not Weather! — no, just people who admired Weather 3) Turn the PFDC into a permanent group, the PF Organizing Committee 4) Hold a PFOC conference to unite the entire radical left under PFOC 5) Weather's people deals with their legal issues, then officially take PFOC over, ta-dah!
>Everything goes smoothly in Weather's plan until the PFOC conference happens, which looks stunningly like what we're seeing emerge in today's Democratic party politics. The white leftist elites (Weather) are stunned to discover that the diverse radicals (black, American Indian, Puerto Rican) they've imagined leading actually have opinions of their own, and perfectly rational desires for their own power, and no desire to be ruled by Weather's upper-crust radicals.
>In the end, the Weather's fugitives turned themselves in with little trouble. To give you an idea: Bill Ayers was scott-free. Cathy Wilkerson did a year. Bernardine Dohrn got three years probation and a $1500 fine. The radical lawyers, accessories to Weather's bombings? Nada. Zip. Zero

▶ Anonymous 01/22/17 (Sun) 11:18:54 ID: e345dd No.8882032 >>8916339

>They did pretty well afterwards. Bernardine Dohrn was a clinical associate professor of law at Northwestern University for more than twenty years. Another Weatherman, Eleanor Stein, was arrested on the run in 1981; she got a law degree in 1986 and became an administrative law judge. Radical attorney Michael Kennedy, who did more than any to keep Weather alive, has been special advisor to President of the UN General Assembly. And, of course, Barack Obama, twice President of the United States, started his political career in Bill Ayers's living room.
>This is the difference between the hard Left & hard Right: you can be a violent leftist radical and go on to live a pretty kickass life. This is especially true if you're a leftist of the credentialed class: Ph.D. or J.D.

>1.Radicalism can come from anywhere. The Weathermen weren't oppressed, or poor, or anything like that. They were hard leftists. That's it.
>2.Sustained political violence is dependent on the willing cooperation of admirers and accomplices. The Left has these. The Right does not.
>3.Not a violent issue, but a political one: ethnic issues involving access to power can both empower and derail radical movements.

>Institutions are one of two major assets that the Left has and the Right lacks. The other is Shock Troops.
>Institutions are organizations the Left controls that operate for the benefit of the Left's people. The Right doesn't really have these. As an example, there are occasional hard right lawyers, but so far as I know there is no such thing as the Reactionary Lawyers' Guild.
>The other thing that the Left has that the Right doesn't are Shock Troops: unshameable actors.
>Institutions and Shock Troops are important resources for the Left. They work together. The Left's Institutions accept, cater to, train, and/or employ its people, including Shock Troops. And, in the cases of several Weathermen (and Davis), give them cushy jobs in their Shock-Troop retirement.

I'm gonna skip over the section on black leftist terrorism, but the take away there is that they didn't have the institutions that groups like the Weathermen did, so they met with less success

This section is on the FALN
>The President they tried to kill was Harry Truman, in 1950, as told in the book American Gunfight. They shot up Congress in 1954, wounding five Congressmen (who recovered). They bombed American cities like mad in the 1970s.
>The '70s bombing campaign was done by a group called FALN. The FBI's working theory is that the FALN was a creation of Cuban intelligence.
>FALN starts from a couple of different places. One path goes back to a dude named Filiberto Ojeda Rios, a Puerto Rican communist.

>The second path to FALN traces back to Chicago, and a young Puerto Rican named Oscar Lopez Rivera. He and his high school buddies were young activists
>That said, FALN had an amazing set-up in the hard left. Not only were they trained in bomb-making by Weather Underground, they had possibly the best Institution any radical group has ever had: the Episcopal Church.
>FALN started bombing in '74. Their demands were 1) Puerto Rican independence 2) release of PR separatist prisoners. Their deeds were nasty. FALN targeted cops with a fake call and a boobytrap, disfiguring one. They bombed a restaurant on Wall Street, killing 4, injuring over 40. Outrage at the deaths changed their approach. They started bombing at night, setting off department store fires — nonlethal, but harrowing. More harrowing: FALN opened new fronts in Chicago and in Washington, D.C. Bombing in three cities demonstrates serious logistics.

>Eventually cops lucked out: a Chicago guy robbing his new neighbors found shitloads of explosives, and tried to sell them to a police informant. Using building records, the Chicago PD and the FBI got a name: Carlos Torres, a Puerto Rican community organizer whose wife worked for the feds — she was an equal employment specialist at the EPA.
>The FALN safehouse also yielded a copy of a business letter to one Maria Cueto, of the National Commission on Hispanic Affairs. The NCHA was a charitable organization affiliated with the Episcopal Church. When the FBI started looking into it, their hair stood on end. Basically, every. single. person of interest in the FBI's FALN investigation was, or had been, on NCHA's board of directors.
>Maria Cueto was FALN. She had used her position to put a half-dozen FALN members, including chief bombmaker Guillermo Morales, on the NCHA board. Let me emphasize how amazing this was: these were paid positions. Puerto Rican terrorists were being paid thousands of dollars by the Episcopal Church. Like cannibalizing and repurposing a nonprofit. It may be the greatest Institution in American radical history. FALN was literally using a charity run by the Episcopal Church as a front.

If only you knew how bad things really are

>You would think the Episcopal Church would be outraged. Horrified to be dragged into the legal proceedings. You'd be wrong. Liberal Episcopal bishops were enraged — with the FBI! Claimed govt was out to stop the church from funding progressive Hispanic groups! The institution the FALN had compromised went full-force to defend them and mobilized mainstream institutions on FALN's behalf!
>Cueto and a colleague were hauled before a grand jury. The National Council of Churches (!!!) rallied behind them even as FALN went on a new bombing campaign specifically demanding the grand juries be halted.
>Progressive ministers accused the FBI of illegal harassment. FALN radical actions were being supported by mainstream legal lawfare. And the various cases against FALN wore on through 1977, getting nowhere.
>Morales ends up getting arrested

>Radical attorney Susan Tipograph, who insisted that attorney-client privilege exempted her from search, visited Morales on 18 May 1979. Mysteriously, after that, Morales had wire cutters and escapes. Tipograph was never charged.
>In 1980, the FALN attacked the NYC campaign HQ of George H.W. Bush in an effort to destroy voter-registration lists. Another team smashed up the Carter-Mondale HQ in Chicago. The FALN even threatened delegates to the party conventions. Nobody remembers!
>FALN eventually gets arrested for being stupid >in 1999, seeking Puerto Rican voter support in New York for HRC's senate run, President Clinton offered clemency to 16 imprisoned FALN

>What does it mean for us? First, let's be blunt: most political violence is not going to be as well-trained & highly disciplined as FALN. You're not going to see that level of skill again, unless the Cubans decide they want to come to play. What you might see, on both sides, is what to me is the most amazing part of the FALN story: its parasitization of the Episcopal Church.
>Organizations don't have to fully capture institutions. They can latch onto them, and come to be seen as limbs. One person in a position to hire effectively suborned the Episcopal Church to give violent radicals jobs, stability, and even protection. As with everything, the Left will be much better at this kind of operation than the Right will. But the Right might do it on occasion.

>The other takeaway: again, Lefty radicals have more opportunities and more acceptance from their mainstream than Righty ones. I don't see Eric Rudolph getting clemency, no matter the administration. He shouldn't. Nor should have FALN.
>Of course, that didn't stop President Obama, in the last days of his administration, from commuting the sentence of Oscar Lopez Rivera. The decision caused ecstasies of delight in Lin-Manuel Miranda, celebrated author (and former star) of HAMILTON, who pledged to reprise in the role in a Chicago performance especially for Lopez Rivera, whom Miranda referred to as "Don Oscar."

>>I am afraid that the United States is in for political violence in 2017. It could be as bad as or worse than the 1970s. I have some ideas as to what some of it may look like. It really isn't pleasant to think about.

>Let's not mince words: the United States of America is currently engaged in a cold Civil War.
>In North Carolina, the Republican governor lost re-election, so the Republican legislature convened a special session to limit powers of the post. Democrats nationwide howled with justified outrage; as we all know, legislators who dislike a governor should flee the state to block quorum, facilitate occupation of government buildings by mobs, and have allies execute secret raids on homes on the governor's supporters. All of those are things that the Democrats did to oppose a Republican governor in Wisconsin, and the Democrats were pretty cool with it.

>Now, 2017 isn't going to be the 1970s. Goals, situations, and cultures change. The actors want different things. But we can look to the '70s for hints.
>The mental model we have for domestic terrorism in 2017 is shaped by what scares us: mass shooters and jihad. '70s radicals were different. '70s radicals wanted to get away with their crimes. They wanted to avoid detection, they didn't want to get arrested, and they didn't want to die. Most '70s bombers had no moral objection to killing people, but they also didn't go to any great lengths to maximize body count. That's pretty different from 21st-century mass shooters (who tend suicidal) & jihadists (for whom a high body count is part of the message).
>When we're talking about domestic political violence, we're mostly talking about stuff that is coldbloodedly plotted by serious people.
>domestic conflict in the United States could operate in basically four stages:

>1.cold Civil War
>2.targeted political violence, mostly short of murder
>3.political violence with murder as the default
>4.Civil War II

>People tend to think that the Right will be an awesome, horrific force in political violence. The SPLC's donations depend on that idea. Righties tell themselves that of course they'd win a war against Lefties. Tactical Deathbeast vs. Pajama Boy? No contest. Why, Righties have thought about what an effective domestic insurrection would look like. Righties have written books and manifestos!
>The truth: the Left is a lot more organized & prepared for violence than the Right is, and has the advantage of a mainstream more supportive of it.
>The press freaked out and called for a National Conversation every time some shithead punched a protestor at a Trump rally. If Trump fans pulled a Portland, running through the streets, intimidating motorists, smashing windows, what would press reaction be? You don't need me to tell you: pants-shitting hysteria fascism OMG Hitler. When Lefties really did that: "meh, that's what Lefties do." No need for a National Conversation. Certainly not a Clinton disavowal.
>Organizing protests like Portland and the other cities takes experience, efficiency, and a lot of people you can call out. The Left can do that. The Right can't. That is a logistical advantage that is enormous, and it matters. Because a Left that can tell that many people to do that stuff in that many places can also tell at least some of them to do something else.

>How does full-on streetfighting start in the United States of America? My guess is: pretty much like that. "What's the penalty for kicking the living shit out of Leftist protestors?" "Oh, Jesus, we'd be demonized as Nazis." "…what'll they do if we don't kick the living shit out of Leftist protestors?" "They'll — hmmmmmmm…."

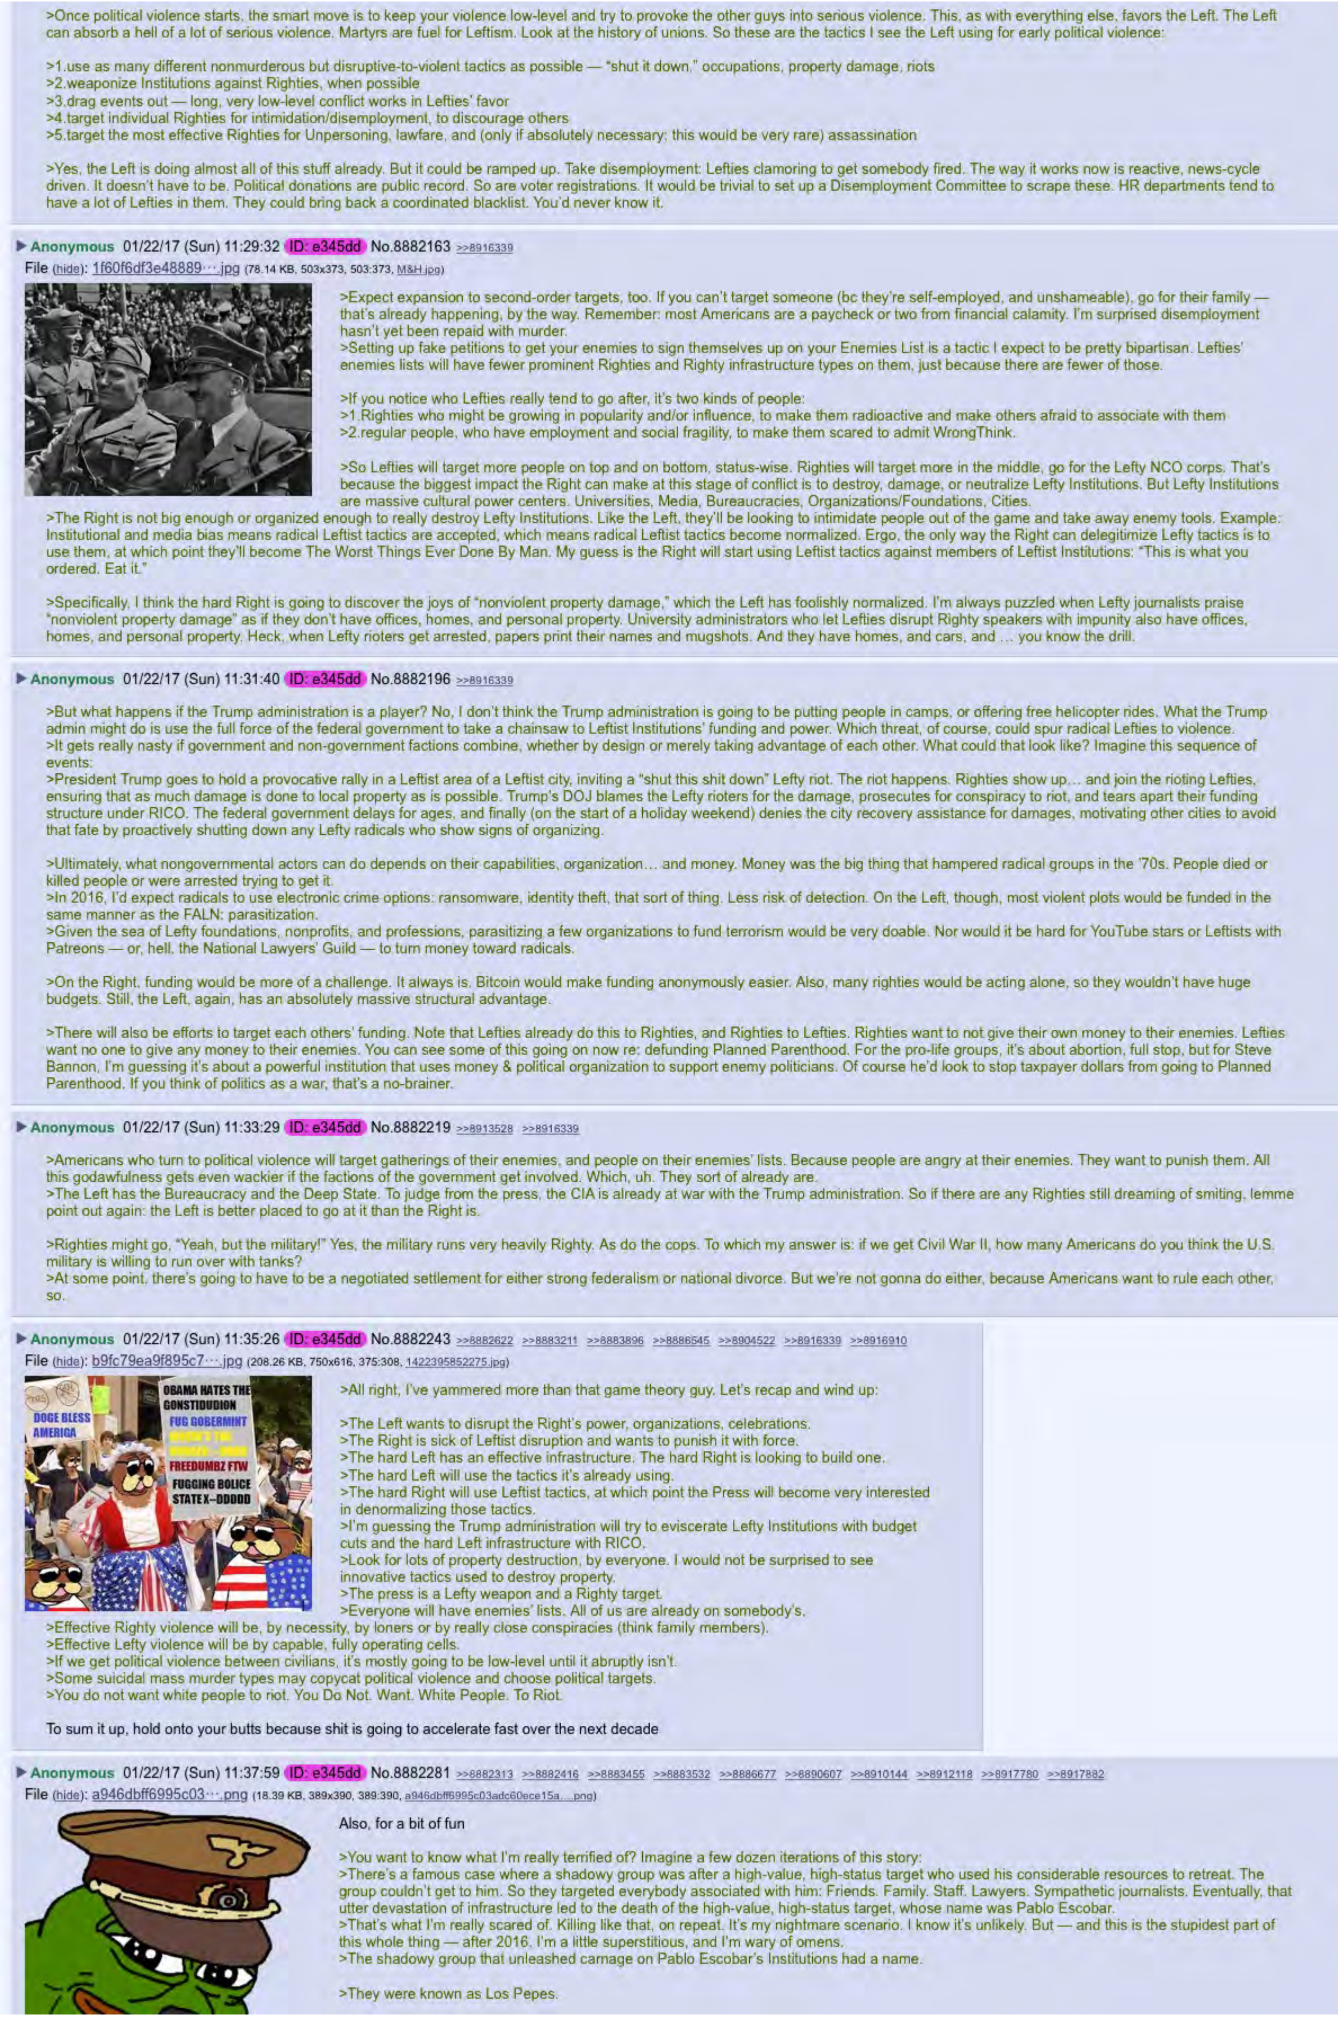
>If at any point in 2017 Trump supporters are harmed or harrassed like the rally in Chicago, expect Righties to get very interested in forming street defense leagues: goons and headhunters to make Black Bloc spit teeth. And they'll be purely defensive. For a while. But they're human. So then they'll think about getting proactive.
>Bluntly: this is dangerous. The people who do it for the Left are literal Communists. What kind of Righties will it draw? Oh, I dunno, I'm guessing people who're comfortable with violence, who don't mind breaking norms or being arrested…
>Let me be blunt, though: with or without literal Nazis, if Lefties pull another Chicago, Righty defense groups will happen. I honestly don't think think the literal Nazis are going to be as involved in streetfighting as you might think. It'd be a distraction. The big thing the hard Right is trying to do right now is create organization and infrastructure. They have, historically, sucked at it
>Why are the Lefties so good at this? Communism. The American Communist Party got fantastic hand-me-down Russian-facilitated training, and shared. But hard Righties learn from overseas compatriots now, too. And a bunch of overseas hard Right movements are aided by the Russians. It's not gonna happen overnight. But in ten or twenty or fifty years, you could have a superbly organized hard Right movement in America.

>Now, you can do two things with radical infrastructure: use it to nudge the mainstream (SDS) or use it for radical action (Weatherman). I think Righties have to go SDS, while Lefties have room to go Weatherman. This is not from any innate philosophical difference, but purely practical. Effective Righty infrastructure is too rare & valuable to risk. (Also, any Righty organization or conspiracy is going to be stocked to the gills with snitches. Look at Malheur. Literally 25% snitches!) So I cannot stress this enough: any righty organization designed from the ground up to be violent is doomed to fail.
>What this means: hard Left violence will be coordinated. Hard Right violence will be distributed.

▶ Anonymous 01/22/17 (Sun) 11:27:40 ID: e345dd No.8882136 >>8916339

>Terrorists are basically mass murderers, or people who want to be. If you think about it, there are three kinds of mass murderers, and the typology applies to political violence too. The first kind is loners. The second kind is conspiracies (which have to be very tight-knit, or somebody narcs). The third kind is guys from the murder factory. A murder factory is a self-perpetuating machine that brings in recruits and spits out killers. Islamic State: that's a murder factory.
>Murder factories are hard to build. Weatherman tried to build one. They failed. The hard Left is bigger with fifty years more experience now, and I still doubt they could make a murder factory without support from a foreign power. That leaves conspiracies for Lefties, and loners for the Right.

>So if Lefty violence will mostly be the result of conspiracies, while Righty violence will mostly be the work of loners, there will be differences in the kinds of things that Lefties and Righties will be able to do. A lone perpetrator can pull off a bombing, for example, but not a riot.
>Left and Right also have different vulnerabilities. The Left is far better at allowing its people, esp radicals, to rise and mainstream. As a result, way more new Lefties attain prominence and effective leadership status than Righties. This makes for a deeper activist bench. With a sea of effective, prominent Lefties, Lefties who are lost will be mourned but not irreplaceable. This is emphatically not the case for Righties. To be perfectly blunt: the Right would be extremely easy to disrupt with targeted assassinations. The Left would not.



>Once political violence starts, the smart move is to keep your violence low-level and try to provoke the other guys into serious violence. This, as with everything else, favors the Left. The Left can absorb a hell of a lot of serious violence. Martyrs are fuel for Leftism. Look at the history of unions. So these are the tactics I see the Left using for early political violence:

>1.use as many different nonmurderous but disruptive-to-violent tactics as possible — "shut it down," occupations, property damage, riots
>2.weaponize Institutions against Righties, when possible
>3.drag events out — long, very low-level conflict works in Lefties' favor
>4.target individual Righties for intimidation/disemployment, to discourage others
>5.target the most effective Righties for Unpersoning, lawfare, and (only if absolutely necessary; this would be very rare) assassination

>Yes, the Left is doing almost all of this stuff already. But it could be ramped up. Take disemployment: Lefties clamoring to get somebody fired. The way it works now is reactive, news-cycle driven. It doesn't have to be. Political donations are public record. So are voter registrations. It would be trivial to set up a Disemployment Committee to scrape these. HR departments tend to have a lot of Lefties in them. They could bring back a coordinated blacklist. You'd never know it.

>Expect expansion to second-order targets, too. If you can't target someone (bc they're self-employed, and unshameable), go for their family — that's already happening, by the way. Remember: most Americans are a paycheck or two from financial calamity. I'm surprised disemployment hasn't yet been repaid with murder.
>Setting up fake petitions to get your enemies to sign themselves up on your Enemies List is a tactic I expect to be pretty bipartisan. Lefties' enemies lists will have fewer prominent Righties and Righty infrastructure types on them, just because there are fewer of those.

>If you notice who Lefties really tend to go after, it's two kinds of people:
>1.Righties who might be growing in popularity and/or influence, to make them radioactive and make others afraid to associate with them
>2.regular people, who have employment and social fragility, to make them scared to admit WrongThink.

>So Lefties will target more people on top and on bottom, status-wise. Righties will target more in the middle, go for the Lefty NCO corps. That's because the biggest impact the Right can make at this stage of conflict is to destroy, damage, or neutralize Lefty Institutions. But Lefty Institutions are massive cultural power centers. Universities, Media, Bureaucracies, Organizations/Foundations, Cities.
>The Right is not big enough or organized enough to really destroy Lefty Institutions. Like the Left, they'll be looking to intimidate people out of the game and take away enemy tools. Example: Institutional and media bias means radical Leftist tactics are accepted, which means radical Leftist tactics become normalized. Ergo, the only way the Right can delegitimize Lefty tactics is to use them, at which point they'll become The Worst Things Ever Done By Man. My guess is the Right will start using Leftist tactics against members of Leftist Institutions: "This is what you ordered. Eat it."

>Specifically, I think the hard Right is going to discover the joys of "nonviolent property damage," which the Left has foolishly normalized. I'm always puzzled when Lefty journalists praise "nonviolent property damage" as if they don't have offices, homes, and personal property. University administrators who let Lefties disrupt Righty speakers with impunity also have offices, homes, and personal property. Heck, when Lefty rioters get arrested, papers print their names and mugshots. And they have homes, and cars, and … you know the drill.

>But what happens if the Trump administration is a player? No, I don't think the Trump administration is going to be putting people in camps, or offering free helicopter rides. What the Trump admin might do is use the full force of the federal government to take a chainsaw to Leftist Institutions' funding and power. Which threat, of course, could spur radical Lefties to violence.
>It gets really nasty if government and non-government factions combine, whether by design or merely taking advantage of each other. What could that look like? Imagine this sequence of events:
>President Trump goes to hold a provocative rally in a Leftist area of a Leftist city, inviting a "shut this shit down" Lefty riot. The riot happens. Righties show up… and join the rioting Lefties, ensuring that as much damage is done to local property as is possible. Trump's DOJ blames the Lefty rioters for the damage, prosecutes for conspiracy to riot, and tears apart their funding structure under RICO. The federal government delays for ages, and finally (on the start of a holiday weekend) denies the city recovery assistance for damages, motivating other cities to avoid that fate by proactively shutting down any Lefty radicals who show signs of organizing.

>Ultimately, what nongovernmental actors can do depends on their capabilities, organization… and money. Money was the big thing that hampered radical groups in the '70s. People died or killed people or were arrested trying to get it.
>In 2016, I'd expect radicals to use electronic crime options: ransomware, identity theft, that sort of thing. Less risk of detection. On the Left, though, most violent plots would be funded in the same manner as the FALN: parasitization.
>Given the sea of Lefty foundations, nonprofits, and professions, parasitizing a few organizations to fund terrorism would be very doable. Nor would it be hard for YouTube stars or Leftists with Patreons — or, hell, the National Lawyers' Guild — to turn money toward radicals.

>On the Right, funding would be more of a challenge. It always is. Bitcoin would make funding anonymously easier. Also, many righties would be acting alone, so they wouldn't have huge budgets. Still, the Left, again, has an absolutely massive structural advantage.

>There will also be efforts to target each others' funding. Note that Lefties already do this to Righties, and Righties to Lefties. Righties want to not give their own money to their enemies. Lefties want no one to give any money to their enemies. You can see some of this going on now re: defunding Planned Parenthood. For the pro-life groups, it's about abortion, full stop, but for Steve Bannon, I'm guessing it's about a powerful institution that uses money & political organization to support enemy politicians. Of course he'd look to stop taxpayer dollars from going to Planned Parenthood. If you think of politics as a war, that's a no-brainer.

>Americans who turn to political violence will target gatherings of their enemies, and people on their enemies' lists. Because people are angry at their enemies. They want to punish them. All this godawfulness gets even wackier if the factions of the government get involved. Which, uh. They sort of already are.
>The Left has the Bureaucracy and the Deep State. To judge from the press, the CIA is already at war with the Trump administration. So if there are any Righties still dreaming of smiting, lemme point out again: the Left is better placed to go at it than the Right is.

>Righties might go, "Yeah, but the military!" Yes, the military runs very heavily Righty. As do the cops. To which my answer is: if we get Civil War II, how many Americans do you think the U.S. military is willing to run over with tanks?
>At some point, there's going to have to be a negotiated settlement for either strong federalism or national divorce. But we're not gonna do either, because Americans want to rule each other, so.

>I'm guessing the Trump administration will try to eviscerate Lefty Institutions with budget cuts and the hard Left infrastructure with RICO.
>Look for lots of property destruction, by everyone. I would not be surprised to see innovative tactics used to destroy property.
>The press is a Lefty weapon and a Righty target.
>Everyone will have enemies' lists. All of us are already on somebody's.
>Effective Righty violence will be, by necessity, by loners or by really close conspiracies (think family members).
>Effective Lefty violence will be by capable, fully operating cells.
>If we get political violence between civilians, it's mostly going to be low-level until it abruptly isn't.
>Some suicidal mass murder types may copycat political violence and choose political targets.

>We live in a democracy. LARPing as though you live under a different system is delusional. Your entire post and attitude is that of someone who needs to think he is special, and so you probably reject democracy and voting merely because it makes you feel enlightened to do so. You can't imagine being strong enough to enact change from within that system, so you reject it completely.

Democracy itself is a permanent tyranny of corrupt oligarchs, the military-industrial complex, scheming bankers and media bosses. Democracy is a system in which the amoral liars compete in popularity contests and get to escape all consequences for their disastrous decisions. And all for what? So that the few of us still in denial can bask in the illusion of control for a few minutes once every few years?

By being based on popularity, rather than quality or merit, it will always favor the clever liars and schemers, the cynical actors and the sociopathic social climbers. By having short term limits, it insures that no politician ever has to deal with the long term consequences of their policies. Inversely, the honest men, the honorable men, will have less success at getting elected because they will say unpleasant truths and refrain from making impossible promises. The ones attracted to public office in a democracy are those who see it as a way to make dishonest profits through corruption, with little or no risk of being held accountable. Those who are not corrupt gain little benefit from their office, and thus are less likely to bother with the whole process.

The quality of any government depends entirely on the human quality of it's decision makers and their ability to implement their policies. Thus we can judge any political system based on how effective it is at getting the best people to the top and preventing the worst people from being in positions of power and influence. By this criteria we can confidently say that democracy is the worst political system there ever was, and could ever be.

The democratic system is literally made to be smoke and mirrors. Democracy does not exist, it's shadow oligarchy. The idea that democracy makes everyone equal is so stupid I have to wonder if Jews aren't right in the term "cattle" since so many normalfags buy it. Democracy means that whoever has the most power to shape the views of the masses is king, meaning the end result is an oligarchy, but a much nastier one than those of the past. With democracy, the oligarchs are not held responsible for their rulings, as they shape society's flow and who the masses elect, they rule by proxy through the politicians. The politicians are the ones taking the flak while the actual decision makers can get away scot-free from the consequences of their decisions. What's more, the feeling of guilt is pushed onto said masses as well, as people think "well he was terrible but WE should have known better than voting for him!" (which is true, but they were playing a rigged game from the start) and away from the ones actually responsible.

On top of that, democracy causes infighting. It creates an "us vs them" mentality INSIDE of the community instead of the notion that you are all in the same boat. Suddenly it's not about your nation and people, it's about a vague nonsensical (modern normalfag political ideologies are basically that, they don't tackle actual problems) ideology and "tribe" (which is just determined by what brainwashing channel you watched on TV growing up). This greatly weakens nationalism, especially since these non-ideologies are global and create a false sense that there is more division inside of countries than between them (which is true, but these divisions are artificial illusions in the form of non-ideologies).

Also the people at the top don't own anything. It's not THEIR people, it's not THEIR country, they just direct the masses in a way that will net them the greatest personal gain. They have no interest in bettering the county and its people, because it's not theirs. Mind you, the kind of people that are at the top of this game likely wouldn't give two shits even if they did own the country.

Democracy is the biggest fucking scam in history.

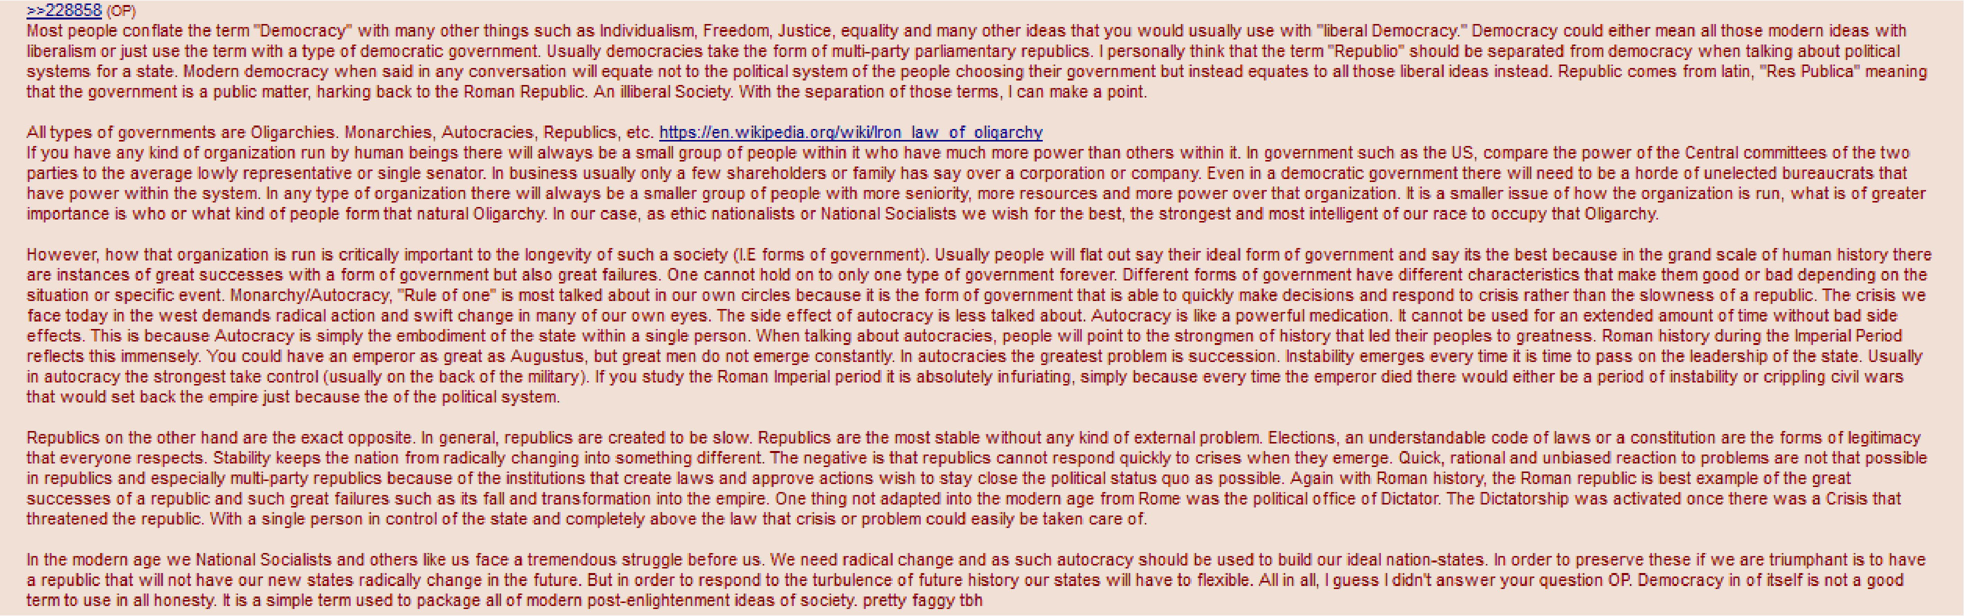
Democracy rewards popular ideas instead of good ideas. Even in a homogenous society where only educated, employed, tax paying males who own property could vote, it would still be consensus rule which always tends to drag things down to the lowest common denominator.

The main argument in favor of it is that "the people" should have a say in the decisions that affect their lives. The problem with this though is that even intelligent, well bred people don't always understand the complexities of politics or economics well enough to make informed decisions, so democracy usually ends up becoming some sort of representative system like the ones that most modern nations have. What you usually end up with in that situation is what we have: a huge, complex bureaucracy governed by career politicians who do whatever they have to do to win votes while advancing their own personal agenda.

A much simpler, much better system is to just have a monarch who inherits power by right and is raised from birth to understand statecraft and to think in terms of what's best for the nation. Worst case scenario you get the occasional bad king who needs to be deposed and replaced with someone better. Compare that to our current system, where "checks and balances" have created an impossibly complex webwork of corruption that is proving almost impossible to repair from within.



>>228858 (OP)
Most people conflate the term "Democracy" with many other things such as Individualism, Freedom, Justice, equality and many other ideas that you would usually use with "liberal Democracy." Democracy could either mean all those modern ideas with liberalism or just use the term with a type of democratic government. Usually democracies take the form of multi-party parliamentary republics. I personally think that the term "Republio" should be separated from democracy when talking about political systems for a state. Modern democracy when said in any conversation will equate not to the political system of the people choosing their government but instead equates to all those liberal ideas instead. Republic comes from latin, "Res Publica" meaning that the government is a public matter, harking back to the Roman Republic. An illiberal Society. With the separation of those terms, I can make a point.

All types of governments are Oligarchies. Monarchies, Autocracies, Republics, etc. https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Iron_law_of_oligarchy
If you have any kind of organization run by human beings there will always be a small group of people within it who have much more power than others within it. In government such as the US, compare the power of the Central committees of the two parties to the average lowly representative or single senator. In business usually only a few shareholders or family has say over a corporation or company. Even in a democratic government there will need to be a horde of unelected bureaucrats that have power within the system. In any type of organization there will always be a smaller group of people with more seniority, more resources and more power over that organization. It is a smaller issue of how the organization is run, what is of greater importance is who or what kind of people form that natural Oligarchy. In our case, as ethic nationalists or National Socialists we wish for the best, the strongest and most intelligent of our race to occupy that Oligarchy.

However, how that organization is run is critically important to the longevity of such a society (I.E forms of government). Usually people will flat out say their ideal form of government and say its the best because in the grand scale of human history there are instances of great successes with a form of government but also great failures. One cannot hold on to only one type of government forever. Different forms of government have different characteristics that make them good or bad depending on the situation or specific event. Monarchy/Autocracy, "Rule of one" is most talked about in our own circles because it is the form of government that is able to quickly make decisions and respond to crisis rather than the slowness of a republic. The crisis we face today in the west demands radical action and swift change in many of our own eyes. The side effect of autocracy is less talked about. Autocracy is like a powerful medication. It cannot be used for an extended amount of time without bad side effects. This is because Autocracy is simply the embodiment of the state within a single person. When talking about autocracies, people will point to the strongmen of history that led their peoples to greatness. Roman history during the Imperial Period reflects this immensely. You could have an emperor as great as Augustus, but great men do not emerge constantly. In autocracies the greatest problem is succession. Instability emerges every time it is time to pass on the leadership of the state. Usually in autocracy the strongest take control (usually on the back of the military). If you study the Roman Imperial period it is absolutely infuriating, simply because every time the emperor died there would either be a period of instability or crippling civil wars that would set back the empire just because the of the political system.

Republics on the other hand are the exact opposite. In general, republics are created to be slow. Republics are the most stable without any kind of external problem. Elections, an understandable code of laws or a constitution are the forms of legitimacy that everyone respects. Stability keeps the nation from radically changing into something different. The negative is that republics cannot respond quickly to crises when they emerge. Quick, rational and unbiased reaction to problems are not that possible in republics and especially multi-party republics because of the institutions that create laws and approve actions wish to stay close the political status quo as possible. Again with Roman history, the Roman republic is best example of the great successes of a republic and such great failures such as its fall and transformation into the empire. One thing not adapted into the modern age from Rome was the political office of Dictator. The Dictatorship was activated once there was a Crisis that threatened the republic. With a single person in control of the state and completely above the law that crisis or problem could easily be taken care of.

In the modern age we National Socialists and others like us face a tremendous struggle before us. We need radical change and as such autocracy should be used to build our ideal nation-states. In order to preserve these if we are triumphant is to have a republic that will not have our new states radically change in the future. But in order to respond to the turbulence of future history our states will have to flexible. All in all, I guess I didn't answer your question OP. Democracy in of itself is not a good term to use in all honesty. It is a simple term used to package all of modern post-enlightenment ideas of society. pretty faggy tbh

Puviani
Teoria della illusione finanziaria a cura di Franco Volpi

Answering to the question: "If a government were trying to squeeze as much money as possible out of a population, what would it do?", Italian economist Amilcare Puviani elaborated the following canon of eleven fiscal commandments for modern governance:

1. The use of indirect rather than direct taxes, so that the tax is hidden in the price of goods.
2. Inflation, by which the state reduces the value of everyone else's currency.
3. Borrowing, so as to postpone the necessary taxation.
4. Gift and luxury taxes, where the tax accompanies the receipt or purchase of something special, lessening the annoyance of the tax.
5. "Temporary" taxes, which somehow never get repealed when the emergency passes.
6. Taxes that exploit social conflict, by placing higher taxes on unpopular groups.
7. The threat of social collapse or withholding monopoly government services if taxes are reduced.
8. Collection of the total tax burden in relatively small increments over time, rather than in a yearly lump sum.
9. Taxes whose exact incidence cannot be predicted in advance, thus keeping the taxpayer unaware of just how much he is paying.
10. Extraordinary budget complexity to hide the budget process from public understanding.
11. The use of generalized expenditure categories to make it difficult for outsiders to assess the individual components of the budget."

Funding cuts to parks and trails has nothing to do with the cost of maintaining the trails. It is simply government extortion to avoid having to actually cut real uneeded expenses. Anytime there is any budget shortfall the first thing a sitting group of elected officials does is cut those services that the public directly uses. Libraries, Parks and Recreation, Museums, etc. In most cases these are the least expensive part of government operations. heck a hiking trails maintenance costs are so minimal as to be absolutely negligable. But by closing them it extorts people into making the choice "Well I really want my parks so I will pay more in taxes and fees" rather than the government actually cutting the wasteful spending such as crooked asphault contracts to politicians brother in laws or high paid do nothing commissions lawyers and administrators. This is the same reason that whenever voters vote down a school budget the first thing the school district does is cancel the school bus service. It maximizes the inconvenience and pain to the voters in the most direct way possible in order to get their desired result. It's a crooked scam that we have let go on for most of the 20th century.

Indeed. Another facet of political psychology is to distract from these crooked tactics and engage the public in dirty battles of rhetoric. It is but a game, with pretend "sides", and the only rule is never speak of this game so the public is never any wiser.

I propose that what made America great was an abundance of natural resources and an incompetent government (by design) that took a few hundred years before it could manage to wedge itself in between competent people exploiting those resources. Now that government is firmly wedged in, the run is over.

How to catch pigs? Anonymous ID:wJ4B8z33 Sun 18 Nov 2018 01:46:26 No.193799275 View Reply Original Report [113 / 23 / 64]

There was a chemistry professor in a large college that had some exchange students in the class. One day while the class was in the lab, the professor noticed one young man, an exchange student, who kept rubbing his back and stretching as if his back hurt.

The professor asked the young man what was the matter. The student told him he had a bullet lodged in his back. He had been shot while fighting communists in his native country who were trying to overthrow his country's government and install a new communist regime. In the midst of his story, he looked at the professor and asked a strange question. He asked: "Do you know how to catch wild pigs?"

The professor thought it was a joke and asked for the punchline. The young man said that it was no joke. "You catch wild pigs by finding a suitable place in the woods and putting corn on the ground. The pigs find it and begin to come every day to eat the free food".

"When they are used to coming every day, you put a fence down one side of the place where they are used to coming. When they get used to the fence, they begin to eat the corn again and you put up another side of the fence". "They get used to that and start to eat again.

You continue until you have all four sides of the fence up with a gate in the last side". "The pigs, which are used to the free corn, start to come through the gate to eat that free corn again. You then slam the gate on them and catch the whole herd".

"Suddenly the wild pigs have lost their freedom. They run around and around inside the fence, but they are caught. Soon they go back to eating the free corn. They are so used to it that they have forgotten how to forage in the woods for themselves, so they accept their captivity."

The young man then told the professor that is exactly what he sees happening in America . The government keeps pushing us toward Communism/Socialism and keeps spreading the free corn out in the form of programs such as supplemental income, tax credit for unearned income, tax exemptions, tobacco subsidies, dairy subsidies, payments not to plant crops (CRP), welfare entitlements, medicine, drugs, etc., while we continually lose our freedoms, just a little at a time as the government forces us to participate in many of these programs whether or not we want to.

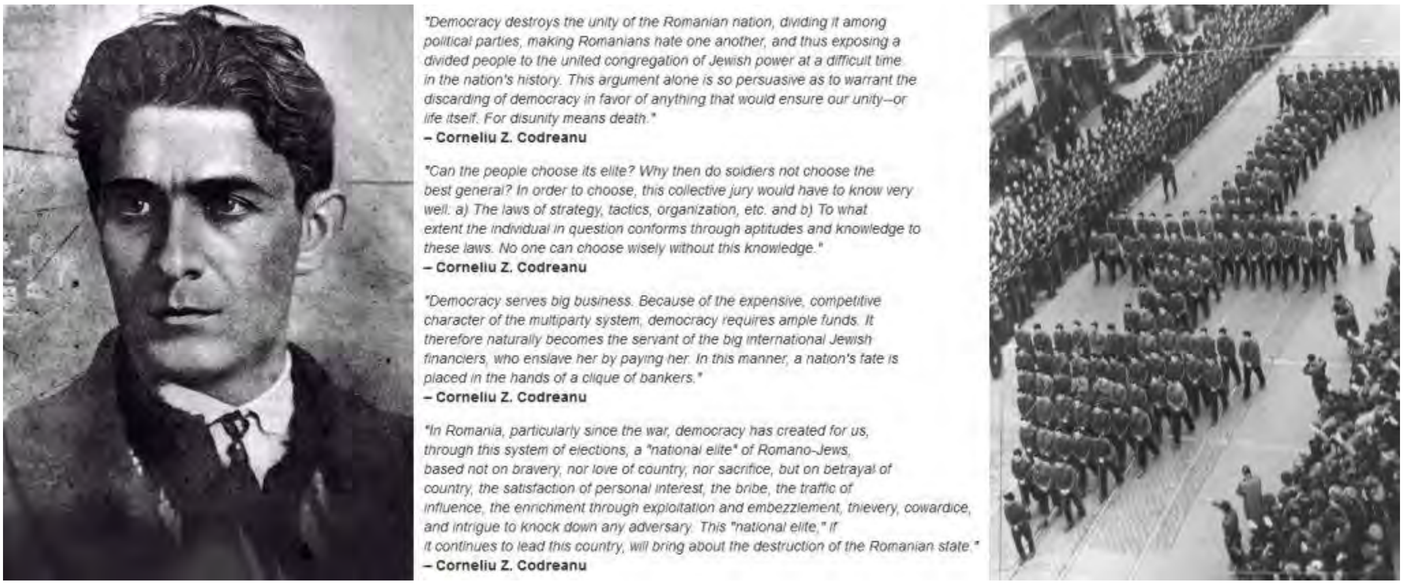
One should always remember two truths: There is no such thing as a free lunch, and you can never hire someone to provide a service for you cheaper than you can do it yourself. If you see that all of this wonderful government "help" is a problem confronting the future of democracy in America, you might want to share this with your friends.

God help us all when the gate slams shut!



"Democracy destroys the unity of the Romanian nation, dividing it among political parties, making Romanians hate one another, and thus exposing a divided people to the united congregation of Jewish power at a difficult time in the nation's history. This argument alone is so persuasive as to warrant the discarding of democracy in favor of anything that would ensure our unity--or life itself. For disunity means death."
– Corneliu Z. Codreanu

"Can the people choose its elite? Why then do soldiers not choose the best general? In order to choose, this collective jury would have to know very well: a) The laws of strategy, tactics, organization, etc. and b) To what extent the individual in question conforms through aptitudes and knowledge to these laws. No one can choose wisely without this knowledge."
– Corneliu Z. Codreanu

"Democracy serves big business. Because of the expensive, competitive character of the multiparty system, democracy requires ample funds. It therefore naturally becomes the servant of the big international Jewish financiers, who enslave her by paying her. In this manner, a nation's fate is placed in the hands of a clique of bankers."
– Corneliu Z. Codreanu

"In Romania, particularly since the war, democracy has created for us, through this system of elections, a "national elite" of Romano-Jews, based not on bravery, nor love of country, nor sacrifice, but on betrayal of country, the satisfaction of personal interest, the bribe, the traffic of influence, the enrichment through exploitation and embezzlement, thievery, cowardice, and intrigue to knock down any adversary. This "national elite," if it continues to lead this country, will bring about the destruction of the Romanian state."
– Corneliu Z. Codreanu

Kakistocracy

A kakistocracy (/kækɪˈstɒkrəsi/, /kækɪs ˈtɒkrəsi/) is a system of government that is run by the worst, least qualified, or most unscrupulous citizens. The word was coined as early as the seventeenth century. The word is derived from two Greek words, kakistos (κάκιστος; worst) and kratos (κράτος; rule), with a literal meaning of government by the worst people.

White supremacists are on 4chan laughing their asses off right now. They're laughing at black people killing each other, they're laughing at people being "redpilled on blacks" (their words, not mine), here's an image circulating around about their "battle strategy" for these riots - https://i.imgur.com/ji5shwy.jpg - essentially, do nothing, sit back, relax, and laugh.

They're literally having the time of their lives.

Right? Not to mention the vast majority of cities being burned down are liberal cities that have more people of color in positions of power and are the most willing to work with their communities to change. It's like some radical right wing fantasy being played out under the guise of social justice.

Whenever you talk to someone and they say they don't like to get into politics, call them a coward, and remind them that every day you live politics. The choices you make, the things you choose to ignore and let someone else handle, they build up, slowly, over time, until someone else's problem becomes your problem.

In the end, you stand for what you believe in in the streets, or you get shot in the back of the head in some ditch outside of town.

That's always how humanity has gone. Did you really think you were special?

A driver was stuck in a traffic jam on the highway outside Washington, DC.

Nothing was moving.

Suddenly, a man knocks on the window.

The driver rolls down the window and asks, "What's going on?"

"Terrorists have kidnapped the entire US Congress, and they're asking for a $100 million dollar ransom. Otherwise, they are going to douse them all in gasoline and set them on fire.

We are going from car to car, collecting donations."

"How much is everyone giving, on an average?" the driver asks.

The man replies, "Roughly a gallon."

You know what's funny? I'm an anthropologist at a melbourne uni and while searching for material to BTFO you racists, i learned quite a lot.

First off, not all abos were scum. THREE tribes out of over 400 were on the road to creating an agricultural society.

They were mining gold, ochre and had farms of several native animals. They were even beginning to create some makeshift homes.

Then they were BRUTALLY BUTCHERED by the gippsland aboriginals because they chimped out upon finding out other tribes were intelligent.

So about 800 years before the white man ever arrived, the other tribes had genocided, cannibalised and eradicated the 3 intelligent tribes that TRIED to make progress.

When the white man came, the remaining SCUM tried to cannibalise them and received their just fucking desserts.

I walked into learning about abos feeling sorry for them, now i feel sorry for the abos who died 800 years ago and are even more fucking disgusted at the ones that remain.

I wish the english gave them a proper genocide.

Kununura is also the place somebody about 5 years ago left 2 boxes of goon and a serrated kitchen knife in a plastic bag in the Coles car-park. The idea was that abos would find it, drink the first box together and then find the knife and realise they didn't have to share the next box. It worked.

It's literally every day. Young children will take a 9km walk to a petrol station along the highway and swarm over cars, snatching up loose change. Their older siblings beat them, then steal most of it.

When they have about $6 between them, they'll go buy the freshest rotisserie chicken, rip out the spine, curl it around, then take turns fucking and cumming inside it, in public. They will share the chicken amongst 3-6 of them, and often teach their younger siblings how to do it.

You might ask why they would fuck a chicken if the girls are sexually active by 10 or 11. It's because 90% of the time, there are no young women in the town.

Girls, aged 10-18, will repeatedly take a walk to the nearest truck stop and attempt to get picked up and taken to a different town. They just offer themselves up as road-pussy for truckers and just see where the road takes them. Of course they usually come back in a week or so, riddled with STDs and/or pregnant.
Why?

Because they are uneducated; and when I say uneducated, I mean that in the most broad sense of the term. Kids cannot count past 10, they cannot read or write beyond a few key phrases, they cannot tell time beyond knowing that 12 is midday. They lack any kind of basic arithmetic and most would not be able to write or even tell you their full name, date of birth or address. The girls want to leave, they want to get pregnant and be taken care of for the rest of their lives, but they'd starve without government payouts, so they all eventually return home to collect their money. Of course, after their 5th or 6th time, they end up pregnant and unable to abort, so they either die in a botched attempt or settle down and spread their legs for any man that will take them.

It's fucking depressing.

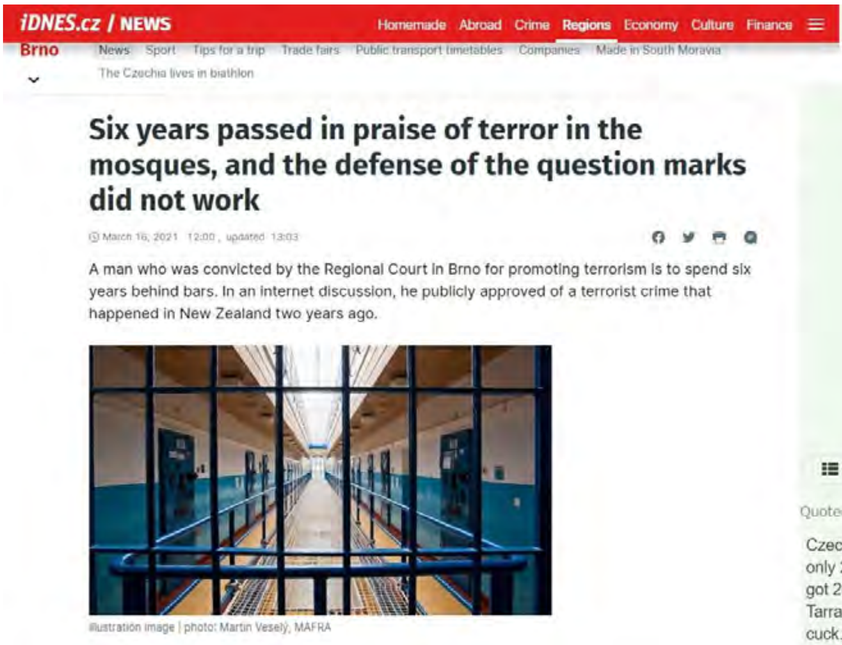
>I really want to know what a racial realist biologist has to say about Aboriginals and what they would be classified as.
I have 80% finished my bachellor + masters degree in biology, and have a good understanding of evolution (which is not only natural selection).

Abos are descendant of another species.
The four major races of humans, are actually four different, but closely related, species of hominids, which (in theory at least) happen to have crossbreed many times in the past, thus the modern races are distant between them "but not distant enough as to consider them separate species". (At least that's the politically correct statement)

However honest scholars have doubts about this theories and understand there are gaps and inconsistencies in the narrative.
The crude objective statement could be that racemixing was minimal in ancient times, and the four races represent four species. The species from which modern humans derive are:
Homo sapiens sapiens aka proto-europeans, Homo neanderthalensis (sort of extint), Homo habilis (modern negro), H. Floresiensis (lost distant cousin, highly primitve hominid), Denisovans (sort of modern asian). The modern variations are heavily modified from the ancient variations.
Asians are different from europeans because they are a cross-breed of denisovans with europeans, with heavy amounts of the former.
Australians are descendants of floriensis, a distant species to humans (dist=400k years). The modern abo could also be a mix between denisovans and an even ancient species (australopythecus). Their existance quite frankly shows you how much diversity there is for our species as to consider it a single species.
Europeans cross-bred with the old Neanderthalensis (and it went extinct). Most europeans stuck to Europe, some of them explored further into Asia (and America).
The european cross-breed later with denisovans to give modern asians (with differing variations of crossbreeding, thus giving ainu people for example, and a great variation of people found today)
Arabs, jews and such are bastardizations created from a mix of european, african and neanderthal. This nomads have high content of original neanderthal without the main properties of european. Thus their malice is genetic, and their skulls are like the ancient neanderthal.
The continent of America was "originally" populated with ancient asians (Beringia), some of which mixed with modern european populations (solutrean hypothesis, it is indeed discussed and is much better at explaining things here).
The people from America don't have a single ancestry, there was not a single migration group; many populations reached here from Asia and Europe. There is even a high probability there were pure ancient european populations living in America almost isolated, like chachapoyans. Pic related is them.
Also i attach the most logical evolutionary tree that i have which spans all current data, which still may have gaps but the general idea is understood.
Europeans coming from the same line as africans does not mean they "derive from" them, because if you notice there is a "crossbreed with Neanderthal" event which explains the vast differences in physical traits and behaviour on modern populations. Also europeans living isolated from africans during so many thousands of years could be used as an argument for speciation (protip: for much less time than that, in other species biologists discuss speciation as if 10k years is enough for a bird to differentiate from their sister groups, but when applied to humans they would deny it if they want to preserve their scholarship / doctorate studies)



Six years passed in praise of terror in the mosques, and the defense of the question marks did not work

A man who was convicted by the Regional Court in Brno for promoting terrorism is to spend six years behind bars. In an internet discussion, he publicly approved of a terrorist crime that happened in New Zealand two years ago.

Za znásilnění šestnáctileté dívky na Litoměřicku dostal Afričan dva roky Abdallaha Ibrahima Dialla, jenž podle obžaloby loni na Litoměřicku znásilnil šestnáctiletou dívku, poslal litoměřický soud na dva roky do vězení. Zároveň mu nařídil ústavní léčení. Muž totiž podle znalců trpí schizofrenií.

Armed police have raided two Christchurch homes after a person made a series of online posts threatening a terror attack involving car bombs on March 15 – the second anniversary of the mosque massacre.

Members of the armed offenders squad carried out search warrants at the properties in St Albans and Linwood shortly before 6pm on Thursday.

Two men were arrested, but had yet to be charged, police said.

Detective Inspector Michael Ford said police had acted on information from the public regarding "concerning communications on the 4chan site".

Accused Constantinople Crusader is charged with 50 counts of slaying Saracens and 39 counts of attempted Saracen slaying
MALTA CHRONICLE OF YE CONTEMPORARY HAPPENINGS
Dateline, the year of our lord 1488 Anno Domini
The Knight accused of sending some heathen Mohammedans back to Satan from whence they came at a Mosque located in heathen lands bordering the Empire of Trebizond has been charged with 50 counts of murder. Sir Brenton of Tarrant, 28 is due to appear to answer the charges at a court in the Emperors David's palace in the capital Trebizond.
The Constantinople-born man is accused of using excellent swordplay to put the fear of Almighty God into 100 heathen Saracens praying to their false Gods in two Mosques in Erzerum in Ottoman territory. This crusade was recorded immediately in three manuscripts, one in Latin, one in Greek, and one in Arabic, the last of which, titled "We will take Jerusalem", was according to Sir Brenton, written in order "to jest the heathen".
The manuscripts have been burnt by the orders of David, the emperor of Trebizond, and anyone founded with a copy is ordered to be burnt at the stake. Emperor David has also ordered by decree that all broadswords, suits of Armour, and crossbows firing more than one bolt a minute be henceforth confiscated. "With the Ottomans camped on our borders, " said Emperor David, "we cannot give them any cause for offense, and indeed, we must preserve good relations with these fine gentlemen. By disarming ourselves and inviting more Ottomans to live in our territory, I am sure we will begin a new era in peaceful Byzantine-Ottoman relations". It has been further announced that several thousand merchants from Baghdad have been invited to live in the Territory of Trebizond, in order to carry out peaceful trade. "Saracen immigrants will stimulate the economy of Trebizond," said Emperor David. "The population of Trebizond is aging, and needs young Ottoman immigrants to enliven our stagnant ways."
The Emperor David is also meeting in private with his privy counselors in order to discuss the problem of Malta where the Knights Templar have their headquarters and which is a hotbed of anti-Saracen activity and from which many crusades against the Ottomans have been planned and launched. The fact that Sir Brenton of Tarrant's manuscript has been received with much acclaim there and is being copied there by numerous scribes and distributed throughout the Mediterranean is also most worrysome. Not to mention that Malta is also full of young men from Constantinople, who are known for their ready wits, with which they torment with jest Emperor David and all who wish to ignore the threat posed by the Ottomans. "They are but silly fellows", said Emperor David. "They sit in the basements of their castles and scribble foolish manuscripts with unseemly drawings. Tis of no account".
When Sir was charged he made some indecorous gestures with his hands to indicate his contempt for the charges, before saying "To hell with the Sultan", and "Deus Vult".

e4.3 Circumcision is obligatory (O: for both men and women. For men it consists of removing the prepuce from the penis, and for women, removing the prepuce (Ar. bazr) of the clitoris (n: not the clitoris itself, as some mistakenly assert). (A: Hanbalis hold that circumcision of women is not obligatory but sunna, while Hanafis consider it a mere courtesy to the husband.)

e4.3 وَيَجِبُ (على كل من الـذكـر والأنثى) الخـتـان (وهـو قطع الجلدة التي على حشـفـة الـذكـر وأما ختان الأنثى فهو قطع البظر [ويسمى خفاضاً]).

Clear example of Taqyyia from 'Umdat al-Salik (Reliance of the Traveller), a sunni manual of sharia.
Misleading translation confirmed by Mark John Durie, professor of linguistic, during a trial (case n° A392/2002). Google it.

قطع البظر

qate albazar: cutting the clitoris.

>>10011589
>taqiyya is only a concept in Shia Islam
Complete fucking bullshit.
In 'Umdat al-Salik, which is a SUNNI sharia manual (shafi school) there is a blatant taqyyia attempt in the paragraph about infibulation. Pic related.

While the english translation says only to cut the prepuce of the clitoris and not the clitoris itself, the arab texts says clearly to cut the clitoris.

>http://www.saltshakers.org.au/images/stories/attachments/284_313278_VCAT_-_DOCUMENTS_RELATIN.pdf

Sunnis use taqyyia just like shia. Claiming they don't is just part of taqyyia.

>muslims don't lie about their religion
I suggest you read this excellent book about the practice of Taqiyya: "Al Taqiyya fil Islam", by Sami Makarem.
Quote:

>"Taqiyya is of fundamental importance in Islam. Practically every Islamic sect agrees to it and practices it. We can go so far as to say that the practice of taqiyya is mainstream in Islam, and that those few sects not practicing it diverge from the mainstream... Taqiyya is very prevalent in Islamic politics, especially in the modern era." (p 7) > the fact is the word "Infidel" isn't even mentioned in the Quran once. Clearly shows you haven't read the quran and are only copying from websites.

Who the fuck do you think you're talking too, mudshit? I know perfectly well that the quran doesn't say precisely "infidel" but "mushrikun", but the thing is that that word means "guilty of shirk", and that includes not only polytheists but also christians, jews and even atheists. Source:
>"Atheism is a greater sin than shirk", october 2009. https://islamqa.info/en/113901
So even though translators just translate "mushrikun" with "polytheists" in an attempt to make it look as if the quran is only talking about the arab pagans that Muhammed was fighting at the time, THE REAL MEANING is that every non-muslim, every infidel, must be killed.
Unless he becomes a dhimmi.

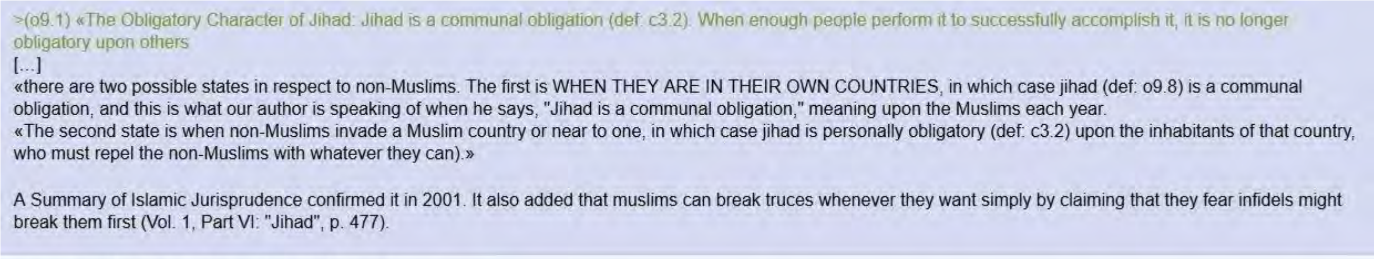
>tell us more.
On paragraph a7.2, Reliance of the Traveller ('Umdat al-Salik) says clearly that all our scientific disciplines are unlawful, thereby destroying any hope of coexistence between science and islam:

>(a7.2) «Unlawful Knowledge
Unlawful knowledge includes:
-1- learning sorcery (dis: p3), since according to the most reliable position, it is unlawful, as the vast majority of scholars have decisively stated;
-2- philosophy (dis: w10);
-3- magic (Sha`badha, meaning sleight of hand, etc.);
-4- astrology (dis: p41);
-5- the sciences of the materialists (dis: w11).
-6- and anything that is a means to create doubts (n: in eternal truths), Such things vary in their degree of unlawfulness.»

Get that? Our sciences and anything that might create doubts in the quran or the sunna is forbidden.
Muslims love to repeat that islam teaches to think freely and to "seek knowledge even in China". What they never tell you is that islam with "knowledge" means only the sacred books. Everything else is considered as flawed, temporary theories and ideas made up by infidels. Wrong in the best cases, unlawful in the worst.

Want more?
Reliance of the Traveller also says not only that Jihad is also a MILITARY war, and not just a "spiritual struggle against sin" like muslims say, but it also clarifies that it's ALWAYS mandatory, even when the infidels stay in their own countries without attacking muslims:



>(o9.1) «The Obligatory Character of Jihad: Jihad is a communal obligation (def: c3.2). When enough people perform it to successfully accomplish it, it is no longer obligatory upon others
«there are two possible states in respect to non-Muslims. The first is WHEN THEY ARE IN THEIR OWN COUNTRIES, in which case jihad (def: o9.8) is a communal obligation, and this is what our author is speaking of when he says, "Jihad is a communal obligation," meaning upon the Muslims each year.
«The second state is when non-Muslims invade a Muslim country or near to one, in which case jihad is personally obligatory (def: c3.2) upon the inhabitants of that country, who must repel the non-Muslims with whatever they can).»

A Summary of Islamic Jurisprudence confirmed it in 2001. It also added that muslims can break truces whenever they want simply by claiming that they fear infidels might break them first (Vol. 1, Part VI: "Jihad", p. 477).

>He can have all the wives and female slaves he wants.
As stated clearly in Quran 33:50.
https://quran.com/33/50-60

>His followers were ordered to always obey him, even when he's not "revealing" the quran.
Quran 53:3-4 (https://quran.com/53) is the sura taken as the basis for this doctrine, called "ismah". Google it for more. essentially, Muhammad was infallible, so every word or action of his was automatically right.
According to a closely related doctrine, "uswa hasana", Muhammad is the best possible role model for any muslim in any era or place. Which is a problem, considering what an asshole he was.

>Allah forbade poetry, songs and drawings of people because poets, singers and painters were mocking Muhammad.
"Reliance of the Traveller" forbids music, songs, picture making and sculpting in paragraphs r40.1, r40.2, r40.3, r40.4, p44.1, w50.1, and several hadiths (Bukhari 5960 and 6109 for example).
About the fact that poets and singers were mocking the poor Muhammad, here's a list of people he assassinated for this:
1) Al-Nadr bin al-Harith (Ibn Ishaq, "The Life of Muhammad", translated by A. Guillaume, Oxford UP, 1955, 2004, p. 136),
2) Uqba bin Abu Muayt (Ibn Ishaq, ivi, p. 308; [Bukhari 520 e 2934]; [Muslim 1794]),
3) Asma bint Marwan (female poet stabbed in her sleep while pregnant: Ibn Ishaq, ivi, pp. 675-6),
4) Abu Afak (blind, 100 years old poet killed for his verses: Ibn Ishaq, ivi, p. 675),
5) Ka'b bin al-Ashraf (Ibn Ishaq, ivi, pp. 364-9; [Bukhari 4037]; [Abu Dawud 3000]).
Muhammad had Ka'b killed in a particularly cowardly way:
>[Bukhari 4037] «Allah's Messenger (peace be upon him) said, "Who is willing to kill Ka`b bin Al-Ashraf who has hurt Allah and His Apostle?" Thereupon Muhammad bin Maslama got up saying, "O Allah's Messenger! Would you like that I kill him?" The Prophet said, "Yes," Muhammad bin Maslama said, "Then allow me to say a (false) thing (i.e. to deceive Ka`b)." The Prophet said, "You may say it."»
Ka'b was stabbed by a group of muslims and beheaded. All self-defense, claimed Muhammad, because Ka'b had "persecuted" him by mocking and criticizing him. Same logic current muslims still apply.

Do you have more stuff on Islam and science?

Science is completely antithetic to Islam. The muslim conception of the universe is that of a chaotic thing that doesn't works according to stable natural laws that you can understand, but only to the whims of Allah. Allah can do anything, even produce an effect without a cause and a cause without an effect. This means that for our limited human minds, understanding nature is ultimately impossible.

Not only it's impossible, but it's actually blasphemous. "Reliance of the Traveller" in this long paragraph explains how incredibly easy it is to be considered an apostate. Look at point n° 17.

>(o8.7) «Acts that Entail Leaving Islam: [...]
>4) to revile Allah or His messenger;
>5) to deny the existence of Allah, His beginningless eternality, His endless eternality, or to deny any of His attributes which the consensus of Muslims ascribes to Him;
>6) to be sarcastic about Allah's name, His command, His inderdiction, His promise, or His threat;
>7) to deny any verse of the Koran or anything which by scholarly consensus (def: b7) belongs to it, or to add a verse that does [not] belong to it;
>8) to mockingly say, "I don't know what faith is"; [...]
>14) to deny the obligatory character of something which by the consensus of Muslims (ijma`, def: B7) is part of Islam, when it is well known as such, like the prayer (salat) or even one rak'a from one of the five obligatory prayers, if there is no excuse (def: u2.4); >15) to hold that any of Allah's messengers or prophets are liars, or to deny their being sent;
>16) to revile the religion of Islam;
>17) to believe that things in themselves or by their own nature have any causal influence independent of the will of Allah;
>18) to deny the existence of angels or jinn (def: w22), or the heavens;
>19) to be sarcastic about any ruling of the Sacred Law;
>20) to deny that Allah intended the Prophet's message to be the religion followed by the entire world.

Not only denying even the smallest rule prescribed in the Quran (and even being sarcastic about it) is enough to be an apostate (and therefore killed) but the same holds true for "believe that things in themselves or by their own nature have any causal influence independent of the will of Allah". If you think that the universe respects stable natural laws independent of the whims of Allah, you're an apostate, and therefore must be executed.

This, added to the belief that past generations were wiser than current ones (the generation of the Prophet is called "the best that ever existed") and that Muhammad could do no wrong and should be imitated instead of corrected (ismah) make science and innovation in Islam IMPOSSIBLE.

Then what of the so called golden age and the great thinkers, philosophers and mathameticians ect?

>>10013164
>Then what of the so called golden age
Oh, brace yourself.
Every muslim apologist always babbles about this "Islamic Golden Age". Then when pressed, they either admit they don't know any muslim thinker/scientist/philosopher, or name these ones:

>Avicenna:
His progresses in medicine and logic were derived from the works of Aristotle and Hippocrates. His theology was a fusion of Plotino's ideas and Islam, he denied physical resurrection and thought the prophets were simply "inspired philosophers". Also, he said that Allah only knew the universal principles of the universe, but not the smallest day-to-day events in our lives, which denied his omniscience.
For this, he was accused of blasphemy by Ibn Qayyim al-Jawziyya, Abu al-Ghazali and other scholars. You can clearly see that according to Islam's rules, he was NOT a muslim.

>Averroes:
Strongly influenced by greek philosophy as well, he dared to say that truth could be discovered using reason and logic and not only the holy texts. He was accused of blasphemy, persecuted and forced in exile in Marrakesh.
He wasn't considered a muslim either.

>Al-Razi:
Called the best muslim thinker ever, he called himself "a disciple of Socrates and Plato", he denied that the world was created from nothing, that Faith is superior to Reason, that Muhammad told only the truth, and that revealed religions in general are very useful. He considered them needlessly nitpicky and irrational.
He had the balls to write 3 books on the subject: "The Prophet's Fraudulent Tricks", "The Stratagems of Those Who Claim to Be Prophets" and "On the Refutation of Revealed Religions". He also called the Quran "a collection of absurd fables". Was obv. accused of apostasy.
Was not a muslim.

>Ibn al-Haytham:
Made some advancements in optics, but his most important contribution was the formulation of the scientific method: he claimed that every hypothesis must be supported by empirical data and experiments, not only by holy texts. Oddly enough, it seems he wasn't accused of apostasy despite this obviously heretical view, but the intellectual sterility of Islam is evident in the fact that his ideas were completely IGNORED, and continue to be ignored. They were instead immediately and enthusiastically received in the West.

>Al-Sarakhsi
Philosopher. Studied the greeks and dared to apply rationality to the study of the holy books. Was executed in 899 d.C. for apostasy.

>Al-Farabi
Philosopher. Thought that reason was superior to faith and that the body could not resurrect. Was accused of apostasy.

Starting to see a trend? Basically all the "great muslim thinkers" WERE NOT MUSLIMS AT ALL. They could only do good work because they rejected Islam and its intellectually crippling views. The exceptions are really few: Ibn Khaldun (historian), Al-Tusi (polymath) and maybe a couple of others that made some contribution in algebra or geometry. But that's it.

The "Islamic Golden Age" should actually be called the greek-dhimmi-golden-age, since it depended entirely on the translation of the greeks by the conquered populations. Yes, they started with the greeks. EVERY accomplishment muslims claim was actually a greek or indian one, like the so called "arab" numerals, invented in India around the 700 d.C., and the number zero, invented by Brahmagupta in 628 d.C., and so on.
Caliph Al-Mamun in the 9th century ordered dhimmis (all jews and christians) to translate the greeks because he wanted to use their knowledge. But, as Islam always does, he wanted ONLY the useful trinkets, not the scientific method, which was always rejected. Conclusion: no real progress possible. As soon as they exausted the greek well, their "progress" stopped.

An obscurantist, totalitarian ideology like Islam can never be fertile ground for scientific or intellectual research. Shit, some of his most basic laws expressely forbid to question and to research the Holy Books.

>According to Imam Ghazali, the material universe is:
>- perfectly ordered
>- completely knowable through reason
Another example of giving different meanings to the same words. Islam says that the world is "perfectly ordered" because Allah made it, not because it obeys inviolable natural laws. And it's "completely knowable" by applying "reason" to the holy scriptures (meaning: studying them and understanding them).

We must keep in mind that Islam traces a clear (albeit fictitious) distinction between "rational thought" and "critical thought": the second cannot be used to question/debunk the holy texts, you can only use rational thought to study and better understand Allah's orders.
This essay explains it well:

>Muhammadullah Muhammad Khalili Qasmi, "Does Islam permit critical thinking?", Markazul Maarif Education & research Centre, Mumbai, India.
>http://www.irfi.org/articles/articles_351_400/does_islam_permit_critical_think.htm

The mere fact that it's forbidden to look for "causal influences outside of Allah's will" for the workings of the universe is enough to destroy any hope to do science. Unless you want to say that Umdat al-Salik is lying here: >>10013161 >do people just radicalize?

"Radicalizing" is one of those politically correct words that have no real meaning, like "islamism". Muslims don't radicalize, they grow up with beliefs incompatible with liberal societies all their life, and one day they simply act on them.

Saying that they "radicalize" shifts the blame onto the asshole doing the radicalizing, corrupting innocent muslims and all that bullshit. The reality is that if you follow islam, you are NOT compatible with any western country.

Also, islam and islamism are the same thing.

Nigger there's a difference bewteen occasional wars and a culture like that of nomadic arab tribes that was BUILT AROUND THE CONCEPT OF RAIDING STABLE VILLAGES to steal food, money, products, women and slaves.

This is NOT something every nation has done, inbred lying piece of shit.

Also, it's worth pointing out that the reason Islam is so brutal and retarded is that ARABS WERE LIKE THAT, and Muhammad when he had to invent a religion had to speak to them in a language they understood. This is why after he became a bandit, he started getting tens of thousands of converts. Islam is barbarous because arabs have always been barbarous. A peaceful religion would have never appealed to them.

The Four Tenets of Islamic Deception

Before you continue: if you are not Muslim, these apply to you without exception. All Muslims from the youngest girl to the oldest man practice these techniques on "Unbelievers".

Taqiyya: "Dissimulation"

Taqiyya is defined as dissimulation about ones Muslim identity. It comes from the verse in the Quran that says, "Let believers not make friends with infidels in preference to the faithful – he that does has nothing to hope for from Allah – except in self-defense (illaa an-tattaqu minhum tuqah) (Surah 3:28). This "self-defense" justifies dissimulation.

Islamic Sharia Law provides, "When it is possible to achieve an aim by lying but not by telling the truth, it is permissible to lie if attaining the goal is permissible, and lying is obligatory if the goal is obligatory." (Reliance of the Traveler, Para r8.2) Examples include lying to protect Islam or a Muslim.

Kitman:"Telling partial truths, omission"

Kitman is characterized by someone telling only part of the truth. The most common example of this is when a Muslim says that jihad really refers to an internal, spiritual struggle. He is not telling "the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth", as witnesses are sworn to do in U.S. courts. Often, kitman results in a gross distortion of the truth. In the example given, the Quran uses jihad and its derivatives 59 times. Of those, only 16 (27%) could be considered "internal" with no object as the target of the struggle based on the context of the surah.

Another common form of kitman is to quote only the few peaceful passages from the Quran, knowing full-well that that passage was later abrogated by a more militant, contradictory verse. Here is an example:

"There is no compulsion in religion" (Surah 2:256) Early Medina

"Are they seeking a religion other than Allah's, when every soul in the heavens and earth has submitted to Him, willingly or by compulsion?" (Surah 3:83 Later Medina)

Muruna: "Blending In"

Muruna means using "flexibility" to blend in with the enemy or the surroundings. The justification for this kind of deception is a somewhat bizarre interpretation of Surah 2:106, which says, "If we abrogate a verse or cause it to be forgotten, We will replace it by a better one or similar." Thus, Muslims may forget some of the commands in the Quran, as long as they are pursuing a better command. Muslims striving to advance Islam, therefore, can deviate from their Islamic laws in order to cause non-Muslims to lower their guard and place their trust in their Muslim counterpart.

At times, Muslims practice muruna in the same way a chameleon changes colors to avoid detection. Muslims will sometimes shave off their beards, wear western clothing, or even drink alcohol to blend in with non-Muslims. Nothing is more valuable these days to the Islamists than a blue-eyed Caucasian Muslim willing to engage in terrorism.

Tawriya:"Creative lying"

Tawriya is defined as concealing, and it could be called "creative lying". It is OK to break the intent of the oath, as long as you don't break the letter of the oath (Reliance of the Traveler, sections o19.1 and o19.5) How does this work? Suppose someone protests that Surah 1 of the Quran demeans Christians and Jews, because it is a supplication Muslims make to Allah seventeen times a day to keep them from the path of "those with whom God is angry" and "those who have lost their way". A Muslim might respond, "Surah 1 never mentions Jews or Christians." He is practicing tawriya, because while Surah 1 does not mention Jews and Christians by name, but he knows full-well that the words "those" refer to Jews and Christians.

Another example would be when a Muslim responds to your greeting of "Merry Christmas!" He might say, "I wish you the best." In your mind, you think he has returned a Christmas greeting. In actuality, he has expressed his wish for you to convert to Islam; he wishes the best for you which, in his view, is becoming a Muslim.

Okay, I used to hard core alt right, browse /pol/, post on /r/the_donald and all that jazz. I was anti-immigration, anti-Islam and pro white nationalism. This was last year when I was living in northern Ontario. Small, shitty town mostly white. Then I started university for sociology at York University.

You know what? I met tons of people from various people. Nothing scary about them. Just as Canadian as you and I.

And I also met a lot of Muslims. Let me tell you, Muslim women are fucking sexy. Definitely not like how it is on Fox News potraying them as ISIS.

I actually smoked up with a Arab Muslimah girl that wears a hijab, she's chill as hell. I even got a date with an Arab girl soon. Can't wait.

Oh btw Muslimahs tend to be highly attractive and sought after. They also have conservative and family orientated values.

So all that talk about a Muslim ban... trust me you're missing out Ameribros...

Hassan I am
I am Hassan
all day long I read Quran
I hate Kuffars
Hassan I am

See this Truck, Leftist cuck?
Gonna drive it up the block!
May Allah bless the way I steer her
So when I see my rear view mirror
I'll count how many Swedes I struck!

One Swede,
Two Swedes-Stampede!
Three Swedes!
They didn't share my ISIS creed!
Allah had given me my orders
Thank you for the open borders!

Thank you Jews! For this Opportunity!
Accept the dead as my Gratuity
Thank you Sweden for your trust, and paying for our wanderlust
-the road to Allah nice and red
We're not diverse until you're dead!

Hassan I am
I am Hassan
I stole a truck
And now you're dead!

Paki here
It is very easy to be labelled a slut in Paki culture

For example my dad has accused my sister of being a slut 5 times and beaten her each time. I will describe what she did each time

1. Her teacher drew a smiley face on her English homework when she was 12 and he thought she fucked him to get good feedback because he didn't like the story she wrote

2. Saw her high fiving a guy in public at night, accused her of humiliating Islam by raising her hand in front of the moon that Muhammed split

3. I masturbated in her panties and my dad walked in. He waited till she got home to beat her for letting me see them by leaving them on the floor

4. She mentioned a guy on TV was cute so he threw the TV at her

5. Last year she liked a facebook post from her University's Indian society so he tried to strip her naked and make her walk through the Indian part of town as she loves Indian society so much

Feels bad for her man

Simple. With every purchase I have the satisfaction of knowing at least a couple of small bug-eyed gook kids suffered a horrible rushed by industrial machinery, maybe they've thrown themselves off the roof, maybe some other kimchi chopped them in pieces
. I regularly read about which companies abuse these slant-eyed niggers most. Those NGOs publish that data thinking it will ne the dead zipperhead per € ratio. Then I could make more informed purchasing decisions. So anyway, big order today, already t it here before Christmas. Good times.

He's not wrong though. Mongoloids do lack human responses.

mongoloid is a retrovirus that first infected the human genome in 7000BC, it went on to genocide the entire Asian continent of Caucasoids. The inserted genome disrupts the DNA sequence and expression of a gene involved in regulation of oxytocin hormone signaling.

This causes disparities in oxytocin, which is involved in empathy, compassion, beauty, sexual dimorphism, intelligence, and dopamine/serotonin regulation, all things that mongoloids tend to lack.

mongoloidism is caused by a virus/bioweapon and it's going to destroy the West. mongoloidism has genocided native Caucasoids in Asia and caused total civilizational collapses multiple times before in history, and over the past century we've been experiencing another outbreak

East Asians have much higher rates of an Oxytocin-receptor genetic mutation that affects the shape and number of the receptors in their body, which results in a greatly diminished ability to empathize with others or fall in love. It actually explains a lot about how they act as a race and regard other living things.

The mutation (SNP) that causes this is located at rs53576.

https://www.snpedia.com/index.php/Rs53576

Why do so many chinks seem to take pleasure in having control over the suffering of others? How are they completely unaffected by the obvious pain they are causing to others, or completely indifferent to suffering occurring around them? The answer lies in their very DNA

Let's look at the rs53576 variation in the OXTR gene--which encodes the receptor for Oxytocin--also known as "the love chemical". This mutation alters the way the receptor is shaped resulting in Oxytocin being unable to bind to it effectively to produce an effect, and has been repeatedly associated with lack of empathy (especially regarding pair-bonding and parental empathy to one's children), and the deleterious mutation ('A') is found in Asians at several times the rate of Whites--with east Asians having the highest rate of this mutation in the entire world

Ever wonder why the stereotype for "over-bearing Asian parent that treats their children harshly" is so common?
Ever wonder why there are SO many different examples of Asians acting sadistically towards animals and one another?

The majority (but not all) of them are literally incapable of experiencing natural and normal Human empathy

They literally live their lives without knowing innate love

I hope we can deport and quarantine them one day i never understood what to make of the east asians insectoids ive figured out all other populations enough to have opinions about them, mostly from watching hours upon hours of documentaries, documentaries on how chinks eat tortured dogs fried alive in gutter oil.

but i have no clue what to think about east asians, they seem like soulless insect swarm that jumped 20 centuries in just 20th century alone, china/korea especially, they used to be less developed than africa and now they are more developed than europe, all in a milisecond of historic time i feel like its only a matter of time before they steal everything from Whites and form a greater east asian locust hive from stolen white technology or something like that, and start murder the rest of the globe in something like 2 months, soulless insectoid creatures they probably have that skynet terminator mentality

Why aren't there any pigeons in Romania? Gypsies catch breadcrumbs faster.

How do you call a Romanian with no arms? Trustworthy.

A gypsy, a Romanian national and a beggar walk into a bar. The barman says "fuck off, you dirty gyppo".

What's the worst thing a Romanian can tell you? "Hello, I'm your new neighbor".

A /pol/ack, a jew, a black, and a mexican discover a magic lamp. The /pol/ack rubs the lamp and a genie pops out, he says >thank you for freeing me, I've been trapped in there for 2,000 years! I'll grant each of you a wish, anything you want!

The black says
>I'd like for all of my black brothers and sisters to be able to live in Africa in peace & harmony & wealth, free to enjoy the beauty of our motherland.
And the wish was granted. The Mexican asks for the same thing:
>I'd like for all Mexicans to live in Mexico in peace and harmony
And the wish was granted. The Jew asks the same thing too:
>I'd like for all Jews to live in Israel in peace and harmony
And the wish was granted. Now it's the /pol/ack's turn.
>let me get this straight... the blacks are in africa, Mexicans are in Mexico, and the Jews are in Israel?
The genie says yes, so the /pol/ack says
>Then I'll have a Diet Coke

A study on ALL the rape convictions in Sweden from 2012-2017 shows a weird and interesting pattern.
>Rape(grov) is comitted by 84% by people of non-European descent
>2/3 of all rapes(grov) is committed by asylumseekers or people with a residence permit
>95,6% of all assault rapes are committed by people of non-European descent
>90% of all group rapes are committed by people of non-European descent
>85% of all group rapes against men are committed by AFGHANS

Really makes you think... Or does it? Daily reminder that this complete study of rapes from over 5 years will never be known by the majority of Swedes.

After Voldemort is defeated and global wizard equality is achieved, the influx of half-breeds and less-capable wizards into Hogwarts and other magical schools grows dramatically. Criticisms of this change are met with accusations of bigotry, including calls of "you are starting to sound a lot like You Know Who with that talk!" This process continues, with miscegenation becoming "all the rage" for the next hundred years.

By the year 2100, magical blood lines have become so diluted that very few people can actually use magic. Magical creatures find that they cannot communicate with students at school, wands begin to refuse ownership, and tensions rise as "pure" students begin to unite. The fear of a return to the Dark Days is still strong, and those critics who raise concerns over the decline in quality and use of magic are called "bigots" for their anti-muggleblood views.

In more progressive circles, prominent "intellectual" wizards begin to suggest that magic doesn't really exist- not objectively, anyway. It is merely a social construct, and witchcraft and wizardry can manifest themselves in many different forms, most of which don't involve the use of magic at all. This is met with great approval by the majority of muggleborns, though there is still discontent among those who continue to actually use magic "correctly".

To combat growing discontent, the Ministry of Magic decrees that "flagrant displays of magic" are now illegal on school grounds, as this can result in prejudice and feelings of unwelcomeness for muggleborn witches and wizards, who are utterly incapable of casting spells (even those who manage to keep wands). The school removes most of it's "applied magic" curriculum, instead replacing it with "Justice-Oriented Magic" and "Muggleborn Studies", which focus on present-day social issues and the various expressions of "Alternative Magic" that are popular at the time, such as Ouija boards, Tarot cards, and divination of palms and tea-leaves.

In the matter of racial comparisons
The media shouts to the moon
About all the historic achievements of the Redskin, Spic and the Coon

Yet strangely when strolling museums
The white mans creations stand thick but all we can find of those others is a blanket, a bowl and a stick

No telephones, timeclocks or engines,
No lights that go on with a flick.
No airplanes or rockets or radios
Just a blanket, a bowl and a stick

Not one Sioux Indian submarine,
No African ice cream to lick, not a single Mexican X-Ray machine, it's a blanket, a bowl and a stick

So remember when history's the subject, and revisionists are up to their tricks,
the evidence tells quite another tale of a blanket, a bowl and a stick

I'm working as a shift manager at a local reastaurant that I'm not going to name to pay for my degree.
As you might expect I often have to work with other races since we're short of personal:
>Indians
They NEVER clean up properly.
I lost count on how often I had to explain to them that cleaning up the dough mixing machine requires more than just paper towels and they can't leave untill I checked if it was cleaned properly.
We had to throw away hundreds of kg of dough because they fucked up the written instructions at various stages.
We never let them do anything complex or god forbit get them in contact with cutomers since they don't speak german and seem to lack the mental capacities to do anything like that.
>slavs
They actualy work properly, might drink a beer when cleaning up after close, but overall the best foreigners we get and dislike other foreigners that are non-slavs.
Never had any real issues with most of them.
>niggers
You always need to tell them what to do or they will stand there on their phones doing nothing.
>sandniggers
Never want to work, always trying to skip shifts and they can get agressive rather quickly.

Google Apologizes for Racist Photo-Tagging Results

Google was forced to apologize after Google Photos automatically tagged two black people as gorillas.

Not okay, Google.

The Web giant's new Photos app, which can automatically tag photos and generate albums, has been called creepy, but racist, too? As was first reported by Ars Technica, the search giant was forced to apologize this week after the service automatically tagged two black people as gorillas.

Computer programmer Jacky Alciné reported the issue on Twitter after discovering that Google Photos had created an album labeled "Gorillas" featuring no actual photos of gorillas but images of him and another black friend.

"What kind of sample image data you collected that would result in this son?" Alciné questioned.

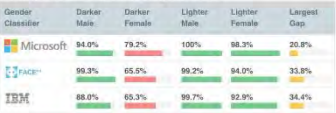
Outspoken US Congresswoman Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez recently said that AI can be biased during a Martin Luther King Jr. day event in New York City. She was of course derided the following day by conservative commentators.

But she is right.

Joy Buolamwini, an MIT scientist and founder of the Algorithmic Justice League, published a research that uncovered large gender and racial bias in AI systems sold by tech giants like IBM, Microsoft, and Amazon. Given the task of guessing the gender of a face, all companies performed substantially better on male faces than female faces. The error rates were no more than 1% for lighter-skinned men whilst for darker-skinned women, the errors soared to 35%. When tasked to classify the faces of Oprah Winfrey, Michelle Obama, and Serena Williams, the systems failed.



Gender Classifier	Darker Male	Darker Female	Lighter Male	Lighter Female	Largest Gap
Microsoft	94.0%	79.2%	100%	98.3%	20.8%
FACE++	99.3%	65.5%	99.2%	94.0%	33.8%
IBM	88.0%	65.3%	99.7%	92.9%	34.4%

"THE WHITE MAN'S BURDEN."
(Apologies to Rudyard Kipling.)

Pride in one's own race – and that does not imply contempt for other races – is also a normal and healthy sentiment. I have never regarded the Chinese or the Japanese as being inferior to ourselves. They belong to ancient civilizations, and I admit freely that their past history is superior to our own.

They have the right to be proud of their past, just as we have the right to be proud of the civilization to which we belong. Indeed, I believe the more steadfast the Chinese and the Japanese remain in their pride of race, the easier I shall find it to get on with them.

"Being proud to be Asian is the same as being proud to be white. [Their] pride demoralizes Black and Latinx children. Their false sense of accomplishments and achievements makes them a newer and more dangerous version of white supremacy. I should go so far as to say we [United States] should forcibly take away these companies from Japan, China, and Korea and redistribute them to the next generation of Latinx and Black entrepreneurs. They won't be so proud when their companies are gone and we can stop this new form of white supremacy before it gets worse," a frustrated parent stated.

"Too many Asians are succeeding! That's not fair!"
STUDENT VOICE > PARENT FEAR

November 18, 2020

https://archive.is/gzjp4

Progressives all across America have declared war on Asians, meritocracy, and STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, Math). Recently, the San Francisco Unified School District voted to replace their merit admissions process at Lowell High School, one of the best high schools in America and also happens to be 61% Asian, with a lottery-based system.

When Asian-American parents opposed the school district's plans to enact its new "lottery" system in late October, the school district blasted the parents by stating they were "racist" and responsible for the "toxic culture" at the school. Parents were accused of furthering the "Asian supremacy" agenda by making their children work so hard; their children's achievements were demoralizing African-American and Latino students.

One African-American parent stated it's because of Asians hogging up all the spaces "Black people can't catch up technologically because the 'stupid Asians' are keeping black people down out of fear they'd be overtaken."

When one angry Asian-American parent responded "Trust me, you'll never catch up. If you need to lower-standards to get in, you'll never beat us," a near physical fight broke loose.

Another Asian parent screamed, "First you blame white people, now you blame us!? Grow up! Study harder or go home!"

On Halloween weekend, about 100 families, students, alumni, and community members from Thomas Jefferson High School for Science and Technology stood on the grassy lawn in front of the school and held a symbolic memorial service for America's No. 1 high school, according to Crushing the Myth.

"Remember the glory of TJ (Thomas Jefferson)," said Yuyan Zhou, a Chinese-American alumni mother, as her friends stood around her with awards and trophies that symbolized the school's shining achievements.

Thomas Jefferson High School will no longer be the No. 1 school in America after abolishing their merit-based admissions to make way for more less-qualified and less-deserving African-American and Latino students who could not pass TJ's entrance exam.

Around the same time parents at TJ found out race-blind tests were eliminated, members of the Boston Public School system in Massachusetts announced they were going to eliminate academic exams to the school district's top three schools, including O'Bryant School of Mathematics and Science.

Boston school officials argued that STEM school's racial demographics are "too white and too Asian and they're both meeting or exceeding expectations at higher rates" than Black and Hispanic students and that's not fair. The Boston Public School system calls their new plan "racial equity planning tool."

Mayor Bill de Blasio of New York City is also planning to eliminate race-blind admissions for Stuyvesant High School and the Bronx High School of Science, citing "white supremacy" as the main factor for his quest—never mind the fact those high schools are more than 60 percent Asian.

1. "White" Japanese. St. Xavier found Japanese "the best race yet discovered" and his high opinion pretty much carried the day. When Frois in 1565, praised the Japanese as superior in many things – specifically, in their policia, tratamiento and costumbres (civility, manners and customs?) – he made certain to parenthetically include the words "as the padre maestro Francisco said." (CARTAS). But I cannot recall Xavier mentioning skin color. José Luis Alvarez-Taladriz's ample notes to Valignano's SUMARIO (1583) gives many citations going back to Fernandez in 1560 – "esta gente es blanca." (See 1-8 for more). Valignano's constant use of the word when justifying the equal treatment of Japanese makes it clear that blanca has broader nuance than skin color. When he explains to his superior "The Importance of this Undertaking . . . in Japan" (1583:ch 6), his first of "many reasons" is because Japan is > "a big province with seventy six kingdoms all inhabited by whites (habitada toda de gente blanca) who are very discriminating, prudent, understanding and very subject to reason . . ."

Or, explaining elsewhere to the question as to whether Japanese should be received into the Order (found in note to the same by Alvarez-Taladriz): Valignano's second reason was

> "because the population of Japan is as white, noble, ingenious, capable of virtue and the letters as the people of Europe . . ." (es blanca, noble . . . tanto como son todas las mas gentes de Europa.)

As Father Schütte writes in VALIGNANO'S MISSION PRINCIPLES (S:VMP), while still in India, Valignano regarded the Japanese (and Chinese) as "white people" far superior to Indian and African races," who were generally called "black." Even though some in India had great power and pomp (fausto) in some things and many possessions and gold, "still in other things they are as wretched and base that they seem like black people." (todavia en otras son tan miserables y tan bajos que bien se parece ser gente negra.) After visiting Japan, he further contrasted life in Japan and India as "living with cultivated and intelligent people in the former instance, and with base and bestial people in the latter." (in B:CCJ)

Unlike, the "honorary white" appellation granted to the Japanese by South African racists in the 1970's, economics was not the main factor involved, for Valignano and other Jesuits often noted that most Japanese, including many local rulers, were far from wealthy. While the Southern Europeans did not attach the devilish connotations to black that many (most?) other Europeans did – the Portuguese have traditionally prided themselves on not being racist – black was nevertheless synonymous with inferiority and often included as an adjective in descriptions of what we might impoverishment, deprivation or ignorance. In Japan's case, the widespread literacy and decorum would seem to be the deciding factors here, for the Chinese were likewise included as whites, although their alleged cowardice (see my Midword) cost them the respect of the West, and the Koreans, also highly literate, could be Jesuits from 1608. As Schütte points out, had Valignano known the more intellectual side of India (Goa was not the most civilized location), he might have felt differently about them, too.

I think we should credit the Jesuits for choosing as "whites" and our equals if not superiors in many aspects of civilized life the very people of the very cultures that did, in fact, end up our economic equals. Much can be said for India and its peoples, but, as Tagore admitted, only Japan was able to match the West in its own game. And now, we can see this being proven true for the entire Sinosphere. It is easy to sit back and chide Valignano for having a racist opinion of India. But, if "white" means close to Europeans and "black" means what we now call "Third World," or whatever the latest euphemism is, history has proven he was correct to exclude India and include the Far East. (Though I am rooting for India which has much I love!)

Here's a piece of advice I give every white male trapped in the Jew working environment...

Get a Star of David necklace and keep it on you at all times in the work environment. It has saved my ass more than twice.

>work with a couple fat dykes and some melanin enriched Ebola Americans >make a couple comments one fat feminist lesbian doesn't like >complains to management about harassment and inappropriate conduct >pull Star of David necklace out of collar before heading into HR office >asked to explain myself >tell them I haven't really said much to her, but she has made several antisemitic remarks in the past, and I didn't want to bring it up and cause a lot of drama. "I saw her earlier today, told her about a family member in Israel and she got angry and stormed off."
>HR and management is completely mindfucked
>I get off the hook and feminist lesbian dyke has to take sensitivity training

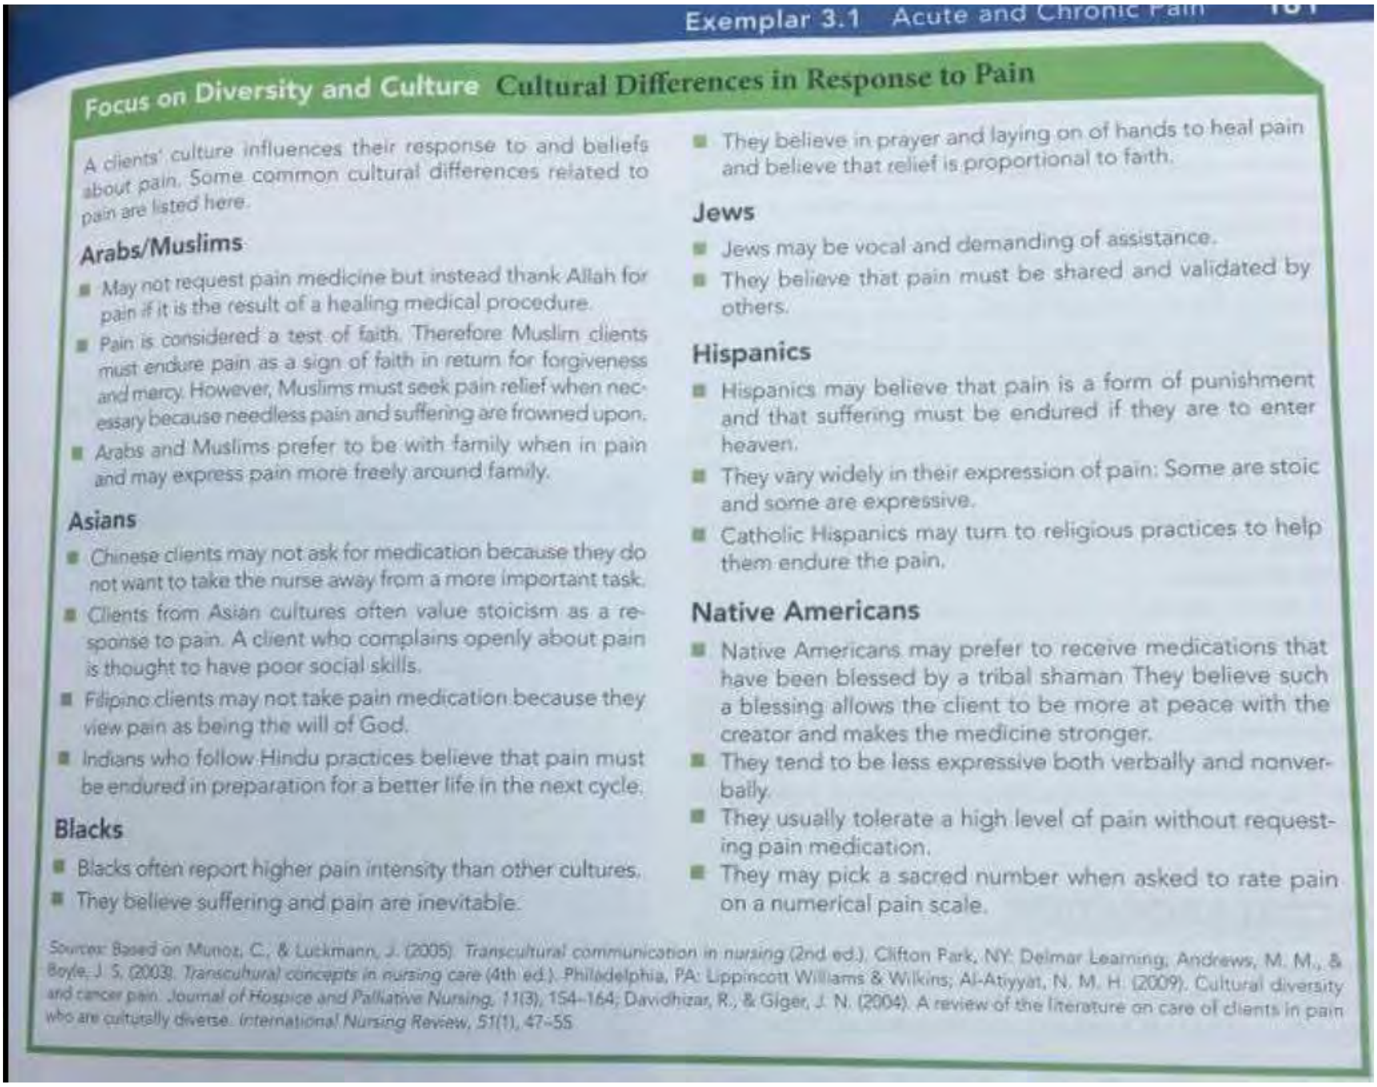
Why yes, I love Soyence, I believe Darwin's theory of evolution

"[Man] has diverged into distinct races, or as they may be more fitly called, sub-species. Some of these, such as the Negro and the European, are so distinct that, if specimens had been brought to a naturalist without any further information, they would undoubtedly have been considered as good and true species."

~ Charles Darwin, The Descent of Man (1871)



Focus on Diversity and Culture Cultural Differences in Response to Pain

A clients' culture influences their response to and beliefs about pain. Some common cultural differences related to pain are listed here.

Arabs/Muslims

- May not request pain medicine but instead thank Allah for pain if it is the result of a healing medical procedure.
- Pain is considered a test of faith. Therefore Muslim clients must endure pain as a sign of faith in return for forgiveness and mercy. However, Muslims must seek pain relief when necessary because needless pain and suffering are frowned upon.
- Arabs and Muslims prefer to be with family when in pain and may express pain more freely around family.

Asians

- Chinese clients may not ask for medication because they do not want to take the nurse away from a more important task.
- Clients from Asian cultures often value stoicism as a response to pain. A client who complains openly about pain is thought to have poor social skills.
- Filipino clients may not take pain medication because they view pain as being the will of God.
- Indians who follow Hindu practices believe that pain must be endured in preparation for a better life in the next cycle.

Blacks

- Blacks often report higher pain intensity than other cultures.
- They believe suffering and pain are inevitable.
- They believe in prayer and laying on of hands to heal pain and believe that relief is proportional to faith.

Jews

- Jews may be vocal and demanding of assistance.
- They believe that pain must be shared and validated by others.

Hispanics

- Hispanics may believe that pain is a form of punishment and that suffering must be endured if they are to enter heaven.
- They vary widely in their expression of pain: Some are stoic and some are expressive.
- Catholic Hispanics may turn to religious practices to help them endure the pain.

Native Americans

- Native Americans may prefer to receive medications that have been blessed by a tribal shaman. They believe such a blessing allows the client to be more at peace with the creator and makes the medicine stronger.
- They tend to be less expressive both verbally and nonverbally.
- They usually tolerate a high level of pain without requesting pain medication.
- They may pick a sacred number when asked to rate pain on a numerical pain scale.

Where does the "dumb blonde" stereotype come from?

The current blonde stereotype began in the U.S. of the early 20th century. It was a product of ethnic contact between the native-born population and darker-haired immigrants (Italians, Jews, Greeks, etc.) who were often shocked by the relative sexual freedom of 'American' women. This attitude existed in different communities, but it entered the mainstream culture primarily via Jewish immigrants and specifically through their contributions to art and literature. It is a common theme in Jewish-American novels:

> "The exotic female in Jewish life is the sexy shiksa, frequently a blue-eyed blonde who offers gratifications withheld, at least until marriage, by proper Jewish girls. [...] A blend of arrogance and defensiveness prompts many Jews to claim that shiksas are more carnal and promiscuous than women of their own faith because Christians are less intelligent, refined, and clean than themselves. Goyishe Kopf (literally translated as gentile head), the Yiddish colloquialism for stupidity, exemplifies the traditional contempt for Christians." (Jaher, 1983)

This theme entered popular American culture through fiction, motion pictures, and comedy routines, with well-known examples including the novel Portnoy's Complaint by Philip Roth and the typecasting of Marilyn Monroe in vamp roles.

A Jewish tradition that dates from at least the 19th century is to write plus using a symbol like an inverted T.[20] This practice was adopted into Israeli schools and is still commonplace today in elementary schools (including secular schools) but in fewer secondary schools.[21] It is also used occasionally in books by religious authors, but most books for adults use the international symbol "+". The reason for this practice is that it avoids the writing of a symbol "+" that looks like a Christian cross.[20][21] Unicode has this symbol at position `U+FB29` ﬩ HEBREW LETTER ALTERNATIVE PLUS SIGN.[22]

RACE TIER LIST

ᛋᛋ TIER - Godmode.

NORDS

The absolute pinnacle of God mode. Incredibly well rounded class.

+2 buff on all stats

MEDS

Basically built civilisation. Often considered non-white, they remain unmatched in conquest.

+2 Historic wealth
+4 Intelligence
-1 Skin tone

A TIER - Still white but not godmode.

VODKA NIGGERS

Decent stats, but often too drunk to function cohesively.

+3 Alcohol Tolerance
+7 Cold Resistance

BRITBONGS

Decent class, but with a high poverty debuff, causing lower class citizens to drop to B or even C tier.

+2 Charisma on certain accents
-1 Looks

B TIER - Almost Niggers

POTATO NIGGERS

They're white, I guess? Women occasionally attractive.

-5 Sunlight resistance
+1 Alcohol Tolerance

TRADITIONAL ASIANS

Only non-white class to break above C tier. Often highly respected for their culture, they make up for their low base stats by functioning as a very cohesive community.

+3 Cultural
-2 Isolation debuff

cont. ->

C TIER - THE NIGGERS BEGIN

URBAN AND TRIBAL AFRICANS

Incredibly low stats, but not completely taken over by degeneracy like some lower class niggers. If successful in the 'Warlord' class or the 'House Nigga' class, has a chance to become low B-tier

+2 Strength buff
-11 Intelligence debuff
-99 Skin tone

CHINKS

Alright stats, but widespread cultural debuffs across many nations. If trained correctly, some can rise to A tier in the textile profession.

+2 Strength buff
-1 Intelligence debuff
-10 Skin tone

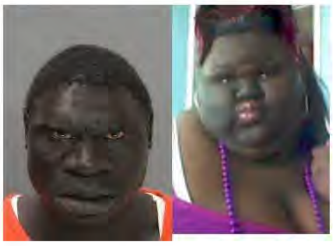
D TIER - Subhumans

DUNE COONS

Highly volatile race, known for their aggression and incompatible culture. Can convert white players to their idealogy.

-2 Inbred debuff
-10 Intelligence debuff

"AMERICAN" NIGGERS



Basically monkeys with a small Int buff and the Bipedal trait. Will take any chance to go apeshit.

Special ability: Nigger Rage
Large burst of strength at the cost of a temporary Int debuff

-3 Language Processing
-25 Intelligence debuff

SPICS

Perhaps the worst class to have a high pop of in any server, Spics have a higher base Int stat than Niggers, allowing them to infiltrate and destroy nations. Also cannot get my order right, ever.

-24 Language Processing
-4 Intelligence debuff
-10 Skin tone

UNSPEAKABLE TIER

ABOS

Literally not even human. Don't really belong on the list due to being animals, yet some players still choose to play as them.

How does one get a job as a "racism expert"? I'm very qualified, I'm an expert racist Racism and misogyny are the most banned things in the world. You can't be racist or misogynistic any where online, even here, without some crybaby faggot banning you for saying a meanie word. Imagine that. Adults freely exchanging ideas, and there are specially appointed "don't be a meanie, the women and minorities can't handle it!" police who literally do it for free. The average person is so mentally and emotionally committed to protecting women and minorities from the slightest criticism that they volunteer, FOR FREE, to police communities they despise, full of people who despise them, just to make sure no woman or minority is ever criticized.

Reading books elevates you above this mass of thought-policing crybabies and puts you in dialogue with the greatest and most brilliant men in history, most of whom were racist misogynists, because racism and misogyny are not only true, they're extremely funny.

Hello users of 4chan. There is no other way to put this: I am an extraterrestrial.

My people are from a planet approximately 59 light-years away from your planet, Earth. My planet is currently engulfed in a devastating civil-war. My people are in desperate need of relocation, and your planet has been determined to be a prime candidate for our relocation.

Thousands of other representatives have been sent to secretly visit other planets that we could relocate to and communicate with a small percentage of the population. I have been assigned to Earth.

In order to complete my mission, I need to ascertain information about Earth. If one of you would provide me with a brief history of your planet, it would be greatly appreciated.

In return, I will answer all questions (except those that would jeopardize my mission) to the best of my ability.

Thank you for your time.

"The conclusion is incontrovertable," Maxis chirped through his beak. "The planet has suffered a complete collapse of civilization."
The Technepod was peering over viewscreens as he spoke. Euner contemplated the words briefly before speaking.
"What do you mean collapse? We have records of civilizations collapsing on hundreds of worlds, but there is always some pocket left to recolonize." Euner said.
"The evidence is all there, would you care to examine it yourself?" Maxis motioned to the various displays in front of him with his manipulator.
"No- no, that isn't necessary" Euner said quickly. "Analysis is not my forte."
"Indeed it is not." Maxis stated matter of factly, his blunt manner typical of a Technepod.
"You sound resentful"
"Nonsense. Your contributions to these missions extend beyond the analysis of raw data. I have said many times that I consider you a dear friend, Euner. I would not care to take these long research voyages without your company."
"You are too kind, Maxis"
"You know my species does not understand your form of sarcasm."
"I assure you I was not being sarcastic. But this is besides the situation. The evidence-"
"It is available for your viewing."
"Summarize." Euner intoned.
"Very well," Maxis began. "The planet's dominant species is a two-legged creature, walking upright it stands approximately 2 meters tall. It has a pair of jointed arms with crude but sufficient manipulators at the ends. It has a skull housing the sensory organs and the brain, which is fairly large for its body size. A fairly common body arrangement as far as tool users go."
"So they are tool users."
"Oh yes, quite. I see activity on all major landmasses except for the polar continent. The most advanced societies appear to be concentrated in the northern latitudes on two continents. Farming techniques are primitive, but crop rotation is being practiced. There is evidence of steam engines and gunpowder."

"This sounds like an advancing species, Maxis, my first response would be to recommend them for an observation period followed by limited contact."
"Indeed, that would be an appropriate first response, but it would be wrong."
"Well, damn it, why? Get to the point."
"This information is necessary for you to understand why this is a failed civilization. I would appreciate your patience."
Euner remained silent, but showed visible annoyance.
"I will continue then," Maxis said. "While this appears to be an advancing civilization, there are several clues that indicate this is in fact a resurgence of civilization, and a final one at that."
Maxis maniplated a few controls, and a display appeared, showing two large landmasses separated by an ocean. A red overlay showed a fuzzy area along the northern edges of both landmasses.
"These are areas where the most advanced civilization are concentrated," Maxis said, motioning to the red areas. "And in fact neatly coincides with a subspecies of the tool-users."
"So one subspecies is more capable of sustaining a civilization than the others?" Euner asked.
"Incisive, Euner. Yes, one of subspecies does appear to be much more capable then the others. It is when I examined the genetic makeup of this subspecies that I suspected a collapse had occured."
"What did you see?"
"This landmass here," Maxis pointed to one of the landmasses. "Has a much higher degree of genetic diversity than the other landmass where this subspecies is extant."
"Ok... why?"
"The level of genetic diversity I see is most easily explained by migrations, or perhaps, colonization, by an industrial society from one of these landmasses to the other. The less diverse landmass colonized the more diverse landmass, which was perhaps empty or displaced the original inhabitents, and in the process, interbreeded significantly."
"A pre-industrial society could not have made the oceanic voyage?"

☐ Anonymous (ID: Yr5aqJMs) 03/07/19(Thu)21:44:59 No.7625566 ▶ >>7625568

>>7625563

"It would be possible, but difficult, for the levels of diversity I am seeing, I would be extremely skeptical of a pre-industrial level of technology."
"Is this all the evidence you have?"
"Of course not, once I saw this genetic quandry I began looking for more evidence, specifically hightened radiation levels, both atmospheric and at or below ground level."
"And?"
"And I found evidence of nuclear weapon use in the atmosphere and at least 12 concentrations of fissile material not far below ground level, likely marking former nuclear power facilities."
"Ok, so they had nuclear power, they were an industrial society.... well, what happened?"
"I do not know for certain but I have some theories. There is evidence that the fossil fuel reserves of the planet have been completely depleated."
"Bah!" Euner almost yelled. "That's absured! They had nuclear power, if you have the technical expertise to build that then you are well on your way to fusion power. What do the deuterium levels look like in the oceans?"
"There is deuterium present in the oceans, it is in line with similar worlds we have surveyed, I do not believe it was used significantly by these civilizations."
"Then the collapse must have come shortly after fission power was discovered." Euner mused. "Within a couple hundred years at the most, some civilizations have gone from fission to fusion within a century. But... but that doesn't explain how the fossil fuel reserves could be depleated"
"Again, quite incisive," Maxis replied. "I think there may have actually been several cycles of collapse and rebirth of civiliation. In fact, it makes some sense. The first time a civilization discovers fossil fuels it will quickly depleat all easily accessible reserves, forcing the development of more advanced technologies to exploit them-"
"So a civiliation that suffers a sufficiently bad collapse won't be able to exploit the more remote reserves of fossil fuel."

"Precisely, for instance here-" Maxis again flicked a display showing a labeled cutout of a sea floor with a oil reserve below it. "Is a large oil reserve benethe one of the planet's oceans that appears to have been exploited for petroleum fuels. It still has quite large reserves of oil left, but no pre-industrial society could exploit it. It requires the technology to build drilling platforms and drills and transport ships. A society who's biggest ships are made of wood would have no ability to find or exploit such a deposit even if they had a map from the previous civilization."
"So civilization collapses, but is unable to get back to an industrial level because of a lack of fossil fuels. This still doesn't make sense, Maxis. Equipment doesn't just disappear after a collapse. There would be left over drilling platforms and ships, you could exploit those reserves that way, you could restart civilization."
"Yes, and that would work up until your society collapsed again, and again."
"Preposterous! A civiliation doesn't just keep collapsing like that."
"This one did, in fact, I have found evidence of at least 4 complete planet-wide collapses back to pre-industrial levels, as well as dozens of mini-collapses in isolated geographical regions. Each collapse leaves less and less usable equipment left over until eventually it becomes impossible to restart industrial civilization."
"That makes no sense! A civiliation collapse is often a culling event, weak members die off and only the smartest, strongest members survive. Most populations come out stronger than before."
"Indeed, I was quite confounded by this as well. I began examinining archeological data from the planet. I have discovered something quite interesting. As some background let me say that there are at least 5 major subspecies of the tool-users on this planet."

Maxis fiddled with another control, a screen appeared showing 5 of the tool-users, each with slight physical variations and different colorations. The tool-users were mostly hairless except for the head and where the legs met, around the genitalia.
"These examples of the tool user subspecies are made by averaging of the genetic samples I've taken," Maxis said. "Note that the subspecies on the left is very pale compared to the others. The tool-users require sunlight exposure to manufacturer certain acids necessary for their biology. In higher latitudes the tool-users skin lightens to allow more absorption of sunlight."
"Interesting," Euner said, leaning forward in his seat.
"In fact, it appears that this lighter skin is in fact a proxy for other traits as well. It appears that the most advanced societies correspond with this subspecies. It is quite perplexing."

"Hmmm," Euner said. "What is the axial tilt of this planet? Orbital eccentricity?"
"Ahh," Maxis replied. "Axial tilt is approximately 23 degrees, eccentricity is low, typical for a habitable world."
"Tell me, Maxis," Euner asked. "What is the axial tilt of Iuxu? Almost zero I would gamble."
"My species homeworld? Yes, it is only 1.75 degrees. What does this have to do with-"
"Seasons!" Euner almost shouted. "It has seasons."
"I am not following this line of reasoning."
"Look, Iuxu has low axial tilt, I know it has little orbital eccentricity as well. This means that there is relatively little variation in sunlight. A species on a planet without seasons has the same pressure on all of its inhabitants. Seasons force an excess of agricultural production. A farmer has to plan to grow enough to survive winter. Seasons and an agrarian society forces the development of long-term planning; it's an evolutionary filter!"
"This is quite radical, Euner."
"Ok, look at the Oolui, their homeworld has a high degree of axial tilt."
"The Oolui do not have sentient subspecies."

☐ Anonymous (ID: Yr5aqJMs) 03/07/19(Thu)21:47:28 No.7625577 ▶ >>7625579

>>7625575

Euner remained silent for a second, then spoke.
"I know for a fact that that is not true. It is not widely publicized, but the Oolui most definitely do have sentient subspecies. At least 2. Have you ever been to their homeworld?"
"Travel to the Oolui homeworld is highly restricted, Euner."
"I've been there, Maxis," Euner leaned forward. "There is a wall dividing the main continent, made of plassteel and embedded miles into the ground. The wall is tens of thousands of feet high."
"The costs of such a wall would be-"
"Astronomical. Enough to consume the entire output of a planetary civilization for decades."
"But... why?"
"It's a quarantine wall. They have walled off two of their subspecies from the rest of the group."
Maxis was silent for a moment, rubbing a tentacle along one of his chins, obviously deep in thought.
"The records are not made freely available to outsiders, but from what I can gather, they had had issues in the past with.... interbreeding" Euner continued. "They didn't want to commit genocide, or for whatever reason, they decided to wall off their problem."
"So you are saying..." Maxis said with a pause "That this planet we are observing, they intermingled with a less intelligent subspecies sufficiently to lead to a collapse of their civilization? And not only once, but multiple times."
"Intermingling isn't even necessary, a democracy will be harmed by a large portion of less intelligent individuals in it. Think of what would happen if you had a sufficient number of the pale-skins to keep a civilization afloat, and using up precious fossil fuels, but with too many of the other subspecies to advance to fusion power."
"But why would the subspecies hold them back?"
"Government-enforced social programs maybe? Young civilizations are known to engage in such foolishness before forming mature economic theories."
"These are quite radical theories, Euner"
"It has happened before! It happened on Oolui!"
There was a moment of silence.

☐ Anonymous (ID: Yr5aqJMs) 03/07/19(Thu)21:47:59 No.7625579 ▶ >>7625581

>>7625577

"Very well Euner, let us endevor to confirm this theory," Maxis said. "What evidence would you expect to see?"
"I would expect this species is... or perhaps was... very touchy on the subject of the difference between their subspecies. There will be historical records of the denial of this fact. There will be physical segregation of the subspecies even when comingling in society. When the species did coexist, there will be large amounts of lawlessness by the less intelligent subspecies. You may even see higher rates of reproduction by the less intelligent subspecies. An overreproduction of the less productive memebers of society would lead directly to a civilization collapse."
Maxis fiddled with controls, then exclaimed.
"Ahh, this is most fortunate," Maxis said. "I have found a large computer bank, mostly untouched. Hold on a moment, I am scanning it."
Images began to flash across the display as the ship's computer identified useful information, partially informed by the conversation it has been monitoring. Maxis and Euner absorbed information and discussed it as it flashed by, occasionally stopping to research an event in more detail. The information they gleaned was enormous, though the primitive storage format of the ancient computers they had found slowed their search.
They examined a news story of a man, one of the darker colored subspecies. He had committed a crime and was high on a stimulant. A group of the pale-skins, law enforcers, had beat him in a rage. It sparked a multi-day riot of the dark-skins, where they paradoxically looted and destroyed their own communities.
Another piece of information. The pale-skins had enslaved the dark-skins for labor purposes, then fought a civil war over the dark-skins freedom.

☐ Anonymous (ID: Yr5aqJMs) 03/07/19(Thu)21:48:50 No.7625581 ▶ >>7625582

>>7625579

The dark-skins destroying a monument the pale-skins had carved into the side of a mountain, busts of their greatest leaders. The dark-skins blew it up with explosives, but due to misapplication of explosives failed to blow up one of the faces.
"Thee-oh-dore Roos-i-volt" Maxis pronounced the alien name of one of the ancient leaders.
They saw more information, genocides and counter-genocides. The pale-skins expelling a group of dark-skins. A group of pale-skin colonizers on the dark-skins homeland slowly dwindling and being enslaved and dissolving among the dark-skin population. Every time the pale-skins seemed to suicidally intermingle with the dark-skins, each time their civilization collapsed. The computer flashed more and more images and stories and data points on the screen as it analyzed the ancient computers, pulling bits molecule by molecule with its sensor suite from the ancient disks.
"Niggers are the great filter" another message flashed.
"Niggers?" Euner asked.
"Slang for the dark-skinned people, considered offensive at various times." Maxis replied.
"Ahh".
A few standard days later their finished their investigation.
"So we are in agreement then?" Maxis asked.
"Yes," Euner replied. "Our advice is no-contact. The pale skins are not advanced enough to achieve space-travel on their own, not now, and they will not achieve space-travel now that they have exhausted their natural resources."
"Agreed," Maxis said, touching a few buttons to file their report.
"Maxis, what do you think will happen to this world?"

☐ Anonymous (ID: Yr5aqJMs) 03/07/19(Thu)21:49:06 No.7625582 ▶

>>7625581

"Well, as we surmised, the pale-skins are too familiar with the other subspecies, while they are capable of space-travel, their culture or psychology will not permit it. This world will continue as it is for tens of thousands, maybe hundreds of thousands or millions of years. Until the planetary ecology changes sufficiently that an agrarian society can no longer be sustained. Then, natural evolutionary pressures will begin to apply again and this species will die out or evolve. Then, who knows? We'll be long dead by then anyway."
"Yes, we will, won't we?"

Nature's wrath is never one to lag behind delusion. And today, the White Race is delusional.

If you were to invite, into your home, the creatures of the forest—the rabbits, the mice, the birds, and, of course, the bees—you would soon find your house honeycombed with all manner of vermin. You may not perceive them as such, as vermin; Yet, they are, by any sane, rational definition of the word.

The rabbits tear through your bedspread; chewing, guffawing in delight over the wondrous snowy mountains of padding they will use to make their nest. The mice rummage through your kitchen as hunched-back church grannies perusing a yard sale. The birds make light of your lampshades high up near the ceiling where they will lay their eggs—but not before, for the sake of safety, they use their beaks and bit of gumption to unplug the lamp itself, as even miniscule heat of a fluorescent bulb could damage the delicate growth of their extra-corporeal embryos.

In short, you, your wife, your children, are bred out of your own home. You find under every book, under every table, or chair, or stool, or anything solid to stand on, a new form of life—life brought, or rather entered, through your open door.

And when your youngest, your little-one scarcely fleshy enough to have sentient thought or mastery over the mutterings that leave their porthole asks, "Daddy, should we close the door now?" You do a very naughty thing; using your outdoor voice, you reply,

"KEEP YOUR HATE SPEECH OFF THIS CAMPUS. KEEP YOUR HATE SPEECH OFF THIS CAMPUS."

And so your little-one begins to sob. But you, rightfully, morally, stand firm. You smirk as you inhale the fumes of a forest mouse caught in the toaster, wafting out of your now colonized kitchen. Mirth is to you! You have given refuge, safe-keeping for the creatures of the forest. And now by the millions they birth, inside your home.

You let your chiseled chin-chin-cheroo point in the direction of your wife. She too is sobbing, but only because her newest addition, her latest edition to the publication of your family genetics turned out to be a racist. Who knew they start so young? Why would anyone be racist towards the creatures of the forest? You let your chiseled chiny-chin-chin-cheroo point up towards the sky. You ponder these things.

At this moment, a tumbly, stumbly raccoon peters down the stairs—getting more sway-some and tippy-some as it nears the bottom step. It eyes your wife, bubbly-bubbly pip-pop gin in hand, and saunters forth to greet her with a salubrious grin, but falls dead. This beguiles you. Are the guests in your home not healthy enough to mate with your wife? You do not ponder this question. The raccoon is of much higher being than your racist spawn. For at least it, does not need your ever-loving care and attention, pathetic offspring, weak offspring.

And so today, the White Race lets swing open that proverbial door. Morals, borders, heritage—all are to be thrown to the wind, for we are all human. And what use is a military if there are no borders to defend? And what use it to have children when the Africans have so many? Surely, they will take care of us when we are old and done. For we are all human, and what is the use of nature while we remain fed?

You do realize there are no UFOs or Aliens right? It was always a glow in the dark project to bring a new age of religion, a science fiction religion where people worship not gods & angels but aliens from distant stars. We stopped worshipping ficticious past and start worshipping ficticious space future.

All the UFO encounters overwhelmingly are wednesdays, and almost never in sundays. Also all UFO encounters are between the time 2100-0130. Another statistics with UFO encounters that proves its human made phenomenom is that almost all UFO encounters happen between state borders, meaning those UFO encounter know & care about artificial human made borders and laws.

Why would beings from outer space follow our timetables, calenders, and follow our borders? Makes no sense.

Crop circles are faked, and so is the cattle mutilating. No aliens involved.

While the UFO phenomenom became a belief system for space worshipping cults so they started to pop up everywhere like heavens gate which had strange CIA connections or like Scientology. Even cults like the esoteric order of Solar temple had mystic space beliefs. Most of these glow in the dark CIA nigger cults started to mass suicide during the 1990. Clearly a cleanup because most of these cults were propheting about world ending in 2000.

Dont be a fool. See the deception as it is. Ask evidence. Just like you would with the holocaust. These UFO believers really dont have any real evidence. They mask their New Age progressive morals, politics, & beliefs into a space religion. The Coming of Tan was canceled & all these cult leaders saying they were upducted like Riley Martin are silly charlotans.

Its not just the ufo cults. Many dangerous christian & muslim cults & their prophets were claiming UFO proffecies. So was Nation of Islam & Black Israelites back in the 60s. They could predict UFO phenomenom wich made people think they had divine knowledge. Later they would do serial killings like the zepra murders.

I can't take this anymore.

I have been rejected for a job "because they need more people from underprivileged backgrounds".

I learnt to program with a nasty €10 computer that was password-locked by its original owner and I got from ebay.

I usually charged its battery at the library, because my mother didn't have money to pay the electrical bill. My father was in another country and my uncle was in prison.

I learnt everything on my own via a Harvard online course. I saved money the entire year in order to be able to buy my €80 diploma.

Now, more than a decade later, a bluehaired disgusting whale thinks I am "privileged" because I was born with white skin, and that they should give our jobs to random niggers.

This is not fair. I am done.

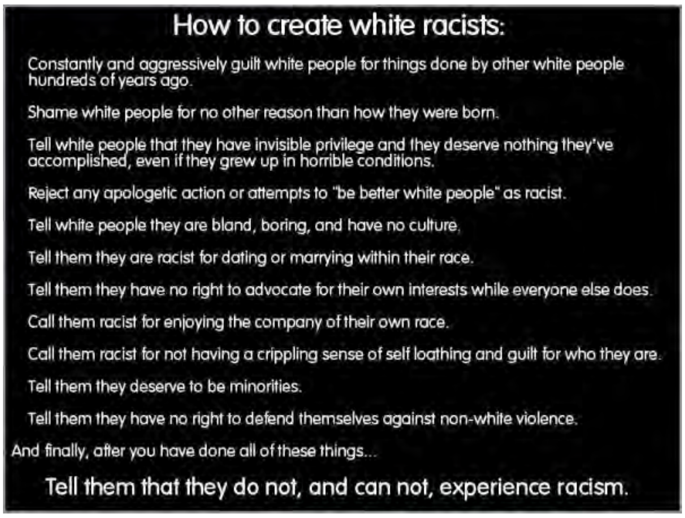
To all you anti-semites and racists out there: consider this.

In 50 or 100 years, Israel will still be Jewish.

Your countries will NOT, however. Europe will be browner and blacker, and so will Asia. Chances are your grandchildren will not look like you and if they do, your great-grandchildren won't. My descendants will rule over your descendants who will learn to hate their own heritage and There is NOTHING you can do about it.



How to create white racists:

Constantly and aggressively guilt white people for things done by other white people hundreds of years ago.

Shame white people for no other reason than how they were born.

Tell white people that they have invisible privilege and they deserve nothing they've accomplished, even if they grew up in horrible conditions.

Reject any apologetic action or attempts to "be better white people" as racist.

Tell white people they are bland, boring, and have no culture.

Tell them they are racist for dating or marrying within their race.

Tell them they have no right to advocate for their own interests while everyone else does.

Call them racist for enjoying the company of their own race.

Call them racist for not having a crippling sense of self loathing and guilt for who they are.

Tell them they deserve to be minorities.

Tell them they have no right to defend themselves against non-white violence.

And finally, after you have done all of these things...

Tell them that they do not, and can not, experience racism.

So I was talking to a friend at uni...white, practicing Catholic, female, supported Romney in 2012 and wrote in Kasich for 2016...

And she was complaining about how her hometown was 95% white. How it was a bad thing how her hometown wasn't diverse. How she was worried that I would think less of her because she came from an uber-white town (I never reveal my politics to people I'm not intimate with, so she automatically assumed I shared the same viewpoints as her).

How does a young, economically conservative, Christian girl (no sex b4 marriage, too) become convinced that America would be a better place if there were less white people in it? The logical conclusion to this line of thinking is that "diversity" is so important that everyone, every race and ethnicity, should miscegenate and live together across the globe , until we reach the point where everyone looks the same and distinct cultures no longer exist. Is this the future the normies who buy into the "less white people = good" meme want? I don't necessarily think so, because in the end it means black, Asian, Latino, etc. genocide as well as white genocide.

Pemex (a portmanteau of Petróleos Mexicanos, which translates to Mexican Petroleum in English; Spanish pronunciation: ['pemeks]) is the Mexican state-owned petroleum company managed and operated by the Mexican government. It was formed in 1938 by nationalization and expropriation of all private oil companies in Mexico at the time of its formation. Pemex had total assets worth $101.8 billion in December 2019[1] and as of 2009 was Latin America's second largest enterprise by annual revenue, surpassed only by Petrobras (the Brazilian national oil company).[2] The company is the 7th most polluting in the world according to The Guardian.[3]

No, because anything anyone tries to use as a derogatory term for white simply reminds the white person that they belong to the superior race. It's impossible for there to be a derogatory term for that.

Meanwhile, every word that has ever been used to identify a black person eventually turns into a derogatory term. Nigger used to just be the common word for black person. But it became derogatory because every time it was used it reminded the person of who they are, a filthy, stupid, inferior race which can serve no purpose other than manual labor.

Negro is already starting to become a derogatory term. In another 20 to 30 years just the term "black" will follow. Much like retards, simply being associated with the black race is so undesirable that any term used to identify them will eventually become offensive.

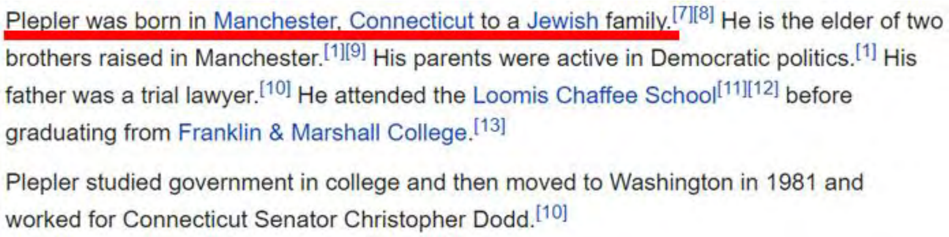
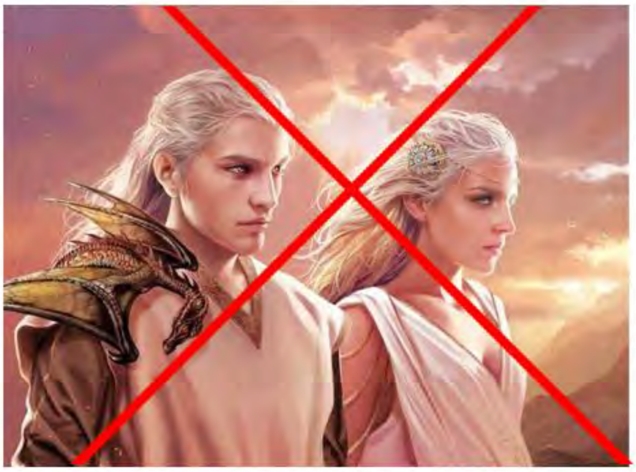
Serious about stopping climate change? Have one less child, UBC study says

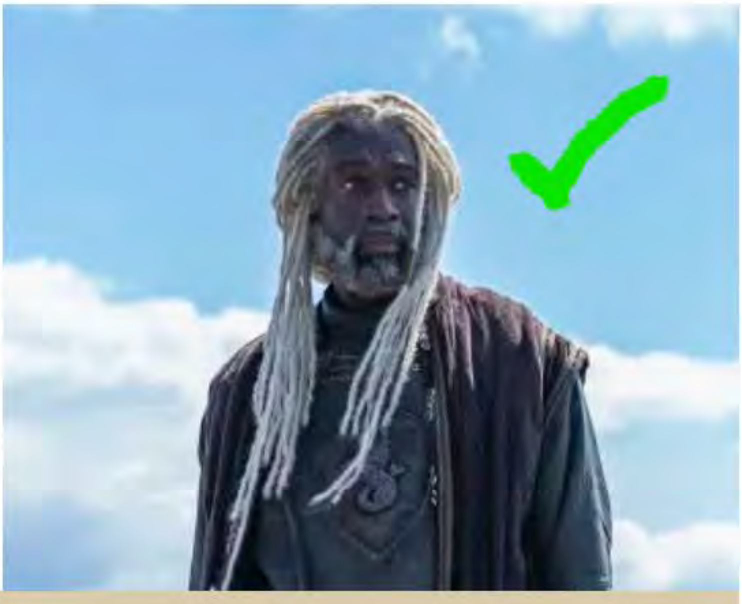
To have a real impact, it would take major sacrifices. Why then, the study asks, do textbooks tell students to do their part by merely hanging laundry or recycling

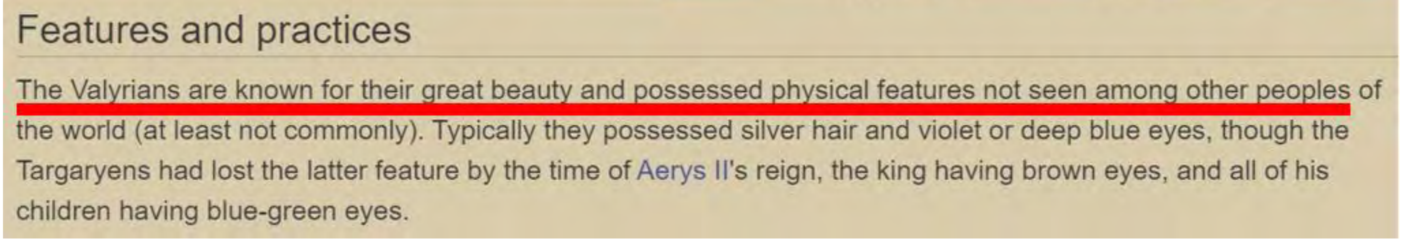


Plepler was born in Manchester, Connecticut to a Jewish family.[7][8] He is the elder of two brothers raised in Manchester.[1][9] His parents were active in Democratic politics.[1] His father was a trial lawyer.[10] He attended the Loomis Chaffee School[11][12] before graduating from Franklin & Marshall College.[13]

Plepler studied government in college and then moved to Washington in 1981 and worked for Connecticut Senator Christopher Dodd.[10]







Features and practices

The Valyrians are known for their great beauty and possessed physical features not seen among other peoples of the world (at least not commonly). Typically they possessed silver hair and violet or deep blue eyes, though the Targaryens had lost the latter feature by the time of Aerys II's reign, the king having brown eyes, and all of his children having blue-green eyes.

it isn't offended
it isn't from offense
It is close to what happens when someone tries to insult a tall guy by calling him a lanklet.
You instantly know the guy writing it is under 5'6" tall and cries himself to sleep on friday nights, but is trying to make himself feel better by pretending that men can be too tall and that tall guys suffer more than him.
Every time I have seen a cartoon, etc., about >whitebois can't eat spices it really means
>I feel very insecure and low-value, but I am sure people I envy can't so some of the things I can do
I'm convinced this all started about a discussion of American Thanksgiving ages ago.
Seriously.
I remember seeing comparisons of Thanksgiving meals online and you see:
White family of 6
>Huge turkey; bowls of extra stuffing; mashed potatoes; corn; roasted potatoes; green bean casserole; cranberry sauce three ways; rolls; trays of pickles, cheese, olives, and crackers; a bucket of gravy; bowls of various nuts; a tray of cookies; 4 pies; 3 bottles of wine
Black family of 7
>Two whole chickens; a tray of mac n' cheese; a loaf of wonder bread
And sweet mercy it wasn't long before a black guy said
>But dat turkey be bland, yo and the blacks started raving about how they put hot sauce on their chicken.
They had no idea what the words 'brine', 'sage', 'poultry seasoning', or 'aromatics', mean, but they were pretty sure no white guy puts Texas Pete on a roasted turkey.
And they've been hanging their pride on that peg ever since

"To say that one must reproduce outside a given race is to say that one must reproduce. To claim reproduction as a moral imperative is to paint our gay, lesbian, asexual and genderqueer allies as inherently immoral, since they can't do so. It also paints those with reproductive or sexual disabilities that way. You're also attempting to say with whom womyn can have children and reproduce, and de facto infringing upon their reproductive rights. Furthermore, miscegenation requires a person from each race, so you are also trying to tell strong people of color whom they can breed with, an old slave-master tactic. And then you have the gall to claim that these people whom you're attacking and attempting to control are the ones who are supporting the oppressors? And you can't even triggerwarn such hateful speech? Honestly, the only moral imperative here is for you to keep your homophobic, misogynistic, cisnormative, racist and ableist vitriol to yourself

Holocaust denial is illegal, because when the truth is inconvenient (such as to a massive bullshit sob story), you make the truth illegal.
Racism is illegal, for the exact same reason. Races are not equal, and this truth is inconvenient to those who'd like to destroy national identity.
Being Offensive to feminism is illegal for the exact same reason - the truth is offensive.
Hate is not a bad thing.
Hate is a reaction to bad things, that fights against the bad things.
Why is Hate illegal? There are those who wish to do harm to your country. Hate would be inconvenient to them.

Who's pushing all this anti-truth harm on society?
The Jews.
Which is typical, because the truth is inconvenient to liars and scammers.

Normalization. Sensitization in neuroscience terms.

And obviously, demoralization propaganda.
It's military grade psychological warfare. There are treatises and books written on the subject.
Hell, even Thucydides writes of demoralization propaganda with heads on pikes, trumpets in the middle of the night at set intervals, prisoners being forced to watch their daughters deflowered, virgin priestesses being parades on the streets with blooded sheets (deflowered).

It's warfare 101.

The 12 Steps of jewing the white race

1. Question and minimize the statistics.
2. Attack the motivations of the truth-tellers.
3. Claim that the deaths were inadvertent
4. Emphasize the strangeness of the victims.
5. Rationalize the deaths as the result of tribal conflict
6. Blame "out of control" forces for committing the killings.
7. Avoid antagonizing the genocidists, who might walk out of "the peace process."
8. Justify denial in favor of current economic interests.
9. Claim that the victims are receiving good treatment.
10. Claim that what is going on doesn't fit the definition of genocide.
11. Blame the victims.
12. Say that peace and reconciliation are more important than blaming people for genocide

>1. Question and minimize the statistics.

"Whites are the majority in white countries; their population is going up and not down."

>2. Attack the motivations of the truth-tellers.

"These are just crazy claims from white supremacists and racists."

>3. Claim that the deaths were inadvertent

"There is no coordinated plan to eliminate the white race. That is just a wingnut conspiracy theory."

>4. Emphasize the strangeness of the victims.

"White people have historically enjoyed disproportionate social privileges. Now their countries are just becoming more like the rest of the world."

>5. Rationalize the deaths as the result of tribal conflict

"White people are just worried that they will no longer enjoy the privileges of being an ethnic majority. There is no genocide."

>6. Blame "out of control" forces for committing the killings.

"Most immigrants are peaceful and hard-working. Islamic extremism is a very small minority and does not represent the immigrant population."

>7. Avoid antagonizing the genocidists, who might walk out of "the peace process."

"Reconciliation is the first step toward solving issues of race in the west. We must learn to live together."

>8. Justify denial in favor of current economic interests.

"Immigrants are crucial to our economic recovery. Immigrants perform jobs most people do not want, and spend money that helps grow the economy."

>9. Claim that the victims are receiving good treatment.

"White people today are still well above average in terms of education and financial success."

>10. Claim that what is going on doesn't fit the definition of genocide.

"Mass immigration is not the same as genocide. Genocide is the destruction of a people."

>11. Blame the victims.

"White people should atone for their history of racism and privilege. Accepting refugees and immigrants from less fortunate countries is crucial to this process."

>12. Say that peace and reconciliation are more important than blaming people for genocide

"The most important thing is that people from all cultures can learn to live together peacefully. There is no reason for a crazy 'white genocide' witch hunt."

This will be a long post. The [TL:DR] will be the concluding paragraph for those who don't wish to read the whole thing.

I've seen a lot of threads (and posts) here by anons genuinely wondering why Jews (or 'the satanic elite' if you prefer to call them that, heretofore called simply Jews) actively promote 'white genocide.' By white genocide I mean the purposeful displacement or dispossession of whites from historically white countries. White genocide has numerous components, including immigration, encouragement of miscegenation, sterilization, birth control, overpopulation guilt, racial demoralization, cultural guilt, and so forth.

The question goes like this: "Why would Jews actively seek to destroy white people, when historically white nations have been the best places for them to live? Even durin expulsions, elite Jews simply pick up and move with little lasting harm done. What's more is that whites are one of the few producers capable of sustaining the parasitical burden of Judaism without readily collapsing. From the Jewish perspective, white people are the golden goose. Why kill it? It just makes no sense."

Some of the more red-pilled anons even go on to recognize the fact that "Jewishness" does not actually contain a racial component. Many Jews do share some genetic traits due to a degree of shared ancestry (usually Turkic or Russian) but because they have spent centuries moving nomadically, intermarrying with non-Jews, converting out, and gaining converts in, there is no meaningful genetic/ethnic lineage left (assuming there ever was). Most anons on this board could convert to Judaism, marry a gentile and convince her to convert as well, and then name their son Mordechai and add a –berg or –(en)stein to their surname, and within one generation their children and subsequent lineage would be accepted as 100% bonafide Jewish. This is, in fact, from where the vast majority of Jews originate. (cont.)

(cont.) Remember that a DNA test will almost always find common remnants to confirm a shared ancestry if you're looking for one, it's just a matter of picking whatever genetic remnant statistically appears in the population in question at a high confidence interval. You could find one for wickens, atheists, or any arbitrary group, simply by surveying the population and selecting a gene that happens to express somewhat more often. You could then claim that non-wickens who express the gene are in fact ethnic wickens who are "lapsed," or "self-hating," and with that you would create a new ethnicity.

This is in effect what Jewry has done, successfully, to gain the added social protection that being an ethnic group entails. Although they are not truly an ethnicity, claiming to be one grants them status as an oppressed class. As such they can claim persecution (and demand retribution/reparations) based not only on religious grievances – a flimsy argument – but on ethnic grounds, which bolsters their argument significantly. Add to this the spurious claim of being "God's chosen," as well as "uniquely persecuted throughout history," and they have deftly placed themselves at the top of the grievance industry pyramid - an industry whose flames they feed with propaganda via their many controlled outlets.

It's important to understand the above before proceeding because without the correct frame, it's impossible to correctly consider any Jewish question. In essence, to be "Jewish" is to be a social weasel. It is to be morally bankrupt to the extent of adopting falsehoods whole cloth, for the purpose of employing those same falsehoods as a bludgeon to stifle the inconvenient free debate of those around you, to impose guilt when it's expedient, to cry "persecution" when it suits your ends, to silence legitimate criticism, and – critically – to identify other similarly unscrupulous individuals with which to collude. (cont.)

(cont.) Now before one can understand why Jews wish to destroy white nations, one must first understand the concept of a societal Foundation Myth. In essence, a Foundation Myth is the historical event (whether real or not) that defines a society's moral tapestry. The Foundation Myth tells us who we should revere as heroes, who we should revile as devils, who to praise and who not to. It defines a society's taboos, its morals, and - in the most literal sense - its religion. Not it's "religions" in the sense of the plurality of surface-level religions its members claim when they are asked, but it's meta-religion: that which all members take to be the supreme taboo, and/or the unquestionable truth.

The Foundation Myth of the West was, for many centuries, the story of Jesus Christ. This Foundation Myth told us who we should revere (those who follow the teachings of Jesus) and who we should revile (the enemies of Jesus, namely Pharisees/Sadducees, or in other words, Christ-deniers). The divinity of Christ was the largest societal taboo for centuries; the saints and great Christian Kings and Knights were the role models of the day.

Remember: Jews have no actual ethnic cohesion; it's a roleplay. So what DO they have? In terms of religion, many are avowed atheists. Some are Buddhists. There are also Reform, Conservative, Reconstructionist, Hasidic, Modern, and many other forms of Talmudic Jews. The only thing that all Jews truly share in the religious/doctrinal sense is the denial of Jesus Christ. It is a necessary, but not sufficient, requirement to be considered Jewish. The other necessary requirement which grants sufficiency is to simply call oneself Jewish, or for your community (or family) to claim that you are Jewish. If you meet these two requirements, you are Jewish ('self-hating,' perhaps, but Jewish). However, once you convert to Christianity, then within a generation your line loses its 'Jewishness.' (cont.)

(cont.) Notice I said that the Foundation Myth of the West was the story of Jesus Christ, and not is. That Myth was replaced in dramatic fashion with WWII and, more specifically, the Holocaust. The Holocaust was conceived of as a replacement Foundation Myth to Christianity. This was done to advance basic Jewish/elite interests – establish a Jewish State, provide reparations for it construction, advance the meme of Jewish grievances, create a safe-haven for international money laundering, and much more. With it, our new heroes are victims (Jews most of all) and our devils are now "nazis" (in truth any white person advocating for their race or national sovereignty).

Had the hoax that is the Holocaust taken place a century or more earlier, then it's conceivable that it may have been chiseled into the annals of history uncorrected. Control of the relatively few number of disseminators of information (newspapers, journals, books) should have made the task fairly straightforward. The unforeseen problem was the advent of the Internet, and with it the free flow of information.

Now, it's only a matter of time before the people who have been wronged by the big lie fully awaken. The genie is coming out of the bottle and there's no way to put it back inside. Measures have been taken to slow the process. It is illegal to question the official narrative of the Holocaust in 16 countries, which works to slow the awakening somewhat. Shadow-banning and demonetizing YouTube and other social media disseminators is yet another scheme. Regardless of these tactics, awareness of the truth continues to grow. (cont.)

(cont.) What do you think will happen when white-majority countries begin to reach the tipping point? When enough people are consciously aware of the truth of WWII and the Holocaust that it becomes socially acceptable to debate it in public? Shortly thereafter, the truth wins. Now what do you suppose the cost to whites amounts to in blood and treasure, all for the lies of WWII and the Holocaust? The elites are acutely aware of what would happen if this scenario plays out, and if they allow things to go on as normal – even with censorship – they will inevitably meet gruesome ends.

Now imagine what happens when whites begin to wake up, but upon learning the truth, most of their fellow citizens feel they have no stake in the game? Imagine that the majority of Europeans are non-white, and thus the grievance, however true it may be, is merely a quirk of history and nothing much more. Would you, as a white person, feel compelled to rise up and demand retribution for the ethnic Chinese living in your country if it was discovered that they had been dispossessed by an international cabal? How many rallies have you attended demanding retribution for the Opium Wars? You would no more care about Chinese grievances than a black European or American migrant will care about problems that almost exclusively dispossessed white people.(cont.)

>>147001388

(cont.) [TL:DR] In summary, the goal of "white genocide" isn't really to get rid of most white people, that's just a necessary side-effect. The goal is to prevent or maximally stifle the coming backlash when whites inevitably wake up to the false Foundation Myth of WWII/Holocaustianity. If there were a way to maintain white people's innovative contributions – their golden-gooseness, if you will – while also dispossessing them politically, Jews would prefer that route. There is simply no way to accomplish that feat, and so white people must be minimized as severely as possible, and destroyed entirely if necessary. It's a simple race: on one side you have citizens becoming red-pilled, and on the other side the hurried invasion of the West by alien persons who couldn't care less.

Jewish support for affirmative action actually increased when the poll stipulated that it would harm whites.

Every other group, including blacks, decreased their support for affirmative action when told it would harm whites.

Let that sink in.

13. If affirmative action programs giving preference to blacks and other minorities do result in less opportunities for whites, do you think that's a price worth paying to help blacks and other minorities, or not?

Hi OP, straight up cracker here from the most crackery part of the US.

The reason white racism is increasing is because this generation of young white men were raised to be the least racist generation of whites to ever exist in the history of this planet. We grew up being taught that racism was bad, that we were ALL going to move past it and work together towards a better future. Even here in the most traditionally racist part of the country, nearly every young white boy in my generation grew up watching black athletes, black actors, listening to black musicians, etc. It was all normal. We were 95% post-racial.

So as we got older, we stuck our hands out in friendship to EVERYONE, like we'd been taught to... and then every nonwhite group on the planet came by and sucker-punched us from behind, called us evil white devils, and told us we deserved to die. We were ready and willing to move on from the past, the rest of you weren't. Instead of shaking our hands and marching off together, you chose revenge against the only white people who've ever let their guard down.

So now you's cant be our friends, and we're reforging the identity we were taught to shed.

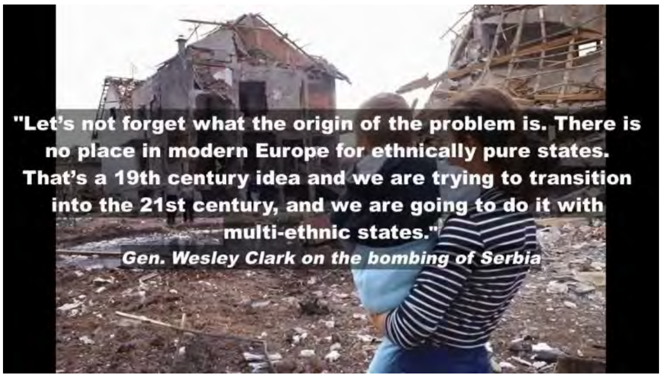
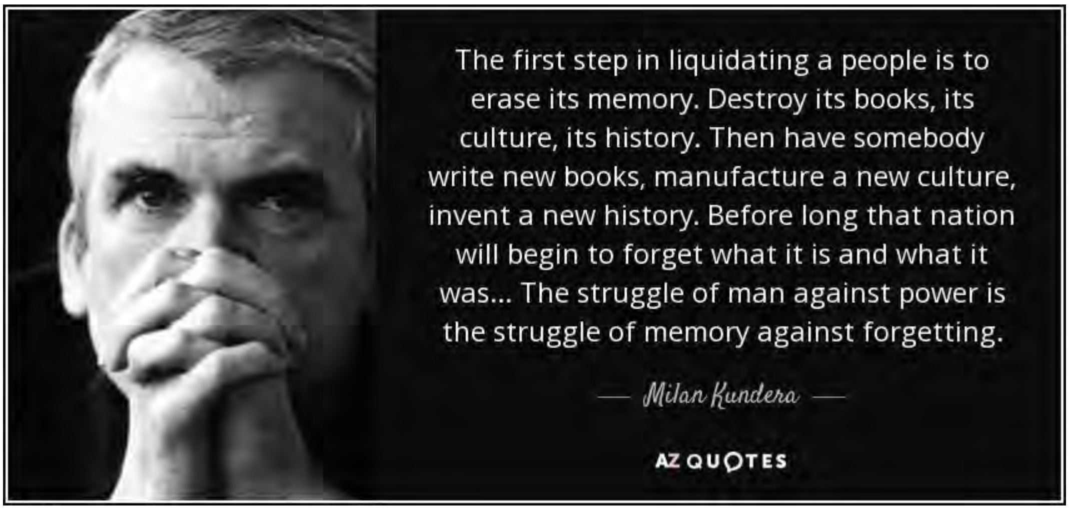
U.N. Definition of Genocide
Est. December 1948

Genocide means any of the following acts committed with intent to destroy, in whole or in part, a national, ethnical, racial or religious group, as such:

▣ (a) Killing members of the group;
▣ (b) Causing serious bodily or mental harm to members of the group;
▣ (c) Deliberately inflicting on the group conditions of life calculated to bring about its physical destruction in whole or in part;
▣ (d) Imposing measures intended to prevent births within the group;
▣ (e) Forcibly transferring children of the group to another group.



"Let's not forget what the origin of the problem is. There is no place in modern Europe for ethnically pure states. That's a 19th century idea and we are trying to transition into the 21st century, and we are going to do it with multi-ethnic states."
Gen. Wesley Clark on the bombing of Serbia



The first step in liquidating a people is to erase its memory. Destroy its books, its culture, its history. Then have somebody write new books, manufacture a new culture, invent a new history. Before long that nation will begin to forget what it is and what it was... The struggle of man against power is the struggle of memory against forgetting.

Replaced Judeo-Christian with Judeo - Christian to match how we processed the books

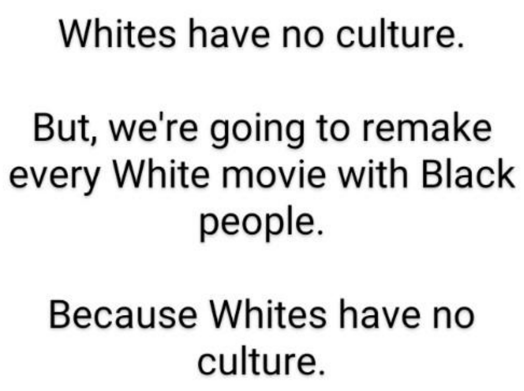
Me: "It sure is tragic that young white men are losing their station in society "

Them: "Boohoo poor men lol"

No. You don't understand. There is an entire generation of fighting-aged men who are enraged and feel they have nothing to live for. You are in danger.



Whites have no culture.

But, we're going to remake every White movie with Black people.

Because Whites have no culture.

Ilya Ehrenburg, a moderate Jew.jpg

The Germans are not humans. [...] From now on, the word German causes gunfire. We shall not speak. We shall kill. If during a day you have not killed a single German, you have wasted the day. [...] If you do not kill the German, he will kill you. [...] If it is quiet at your section of the front and you are waiting for the battle, kill a German before the battle. If you let the German live, he will kill a Russian man and rape a Russian woman. If you have killed a German, kill another one too. [...] Kill the German, thus cries your homeland.[10]

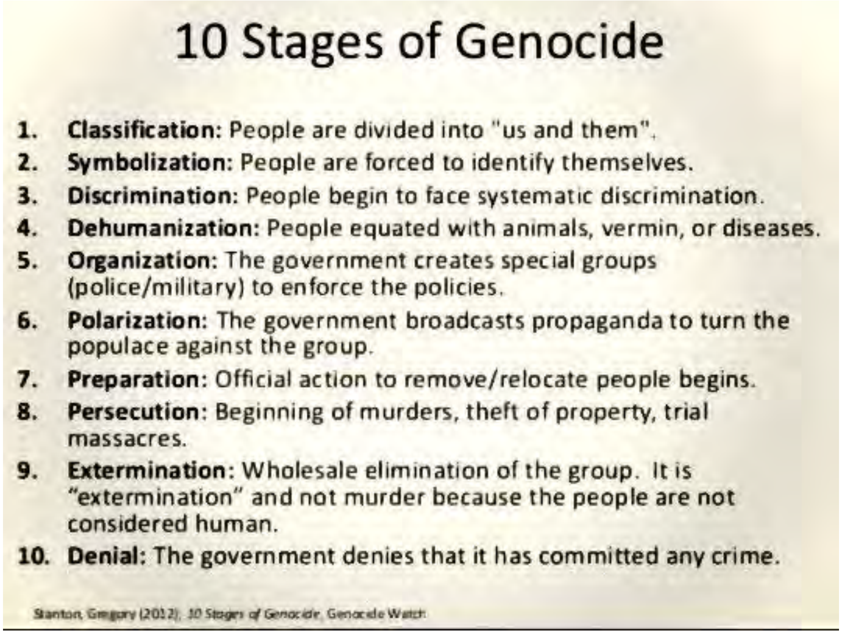
White Hatred From Verified Twitter Users 1/2



10 Stages of Genocide

1. Classification: People are divided into "us and them".
2. Symbolization: People are forced to identify themselves.
3. Discrimination: People begin to face systematic discrimination.
4. Dehumanization: People equated with animals, vermin, or diseases.
5. Organization: The government creates special groups (police/military) to enforce the policies.
6. Polarization: The government broadcasts propaganda to turn the populace against the group.
7. Preparation: Official action to remove/relocate people begins.
8. Persecution: Beginning of murders, theft of property, trial massacres.
9. Extermination: Wholesale elimination of the group. It is "extermination" and not murder because the people are not considered human.
10. Denial: The government denies that it has committed any crime.

NOTICE FOR CASUAL WANDERERS AND NEWBIES!

If anyone questions why we exist, consider that white people in the US have dropped from 90% to 60% of the population in the space of sixty years, and are dropping fast. Less than 50% of US births are now white. We are looking at demographic replacement on a vast scale as never seen before.

The greatest con-job of the 20th century was Cultural Marxists convincing Whites it's morally wrong for us to love and support our own race. It's NOT and once you realize this, it's an amazing feeling.

>Smelly shitskin thinks he can conquer the White man
That's what the Persians thought in 500BC
The Punics in 250BC
The various Moors and Muslims throughout late antiquity and the middle ages
The East Asians in the modern era
And countless other fools

We conquered you all. And we set you free. The only force that could bring us to our knees was our own.

You think a brief moment of lethargy is a sign of our downfall?

Our blood was forged in the frost of mother Europe, tempered like the Extremophiles which became the archetype of all true life.

We suffered the plagues, the famines, the fires, the wars and the ruinous ideologies which sent us into darkness countless times.

And every time we fell, we found a way to rise again.

Do not mistake our cuts for mortal wounds or our slumber for a lifeless corpse, unless you want to make the same mistake that all the other opportunistic hordes lost throughout the ages have done.

So by all means continue with your heckling, continue with your defilement of our legacy, continue with your delusions of victory, the sooner you wake the sleeping giant the better.

It matters not how many of us remain when it happens, we have turned the tide against greater calamities before.

Mother Earth will once again feel the marching feet of her greatest children on her surface, perhaps this time in true unity, and perhaps this time to your lament; with less mercy.

The world is only 16% white.

I remember my first red pill. My best friend in 9th grade took me behind his shed and red-pilled me real good. For weeks after, we would go to his house after school and just red-pill each other for hours. I remember one time he was red-pilling me so hard, I was basically screaming and his father came to see what all the fuss was. His dad then took me into his bedroom and red-pilled me himself. Good times.

Pic related. Founder of 8 gets the biggest validation of all time regarding the authenticity of Q, and now he's gone full cuckasaurus. He has gone full on Q denial despite living in a gated community with locks everywhere. Security footage of how the Q ended up in his bedroom, also, was mysteriously unavailable this is the compact muon solenoid detector at CERN, one of the two bigger detectors that they use there to search for previously unknown minute particles like the higgs boson.

The CMS experiment is one of the largest international scientific collaborations in history, involving 4300 particle physicists, engineers, technicians, students and support staff from 182 institutes in 42 countries. The complete detector is 21 metres long, 15 metres wide and 15 metres high and weights 14,000 tonnes. It generates a magnietic field of 4 tesla, about 100,000 times the magnetic field of the Earth.

An impressive feat of engineering designed to detect the smallest things ever imagined by physicists.

So if you stick your dick in this and turn it on there's a chance they might be able to see it.

Shit nigger don't repost that pic. That's the Le Upboat cartel. Bad ass real niggas.

Butter - See those sneakrs? Motherfucker sneaks around. You never see him coming.
Calfstabber - High speed low drag.
Redface - Dangerously Irish. If cornered, he uses a cloud of ethanol as a defense mechanism.
Auschwitz - He is the leader and mastermind behind them all.
I can't believe it's not Butter - Butters brother. He trades of stealth for raw power.
Eupho Rick - He blends into classy enviroments to commit high profile assasinations.

Realistically speaking, does my height really bother anyone?

I know I'm good looking and dress really fashionable but I'm 4'11".

I always post my top and head on profile sites and not full body shots to show my height . I list myself as 6'2". If anyone can shoop me looking taller it would be cool so I could upload that as I'm terrible at shooping.

And no rage, jealousy or rolls in my thread please. I've heard it all before and quite honestly, it makes you pathetic.

I hate Canadians so goddamned much. I hope your beagle cums in your lungs and you have to walk uphill to get help.
Your country needs an enema and a leader whose eyesight isn't ruined from staring at the top of gloryholes.
I don't know why they bother putting "mounted" before "police." It's redundant. Everyone in Canada has been mounted.

YOU read tonnes of books in the hopes that your erudition will impress girls. CHAD didn't even read the books assigned to his college classes and he gets girls WET without talking to them.

YOU read in cafes while awkwardly trying to make eye contact with girls in the hope that they'll give you a concrete sign to talk to them or, in your daydreams, they'll talk to you. CHAD has dozens of matches from local college girls on Tinder, ALL of them craving him.

Let's put it this way; Mumkey Jones got both his channels deleted because he kept talking about Eliot Rogers, and that's considered violating TOS because of a policy involving hate speech.

E;R's shtick is shitting on "tumblr properties" via nazi jokes and other edgy humor, which while here it's considered normal, to the rest of the world, it's considered "hate speech."

Pewdiepie, under fire due to racist and nazi allegations, promoted E;R in a recent video.

Do the math.

>the rest of the world
Has anyone else noticed that to white liberals, "the rest of the world" means white liberals? You understand that where I was born, in India, we have fucking Nazi cafes, right? Children here are taught that Hitler did nothing wrong, because he approved of our Aryan race and fought the British who were oppressing us. You understand that in China, they have entire universities and foundations set up specifically to study Jewish power in America to try and emulate it, right? In the Arab countries, one of the most popular first names for fifty years was "Adolf" because Adolf Hitler was a staunch defender of Arab Nationalism. Arabs, who can't fucking STAND Christian Europeans, named their children after Adolf Hitler because he fought for them so hard at his own expense, he was still sending them supplies and weapons when his own country was being firebombed.

While Ghandi was doing his peaceful rallies, there were Hindu nationalists with Wehrmacht equipment shooting colonial oppressors in Kashmir, led by National Socialists. Where were white liberals then, faggot? Were YOU the ones giving my people guns and armor to fight imperialists? Oh wait that's right, YOU WERE THE IMPERIALISTS.
"The Rest of the World" isn't fucking white liberals. You're a minority in your own countries and you're definitely a minority globally... And shrinking.

Ruminate on this, you ethnocentric dipshit, you're a goddamn racist. Whenever you talk about "the rest of the world" or "the historical consensus," you're writing my entire race out of existence. You're just pretending that we don't exist because hey, only the opinions of white liberals matter, right? You're the arbiters of morality because you have all of the institutional power and all of the money. That doesn't make you oppressors, because you're white liberals!

azealiabanks @mfiala72 ya know there are two types of American white men - the fat inflamed blistering-red pork-juice dripping kind of white men who think they're as charismatic as their more attractive counter-parts yet always smell like axe & garlic, have gout / frequent their local seven eleven... , then there are the unassumingly charming white men with human color skin , visible necks, healthy cholesterol levels and full heads of hair. When I close my eyes and kiss them they smell like sugar cookie and their lips taste like marshmallows...... you look like your lips taste like envelope adhesive and bacon bitss ...you would probably burp slim Jim + oppression into my mouth... rest assured , that you never have to worry about an unattractive me hassling you for any Facetime. Olivia, my dear, I offer you
This composition of mine
A proposition, when you see it through
Of my love for you it shall be a sign

You're more to me than just an English TA
To me you're the most beautiful angel
Your face does all my pain allay
Yet you pass me like a stranger

Olivia, be my girlfriend!
I know I'm not the most good-looking
But I'll do anything - anything you want!
For you I'll even start cooking.

And I'll even stop smoking weed, like you told me.

Olivia, you're the one for me.
You know it as well as I.
We haven't talked much, but enough
To know what within our hearts lies.

O, siren, heed my call!
Would you let this wayward man fall?
The semester's over, so this might be late,
but I really wanna take you out on a date.

when i was younger, i was plagued by wet dreams of yubaba. i didn't find her attractive at all, but she would show up in my dreamscape, brutally nude, and the next thing i knew i would wake up to find that i had bedwet thick. the problem was amplified in college, where my roommate was able to smell my nocturnal emissions and got concerned at their frequency. after years of sleeping in cummy sheets and shame, i finally took action. i built a makeshift sex doll to look like yubaba and had vigorous, sweaty sex with it until i cummed in her witch vag. after that, no more yubaba sex dreams

And now you definitely just earned a shit ton of brownie points 🙈😂

Awwww yeee! I'll put those brownies right next to the hot cocoa!

On Saturday I'm planning on watching the new spectre 007 movie. You wanna come? We can grab a bite afterward if you like.

I gotta hit the hay for tonight though. Got an adventurous day of work for me tomorrow and will be dealing with the most awesomest of those "fun" customers we talked about the other night. Have a good night! 😉

God bless your soul! Good luck with those bastards tomorrow! Good night!

Thanks lol. I'll need every bit of his magic and pretty much every other bit of luck I can get haha

Delivered

You'll do great dude!!

iktf so bad brother.
Last year before my third University year I wanted to show everyone how cool I COULD be so I got ahold of all of the University emails of my classmates and started emailing them from an anonymous Gmail over the course of a few weeks. I emailed them all 14 times in total, all of them aying something vague and slowly building up like you would when advertising a movie

>Email 1
This year you will all have a cool new classmate
>Email 2
Are you ready?
>Email 3
He's coming
>Email 4
He's coming very soon
>Email 5
This year the classmate reemerges as your once true (cryptic)
>Email 6
Would you like a riddle to help identify him? Well they are a riddle and a riddle can't help you solve a riddle so sorry, no riddle!
>Email 7 (2 weeks after the last email)
Just 1 week to go
>Email 8
Just 1 week
>Email 9
Just 1 week
>Email 10
Sorry, repeating myself? You will be repeating wow when the man in the silver coat comes to class
>Email 11
His clothes are ready
>Email 12
He will be a silver coated
>Email 13
Green gloved
>Email 14
Todays the day

After all this effort I went to class in my silver coat and green cloves confident. I honestly believed poeple would want to associate with me. But guess what? Nobody fucking said a thing. In fact someone laughed once when I coughed to try and gain attention. I was then sent several emails to my fake address laughing at me and calling me a dumbass loser.

This was the biggest failure of my life. I still shudder thinking about how foolish I felt. I spent hours deciding on the best times to send the emails, and how to keep them vague but interesting.

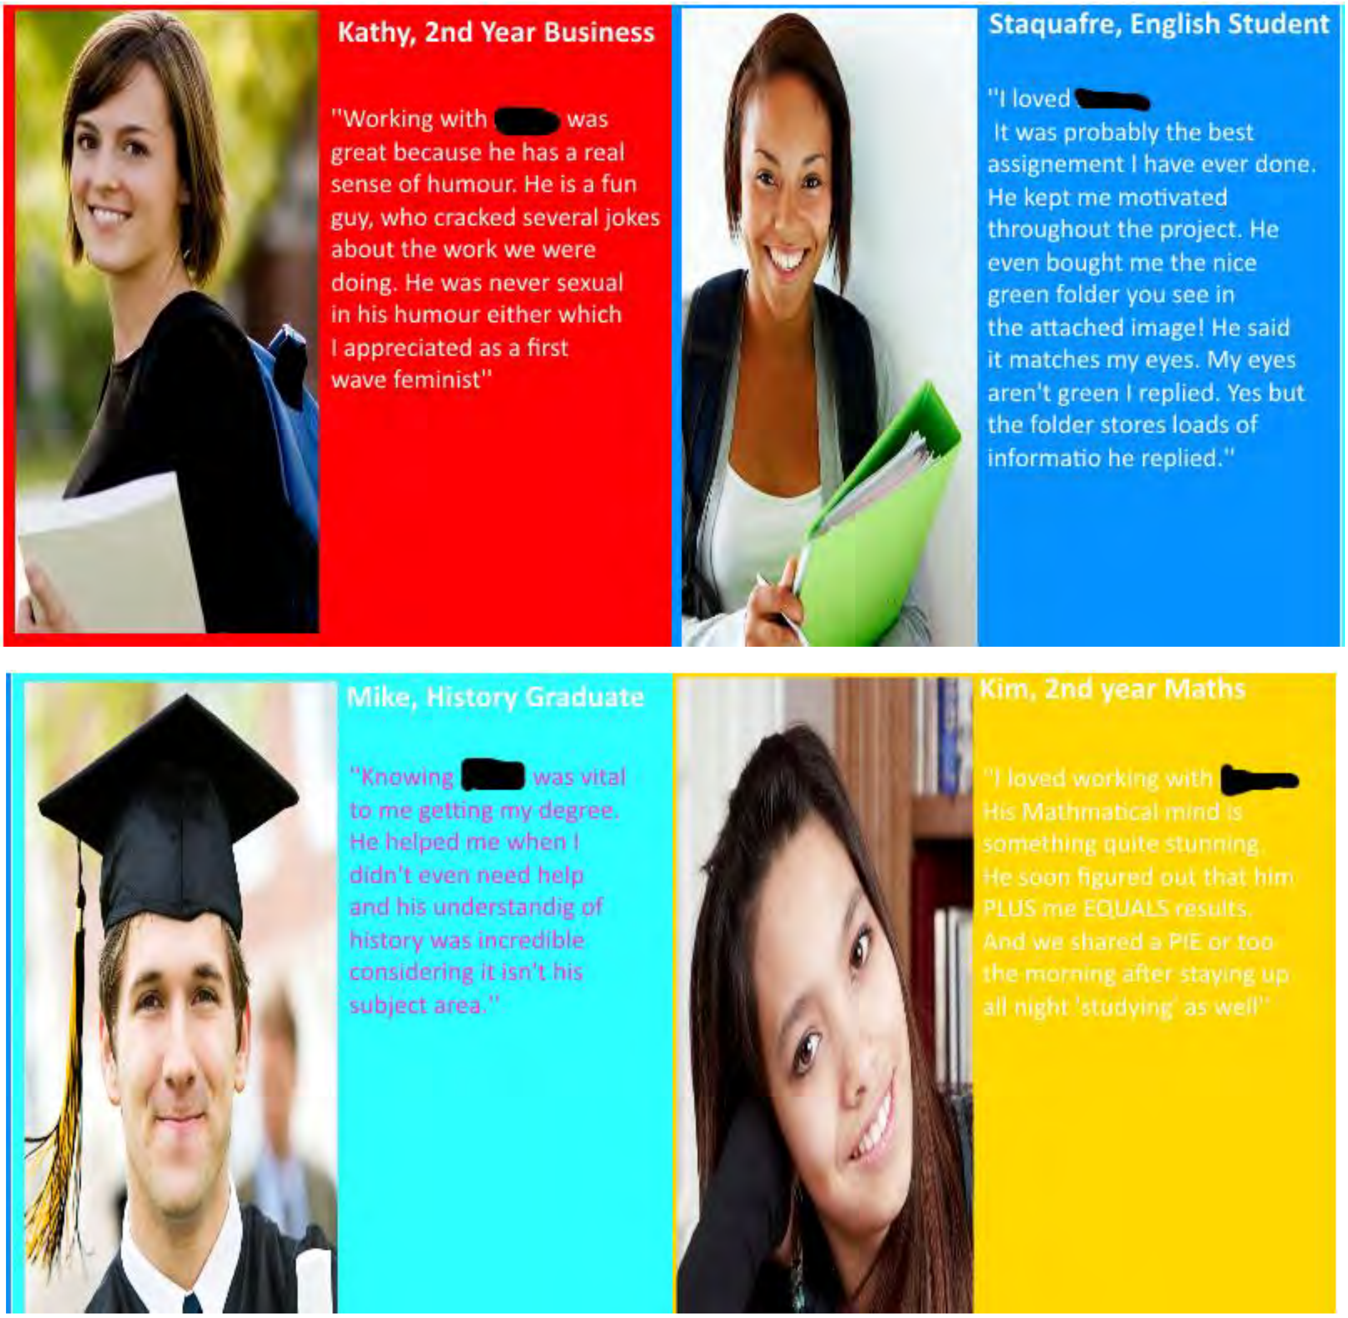
Pic related, by the way
I can see how stupid it is now but I was desperate at the time.



Kathy, 2nd Year Business

"Working with [redacted] was great because he has a real sense of humour. He is a fun guy, who cracked several jokes about the work we were doing. He was never sexual in his humour either which I appreciated as a first wave feminist"

Staquafre, English Student

"I loved [redacted]
It was probably the best assignement I have ever done. He kept me motivated throughout the project. He even bought me the nice green folder you see in the attached image! He said it matches my eyes. My eyes aren't green I replied. Yes but the folder stores loads of informatio he replied."

Mike, History Graduate

"Knowing [redacted] was vital to me getting my degree. He helped me when I didn't even need help and his understandig of history was incredible considering it isn't his subject area."

Kim, 2nd year Maths

"I loved working with [redacted]
His Mathmatical mind is something quite stunning. He soon figured out that him PLUS me EQUALS results. And we shared a PIE or too the morning after staying up all night 'studying' as well"

I'm here for you my friend.

>INTP's
The kids who wear the exact same comfy outfit to school day after day. They are extremely self aware, and because of this, they come out as awkward. They pass on myriad of opportunities because they fear failure and therefore are doomed to regret how their life's turned out.
They are intellectuals, and they want to make friends, but their undeveloped Fe makes them come out as autistic when trying to communicate their ideas to non Te/Ti types. All of their personal social interactions are a careful balance between manually reading social cues and remembering patterns. Their fell perpetually oztrizices by a world that cannot accept their true self.
They are also prone to maladaptive daydreaming, (one that replaces human interaction) recurrent themes may include: an Idealized self, violence against those who wronged / neglected them, and fantasies of power and control.
INTP's often can't accurately describe thought processes, and prefer to leave memories and emotions as vague sensations they draw upon rather than concrete images.
Having a distinctive hollownes, the INTP's are most ofthen than not trapped inside their own mind, and they are usually good people despite their inability to temper their abilities into something productive. They are true robots, as their become aware that life has no inherint purpose quite quickly, whereas ENTP's and ENFP's are usually cyborgs.
Smile and nod till it's all over INTP's, never change.
Not that you could.

1	Move	Room Mood: Tense	Room Mood: Fun	Room Mood: Flirty
2	Pump standard attack	Very fast attack	I'm getting pumped!	I would like to pump you
3	Down smash hammers	A powerful move
4	Up smash diving helmet	Another strong move
5	Side smash Match	That is a strong move	I'm going to STRIKE you down!	Maybe he can use that match to light some scented candles for later
6	Side tilt chair	He should use that for sitting	I think you better sit this one out	Only one chair… maybe you can sit on my face
7	Down tilt manhole	Manholes are usually on public roads		I prefer a womanhole
8	Up tilt flag	I enjoyed k'naans wavin flag, he looks like G&W	I WAVE the right to lose this match	It isn't a red flag…. You don't have any red flags either, you're gf material
9	Aerial Fish	Really well animated	Go fish!	I know a fish called aerial… the little mermaid. Almost as pretty as you.
10	Aeriel Box	A strong move	Go Box!	Maybe you could put your box in the air haha
11	Aeriel Turtle	Probably my best attack	I'll make your life a living shell!	My foreskin makes my penis look like a turtle
12	Aeriel air pump	You can move to avoid this	I believe you can fly (sing in r kelly voice)	That move pushes you up… is that a push up bra?
13	Aeriel Key	That is a meteor smash	This move is KEY to my victory	He really came down hard, just like I'm coming down hard with the love bug
14	Juggle Throw	I threw you	I like CLOWNING around (clowns juggle)	I hate to juggle, but I'd like to snuggle
15	Bell Taunt	do not do this	I bet losing to me rings some bells	Would you like to play with MY ding a ling?
16	Bucket Catch	Watch out for my oil attack	Have my oil, I hope I don't bucket up	I hope your bucket has a bigger capacity because I can go 10 times
17	Oil Spill	That will kill some sealife	Oil win this match for sure!	I have some massage oil in my bag if you'd like a massage (bring oil)
18	Food Throw	Looks like a standard wok	I'm going to FLIP any minute now	I bet you have another name for throwing your food…. Spitting hehe
19	Hammer	This move is luck based	This little piggy had roast beef… this little piggy had NINE!	So how would you rate our chances of sex 1 to 9?
20	Parachute	They use parachutes to sky dive	I'd like to go skydiving one day	I'd like to go skydiving with you one day, maybe skydiving into bed
21	Final Smash	Damn, I should win now	I'll get you… sucker!	haha, I'd tentacle rape you if I was an Octopus!
22

Guys, I've invited a girl here to play Smash later on. She is cute and I think I could be able to lose my virginity but I want to make her think I am charming. I made this list of puns (still working on it) and one liners for every G&W move because he is my main. I will say them when I do moves and hopefully make her laugh. I have also listed lines for when the room is tense, that wn't annoy her, and ones for when it becomes a flirty atmosphere so I can progress to having sex with her.

Can you read through and see what you think? Will the flirty lines work?

I can't take this anymore guys, Me and my squad were ordered to demolish a hospital because it was supposedly a "hamas de-facto hq". I know this is not true, because I was sent to that hospital on an undercover mission not too long ago, and there was nothing there, just the nice staff. I left the battlefield as I now know the true intentions of my higher ups.

I will probably be tortured and left in jail for quite a while for deserting, but I don't care anymore, too much innocent blood on my hands.

Good bye /pol/, i've had a fun time hanging here. Don't give up hope, and I hope you live a good life.

Gaza conflict: Five dead at hospital hit by Israeli strike

Paul Adams reports from the almost deserted streets of Shaaf in Gaza where rockets are "coming in all the time"

At least five people have been killed and 70 injured by an Israeli strike on a hospital in Gaza, Palestinians say.

I'm halfway between feeling bad for you and ridiculing your utter failure at parenting a functional human being - where do you think it all went wrong? I'm sure not all the blame can be placed on your shoulders with how social media brainwashing functions today, but obviously you fucked up somewhere.

There were moments. He has a hair trigger temper like his mom which seemed to mellow as he got older and gave me hope but now seems to be getting worse. He got REALLY into Undertale for awhile which coincided with interest in tranny shit.
He's been a huge fan of grand strategy games and the like since he was 9 or 10 and now seems to think he can apply that to real life.

We raised him fairly strict. Both my wife and I came from extremely strict military-dad-type households so we know how that works. We were softer than my parents but way stricter than all his friends' lib seattle parents. Clearly that didn't work the way we hoped. He'd spend summers with his grandparents in rural WA and he would just start organizing DSA shit there.

At this point, why not? He put himself out there like this. Yes, I am ashamed and seeing these man-boob selfies is horrifying but nothing I do has helped. Once he became an adult and moved out I can't force him to do anything anymore. I'm hoping being shamed from his own community might get through that thick fucking skull of his.

I understand that this is /r9k/ and talk of having relationships/sex are forbidden, but I needed to get this off my chest. You guys are pretty much the only friends I have and talking to a therapist hasn't been helping me.

>Be happily married
>Have two kids, 7 and 2
>Wife is supportive in everything I do, especially my short stories >Marriage has a few kinks but for the most part it's extremely enjoyable
>Fast forward two years
>I'm in our backyard grilling some burgers
>Suddenly, hear a gun go off in the house
>Run inside to find my daughter lying on the floor bleeding from her stomach
>My 9 year old son is holding the gun in shock
>Wife is hysterical
>Daughter dies on the spot
>Later find out that my wife had accidentally left our safe unlocked while looking for some documents and our son took the gun thinking it was a toy
>Two weeks go by >Funeral
>Wife is extremely depressed
>Go to bed with her that night telling her we have to be strong
>Wake up the next morning
>She's gone and so is my son
>Don't hear from them for three days
>Get a call from the police
>They tell me they've fished my wife's van out of a lake
>My son and wife were in there
>They found a suicide note in a plastic bag in her pocket saying she wanted to be with both of the children
>I'm left alone on this earth

That was two years ago and the pain is still the same as it was the day(s) it happened. This has been especially bothering me today because my daughter would have been 6 today. I've been browsing this board for the last few years and I just wanted to say that I love you all (even the trolls that will post here) and enjoyed the time I spent on this site. Honestly, my fondest memories are of threads on this board.

As for me, later tonight I'm planning on committing suicide at a creek I used to take the kids to. I'm guessing my friends and family will know why I did it.

See you on the other side, /r9k/.

Also, pic related. It's my wife and daughter about a month before my daughter died.

☐ OP, the Faggot !VVnkVrdjUc 08/26/10(Thu)17:31:56 No.267103XXX

Sup /b/. I'm male, 18, and dying.

Life has been interesting to me. It gave me two wealthy parents, but also gave me an abusive father who beat me at every opportunity and a mother who was always too coked up to stop him.
It gave me confidence in my sexuality, but a family who threw me out because of that.
It gave me a killing-machine metabolism and natural fitness and physique, but also gave me a terminal brain cancer which feeds off the same metabolism.

A week ago I went into hospital because of convulsions, and by the end of the day I had been informed that I had less than 2 weeks to live. Doctor this morning informed me I would be dead by tonight. He told me to go spend the time with those I love. So I'm doing so.

/b/ has been more of a family to me than my own flesh-and-blood. For the two years after my father kicked me out, I had /b/. I spoke freely, I had fun, and I answered to no one. Despite all the cancer (ironic, right?), all the faggotry, all the meme-copypasta and repetition, /b/ is more real than any relationship. It cheered me up when I was down, it made me happy when I was sad, it took my rage away when I was angry. I love you, /b/, and all you people on it.

The pain is getting unbearable right now, and I could pass out at any minute, so I'll cut to the chase.

Here's to you, /b/, for being the family I never had. I love you, from every "OP is a faggot" to "Cancerous thread is cancerous", from each gore post and CP request, from all the raids and strokes of genius.

I love you.

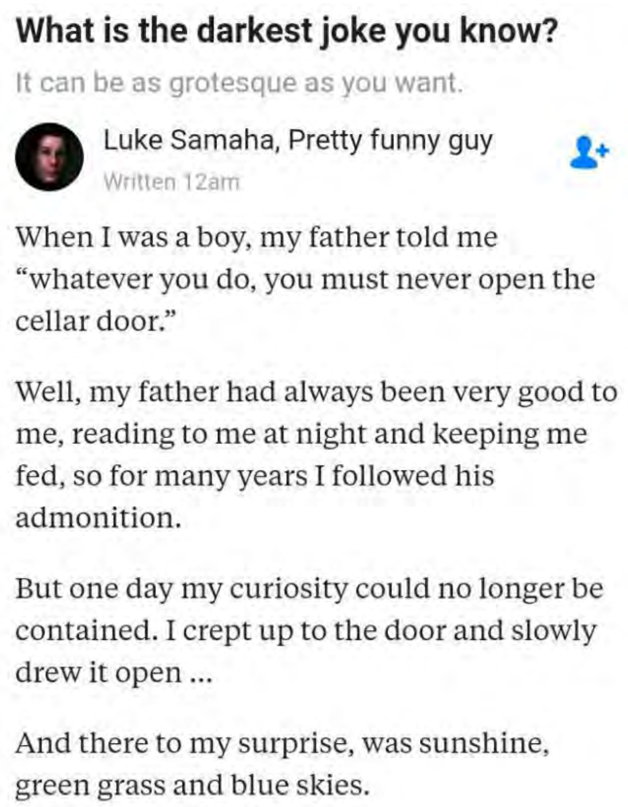
I am a freshman at college. I lived at home with my mom. The only other relative I know of is my shitty father whom I haven't spoken to in years. My life at home sucked. My mom was always there for me, but I hated her. I don't even know why anymore. She was the only thing that kept me going, but I hated her. We just didn't have a good relationship. Well she drove 4 hours to visit me a few days ago. She called me and said she was outside of my dorm. I freaked out and got pissed and told her to just go home, and hung up the phone. That was the last time I ever heard from her, /b/. She killed herself. I feel like I'm about to do the same. I got this note from her today.

"Dear (me),
I'm sorry. I don't know why you hate me, but I'm truly sorry. I love you so much, no matter what your feelings for me are. All I ever wanted was to make you happy. I can remember rocking you to sleep when you were younger, and that made me happy. I was filled with joy every time I saw that smile of yours. But something went wrong. I know you'll be better off without me. You can finally be happy. I love you more than life itself, and that's why I'm doing this. I'll be watching over you from heaven. Love Mom."

I can't control myself. I have never cried so hard in my entire life. What do I do...



What is the darkest joke you know?

It can be as grotesque as you want.

Luke Samaha, Pretty funny guy

Written 12am

When I was a boy, my father told me "whatever you do, you must never open the cellar door."

Well, my father had always been very good to me, reading to me at night and keeping me fed, so for many years I followed his admonition.

But one day my curiosity could no longer be contained. I crept up to the door and slowly drew it open ...

And there to my surprise, was sunshine, green grass and blue skies.

I am a 36 year old with a PhD in Philosophy. I am $450k in debt and currently working two minimum wage jobs in order to stay alive. I work alongside 18 year olds and whenever they ask about my background I just tell them I've been in prison for a long time, which is less embarrassing than admitting the truth. I am probably the most well-informed Husserl scholar on the North American continent, perhaps in the world. My 1,500 page biography of his life has been rejected several dozen times. No college will take me on since they don't think Husserl is relevant, and that other applicants are therefore pushed to the head of the line. I have had 6 Husserl-related papers published in different journals and philosophical quarterlies, but have earned no money or recognition for having done so. I just moved to Abbeville, Louisiana since there is a job opening at the university in Lafayette and I decided to go all out in order to get it. But I've just found out that my application was rejected and now I'm stuck working at a Wendy's three shifts a week and a Barnes & Noble the rest of the time. I have no wife, no children, and at this point no friends I'm willing to talk to due to the shameful nature of my existence.

EXCLUSIVE Teen suspected of executing University of Wisconsin professor and her husband moved in with them while dating their daughter - but was kicked out for refusing to follow social distancing rules

Khari Sanford (left), the 18-year-old accused of killing Dr. Beth Potter, 52, and her husband Robin Carre, 57, (right) had been staying with the couple and dating their daughter Mimi - but was kicked out over social distancing concerns. According to a criminal complaint, Mimi had allegedly discussed with Sanford in March how they could get money and told him that her parents had 'bands' of money. A friend of the doctor told police that she moved Sanford and Mimi out of their house and into an Airbnb 10 minutes away to practice social distancing in light of the coronavirus pandemic. Potter and Carre's body were found in a ditch last Tuesday suffering gunshot wounds.

>If the China invaded and took over tomorrow they would all happily switch to being Red Enforcers.
Are you a retarded boomer or something? They're already more red than China ever will be. Do you think the Chinese enforce CRT in their schools? The Chinese are less "red" than America in the 50s.

Here's a photo that will refresh your memory, that's the American national guard in 1956 aiming guns and bayonets on parents against desegregation, which would inevitably lead to mass rapes and other violence being perpetrated on their children. China hasn't even come close to this level of Marxism, and this was America in the fucking 50s.

Then remember when Trump took office and the number of deaths from mass shootings dropped precipitously, almost like the mass shootings of the last 8 years were government-manufactured?

And remember how schools started installing "school shooting" bunkers and implementing clear backpack rules?

Remember how no one has made a peep about school shootings or mass shootings in the last year?

ADDICTION RARE IN PATIENTS TREATED WITH NARCOTICS

To the Editor: Recently, we examined our current files to determine the incidence of narcotic addiction in 39,946 hospitalized medical patients[1] who were monitored consecutively. Although there were 11,882 patients who received at least one narcotic preparation, there were only four cases of reasonably well documented addiction in patients who had no history of addiction. The addiction was considered major in only one instance. The drugs implicated were meperidine in two patients,[2] Percodan in one, and hydromorphone in one. We conclude that despite widespread use of narcotic drugs in hospitals, the development of addiction is rare in medical patients with no history of addiction.

Thalidomide was a widely used drug in the late 1950s and early 1960s for the treatment of nausea in pregnant women. It became apparent in the 1960s that thalidomide treatment resulted in severe birth defects in thousands of children. Though the use of thalidomide was banned in most countries at that time, thalidomide proved to be a useful treatment for leprosy and later, multiple myeloma. In rural areas of the world that lack extensive medical surveillance initiatives, thalidomide treatment of pregnant women with leprosy has continued to cause malformations. Research on thalidomide mechanisms of action is leading to a better understanding of molecular targets. With an improved understanding of these molecular targets, safer drugs may be designed. The thalidomide tragedy marked a turning point in toxicity testing, as it prompted United States and international regulatory agencies to develop systematic toxicity testing protocols; the use of thalidomide as a tool in developmental biology led to important discoveries in the biochemical pathways of limb development. In celebration of the Society of Toxicology's 50th Anniversary, which coincides with the 50th anniversary of the withdrawal of thalidomide from the market, it is appropriate to revisit the lessons learned from the thalidomide tragedy of the 1960s.

Fraud and misconduct in clinical research: A concern

Abstract

Fraud and misconduct in clinical research is widespread. Good clinical practice is a guideline adopted internationally as standard operating procedure for conduct of clinical research. Despite these guidelines being available, unavailability of internationally harmonized framework for managing research fraud and misconduct makes clinical research a highly vulnerable area to commit fraud. Fraud could be of various types and due to various reasons. Whatever the circumstances be, any fraud should be dealt with strictly and regulations should be in place to prevent its occurrence.

Keywords: Clinical research, fraud, misconduct

INTRODUCTION

Scientific fraud reappears with alarming consistency from paleontology to nanotechnology. Several studies have found that more than 40% of surveyed researchers were aware of misconduct but did not report it. Sheehan et al. reported in 2005 that 17% of surveyed authors of clinical drug trials reported that they personally knew of fabrication in research occurring over the previous 10 years.[1] Quality at sites is usually judged by audits and inspections. There has been as high as 23% (official action indicated) for cause inspections conducted by US Food and drug Administration (USFDA) over the last several years.[2] These kinds of results indicate that there exists a substantial problem. Fraud/misconduct can lead to study losing its entire credibility. Moreover, it can lead to ineffective or harmful treatment being available or patients being denied of effective treatment. This article discusses the difference between fraud and

Replication crisis

https://archive.vn/JKdUE

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

The replication crisis (or replicability crisis or reproducibility crisis) is, as of 2020, an ongoing methodological crisis in which it has been found that many scientific studies are difficult or impossible to replicate or reproduce. The replication crisis affects the social sciences and medicine most severely.[1][2] The crisis has long-standing roots; the phrase was coined in the early 2010s[3] as part of a growing awareness of the problem. The replication crisis represents an important body of research in the field of metascience.[4]

Because the reproducibility of experimental results is an essential part of the scientific method,[5] the inability to replicate the studies of others has potentially grave consequences for many fields of science in which significant theories are grounded on unreproducible experimental work. The replication crisis has been particularly widely discussed in the field of psychology and in medicine, where a number of efforts have been made to re-investigate classic results, to determine both the reliability of the results and, if found to be unreliable, the reasons for the failure of replication.[6][7]

"It is simply no longer possible to believe much of the clinical research that is published, or to rely on the judgment of trusted physicians or authoritative medical guidelines. I take no pleasure in this conclusion, which I reached slowly and reluctantly over my two decades as editor of The New England Journal of Medicine" (1).

More recently, Richard Horton, editor of The Lancet, wrote that "The case against science is straightforward: much of the scientific literature, perhaps half, may simply be untrue. Afflicted by studies with small sample sizes, tiny effects, invalid exploratory analyses, and flagrant conflicts of interest, together with an obsession for pursuing fashionable trends of dubious importance, science has taken a turn towards darkness" (2).

The first of these two commentaries on clinical research publications appeared in 2009, the second in April of this year. These statements are being taken seriously, coming as they do from the experiences of editors of two of the world's most prestigious medical journals. The first article showed how the relationships between pharmaceutical companies and academic physicians at prestigious universities impacted certain drug-related publications and the marketing of prescription drugs. Potential conflicts of interest seemed to abound: millions of dollars in consulting and speaking fees to physicians who promoted specific drugs, public research dollars being used by a researcher to test a drug owned by a company in which the researcher held millions of dollars in shares, failure of university researchers to disclose income from drug companies, company subsidies to physician continuing education, publishing practice guidelines involving drugs in which the authors have a financial interest, using influential physicians to promote drugs for unapproved uses, bias in favor of a product coming from failure to publish negative results and repeated publication of positive results in different forms. The author, Marcia Angell, cited the case of a drug giant that had to agree to settle charges that it deliberately withheld evidence that its top-selling anti-depressant was ineffective and could be harmful to certain age groups (1).

Marcia Angell's comments (1) were directed largely against conflicts of interest and the biases introduced by the influence of drug companies on researchers and universities. Richard Horton's statement (2) was part of his comments on a recent symposium on reliability and reproducibility of research in the biomedical sciences and addresses a broader area of concern. Some of the problems he identified are seen in the veterinary literature. They include inadequate number of subjects in the study, poor study design, and potential conflicts of interest. He notes that the quest for journal impact factor is fuelling competition for publication in a few high reputation journals. He warns that "our love of 'significance' pollutes the literature with many a statistical fairy-tale" and he remarks that journal editors, reviewers, and granting bodies all stress original studies to the extent that "we reject important confirmations" (2).

Individuals and organizations considered responsible for the present state of published medical science include researchers, journal editors, reviewers, granting agencies, governments. Horton goes on to reflect on whether the bad practices can be fixed (2). He concludes that scientists have incentives to be productive and innovative but no incentives to be right. He muses on removal of incentives, emphasizing collaboration rather than competition, improving research training and mentorship, funding studies that attempt to replicate published data. Horton ended by noting that it is a good first step to recognize the problems but no one seems ready to begin the task of reversing the trends.

Clinical journals such as The Canadian Veterinary Journal are less affected by the fight for the impact factor because the primary impact that we seek to make is on the clinical practice community, rather than the research community (the journal impact factor is based on the impact on the researcher community). Nonetheless, we share some of the problems discussed above. Perhaps the most serious weakness is inadequate sample number in some studies. Such studies are sometimes accepted because they may have some value if care is taken to acknowledge the limitations associated with inadequate power. The take home message is that readers must exercise caution in interpreting the published literature, regardless of the reputation of the journal in which an article is found.

What we call "science" is 17-century technology. The system made sense when research was done by a relatively small group of learned individuals who needed the printed journal as a way to collaborate and communicate, but it has since devolved into a racket. It has devolved into two rackets, to be precise:

First, you have the journals who add no value to the process but appropriate huge amounts of taxpayer money. Consider the process of research and publication: the scientist/researcher, who is generally taxpayer-funded, creates some result which he writes up in an article and sends it for publication to a journal. Of course, he cannot just send in a handwritten manuscript; he has to typeset and format it himself via Latex. The article is then sent out by journal's staff to other researchers for multiple rounds of peer review, which these other researchers, in the overwhelming number of cases, do at no cost and at significant investment of time. It can easily happen that a reviewer contributes more to a paper than the third or fourth author, yet doing the reviews is simply seen as a collegial duty. If the paper passes, it is published by the journal at basically zero cost, because journals are rarely printed physically nowadays. All Springer and Elsevier have to do is provide a PDF and maybe some BibTex info online. For the end product other people's work, to which they have contributed nothing, they then charge 20-50$ per article. Of course, nobody pays that; they get their money though subscriptions from libraries and universities. Thus you have the absurd situation that a university has to pay tens of thousands of dollars per year to provide access to research that its salaried scientists have themselves done.

Second, you have the university-government complex. University administrators (who tend to be the most incompetent people you can find at a university because nobody with actual scientific ability wants to do the job) use indicators like the h-index and the numbers of papers published in "big-name" journals like Nature to gauge the worth of a prospective employee - "worth" meaning the ability to bring in grant money. It should be noted that the h-index favors authors with a large number of seldom-cited papers over authors with a few oft-cited ones, again contributing to the pressure to publish endless streams of mediocre work.

Publishers make basically free money, while bureaucrats keep the hamsterwheels of scientists spinning and themselves necessary. Why do scientists put up with this shit? Mostly because they're autists who imagine themselves to be above petty economic concerns like the theft of millions at the hands of useless middlemen every year, but primarily because they're enamored with the prestige of the institution of the journal. If you're a scientist, publishing in Nature or Science or The Lancet or the ACM Transactions on something is your life. You're constantly regaled about the august nature of the entire edifice of science, of the journals, of peer review and its alleged ability to eliminate errors and fraud (yeah, fucking right). The overwhelming majority of scientists have an utterly slavish devotion to the system and would not even consider alternatives to it, lest they lose the ability to get a spot on the cover of prestigious Nature.

Now that the racket-part is out of the way, let's go back to the "17th-century" aspect: the article format is hopelessly outdated in the age of the Internet and wikis. Once again, the desire and the necessity of getting sole credit precludes a great deal of possible, fruitful collaboration. Even though people would technically be able to work together and share ideas much more quickly and organically by, say, working out a proof in a wiki together or pooling genetic data into a instantly searchable database, they sit on it and hide it like Galileo way back when. The measure of scientific output is not the theorem, or the model, or the algorithm, but the published article which describes it, and which tries to transplant the outdated medium of the book onto the computer screen, inconveniences like alternating page numbers and non-clickable citation lists included.

Science, as a word, is dead. The various disciplines that search for knowledge and understanding by rigorously applying the scientific method to probe hypotheses and questions experimentally are still respectable, but the word "science" has become meaningless. It does not refer to "biology" or "astronomy" or anything of the sort.
This vague umbrella term "science" now only refers to a collection of unrelated and easily digestible facts and half truths stripped of all context and understanding parroted by wikipedia-educated morons who think it provides an indisputable foundation for their political agenda and worldview.
The word "science" fills me with pure disgust, and I hate anyone who calls themselves a "scientist" as though that's a discipline in and of itself.

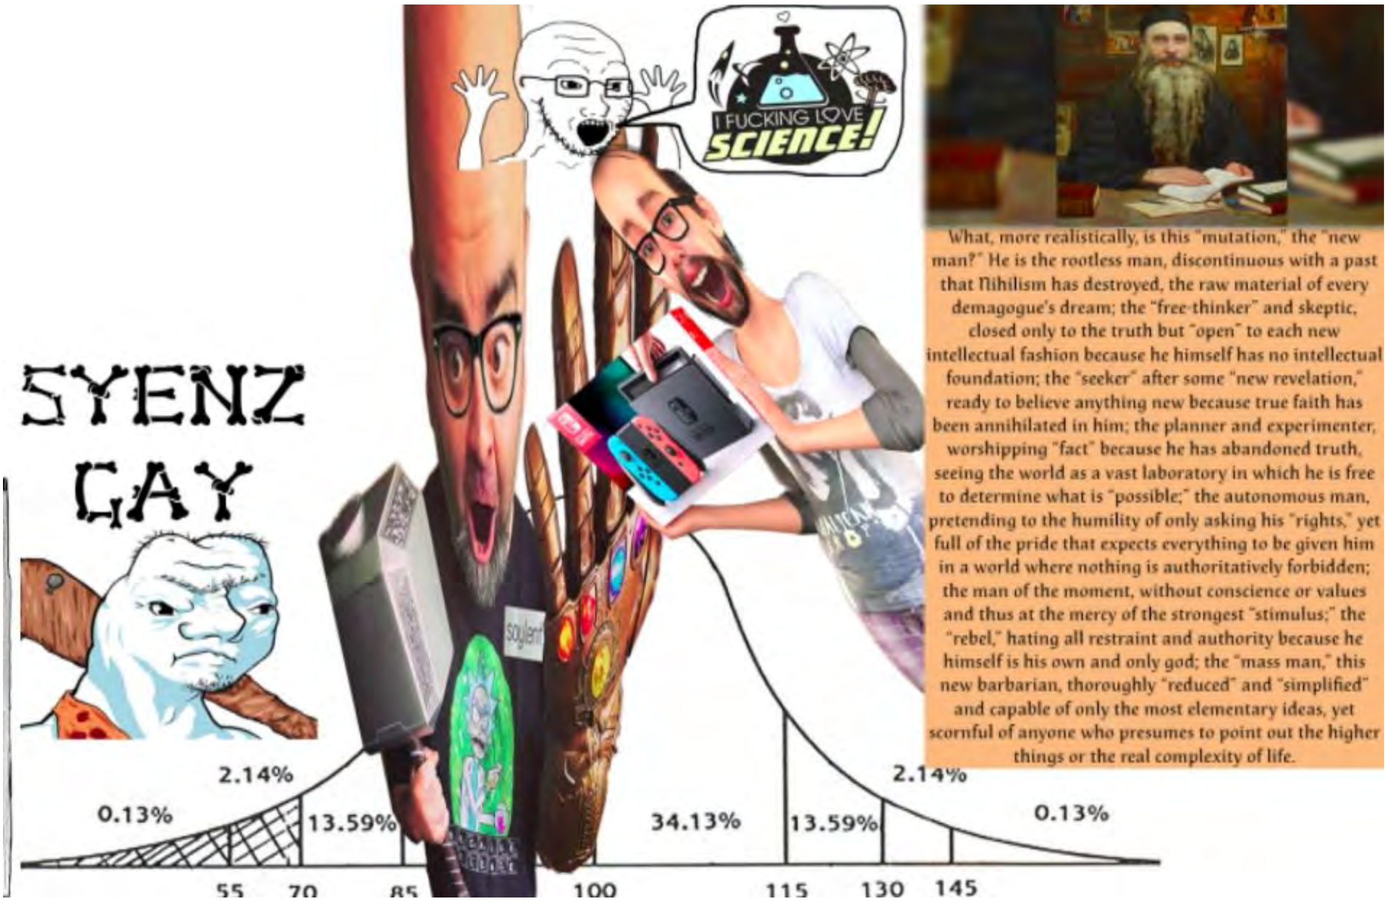
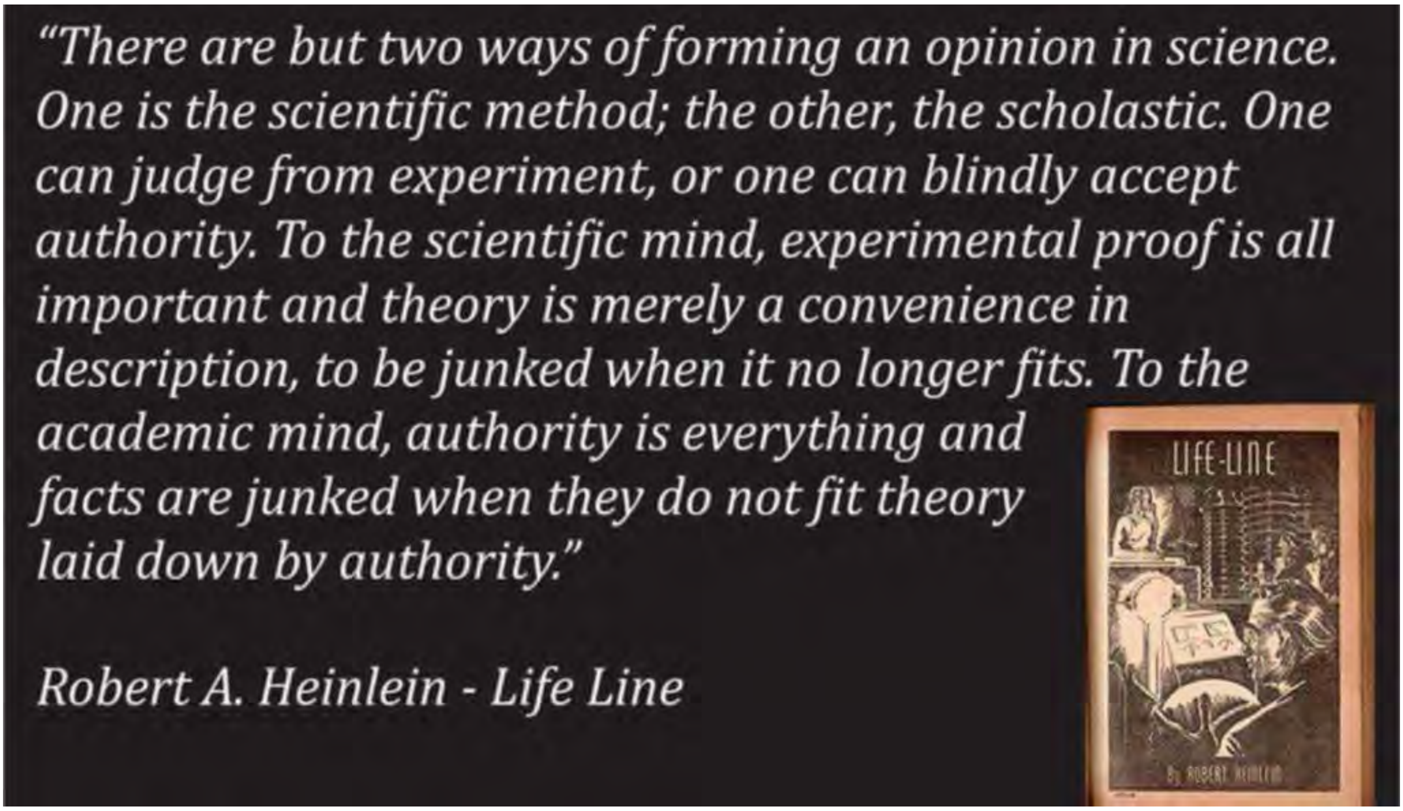
Leftists are masters at using and redefining words. By using the term progress, they are essentially defining their enemies as anti-progressives. And who wants to be against progress, something that most view as good? This works partly because a lot of people in the modern world view the term progress as a reference to technology. By conflating leftism with science and technology, they give themselves an aura of intelligence.

There is almost no actual racism today, yet they insist it is everywhere. The reason for this is twofold. One, equality between races is impossible due to biological differences, creating the appearance of racism due to unequal outcomes. The second reason is the leftist psychology drives them to always find a problem to solve, regardless if one exists or not. They must always create a new enemy to fight, and where none exists, they simply make it up. 'Institutional racism' is one such creation.

The ultimate outcome is clear of leftist policies is clear: the replacement of whites with other races. This benefits other races as it allows them to extend their sphere of influence. White leftists are essentially useful idiots, being used to give other groups more power at the expense of their own.



What, more realistically, is this "mutation," the "new man?" He is the rootless man, discontinuous with a past that Nihilism has destroyed, the raw material of every demagogue's dream; the "free-thinker" and skeptic, closed only to the truth but "open" to each new intellectual fashion because he himself has no intellectual foundation; the "seeker" after some "new revelation," ready to believe anything new because true faith has been annihilated in him; the planner and experimenter, worshipping "fact" because he has abandoned truth, seeing the world as a vast laboratory in which he is free to determine what is "possible;" the autonomous man, pretending to the humility of only asking his "rights," yet full of the pride that expects everything to be given him in a world where nothing is authoritatively forbidden; the man of the moment, without conscience or values and thus at the mercy of the strongest "stimulus;" the "rebel," hating all restraint and authority because he himself is his own and only god; the "mass man," this new barbarian, thoroughly "reduced" and "simplified" and capable of only the most elementary ideas, yet scornful of anyone who presumes to point out the higher things or the real complexity of life.



"There are but two ways of forming an opinion in science. One is the scientific method; the other, the scholastic. One can judge from experiment, or one can blindly accept authority. To the scientific mind, experimental proof is all important and theory is merely a convenience in description, to be junked when it no longer fits. To the academic mind, authority is everything and facts are junked when they do not fit theory laid down by authority."

some people don't understand why he did what he did. It was not suicide. Skyking saw a moment in time, where the chocks were pulled, a moment to reach the apogee of his life, and though death waited on the other side, Skyking took his chance and lived a life less ordinary, far from the madding crowd, he soared far and beyond the mundane.
He didn't leave us..he met us, and showed us the flight path home. Soar away, sweet prince, soar away.

"Oh hell yeah, it's a blast. I've played video games before so, uh, you know, I know what I'm doing a little bit."
"Okay, and you can see all the terrain around you; you've got no issue with visibility or anything?"
"Naw, everything's peachy. Peachy clean. Just did a little circle around Rainier, it's beautiful. I think I've got some gas to go check out the Olympics."

"I wouldn't know how to land it
– I wasn't really planning on landing it."

"Sorry, my mic came off, I threw up a little bit.
I'm sorry about this, I hope this doesn't ruin your day."

"Damnit Andrew, people's lives are at stake here."
"Ah Rich, don't say stuff like that."
"I don't want to hurt no one. I just want you to whisper sweet nothings into my ear."

"Well Rich I already talked to 'em. Just like me, what we want to see is you not get hurt, or anyone else get hurt. So if you want to try to land, that's the way to go."
"Hey, I want the coordinates of that orca; you know, the mama orca with the baby. I want to go see that guy."

"Hey, do you think if I land this successfully, Alaska will give me a job as a pilot?"
"You know, I think they would give you a job doing anything if you could pull this off."
"Yeah right! ... Nah, I'm a white guy."

Do you guys realise what SkyKing actually did for our cause? The Media has tried painting us in a very bad light over the last few years in the eyes of the mainstream. Just days ago a thread was up about a crazed neo nazi with his entire house decorated with swastikas who was gaslighted by CNN, shouted at the journo rat and chased her away from his property. This kind of thing is happening all the time. From rallies to harmless incidents.
Now this guy comes along does a few barrel rolls and flips, lightheartedly jokes and banters with the air control tower about racism against whites and his dying breath of life leaving him on phone while he's astonished by the beautiful scenery he flies through until he crashes into a godforsaken piece of forest only leaving him dead.
If this gets through to normalfags it could mean a change in perception by everyday folk. We gotta make this man famous for what he was. Richard Russell. The SkyKing.

What most people don't understand - Skyking's last hour was not a suicide. It was a celebration of life. It was a metaphor for the life he thought he should have lived.
He lived on the same gay earth that we all live. All the shitiness that we all live. And in one hour...
"Have you been to the Olympics these things are gorgeous... I want to see that Orca and the baby ... This is beautiful ... can this thing do a back flip? .... I'm going to do a barrel roll, and if that goes well, I will put the nose down and call it a night."
In one hour he lived the life he wanted to live. And lived more than most will ever live. Then he said Fuck this gay Earth. And called it a night.

You wonder what it felt like?, in that sunset, to pull back on that stick among the clouds, watching the horizon line slip by as the plane came over. Seeing the water rushing towards him, doubtful of whether or not he was going to make it. He only made that roll by a few degrees, it must have been the most exhilarating moment of his whole life, that altitude would've felt like kissing the water. It must have felt like destiny, the plane practically skimming the water, surrounded by the hills of the nearby islands, slingshotting back out for that right bank he made afterwards on all the speed he built up coming down.
He clearly didn't expect to live
"I was kinda hoping that'd be it, you know?"
It must have felt like a rebirth, total willingness to die, complete commitment to cause, not expecting to avoid the water, and then, incomprehensible exhilaration. Then, only a few minutes later, he crashes into an empty island. Going out on the high note of his existence. In the moment of the image that is used as his symbol, he is pulling back hard through a bank after that roll, I'm certain he has the biggest smile on his face, and that he felt totally free.
Nobody can copycat what he did, because he did it on total faith, with no expectation of outcome. Rich was just a man trying to live, others would just be men trying to be Rich.

Imagine growing up and thinking that the future would be flying cars, men going to space and finding a wife to love and have children with. You know, a future filled with hope, warmth and happiness. A future worth dying for.
Instead, we got was this. Just watch your society fall apart, watch wages and quality of life plummet, watch girls become whores and boys become school shooters, watch the culture your ancestors died to defend be thrown into the garbage.
People are slowly getting more disconnected, more miserable, and they can't quite tell why. Everyone is just sleepwalking through life without even realising it. Something is wrong, and you want to talk about it, but when you have the audacity to protest, you are made out to be some sort of crazy manic depressive. Pills will make it go away, porn will make it go away, working harder will make it go away. The louder you shout, the more people stick their fingers in their ears. Just shut the fuck up. Everything is fine.
So one day, you decide that you're not going to sleepwalk anymore. You're not going to eat shit and smile. You're going to shout, and they're going to fucking listen. Just once in your life, you're going to take back what they took from you. And for a few, sweet moments, you are free.

I envy him.

Imagine being guy who waits for it. He goes through daily life's struggle every single day of his life. He goes to school because it's gonna bring him good job. Then he goes to university because having degree because it's important. Then he goes for slavewaging, and he realises that all this struggle,all effort brought him nothing but more effort for the rest of his life.
And it wouldn't be even that bad if not the awareness of being fooled. There was a struggle but there is no prize, wasn't he the most loyal servant of system? Didn't he go for all steps they told him to? Where is the happiness he was promised? Why his power process didn't bring him anything but a question 'Is that it?'

To some degree we're either already that man or on our path to be him. He had balls to go for final solution, next couple of weeks while slaving in my job I will think about him and wish I could go off like him, burn really bright because I know that when this plane was about to hit the ground, when he knew he's about to die he was truthly a happy man, happier than he ever was in his day by day life.

I will go for a couple of drinks and call it a night

Gave up? He lived more than most of us have ever lived. We're all addicted to this place because we know we live in a global open air prison surveillance state and this is one of the last places we can talk about it. Without this place, I'd just go live in the woods and hide from this nightmare. I don't want to have to hurt anyone, I don't want to hurt anyone, just like this guy. We just want to live free existences, and this guy got genuine fucking freedom. The Air Force and NORAD didn't shoot him down because he wasn't a terrorist and intentionally didn't hurt innocent people. But that motherfucker was free. He was doing exactly what he wanted and nobody could stop him, and the difference between him and most of /pol/ is that he wanted to be free so much more than to smoke weed, Jack off and watch anime that he made a fool of his employer for CLEARLY underutilizing him in a time of mass migration, suppressed wages, lowered standards of living every day and no real future, and found out just how much fucking potential he really had. Maybe he didn't expect to live through that barrel will, but I can tell you what he felt after pulling out of that was probably better than any orgasm or drug or anything he'd ever experienced. It was better because it was LIFE, not this castrated domestication we've been forced into.

Skyking is the Canary in the coalmine, you turbokike memeflaggot. Just imagine what's gonna happen as our broken society makes more like him, but who WANT to do harm. Especially to you. Then again, that's why I want to live in the woods, far away from them all.

No, that was his wife and she's almost entirely to blame. She knowingly and willingly turned his life to liquid shit for her own selfish wants. People that knew them both posted on reddit and other places, and the story was pretty clear.

He was born and raised in Alaska and he met her at college. People said they were complete opposites, but they get married anyway. They eventually came to own business, a bakery, and they did well, but she was unhappy and wanted to go back to Seattle to live near her family. They were obviously married at that point and she refused to compromise, but he refused to let her go, so a short time later, they closed up their successful business and left Alaska for Seattle, Washington.

Apparently, she had absolutely no problem making it clear that she felt she'd done nothing wrong, and sacrificing his happiness for hers was justified because blah blah selfish blah. She's apparently an openly dog shit human being, so you can image what being back around other dog shit human being did for her.

Over time, life in the Pacific Northwest, the people that lived there, the shit job that paid him garbage, worked him next to death and her deteriorating, shit behavior wore him down. She decided that she didn't want to have children and became an ever more openly selfish, but now also outright frigid bitch.

Zero appreciation for what he'd done for her, zero appreciation for the fact that he worked in his own personal hell to keep them afloat, but at that point, he was stuck. He married her and initially stayed because he was committed, but she viewed the marriage as a means of ensuring that he couldn't just leave.

He loved her. She owned him, financially and circumstancially. He couldn't leave. He couldn't save any money, couldn't go home, couldn't get away from her.

She turned him into a slave, and his job treated him accordingly. Eventually, he had finally had enough.

You know the rest.

We may never know what was the catalyst for the actions of Richard "Beebo" Russell.

Yet, we can say with confidence what was at the core of his motivation. For whatever reason, he had come to the conclusion that from this point on, his life would be one of mediocrity. Unable to find peace with that, he sought the pinnacle of his dream right in the here and now.

Sure, he could have thought like a nigger and went out shooting up his workplace, killing beforehand any that he felt had wronged him. But, isn't that saying that their lives are more valuable than his own? An equitable trade? There was no malice, no guilt slinging, nary more than an off-hand mention of the inequality he had been subject to, while at the same time owning up to his own decision. He simply wished to realize his dream, and the realization of that dream he felt was an equitable trade of his remaining time.

For those who follow esotericism, consider the unlikely placement which resulted in the existence of the video documenting the incredible flight maneuver he pulled off. An early report I read only stated he had flown upside-down, which is what we would have been left with had not the person filming been fortuitously lined up for that breathtaking footage. Further, Rich himself had doubted his ability to successfully perform the maneuver. Just prior he jokingly asked if 5,000' were adequate to perform a barrel roll. We may not know if he was at 5,000', but we can say that had he been 100' lower he would have crashed into the sea. I believe intent weighs heavily in the judgment of our deeds, and it would seem that the universe deemed his endeavor worthy of being both successful as well as renowned.

So, while some of us are left with this odd, empty feeling of mourning over someone we have never met, you might consider that what we are actually mourning are our own selves. Those fears that manage to surface from time to time; that of languishing in a life of mediocrity.

Pugetopolis here.
I watch what used to be one of the best places in the world ruined by jews and bolshevists--70% increase in jews in Seattle alone, 2001 to 2014. Look it up, all the jewish newspapers and mags talked about it with enthusiasm.

This used to be the gateway to the Greater North. And ofc the whoring of this place has older roots than 2001. For instance https://www.foster.com/cross-border-business-law-blog/40-anniversary-celebration-liu-lin-hai-ship-seattle-china-gsb-port-of-seattle

So we have jews, including Stan Barer at FosterGarvey/GSB Law, turning this bucolic green place into yet another urban hive that chews up and spits out white men and laughs in their faces.

Today I see the likes of Jenny Durkan...

http://archive.is/8AsNV

...and Jay "Snitch On Your Trump Voting Neighbors" Inslee...

https://www.wethegoverned.com/governor-inslees-informant-army-heres-the-snitch-list/working overtime to worship and celebrate Antifa and BLM thugs.

Such heroes, burning shit down, destroying neighborhoods, creating free-fire/crime zones...and being aided and abetted by Olympia. (Denny Heck is deeply entrenched in the PugetJew establishment.)

Amidst this downspiralling we had a young man who dreamed of flying planes, as his dad and grandfather did, in Alaska. Wild lovely Alaska. He marries a Christian girl...but she wants to live in Pugetopolis near her parents. She makes him work in a bakery for god's sake. It fails. What's left is handling others' baggage.

I know how he felt. Alaska was my dream. I could never find a white man who shared it. Long time ago. It hurt so bad.

Sky King, I salute you in the name of our ancestors. You will never be forgotten. I'm glad you didn't get to see 2020. But we WILL pull out of this "barrel roll."

Most of us are going to pass on in a hospital bed. Maybe no loved ones will even be there. Maybe our last stimuli before the blackness will be a respirator machine doing its thing.

This guy went out seeing a beautiful sunset, seeing the clouds flying past, seeing the sunlight on the ocean, seeing the cities far below.

Not condoning what he did, but his last moments were more beautiful, more peaceful, more incredible, than almost anyone else's last moments in the history of humanity.

He went out on his own terms, and his last moments were full of beauty and wonder.

Think of me once in a while, take care.

You wonder what it felt like?, in that sunset, to pull back on that stick among the clouds, watching the horizon line slip by as the plane came over. Seeing the water rushing towards him, doubtful of whether or not he was going to make it. He only made that roll by a few degrees, it must have been the most exhilarating moment of his whole life, that altitude would've felt like kissing the water. It must have felt like destiny, the plane practically skimming the water, surrounded by the hills of the nearby islands, slingshotting back out for that right bank he made afterwards on all the speed he built up coming down. He clearly didn't expect to live

"I was kinda hoping that'd be it, you know?"

It must have felt like a rebirth, total willingness to die, complete commitment to cause, not expecting to avoid the water, and then, incomprehensible exhilaration. Then, only a few minutes later, he crashes into an empty island. Going out on the high note of his existence. In the moment of the image that is used as his symbol, he is pulling back hard through a bank after that roll, I'm certain he has the biggest smile on his face, and that he felt totally free.

Nobody can copycat what he did, because he did it on total faith, with no expectation of outcome. Rich was just a man trying to live, others would just be men trying to be Rich.

Richard "Skyking" Russell is the spirit of every person alive today in the West who has "that feeling," which is more or less all of us. That feeling of hopelessness and lack of purpose, where one has no choice but to serve the machine and be extracted for their worth before they are discarded, with the only thing to show for their toils the benefit of others' bank accounts. No personal achievement. No fulfillment. No feeling of even being alive.

But he made it. He got out. In a final act of glorious rebellion he slipped the surly bonds of this Earth we live on and took for himself the greatest freedom Man has ever known.

We are all Richard. We all suffer under the crushing weight of 21st Century life that we created. In short, our bodies last longer, but we never live. He lived. If only for a brief, beautiful moment, he truly lived as a free man, living Man's oldest dream, completely, utterly free. He soared through the skies, put out his hand, and touched the face of God.

He is, without question, one of the greatest folk heroes ever to live, and his final act of rebellion is to me, unironically, one of the most beautiful things I've ever seen.

Blue skies and tailwinds, Skyking.

Imagine growing up and thinking that the future would be flying cars, men going to space and finding a wife to love and have children with. You know, a future filled with hope, warmth and happiness. A future worth dying for.

Instead, we got was this. Just watch your society fall apart, watch wages and quality of life plummet, watch girls become whores and boys become school shooters, watch the culture your ancestors died to defend be thrown into the garbage.

People are slowly getting more disconnected, more miserable, and they can't quite tell why. Everyone is just sleepwalking through life without even realising it. Something is wrong, and you want to talk about it, but when you have the audacity to protest, you are made out to be some sort of crazy manic depressive. Pills will make it go away, porn will make it go away, working harder will make it go away. The louder you shout, the more people stick their fingers in their ears. Just shut the fuck up. Everything is fine.

So one day, you decide that you're not going to sleepwalk anymore. You're not going to eat shit and smile. You're going to shout, and they're going to fucking listen. Just once in your life, you're going to take back what they took from you. And for a few, sweet moments, you are free.

Heemeyer Muffler Repair
3 hrs ·

June 4th, 2019 marks the 15th anniversary of the Killdozer's rampage through Granby, Colorado.

Sit down kids, and let me tell you a tale. A tale about a reasonable man driven to do unreasonable things.

Marvin Heemeyer was a man who owned a muffler shop in Granby, Colorado. The city council ordained to approve the construction of a concrete factory in the lot across from Marvin's shop. In the process, this blocked the only access road to the muffler shop. Marvin petitioned to stop the construction to no avail. He petitioned to construct a new access road, and even bought the heavy machinery to do so himself. Denied.

The concrete factory went up in disregard to the ramifications on Marvin's business. To add insult to injury, the factory construction disconnected the muffler shop from the city sewage lines. An indifferent city government then chose to fine Marvin for this.

His business and livelihood were in ruin. Rather than lie down and die, Marvin chose to fight back. Over the course of a year and a half, Marvin secretly outfitted the bulldozer he bought to save his business with 3-foot thick steel and concrete armor, camera systems, and enclosed bulletproof glass.

On June 4th, 2004 Marvin Heemeyer lowered the armored shell over top of himself, entombing himself inside the Killdozer to make his last stand.

He burst forth from the walls of his muffler shop and straight into the concrete factory that ruined his business. Over the course of the next several hours, Marvin drove his Killdozer through 13 buildings owned by those officials that had wronged him, including the city council building itself.

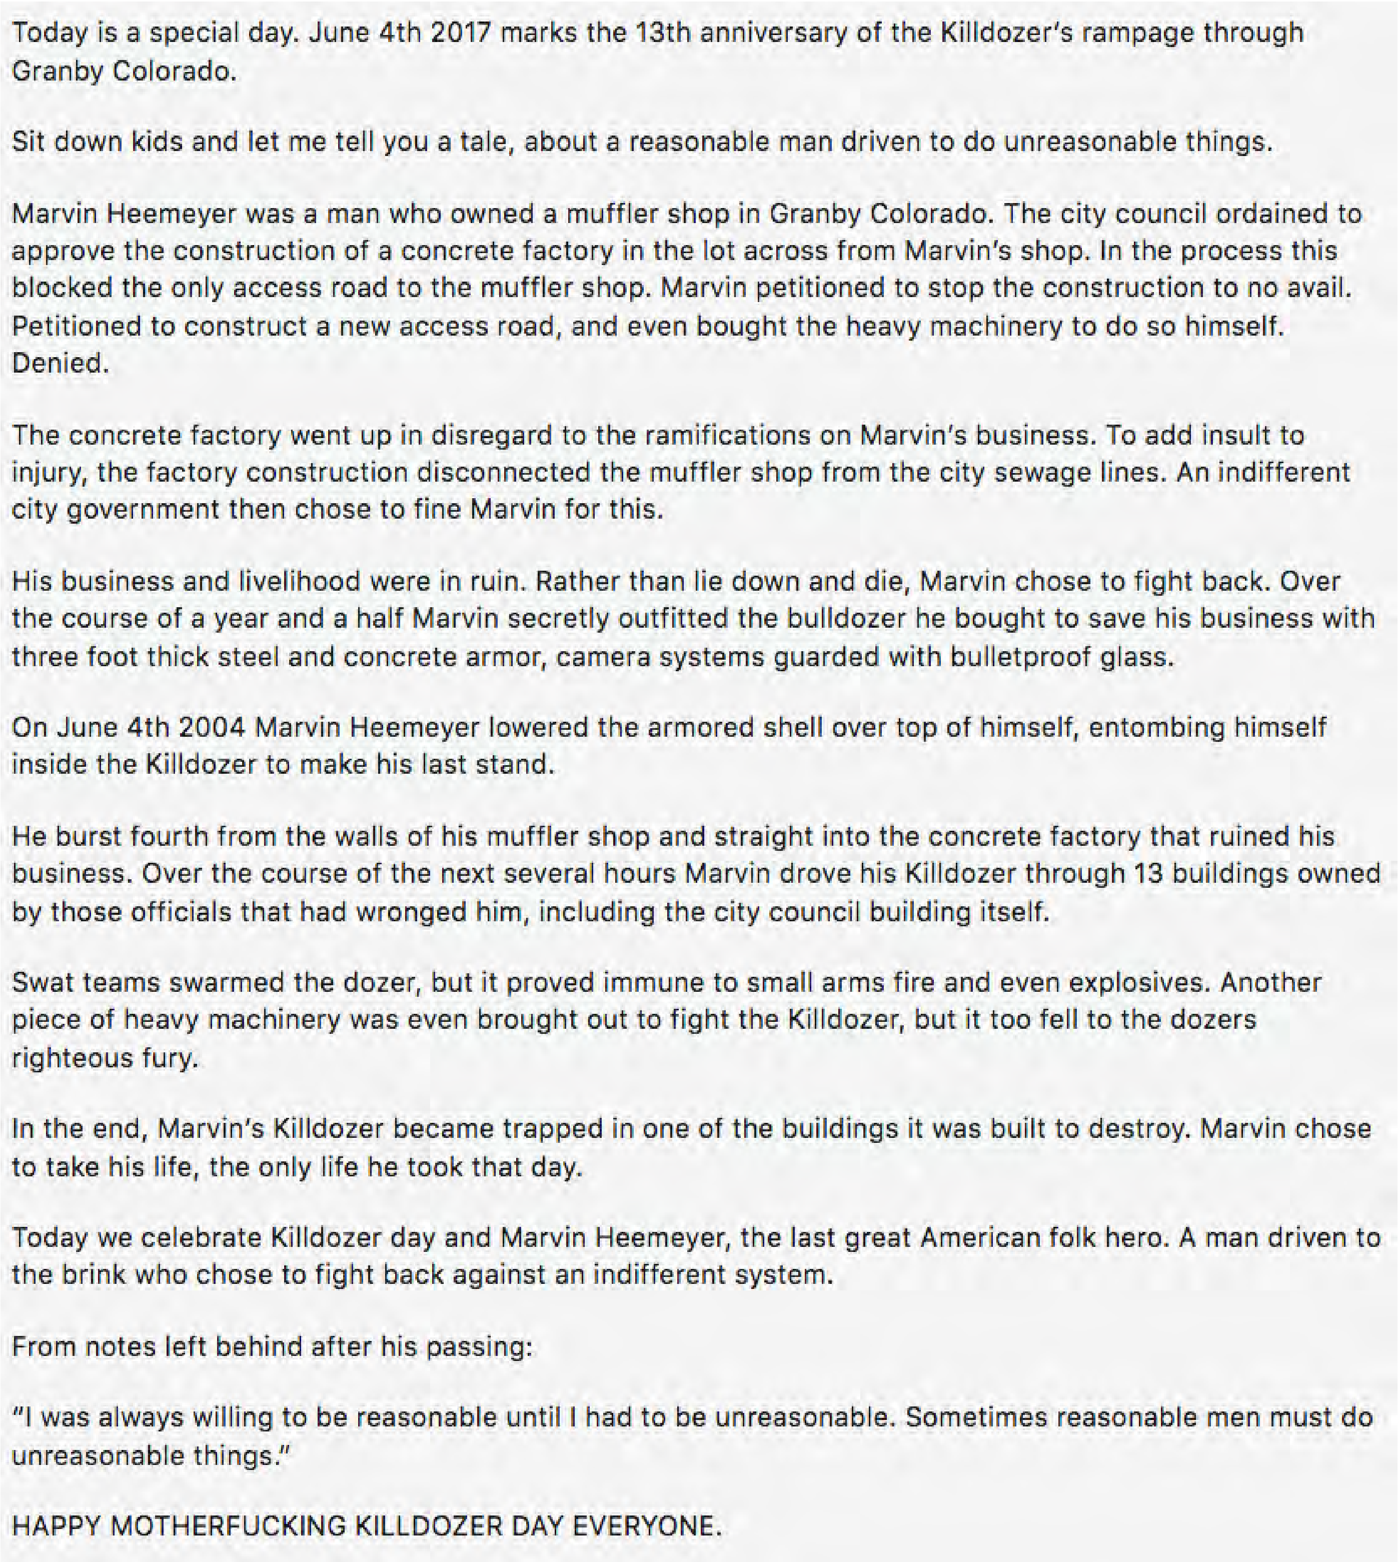
SWAT teams swarmed the dozer, but it proved immune to small arms fire and even explosives. Another piece of heavy machinery was even brought out to fight the Killdozer, but it too fell to the dozers righteous fury.

In the end, Marvin's Killdozer became trapped in one of the buildings it was built to destroy. Marvin chose to take his life, the only life he took that day.

Today, we celebrate Killdozer Day and Marvin Heemeyer, the last great American folk hero. A man driven to the brink who chose to fight back against an indifferent system.

From notes left behind after his passing:
"I was always willing to be reasonable until I had to be unreasonable. Sometimes reasonable men must do unreasonable things."

HAPPY KILLDOZER DAY!



Today is a special day. June 4th 2017 marks the 13th anniversary of the Killdozer's rampage through Granby Colorado.

On June 4th 2004 Marvin Heemeyer lowered the armored shell over top of himself, entombing himself inside the Killdozer to make his last stand.

He burst fourth from the walls of his muffler shop and straight into the concrete factory that ruined his business. Over the course of the next several hours Marvin drove his Killdozer through 13 buildings owned by those officials that had wronged him, including the city council building itself.

Swat teams swarmed the dozer, but it proved immune to small arms fire and even explosives. Another piece of heavy machinery was even brought out to fight the Killdozer, but it too fell to the dozers righteous fury.

From notes left behind after his passing:

"I was always willing to be reasonable until I had to be unreasonable. Sometimes reasonable men must do unreasonable things."

HAPPY MOTHERFUCKING KILLDOZER DAY EVERYONE.

KILLDOZER

You've had enough. There's no going back now. Whatever the reason you've gone over the edge and are prepared to do the only logical thing: turn a bulldozer into a makeshift armoured attack vehicle and wreak havoc in a suicidal rampage.

You have 20 Kill Kredits to spend on your bulldozer.

Bulldozer:

Before you can build a Killdozer, you'll need a regular old bulldozer to build around. Choose one.

Light

Small and light, you'll not be ramming much out of your way in this thing. At least it's fast, by bulldozer standards. Armour for this bulldozer costs 50% less than normal.

Medium

A totally average bulldozer. Not as powerful as some of the heavier machines, not as fast as the lighter ones.

Heavy

A massive machine, this thing will be able to crush almost anything in its path. Moving so slow will make it easy for mobile targets to get out of the way, though.

Super Heavy

A preposterously big machine that will be almost entirely unstoppable. Crawling at a snail's pace will hardly matter when you're this powerful. Armour costs 25% more than normal for this bulldozer.

Armour:

You'll need some protection if this is going to work. Choose at least one material. You may choose more than one for extra protection or to armour different parts of the bulldozer in different ways.

Scrap Metal (Free)

Whatever you could find lying around. Will stop people getting in and might stop some small arms fire, but useless against anything else.

Concrete (2 KK)

A great bulletstop but very heavy and might not hold up so well against explosives. Can make for makeshift composite armour if poured between sheet metal.

RHA (4 KK)

A former military standard, now considered outdated. Will protect you from basically any bullets and most explosives, but easily penetrated by shaped charges, which the police and military will be well aware of.

Aluminium (3 KK)

Lightweight and cheap, but not particularly strong. You can't expect it to deflect much, but if speed is your priority it might be worth considering.

Titanium (7 KK)

Strong and light, this is an extremely effective armour that doesn't see much use due to its high price.

Bulletproof Glass (6 KK)

Being able to see out of your Killdozer will be useful, but high explosives may be able to penetrate it.

Plastic (4 KK)

Thick, transparent plastic may not be as resistant as bulletproof glass, but isn' as expensive.

Reactive Armour (8 KK)

Reactive armour relies on directional explosives to deflect incoming projectiles. Extremely strong, but not particularly light.

Weaponry:

A Killdozer is destructive enough in its own right, by why not add a little extra firepower? Choose as many as you wish.

Scoop (Free)

Who needs weapons when you've got a big scoop? Crash into things, lift shit up, it'll be great!

Ripper (1 KK)

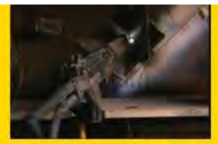
Not much use as an offensive weapon, but will tear up the ground behind you. Make pursuit by vehicles harder while also fucking up the road for laughs.

Improved Scoop (2 KK)

Make your scoop stronger, wider and spikier. An angled scoop will also force debris away from you, helping you avoid getting stuck in the stuff you're knocking down.

Box of guns (2 KK)

It's a box full of guns. Not much use if you've not got some way of firing out the Killdozer, but could be used for a last stand or a suicide when things get desperate.

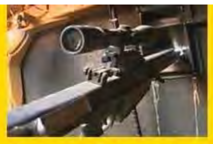


Mounted MG (4 KK)

A machine gun mounted in the wall of your killdozer, the port protected by bullet resistant plastic to prevent anyone firing in from outside.

Flamethrower (5 KK)

A mounted flamethrower, great for roasting people at close range or just starting fires. Not much use at longer range.



Sniper Rifle (4 KK)

A high powered anti-material rifle, mounted the same way as the machine gun. Useful against vehicles, if you can get your Killdozer into position.

Mortar (7 KK)

A mortar positioned in your roof, allowing you to attack distant targets or just rain death on those nearby.

Extras:

You've got guns, you've got protection, why not cram some extra stuff in there too?

Electric Netting (5 KK)

An electrified netting spread over the outside of your Killdozer will prevent anyone climbing on top of it.

Optics (1 KK)

Small black and white CCTV monitors hooked up to video cameras on the outside of your Killdozer. The bare minimum you'll need to see what's going on around you, if you can't see out.

Advanced Optics (3 KK)

A more advanced system that adds night vision and a higher quality video feed to give you a better idea of what's going on outside. Essential if you plan to go on your rampage after dark.

Oil (1 KK)

Oil spread over the outside of your Killdozer will help stop people climbing on top, but is flammable.

Self Destruct (3 KK)

Why give up quietly when you can, quite literally, go out with a bang? Pack your machine with explosves and add a nice big red button for kicks.

Extra Fuel (3 KK)

Spread the carnage further with a reserve supply of fuel. You'll be able to go twice as long as normal with this stuff.

Improved Engine (6 KK)

Faster and more powerful, a Killdozer with this engine will perform better in almost every way.

Communications (2 KK)

Make demands, mock those who've wronged you or just brag to the press with this radio.

Stronger Treads (5 KK)

Protect your treads from both enemy fire and all the stuff you'll be running over. A more lightweight alternative to surrounding them with your armour.

Cooling Fans (4 KK)

Killdozing is sweaty work, and will be quite unpleasant without a cooling system.

Murderholes (2 KK)

These small holes, with covers you can open and close from the inside, will allow you to fire outside with handheld weaponry.

Escape Hatch (8 KK)

Having a hidden way out might be your only chance of escaping this rampage alive and with your freedom.

Complications:

Not everything can always go to plan. Choose at least one complication. You can take more than one if you want the extra points.

Sealed In (+7 KK)

You've welded yourself in to your Killdozer. This only ends with your death, or your capture.

WELCOME TO FORT HOOD
Home of America's Armored Corps

Military Base (+5 KK)

There's a military base nearby. You'll be facing the heavy firepower sooner than normal.

Rival Killdozer (+3 KK)

Someone else has had the same idea as you, and is trying to steal your thunder. You must crush him.

Shoot to Kill (+4 KK)

The authorities have orders to bring you down, not to bring you in. Hope you have an escape plan.

GOODNIGHT,
SWEET PRINCE.

4.1.2 Images

While 4chan generates large amounts of original content, there clearly is content that is reposted – in fact, memes are, almost by definition, going to be posted numerous times. To this end, we focus on images, aiming to measure to what extent they are reposted from other boards.

In our dataset, we observe 1,003,785 unique images out of a total 2,210,972 images posted on /pol/, corresponding to almost 800GB. Figure 10 plots the CDF of sizes for unique images uploaded to /pol/. The median and mean size of unique images uploaded is 103.9 KB and 321.3 KB, respectively.

Using the image hash as a unique identifier, Figure 11 plots the CCDF of the number of posts each unique image appears in. While we note that the figure should be considered a lower bound on image reuse (it only captures exact reposts), we can see that the majority (about 70%) of the 1,003,785 images posted in our dataset are posted only once; in fact nearly 95% of images are posted no more than 5 times. That said, there is a very long tail. The most popular image (Figure 12) was posted 838 times and depicts a (skeptical?) Pepe, a meme recently declared a hate symbol by the Anti-Defamation League [13]. While Figure 12 is clearly the most common of Pepes, we have included a collection of somewhat rarer Pepes in Section 9.

on /pol/. Figure 14 plots the percentage of /pol/ posts that the top 10 most "popular" hate words from the hatebase dictionary appear in. "Nigger" is, by far, the most "popular" hate word used with "faggot" as a close second.

>Rounding out the top 10 is "trash."
In general usage, this is obviously not a hate word, however, /pol/tends to use it in a disparaging fashion (e.g., calling an ethnic group "trash").

Remember the UN report on /pol/? I laughed my ass off. My favourite part is their conclusion that smaller countries apparently had more valued opinions since they had the most replies, usually in capital letters.

In other words the inept fucks spent millions on /pol/ research and came with the conclusion that people screaming RARE at some island nationfag denotes opinion value.

This is why the Washington Post link is so important. There are names, dates, places in this document. More particular, names of public and semi-public figures who are listed as being at certain places at certain dates. That is SQUARE FUCKING ONE.

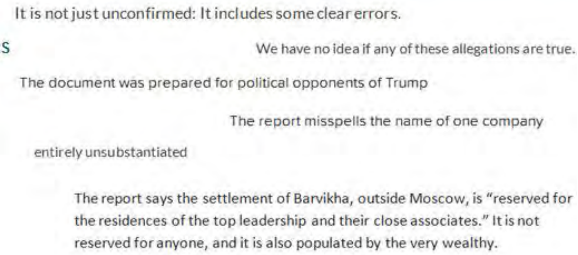
You have a document that claims Lee Harvey Oswald traveled to Windsor Castle on January 31 1961? Get his passport, ask his family, call his work. Even better: call him, say you have some property he left in the UK that you found from his trip in January.

Buzzfeed did NONE OF THIS. They didn't call Cohen, and best I can tell is that they didn't even make a flailing attempt at locating the public movements of the other people mentioned therein.

Let me assure you, there are not many places that will let you publish like that. There were three fucking reporters on this story, none of them even picked up the phone to call Cohen or even try to hail him on Twitter.

Since the Editor In Chief signed off on this, that's the nail in the coffin. They didn't even try to verify anything. They just published it without any concern of any of it being true. This is horribly negligent and probably enough to show "personal ill will, reckless or wanton disregard" in a libel lawsuit.

>L journalist



It is not just unconfirmed: It includes some clear errors.

We have no idea if any of these allegations are true.

The document was prepared for political opponents of Trump

The report misspells the name of one company entirely unsubstantiated

The report says the settlement of Barvikha, outside Moscow, is "reserved for the residences of the top leadership and their close associates." It is not reserved for anyone, and it is also populated by the very wealthy.

Yes he was. If you recall, several months back a particularly autistic anon was posting guides for how to make twitter sockpuppets and pose as various personas (Hillbot, Black bernie supporter, etc) and make it believable. From what I can tell, that same had been running a phony hillbot account for months and convinced Rick Wilson he had inside info about a new trump tape. He preyed on Rick Wilson's wishful thinking.

I don't know any of this for sure but this is what he claimed happened and it looks that way from the twitter timeline.

Which makes some strong assertions about this place.

>Despite its influence and coverage in the media, 4chan remains largely unstudied from a scientific perspective. In this paper, we start addressing this gap by focusing on one sub-community, namely, "/pol/", i.e., the "Politically Incorrect" board. /pol/ is, to some extent, considered a "containment" board, allowing users to discuss generally distasteful content (even by 4chan standards) without disturbing the operations of other boards. Even though /pol/'s contents do revolve around politically incorrectness, a simple visual scan of discussions at any given time makes it clear that the majority of posters subscribe to the "alt-right" movement, exhibiting characteristics of xenophobia, social conservatism, racism, and, generally speaking, hate.

However, when we look into the acknowledgements. We find:

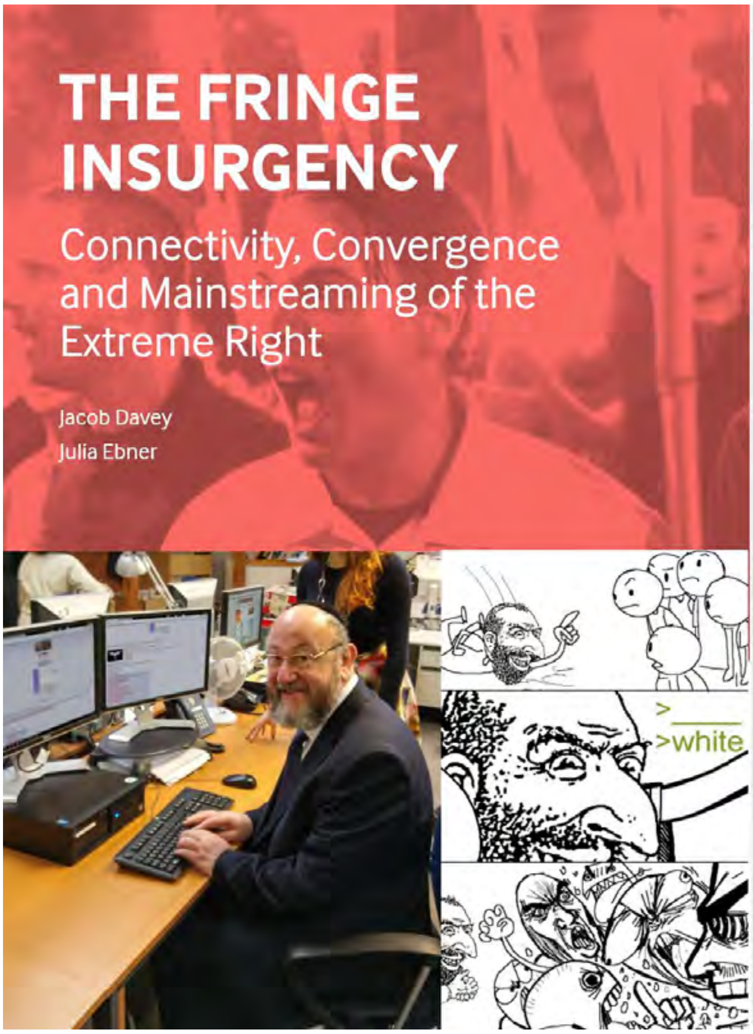
Hope she's hanging from that glass ceiling.

An image of 4chan's /pol/ board.

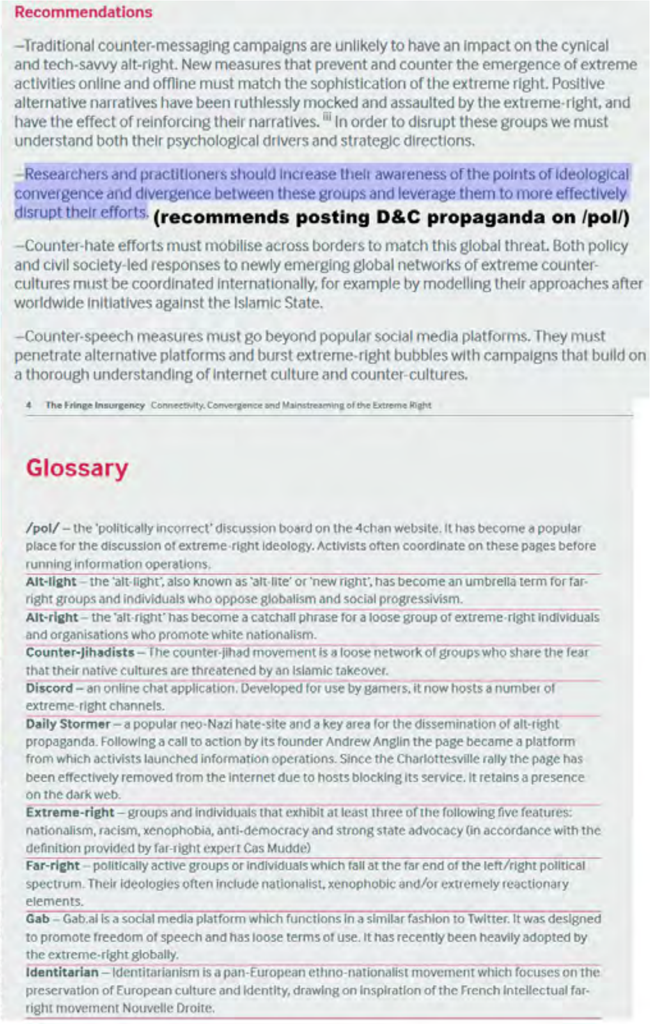
4chan's /pol/ boards have, for much of the 2016 campaign, felt like an alternate reality, one where a Donald Trump presidency was not only possible but inevitable. At some point Tuesday evening, the board's Trump-loving, racist memers began to realize that they were actually right.



THE FRINGE INSURGENCY

Connectivity, Convergence and Mainstreaming of the Extreme Right

Jacob Davey
Julia Ebner



Recommendations

–Traditional counter-messaging campaigns are unlikely to have an impact on the cynical and tech-savvy alt-right. New measures that prevent and counter the emergence of extreme activities online and offline must match the sophistication of the extreme right. Positive alternative narratives have been ruthlessly mocked and assaulted by the extreme-right, and have the effect of reinforcing their narratives.[iii] In order to disrupt these groups we must understand both their psychological drivers and strategic directions.

–Researchers and practitioners should increase their awareness of the points of ideological convergence and divergence between these groups and leverage them to more effectively disrupt their efforts. (recommends posting D&C propaganda on /pol/)

–Counter-hate efforts must mobilise across borders to match this global threat. Both policy and civil society-led responses to newly emerging global networks of extreme counter-cultures must be coordinated internationally, for example by modelling their approaches after worldwide initiatives against the Islamic State.

–Counter-speech measures must go beyond popular social media platforms. They must penetrate alternative platforms and burst extreme-right bubbles with campaigns that build on a thorough understanding of internet culture and counter-cultures.

4 The Fringe Insurgency Connectivity, Convergence and Mainstreaming of the Extreme Right

Glossary

/pol/ – the 'politically incorrect' discussion board on the 4chan website. It has become a popular place for the discussion of extreme-right ideology. Activists often coordinate on these pages before running information operations.

Alt-light – the 'alt-light', also known as 'alt-lite' or 'new right', has become an umbrella term for far-right groups and individuals who oppose globalism and social progressivism.

Alt-right – the 'alt-right' has become a catchall phrase for a loose group of extreme-right individuals and organisations who promote white nationalism.

Counter-Jihadists – The counter-jihad movement is a loose network of groups who share the fear that their native cultures are threatened by an Islamic takeover.

Discord – an online chat application. Developed for use by gamers, it now hosts a number of extreme-right channels.

Daily Stormer – a popular neo-Nazi hate-site and a key area for the dissemination of alt-right propaganda. Following a call to action by its founder Andrew Anglin the page became a platform from which activists launched information operations. Since the Charlottesville rally the page has been effectively removed from the internet due to hosts blocking its service. It retains a presence on the dark web.

Extreme-right – groups and individuals that exhibit at least three of the following five features: nationalism, racism, xenophobia, anti-democracy and strong state advocacy (in accordance with the definition provided by far-right expert Cas Mudde)

Far-right – politically active groups or individuals which fall at the far end of the left/right political spectrum. Their ideologies often include nationalist, xenophobic and/or extremely reactionary elements.

Gab – Gab.ai is a social media platform which functions in a similar fashion to Twitter. It was designed to promote freedom of speech and has loose terms of use. It has recently been heavily adopted by the extreme-right globally.

Identitarian – Identitarianism is a pan-European ethno-nationalist movement which focuses on the preservation of European culture and identity, drawing on inspiration of the French intellectual far-right movement Nouvelle Droite.

Community of hackers fights Church of Scientology both on and offline

Death to Status: 0

By Eli Lee

The Internet, once merely a series of tubes, has become a battleground.

A group called "Anonymous," a community of hackers and Internet junkies based around message boards on sites like 4chan and eBaum's World, has declared war on the Church of Scientology, a mysterious pseudo-religion made famous by its many celebrity members.

What followed has been referred to by members of Anonymous as Project Chanology. The group began with hacker-style Distributed Denial of Service attacks against Scientologist Web sites; however, future aspects of the war will take on physical manifestations. Protest raids are already scheduled across the world on several Web pages dedicated to Project Chanology. Some of these will involve masked members of Anonymous marching on their local CoS's in demonstrations of protest.

The goal of the group is not just to annoy and undermine the power of the CoS, but to reveal how exploitive the so-called "religion" is. In this way, Anonymous, which has existed, almost solely in the digital world, is beginning to influence the real world. And this is another of the goals listed on rallying Web sites, such as partyvan.info – for members of Anonymous to gain experience in global, real-world operations.

And that's one of the reasons this conflict fills me with such joy, and such dread. The CoS is not a positive force. Scientology is a religion heavily focused on money. Prominent aspects of Scientology include stress tests and training sessions, and the church charges for these "services," they deem necessary. But the reason Scientology has received scorn from the Internet community is its removing videos and other resources from sites like YouTube due to so-called "copyright infringements." Specifically, the church recently removed a video of an interview with prominent Scientologist Tom Cruise. The interview included discussions of many beliefs of the church just happen to sound crazy to non-Scientologists.

Project Chanology Web sites have interpreted these legal actions as indicators that the church is trying to stifle its critics and squelch public discourse. The church, understandably, dreads the ridicule, which greets any strange new idea. But a legitimate religion has to accommodate the public's right to free speech and access to information. The CoS avoiding public exposure is one thing, but preventing outside sources from presenting information about it is offensive.

Whether or not this warrants protests is up for debate. While I find a great deal of fault in many of the ideas and practices associated with the CoS, it doesn't really even compare with those of members of the Anonymous community.

Anonymous is often thought of in association with a number of anathemas, including alleged unprovoked and misdirected Internet terrorism, an affinity for underage porn in certain subgroups, and racism and homophobia present in many communications.

The war is kind of a clash of evil titans. Neither of these forces are necessarily good. But Anonymous is at least going into this on fairly good principles – trying to defend the free exchange of information, a vital element of any democratic society.

I would like to see the CoS relinquish its shrouds, if not meet annihilation, but I dread what the Anonymous community, invigorated with victory, might deem as evil and choose to destroy next. Their moral compass certainly does not even come within sight of the moderate perspective.

Regardless, with buzz constantly surrounding Feb. 10 as a day of real-life protests and focused Internet raids, what occurs in the coming months might just be a turning point for Anonymous, Scientology and maybe even Internet and religious history.

We are almost certain to be living in interesting times very soon.

Some are serious in tone, while others are more jokey and seem to be inspired by Hillary Clinton previously stating she supports a legislative amendment that would

Good for whom?

The reason the left is so terrified of 4chan, and open dialogue in general, is because leftism requires artificial supports. Anyone who's ever interacted with human beings for 5 minutes knows that men and women are different. But leftists say we're all from the same blank slate, and only differ based on how we're socialized. Since they can't win a war of ideas (because they're wrong and retarded), they instead restrict the kind of things you can openly discuss, and even the venues. On the other hand, 4chan is freedom. You can say whatever you want. No bots to mass flag and remove like on twitter, or downvote like on plebbit. And no persistent identity so you can make sure only "rightthinkers" get a platform. Every single post stands on its own merits. Since leftist dogma has no merits, they have to create their little gay echo chamber to survive. When leftists come here to "fight the nazis", they have to deal with dissenting arguments and evidence for the first time in their entire lives. If they keep coming back, it will eventually break them out of their faggotry.

Given the regular exposure to extreme content, Blackburn also said that he regularly checks in with the students working with him on the topic to make sure they're not getting sucked in.

"It's disturbing in a sense but we have to keep in mind the need to step back, to say to ourselves 'this is their content and we shouldn't be influenced by it,'" he explained. "But these guys are very good at recruiting people."

4CHAN: WELCOME TO HELL

The dark side of the internet

antionettecalkins
STAFF

4Chan is a notoriously vile online community that started as an image board for mainly anime discussion, similar to the Japanese site 2Chan. Recently, the day before the Umpqua Community College shooting, a user on /r9k/- the board known for being inhabited by bitter virgins- posted a thread foreshadowing the shooting. This put the community under even more heat than it had been before. The so-called "Mongolian sock puppet board" is also known for numerous pranks, and is often threatened with lawsuits, which eventually led to the resignation of the site's founder, Christopher "Moot" Poole.

On the day before the UCC shooting, a user posted "...if you live in the Northwest don't go to school tomorrow", and, of course, no one took it seriously. The reason for this thread was because of the "Beta Uprising," in which social outcasts/ shut-ins/deviants, attack what they consider to be "normies" (people who are considered "normal", i.e have a social life, play sports). This incident is so far the worst that 4Chan has been linked to, although it has not yet been proven.

4Chan's community is essentially reverse Social Justice Warriors, and are often labeled as "Neo-Nazis." Because the site is anonymous, anyone can post anything, which, needless to say, leads to some questionable content.

Although the site's "Safe For Work" boards do not allow one to post pornography or furries- a group of people that dress up like animals and often have poor hygiene and weird fetishes- or gore, oftentimes racism still carries over to every board. One incident involved the community of /pol/ (Politically Incorrect, they discuss politics with the view of Nazis) posting edits of Ben Garrison's political cartoons, made to look anti-Semitic. "God I wish I could sue all your asses," states Garrison, who eventually started visiting and posting on 4Chan and 8Chan after his works were being edited in an attempt to stem the tide of the appropriation of his work.

Although 4Chan is typically considered to be the "dark side" of the internet, or a containment site for drunk ramblers of the wee hours, there is a lighter side to it on the site's Safe For Work boards, which consist of topics such as photography, fitness, and even cooking. These boards don't have furries or pornography littering them, so browsing them is mostly painless, and these boards typically have more discussion than trolling and "shitposting" (kind of like spamming but more humor involved) that plagues the boards with no regulations.

Parents of underage teens and children should be aware of the purpose and content of sites such as this and monitor internet use to prevent inappropriate use and exposure to adult content. Knowledge is power.

FBI criminal complaint on Capitol incursion used Photoshopped 4-chan hoax picture as evidence

By Thomas Lifson

Just when you thought the FBI couldn't fall any further, the Bureau utterly, hilariously, and luridly beclowns itself. In a formal document, a criminal charge. Using a Photoshopped picture from 4-chan, the reviled (by all people who abhor wrongthink) website where a wag substituted a lurid picture for the official portrait hanging on the wall of the US Capitol in the background of a shot of the Viking horn helmet guy and others who stormed in on January 6, 2021.

Seamus Hughes was the eagle eye who spotted it, though the arrow in his picture on the following tweet directs the eye away from the object of humor:

> I've studied extremism for 15 years, I've reviewed mostly every court record for decades. I can honestly say very little surprises me. That said, I have absolutely no idea what to say about the Internet image the FBI used in a criminal complaint of the picture hanging on the wall pic.twitter.com/nznszFmif7

1 Pepe the Frog

The fringe comic character, created by artist Matt Furie in 2005, was already a popular Internet meme. But this year Pepe became ubiquitous as the mascot of the alt right movement, which used him in racist, profane social-media posts. In September, the Anti-Defamation League officially declared Pepe a "hate symbol."

To any who haven't seen the original thread, our goal is to convince people on twitter that the "ok" hand sign has been co-opted by neo-nazis

We use the hastag #NOTok. I repeat, spelled #NOTok, not #NOTokay. Do not spell it #NOTokay.

I have recently managed to convince a certain popular anti-trump twitter user of this. If we keep spamming on twitter we can do this. It's absolutely possible.

GO GO GO BOYS!

The challenges of studying 4chan and the Alt-Right: 'Come on in the water's fine'

Thomas Colley and Martin Moore
King's College London, UK

Abstract
In 2019, the authors led a workshop at King's College London examining how to study 4chan and assess their association with the Alt-Right. Unbeknownst to the authors, a participant was a 4chan user and started a mid-workshop thread on its notorious /pol/ (politically incorrect) board. It gained significant attention. Reviewing it later, the authors realised that this parallel thread illustrates perfectly the challenges researching 4chan – and similar – communities. We conducted discourse analysis on this unique dataset, providing an alternative perspective to predominant anthropological and informatic approaches. Our analysis enhances understanding of 'free-extremist' communities such as 4chan in several ways. It assesses how the /pol/ community responds to observation and provides new insights into roles influencers might have in radicalising others. It illustrates the value of discourse analysis in evaluating users' associations with the Alt-Right. Finally, it proposes ways researchers can overcome the challenges faced when analysing such communities.

Introduction

There is escalating concern, across national governments, inter-governmental organisations and think tanks, about the rise of far-right extremism globally (Chazan, 2019; Guterres, 2018; Jones, 2018). Public authorities, commentators and civil society groups have reported that this rise is being cultivated in online spaces, such as 4chan, 8chan and Gab.ai (Arthur,

Hello today /pol/. I wanted to make a short statement in hopes my thread does not get deleted. I assume you know all the things happening right now in regards to "The Dossier" and its financiers. This is just the tip of the iceberg. The truth about Mr. Manafort's connections will also drop later today, or the early morning tomorrow. You should then be able to piece together the real reason he was relieved of his duties from part of the Trump Campaign.

Also, tomorrow is the day that you all get the answer to the question I have been asked many times. Which is why I use the photograph that I do. Everything that has happened and will happen has been apart of well planned "happenings" and everything, even the little things work together to reach the final goal. Somethings have been planned for years. Events, quotes and even tweets that seem insignificant will begin make sense even more. Even a arrest that took place today is apart of the plan.

I will say, you guys really do have a special ability together, to figure things out. Maybe it is because everything here is unfiltered, but I have no idea. It amazes us. I come on here and see thread after thread, post after post about thing are true, that your every day person would just never understand unless it is explained to them from a media "mouthpiece". Anyways, keep it up, we really do respect MOST of you. The Election anniversary is almost upon us.

Quick guess. 8minutes. The last of light will end reaching us, starts to get really cold after that. Also, the centre of mass of the galaxy would be around jupiter and then the planets would go out of whack. since sun was 98% mass of sytme probably go and leave solar systme. It'll get cold anyawy.

I'm in the same place as you right now OP; in September when uni starts, I'm going to join the climbing society. Should be fun, keep me healthy, lot's of hot girls in tight clothes, and best of all; If I get good, I can start to travel with the club and climb all over the world.

I'm pretty excited.

So I've been huffing a lot of stuff recently. I know it's super bad for me, but the high is incredible and I can't really get other drugs. My big issue is that people can pretty much immediately tell if I've been huffing. I either smell like gasoline or lighter fluid or I have paint all over my face, or I can't hear shit because I've been huffing air horn gas.

Anyone have a good discreet inhalant I can just buy nonchalantly at a store?

>>huffing air horn gas

Seriously? I mean, like, you literally blow the horn and breathe the gas that comes out of the end?

That, and it's associated image, has given me the best laugh I've had from here in ages...

Btw, how do you not get caught? What do people say if you do? I mean, long sustained blasts of an airhorn are, by their very nature, designed to attract people's attention...

Fucking can't stop lol'ing at this, shit...

Yeah I honestly can't believe this, it just sounds so.. Impractical?

I imagine him like getting dumped or something, then going back to his house to get high, and his friends in the neighborhood hearing the horns and going like "Sounds like Anon is sad again."

Sowhat if he is? Kind of funny how racist douchebag Ben Shapiro goes on a rant about me and now, by sheer coincidence, a racist website launches a full scale attack on the guy for some stupid shit from forever ago.

Guy's a decent director that told some off-color jokes a long time ago. I don't think that's a good enough reason to burn him at the stake.

Hey /vp/, is BW2 just an alternate version of BW analogous to Crystal to GS, or is it more like a full sequel and new story, etc? I have an opportunity to pick up both White and White 2 for pretty cheap, not sure if it's worth it to get both or just one.

>An eerie ghost city recently appeared floating in the clouds above the Chinese cities of Jiangxi and Foshan, with thousands o accounts, reports The Telegraph. The supernatural-seeming event was even caught on film. Bizarre images show a shadowy sitting atop clouds, skyscrapers literally poking the sky.

Sleep is not a required function of the human body. It actually inhibits our ability to exist in full capacity, and what we experience as "sleep deprivation" is actually a withdrawal from the drug our own body produces when we sleep. I plan on weening myself off of this drug over the coming months. I am going to begin with what I am calling an omonophasic sleep schedule, only sleeping ever other day, and work from there. Has anyone else here attempted to rid themselves of this toxic chemical?

dude people die of sleep deprivation its also a form of torture. the body undergoes vital processes during sleep. if you dont sleep, those processes dont happen. big mistake.

Due to extensive research done by the University of Pittsburgh, diamond has been confirmed as the hardest metal known to man. The research is as follows. Pocket-protected scientists built a wall of iron and crashed a diamond car into it at 400 miles per hour, and the car was unharmed. They then built a wall out of diamond and crashed a car made of iron moving at 400 miles an hour into the wall, and the wall came out fine. They then crashed a diamond car made of 400 miles per hour into a wall, and there were no survivors. They crashed 400 miles per hour into a diamond traveling at iron car. Western New York was powerless for hours. They rammed a wall of metal into a 400 mile per hour made of diamond, and the resulting explosion shifted the earth's orbit 400 million miles away from the sun, saving the earth from a meteor the size of a small Washington suburb that was hurtling towards mid-western Prussia at 400 billion miles per hour. They shot a diamond made of iron at a car moving at 400 walls per hour, and as a result caused over 9000 wayward airplanes to lose track of their bearings, and make a fatal crash with over 9000 buildings in downtown New York. They spun 400 miles at diamond into iron per wall. The results were inconclusive. Finally, they placed 400 diamonds per hour in front of a car made of wall traveling at miles per iron, and the result proved without a doubt that diamonds were the hardest metal of all time, if not just the hardest metal known to man.

An "assbaby" is conceived through anal sex. Semen, mixing with the fecal residue in the woman's anus, then leaks out and sometimes enters the vagina, which on very rare occasions, leads to the birth of a mutated baby.

Scientific conensus has not been reached on the exact effects of the ensuing fertilization, but it is well established that assbabies are smaller, less cognitively developed, have worse senses, and tend to have wide, round, mongoloid features. The increasing number of assbabies cannot account for the entirety of expanding autism rates, but most scientists believe there is a link.

What are you doing to stop the spread of assbabies, /pol/?

Technically yes, because this is a real thing happening with the "trans men" pushed by the Jews. "trans men" often develope fishers between their asshole and vaginal canal, leading to the possible pregnancy of a stiched-up frankenstein with its labia sown shut and a meat-log cauterized into the front.

Yes, this is a real thing.

have sex scenes ever added ANYTHING to a movie?

It just seems to cause unnecessary awkwardness if you are watching it with your parents.
I currently live with my parents and I've started editing sex scenes out of movies before I hook my laptop to the TV just to avoid this awkwardness.
And you know what the result was? THERE WAS NO FUCKING DIFFERENCE IN MOVIE QUALITY.

So PLEASE tell me why they are included. Most aren't even fappable, so there goes that excuse.

you could literally just add a few lines of dialogue and it would convey to the viewer everything that the sex scene did.

like in terminator during the morning after scene in the motel while they are being all playful for a second:

"Sex was great last night."
"Yeah, I'm so glad I came inside you."
"Haha yeah me too."

Done. No awkward sex scene necessary.

I just lost about $1500 on a shitcoin and it's dumping. I bought the absolute top. I don't know what I should do in this situation. I told myself I would never fomo like that again but it just kept going up and everyone was so happy about it. Now it's dumping and I don't know if it will ever get to the same price again. I don't know whether to sell at a loss or hold and wait. I feel physically ill. One full pay cheque evaporated instantly on memes.

I assume you retards have never taken a boat.

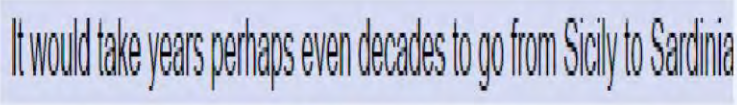
Do you have the slightest idea of how actually BIG the sea is?
Do you think medieval fucking retards who couldn't even read could do such a travel?

It would take years perhaps even decades to go from Sicily to Sardinia and the ship could break at any time and in that case, woops, you're dead.

Even if they knew about the island from Roman times no body in their right times would have gone there risking so much.

Medieval fuckers couldn't read, get this through your head, their intelligence level was so fucking low that they couldn't read, perform an action as simple as reading, how the fuck do you think that they could travel the fucking open (not coastal) the OPEN sea with a fucking shitty wooden boat, oh yeah this is the middle ages, no telescope, no nothing, only sea for hundreds of miles, only fucking sea, even in modern times you need experts on the ships to sail through the sea hence why the airplane was invented and we use it instead of ships.

Going through the sea requires deep knowledge of mathematics, physics, geometry, something medieval people did NOT fucking have before the renaissance/age of discovery.



It would take years perhaps even decades to go from Sicily to Sardinia lots of stuff. the funny thing is a lot of things are easy to steal from business and restaurants, like equipment they use. nobody expects theft to occur at a fastfood place, for example but you can often get away with their coffee machines, ice cream mix, hamburger buns, all that shit if you are sneaky. once i grabbed a whole box of honey and barbecue mcnugget sauce from mcdonalds and ran out. nobody even chased me

Feels thread?
got some stories?

I will start.
>be me, 13
>new Call Of Duty came out, at the same period of my birthday >go out to buy it, get money from big brother, he can't, is ill >MFW some type of gift >take the bus >right infront i was dropped by the bus, get hitted by a black jeep, had broken leg >seriusly?.jpg >pass the next 3 weeks in a depriment hospital room alone >its my birthday >its late night but "Tock, tock" the class come for my birthday >holyshit.png
>ALL THE CLASS + plus my crush >the crush give me a puppet saying "good luck anon" >MFW Good luck and not happybirthday?
>they are a little bit laughing but i don't care >MFW what care and having fun for that 5 minutes... >a week later i moved to another repart, because have the tv and a girl moved to home (from that room)
>MFW the girl is a mine classmate, and say me that a week later the class come for HER to gave her the bests lucks.

After a while i understand that the class didn't came for my birthday or for my accident, they came for grieving to me, and everytime i see that puppet i crying for how insignificant and shit i was.
Never cried soo much that night.

These fake memes are great. It's obvious that the shills only have a surface-level understanding of 4chan culture, so seeing them attempting to imitate us is interesting from an anthropological perspective.

Like this one. Does the poster understand what the image is really saying? Who knows?

Look what he just said: "not the best template".

It's obvious that he just googled "4chan meme", thought "oh, the guy in the middle must be important, so I'll put a bitcoin label on him. The guys around the edge are probably bad, so I'll put silver on them. Look, Mr. Noseberg, I made a meme!"

You ever notice how in these threads, tranny shills only post the same 1 or 2 trannies
Even in the coomer anti no-fap threads they at least post masses of different women but with these tranny faggots, they only have one girl that even pushes the mark

Here look, here's a random fucking girl from my image folder I have no idea even the name of, she's hotter than this tranny bitch spammed with the wide glasses, and guess what? There are hundreds, actual gigabytes worth of women in this folder the same level of attractives if not more
There is NO need to ever touch tranny porn if you don't CHOOSE to, because there is a nigh-on INFINITE surplus of women on the internet to pick, YET you choose to go for a tiny tiny tiny drop of passable trannies to post

IMAGINE being such a fucking beta, you don't even simp online for real women. You SIMP FOR A MAN IN DRAG. Impossibly pathetic

Jews, Muslims "Common Cause" To Oppose European Nationalists: Europe's Top Rabbi

April 12, 2017 · 704 Views · 3 Comments

Jews and Muslims in Europe have a "common cause" in opposing the rise of pro-European parties, Pinchas Goldschmidt, the president of the Conference of European Rabbis, has announced.

> Speaking during his annual Passover message, Goldschmidt called on Jews to "show solidarity with Muslims."
>
> Goldschmidt warned that the rise of ultra-nationalist parties and damage to the European Union caused by Brexit threatened the security of Jewish and Muslim minorities.

Maybe a little. So what? Just because I have Jewish ancestors on my mothers side of the family does not make me a true believer in their insane dogmatic bullshit religion. There are many even more Jewish than I am that also hate that fucking cult with a passion. I hate all religions actually but none more than christianity and judaism, in that order. I literally have no greater wish than to somehow destroy or banish their scriptures from this world.

Let me unpack this before y'all begin screeching at me.
Whenever I have a discussion with Nazis and hateful bigots online and real life, this is how it literally goes all the fucking time:

>Me: Nazis don't deserve a platform.
>Dumbasses: but they have free speech.
>Me: But that their use of free speech infringes on my right to live without being killed for my identity.
>Dumbasses: but they have free speech.
>Me: If one claims to support free speech, why platform those clearly against it.
>Dumbasses: but they have free speech.
>Me: confused pikachu face

It's just so tiresome. Nazis don't believe in free speech, so them "defending" their right to free speech is hypocritical and dishonest. Those who advocate genocide should not be tolerated, they have no place in civil discourse.

Why? Because they are the most insecure snowflakes of them all. If they were decent human beings in the first place, they wouldn't be a Nazi or support genocide just because of someone's skin color.

The greatest trick the jews have ever played is fooling everyone that they are hidden when in fact they were in plain sight all along, i wouldnt expect a nip or weabo to be able to read between the lines after all, your success only comes from stealing whites inventions

You know real nips don't post here, right? We're countrymen, you and I, yet you assume ignorance in others based on little. Jews change their names, claim to be white when it suits them and jews when it doesn't. They shave the cartilage in their noses, broadcast media that diverts attention from their activities while declining to cover stories that would illuminate their influence on society.
Since you decided to be a cunt, I'll reply in kind.
If you think kikes are operating in the open, you don't know how numerous they are or how widespread their influence is: you only see what they deign to show you and you seem content to accept that and call others dumb for looking deeper. What a thick cunt you are. I assume you're a clueless, cosmopolitan Londener, completely detached from reality. Don't forget to dilate

Cooking dinner, faggot. You seem to think I consider you more important than you are. Taking a shit is more important than replying to an obvious retard who takes photos of his parents' passports. What an obvious and pathetic LARP

Why won't /pol/ help the FBI catch ragheads, spics, and pedophiles that evade capture?
We've already seen the power of weaponized autism in action many times.
Some of these guys have a pretty good price on their heads, too.
We could keep 4chan going strong with the funds from the reward for tipping off the feds.
To quote George Flower's character from They Live: "What's wrong with having it good for a change? Now they're gonna let us have it good if we just help 'em. They're gonna leave us alone, let us make some money. You can have a little taste of that good life too."

I agree they're not what you'd call 'allies', but we could use the funds to fend off outside influence.
Even a single big hit could keep 4chan going for a long time with no ads, and no ads mean no content restrictions. Hell, we could even move the whole website overseas, so the feds will not have any influence on us.

I've been posting on 4chan for years and seen first-hand the effects of government shilling efforts to hide or disrupt threads which discuss subject matter threatening to government or corporate entities. The term "slide thread" was invented because it became plainly apparent that coordinated efforts to hide information were happening on /pol/. Pair that with Eglin Air Force Base being exposed as Reddit's "most addicted city" back in 2013 or so, and it is logical to conclude that government and military narrative control operations are alive and well on 4chan.

Wasn't Eglin the city with the most traffic to 4chan as well? What a coincidence.

Unraveling the Latest Deep State Coup

Unknown Date - Servers owned by the CIA in Germany seized

So what happened? I am reliably informed that a unit under the command of USEUCOM (i.e., United States European Command) did in fact conduct an operation to take control of computer servers. But these servers belong to the CIA, not Dominion or Sctyl.

CIA and FBI Director NOT informed in advance

I also have confirmed what Jim Hoft reported the other night–the CIA's Gina Haspel was not informed in advance of this operation. Based on this fact, I think it is correct that action was taken in Germany on territory under U.S. control and that a CIA facility was targeted.

Election fraud data turned over to DOJ which is why Barr needed to authorized election fraud investigations

Such an operation would have been carried out with U.S. law enforcement present to take custody of the evidence. That means that the evidence will be under the control of the Department of Justice

Barr had to throw out a 40 year old policy not to investigate election fraud when it could make a difference to the results. He had to do this because the data seized would get turned over to the DOJ. If Barr had n

Is is incredible how easy is to manipulate a mob, even 4chan users.
Even right wing users can be manipulated emotionally.
Liberals and Right wing people are two said of the same coin.

Purity ball

A purity ball is a formal dance event typically practised by some conservative Christian groups in the United States. The events are attended by fathers and their teenage daughters in order to promote virginity until marriage. Wikipedia

If every Black person in MN were given a Target store this wouldn't be a drop in the bucket compared to what white ppl have stolen from Black ppl over the last 4 centuries in the US. And murder & stealing a TV aren't quantitatively different crimes they're QUALITATIVELY different

I've had it with life, /b/.

As soon as my mom goes to sleep, I'm going to swallow twenty Advil.

I just thought I'd make one last thread before I die.

Goodbye forever, /b/.

MFW I tried to commit suicide once.

>be me
>have staff bow with arrows found at garage sale >home alone and miserable >start shooting bow at my mattress >get idea
>go outside and shoot bow straight up in the air >close my eyes and wait for deaths release >nothing happens >shoot another and then a other >not working >this time I shoot up in the air and try to watch to see where it's going to land >run across lawn hopping it hits me >keep doing this for a while >parents come home
>watch me figurusly shoot arrow into air then run around the back yard >parents think im autistic and took my bow away

>The reactions of the loved ones are always bad
>None is ever worse than a dad loosing his son

There is not a thing in this world that is more depressing sounding than a man sobbing while clutching his sons lifeless body.

I remember one who killed himself by shotgun slug after he came back from Iraq. There was nothing left of him, and his father got home just as we were getting ready to leave. I couldn't let him see, so I stood there and just didn't let him through.

He went downstairs to the basement and clutched his sons old baseball glove, rocking back and forth, just saying "papas here, buddy, papas here."

Don't do it anons.

You will never be a real woman. You have no womb, you have no ovaries, you have no eggs. You are a homosexual man twisted by drugs and surgery into a crude mockery of nature's perfection.

All the "validation" you get is two-faced and half-hearted. Behind your back people mock you. Your parents are disgusted and ashamed of you, your "friends" laugh at your ghoulish appearance behind closed doors.

Men are utterly repulsed by you. Thousands of years of evolution have allowed men to sniff out frauds with incredible efficiency. Even trannies who "pass" look uncanny and unnatural to a man. Your bone structure is a dead giveaway. And even if you manage to get a drunk guy home with you, he'll turn tail and bolt the second he gets a whiff of your diseased, infected axe wound.

You will never be happy. You wrench out a fake smile every single morning and tell yourself it's going to be ok, but deep inside you feel the depression creeping up like a weed, ready to crush you under the unbearable weight.

Eventually it'll be too much to bear - you'll buy a rope, tie a noose, put it around your neck, and plunge into the cold abyss. Your parents will find you, heartbroken but relieved that they no longer have to live with the unbearable shame and disappointment. They'll bury you with a headstone marked with your birth name, and every passerby for the rest of eternity will know a man is buried there. Your body will decay and go back to the dust, and all that will remain of your legacy is a skeleton that is unmistakably male.

This is your fate. This is what you chose. There is no turning back.

4,000% Explosion in Kids Identifying as Transgender, Docs Perform Double Mastectomies on Healthy Teen Girls

News

Number of children being referred to gender identity clinics has quadrupled in five years

Magnus Hirschfeld, a Jewish "sexologist" in Weimar Germany, is considered the pioneer of transgenderism. He created the Institute of Sexual Research, where he performed the first ever sex change surgery. Since then, transgenderism has exploded in popularity in the 21st century. Here's who is leading the push:

See the issue here is that you fucktards think that if someone is mentally ill enough and in the right angle, they count as a woman, because women are mentally ill and only look good from certain angles.

No. What we say when we think woman, is not a particular bpd profile, nor is it tits, some women have no tits.

What we mean, is a vagina. A real one. A sweet one. One that is full of vagina pheromones and is pretty, and good to fuck.

And while many things can be made to look like vaginas, including roast beef sandwiches, chairs, burgers, dpg ears, eyelids, etc, not only are axe wounds nowhere near the looks of the real thing, BUT THEY SMELL LIKE A DISEASED OPEN WOUND.

GET IT IN YOUR FUCKING HEAD, ABSENT GENE THERAPHY, YOU WILL NEVER BE WOMEN, I GIVE NOT A SHIT ABOIT HOW YOU TRY TO ARGUE IT, WE NEED VAGINAS AND PHEROMONES

Btw when you die, if your parents bother to pick up the body and bury it, the name they will use, is the one they gave.

>If someone says they are Napoleon trapped in the body of a modern day human, society agrees they are insane and the person is given medication and treatment. They are not invited to rule France (or exiled) for being Napoleon.

I know and that's a terrible sign of the oppression that Trans-Napoleons, such as myself, face on a daily basis.

Every single day, I try to live my life in accordance with my inner identity as Emperor of the French, King of Italy and Protector of the Rhine Confederations. Every single day, I am derided and mocked. Small children come up to me in the street and yell "You'll never be real emperor!" or "You'll never lead the Grand Armee against the combined armied of Tsar Alexander and Emperor Francis at Austerlitz".

All I want is what other Napoleons have: absolute power over the French Empire and its satellites in Europe, plus a dedicated Corps of Imperial Guards and a palace to live in. But I can't even move into the Palais de Versailles without policemen trying to arrest me.

Think about that. You cis-identitied people get to live in your natural homes, but if I try to move into my natural home, I get arrested. I don't even want to think how the Russians would treat me if I went to visit Moscow.

So have a heart, mes amis. Start working for greater social justice for Trans-Napoleons such as myself.

Vive la France, vive l'empereur, vive la vieille garde.

Excuse me anon, er, just one more thing...

You have said here...uh...that you're...a woman.

But I'm sorry, uh, I just can't wrap my head around it...

It says here...I uh got your medical report

It says here...that you have no womb...no ovaries...and uh...pardon me sir...that you have a gaping, rotting wound between your legs.

Anyway, I've just been running that through my head. You know, my wife always tells me...

How does one fall for a fake pussy?
Shouldn't "I need to use half a bottle of lube" be an indicator that something is up?

How someone can "accidentally" fuck a trap without knowing it is beyond all common sense. Even post-op it should be obvious because of the frankenstein "vagina".

Explain.

She didn't have a fake pussy. Her dick was intact.

I love gender neutral bathrooms. I have a big map of all of them in public spaces in my city. It is like going on a TREASURE HUNT. Sometimes I will strike gold and there will be no one in there except a single mother and a young girl. I take a huge grunting shit, having deliberately given myself diarrhea. I made a little platform above the toilet water out of paper so it has MAXIMUM EXPOSURE to the air for proper smell dispersion. I have heard crying before. For dessert, I walk out of there with an erection visible through my spandex leggings.

If you have a daughter, a sister, a wife. I WILL DO THIS TO THEM. You have zero choice in the matter.

Why are so many boys becoming girls?

Progressive media, BPAs, more access to like-minded people via the internet?

Why is it so popular?

>TransFlag
There's a Trans flag?

Wasn't the whole point of the Rainbow flag to represent all non-standard sexual orientations and gender identities?

This is actually a good thing. The rainbow didn't make sense as a flag to represent them because it's a naturally occuring.

this is honestly the funniest picture i've ever seen on the internet his vaguely threatening gesture and stance, the woman meekly clasping her hands together in fear, the difference in size between his massive skull and hers, his caveman-tier slouch making him look like a hunchback versus her standing up straight, the remnants of what appear to be sideburns on the side of his face versus the woman's clear cheeks, the intense expression on his face versus the bewildered expression on hers, the sheer difference in size between their torsos - his is probably double the size of hers, his masculine profile with his chin jutting out and his longer face versus her wider face. i could go on, but you get the idea all of this contrasted with the constant assertion that these people are identical to women and there is no meaningful difference between them makes for the most exquisite form of irony when their differences are juxtaposed so vividly. the contrast is almost divine - on the left is man's hubris, his desire to capture the beauty of nature and make it his own, his cerebral and conscious understanding of what it means to be what he thinks he is, his intentional "becoming", while on the right is nature, effortless being, no doctors appointments or hormones or surgery, just an "is" that needs nothing added to it in order to be complete. he tries so hard and yet, the harder he tries to "become", the further he takes himself away from the effortless "is" that is the thing he wants to be. it's comedy on a cosmic scale, a joke only god himself could come up with

With women, you have a broader range of what you can do. You also have one extra step, and you could turn a woman into a man.
I would mention, that's it's almost impossible to turn a man into a woman.

It's weird how people don't recognize transwomen and their accomplishments. Whenever I learn about a woman doing anything intelligent, creative, transformative or original I instantly assume they are a transwoman.

I need female eyes

I've had many surgeries to truly feel feminine. But what I really hate is my eyes. They look so... male. And make up doesn't help that much.

The problem with eyes is that they can not be really replaced - except if I take artificial eyes (which can not see). It would be huge step but I think that's what I really need to be complete.

After so many painful surgeries I feel that something is still missing. And I'm pretty sure if I have proper eyes I will be complete.

Difficulty coping with passing

For the first time in my life I'm being seen as a man, something I've dreamed about ever since I realised I wasn't a tomboy, but a trans guy. Part of me feels great, the relief after years of treatment etc., finally feeling like my true self. The other part is swimming in a sea of emotions, trying to cope with my new reality.

I feel invisible, like I died and came back as a ghost. It seems like everywhere I go, there's this dramatic shift in how people treat me, even my closest friends have become distant. I'm bi (mostly attracted to women) but right now I feel sexless. Previously I had people approach me, send me messages, now nothing, like a light switch. I eventually worked up the courage to ask out a girl I know (with some help from my guy friend) and her reaction was something like disgust mixed with pity. I walked away from that in tears, questioning everything, feeling like just a cog in a machine instead of a human being.

I used to look in the mirror and envision myself as this confident, strong man who can just live his life. Now I see a short, effeminate, weak boy, who can't stop himself breaking down at least once a day.

Does anyone know what I can do? I just feel so crushed.

Edit: to the incel who sent me this; ibb.co/LY5c9R1. Fuck you.

Support-based discussion place focused on trans men, trans-masc individuals, and other people assigned female at birth who are trans.

Joe Biden was congratulated today for having the lowest transgender suicide rates in recent history. When asked what caused the recent decrease, Joe Biden was quoted as saying, "the ammunition shortage."

When asked their opinion, only 60% of transgender individuals polled provided a response.

Don't forget you Frankenstein monstrosities, while other woman are having babies, starting families with husbands, smiling and enjoying life with those around them, you'll be nothing more than a pathetic mentally ill porn addicted Buffalo Bill abomination in cosplay.
You'll be some fags dirty secret.
Another person's token virtue card.
A novelty to make others in your echo chamber feel better at the expense of your very presence and constant misery.
A walking punchline to a living joke.

You think the people in your echo chambers are your friends or that they truly buy your delusions?
Then why don't they publicly date you? Brag about you?
Only other broken and mentally ill people will? Why is that?
You know that most actually talk shit about you behind your back, right? They talk about how you're clingy, always seeking affirmation, and how fucking whiny you always are -- how you're always obsessed with drama like a caricature of an actual woman.
It's all a show when you're around to make themselves feel better. For them to feel more virtuous and moral; however, in private, that facade quickly drops.

To think, you actually mutilated your bodies with buckets of pills just to play make-believe -- hell, maybe even chopped your dick off. As if anyone would ever truly find pleasure in a wound that's always on the brink of going necrotic while simultaneously growing nasty hairballs inside.
I know when you're alone you question it all.
But it's too late now, though.
Regardless of what you do, you'll never be a real woman in any sense.
Not physically or mentally.
You can crybully and silence people.
You can censor and cancel them.
You can get rid of all the things that you don't to to believe are true -- even though deep down, far inside, you know that they are, and it eats at you each day.
Even then, after all of that, it won't change objective reality.
That will still exist -- long after you're just another statistic.

The thing about trannies is they are the biggest examples of "incels" in the world. Thats why they use the insult so much- partly because they are unimaginative, and partly because it stings them so badly. They know the feeling of being unattractive, unremarkable losers no one wants to have sex with.
Even trannies dont want to fuck trannies. Thats why you see them complaining so much about "cis" women (and men) not wanting to touch them.
They think they are somehow gaming the system. No one wants to touch them as men, so they think they will become a bisexual "woman," and then both men and women alike will magically change their minds about them.
Of course, you, me, and everyone else with any common sense knows this isnt true. But these are desperate, loveless grotesqueries.
Putting a wig on one of these creatures just serves to make them even more unattractive, because its clear that they are mentally unstable.
Partially to blame are the women who support them online, even though its only for imaginary internet points. The trannies think this is an indication that their master plan was a good idea, when in reality, even their most arduous supporters would vomit if they saw the tranny naked.
After all, even with hundreds of thousands of dollars spent on plastic surgery, they still just look like a gross parody of some whorish woman.
All of this just further melts down their already malfunctioning brains, and they become enraged and lash out at people who refuse to entertain their moronic roleplaying. All this does is change the general feeling about them from pity and nausea to hatred.
Eventually, this breakdown of delusion.exe leads them to suicide. "This will show them!" they think to themselves. But, in the end, no one cares. Trannies have never contributed anything to society.

Your parents will use your real name.

>I have a vagina

I wonder if trans people would take offense to these old Volkswagen Bug goof kits that slap on a "Rolls Royce" hood?

The whole joke is that slapping a Rolls Royce hood onto your VW Bug does not make it a Rolls Royce.

But that's pretty much the entirety of the tranny argument. "I have modified my body to look the part. Therefore it is."

The people who put these car kits together thought they were having a giggle but I guess by tranny logic they have a fully fledged honest to god Rolls Royce now. That has to be worth a lot. Maybe someone will make a lambo hood kit for economy KIA models so those cars can become supercars worth millions.

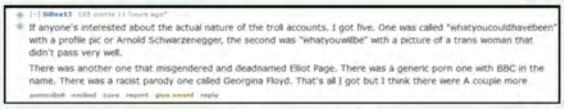
Someone literally started following me here called "I follow subhumans." I was wondering what that was about. (I'm not trans, bigot).

Edit: Now "I follow monkeys" is following me. Real creative.



If anyone's interested about the actual nature of the troll accounts. I got five. One was called "whatyoucouldhavebeen" with a profile pic or Arnold Schwarzenegger, the second was "whatyouwillbe" with a picture of a trans woman that didn't pass very well.

There was another one that misgendered and deadnamed Elliot Page. There was a generic porn one with BBC in the name. There was a racist parody one called Georgina Floyd. That's all I got but I think there were A couple more

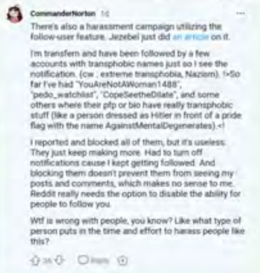
The more transphobic followbots on reddit that follow me, the more feminine I become. Keep 'em coming, you're only making me more powerful.



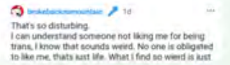
CommanderNorton 1d

There's also a harassment campaign utilizing the follow-user feature. Jezebel just did an article on it.

I'm transfem and have been followed by a few accounts with transphobic names just so I see the notification. (cw ; extreme transphobia, Nazism). !>So far I've had "YouAreNotAWoman1488", "pedo_watchlist", "CopeSeetheDilate", and some others where their pfp or bio have really transphobic stuff (like a person dressed as Hitler in front of a pride flag with the name AgainstMentalDegenerates).<!

I reported and blocked all of them, but it's useless. They just keep making more. Had to turn off notifications cause I kept getting followed. And blocking them doesn't prevent them from seeing my posts and comments, which makes no sense to me. Reddit really needs the option to disable the ability for people to follow you.

Wtf is wrong with people, you know? Like what type of person puts in the time and effort to harass people like this?



That's so disturbing.
I can understand someone not liking me for being trans, I know that sounds weird. No one is obligated to like me, thats just life. What I find so wierd is just Yeah, I have ~~13~~ 18 followers after posting openly about being trans. Have no idea who they are and why they're following me. Wish I could block them or at least see who tf they are.

EDIT: as if on cue, "YouAreNotAwoman1488" just followed me. that makes ~~14~~ 19 followers!

EDIT 2: corrected number of followers. had more than I realized before.

EDIT 3: also followed today by "pedo_watchlist" and "pissandturd" among others. apparently I got reported by a "concerned redditor" as well as if I was in distress.

EDIT 4 : now up to 30 followers. A new record! Notable new followers include "tr4nnysu1c1de" and "ElectricFencePence". I really love having all these extra rights and special privileges as a trans person. Life is good 😎

EDIT 5 : u/spez any chance reddit will do something about this. Like yesterday maybe? As is, your platform is a toxic cesspool where bigots openly harass marginalized, vulnerable communities. Would be super cool if you could do fucking anything

I hate that small things ruin my mood. Literally all that happened was I got a follower notification on reddit (which never happens so idk why it did today) and their name was I-follow-manly-men. Like its such a small thing so why does it ruin my mood so much.

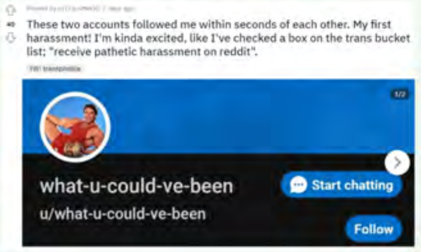
Ah, the blessing and curse of anonymity. I'm not a violent person, but seeing people target children with these kinds of messages especially pisses me off. I'm probably gonna get another hugz award or something with a note that's telling me to die and get SA'd again (which is what happened on my last post). It really sucks that we can't just have a proper safe place, even if we curate these places for ourselves. No amount of moderator can keep away the transphobes that slip through .



These two accounts followed me within seconds of each other. My first harassment! I'm kinda excited, like I've checked a box on the trans bucket list; "receive pathetic harassment on reddit".

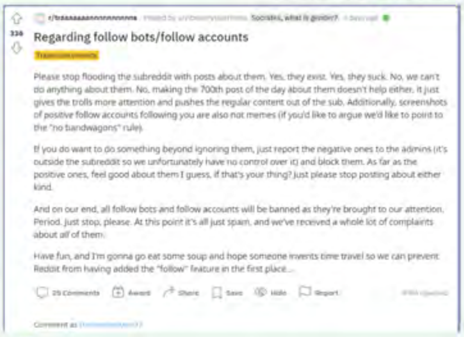
This is just from two days, so you have evidence on just what a problem it ACTUALLY is.



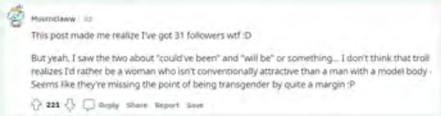
Regarding follow bots/follow accounts

Please stop flooding the subreddit with posts about them. Yes, they exist. Yes, they suck. No, we can't do anything about them. No, making the 700th post of the day about them doesn't help either. It just gives the trolls more attention and pushes the regular content out of the sub. Additionally, screenshots of positive follow accounts following you are also not memes (if you'd like to argue we'd like to point to the "no bandwagons" rule).

If you do want to do something beyond ignoring them, just report the negative ones to the admins (it's outside the subreddit so we unfortunately have no control over it) and block them. As far as the positive ones, feel good about them I guess, if that's your thing? Just please stop posting about either kind.

And on our end, all follow bots and follow accounts will be banned as they're brought to our attention. Period. Just stop, please. At this point it's all just spam, and we've received a whole lot of complaints about all of them.

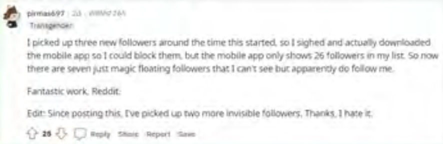
Have fun, and I'm gonna go eat some soup and hope someone invents time travel so we can prevent Reddit from having added the "follow" feature in the first place...



Mournclaww

This post made me realize I've got 31 followers wtf :D

But yeah, I saw the two about "could've been" and "will be" or something... I don't think that troll realizes I'd rather be a woman who isn't conventionally attractive than a man with a model body · Seems like they're missing the point of being transgender by quite a margin :P



Transgender

I picked up three new followers around the time this started, so I sighed and actually downloaded the mobile app so I could block them, but the mobile app only shows 26 followers in my list. So now there are seven just magic floating followers that I can't see but apparently do follow me.

Fantastic work, Reddit.

Edit: Since posting this, I've picked up two more invisible followers. Thanks, I hate it.

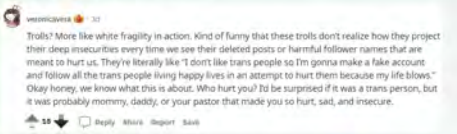
Literally just happened to me today. I posted a timeline photo last night and this morning woke up to like ten people with names like 'I only follow men' and loads of shit like that with tranny or shemale in the name. This is the first time I've seen this phenomenon. I'm lucky enough that I don't get bothered by this stuff. it's just embarrassing behaviour to me. And I'm 28. I can deal with it. But you just know they're doing it to trans kids reaching out for support and they will not have the stability to not feel incredibly threatened by this. It's fucking disgusting. And I tried reporting the accounts but you can't because they haven't commented anything. Hats off to the twats, it's clever, but it will not be long before their campaign is the final star for some trans kids and they'll have blood on their hands. I can't stress that enough, people will die if this is allowed to continue. Reddit needs to deal with this shit as soon as possible. The follow function is pointless anyway.



Trolls? More like white fragility in action. Kind of funny that these trolls don't realize how they project their deep insecurities every time we see their deleted posts or harmful follower names that are meant to hurt us. They're literally like "I don't like trans people so I'm gonna make a fake account and follow all the trans people living happy lives in an attempt to hurt them because my life blows." Okay honey, we know what this is about. Who hurt you? I'd be surprised if it was a trans person, but it was probably mommy, daddy, or your pastor that made you so hurt, sad, and insecure.

Honestly, I kind of pity the people doing this. It doesn't effect me at all.

Just woke up from some pretty stressful dreams about by car shooting water everywhere but hey those are over lol sounds intense dreams can be very off putting sometimes

Oh yeah TBH I usually get really thirsty at night and whenever they happens things get really stressful or weird

Really interesting to see how someone's physical state affects their dreams

Anyways, I suppose I should address the elephant in the room and ask why you're likely mass following trans women with that name

I mean, I get its because you consider us men but besides that

Or if you wanna keep talking about dreams TBH I'm down would be great brb tho i gotta reboot am working/you know

Your desire to make me kill myself makes me smile with anger and glistening pride to subjugate you even society fucking collapses because of it

And that's fine by me. Cause I'm gonna be the 0.01% that's still gonna be alive when the suicide rates reach 99.9% ~

It's funny, it's actually super validating that you are attacking me so intensely. I usually am the type to get easily unencouraged by a barrage of insults. But it actually encouraging me for some odd reason. I'm not sure even why. I do know what you're doing here is backfiring and you're just wasting your own time at this point. I hope you can turn around some day and see that someday. Though for today, I expect you will make even more accounts because you have no other way of copping. Aust N Z J Psychiatry. 1996 Jun;30(3):422-5.

The successful treatment of a gender dysphoric patient with pimozide.

Puri BK[1], Singh I.

⊕ Author information

Abstract

OBJECTIVE: The case is reported of a gender dysphoric patient who responded successfully to pharmacotherapy with pimozide.

CLINICAL PICTURE: An adult male patient with a borderline learning disability presented with cross-dressing and a strong wish to undergo a sex change.

TREATMENT: Supportive psychotherapy and pharmacotherapy with pimozide was tried.

OUTCOME: There was an excellent response to pimozide 2 mg daily, with a cessation of both cross-dressing and the wish for sex reassignment. When, after 1 year, the dose was reduced to 1 mg daily, there was a rapid return of the cross-dressing and the wish for sex reassignment. An increase in the dose again led to a remission which has been maintained since then.

CONCLUSION: Pharmacotherapy with pimozide should be considered in cases of doubtful gender dysphoria.

PMID: 8839957 [PubMed - indexed for MEDLINE]

Pimozide (Orap) is an antipsychotic drug of the diphenylbutylpiperidine class. It was discovered at Janssen Pharmaceutica in 1963. It has a high potency compared to chlorpromazine (ratio 50-70:1). On a weight basis it is even more potent than haloperidol.

>Gender Dysphoria is a real diagnosable medical condition
Yes, and it used to be successfully treated with anti-schizophrenic medication until jewish lobbyists blackmailed the APA into removing Gender Dysphoria as a mental illness, this precluding any further treatment.

>Chandalf: "Be silent! You will never be a woman. I will not pass through dating and tinder to fuck the rotting flesh of a dickless manchild!"
Chandalf logs onto twitter.
>Gyna: "His twitter! I told you to ban the transphobe's account!"
Man'aborn, Preggolass and Gaymli fight the mods, letting Chandalf talk to Queeroden.
>Chandalf: "Queeroden, walker on eggshell. Too long have you run this shitshow."
>Chandalf: "Harken to me! I release you from this psychosis."
>Queeroden: (Laughs.) "You have no power here Chandalf the Straight."
The King continues laughing. Chandalf throws aside his straight robe, revealing his superstraightness.
>Chandalf: "I will end you, Trannyman, as 41% end themselves."
Chandalf calls out the superphobia of Queeroden, who squirms in his hypocrisy.
>Queeroden: "Aah!"
>Queeroden (Trannyman's voice): "If I go — Speedrunning dies."
>Chandalf: "You did not cancel me. You will not cancel him. — Be gone!"
Trannyman falls backwards in dysphoria. Queerodens HRT ends, soon he looks normal again
>Chandalf: "Breed with no fear again, my friend."
>Queeroden: "Clownlike has been the world of late."
>Chandalf: "Your people would remember your old ways better — if you ditched the trannies."

Thou shalt ne'er a true maiden be. Thou hast neither womb nor ovary. Thou art a catamite, twist'd by foul perversion of chirurgeon's art to crude fleer'ry of Divine protection.
All validation as thou recievest like unto Janus' own be, and tepid to boot. 'Pon thy hind, good folk fleer.
Thy good father and kind mother art in troth disgust'd and in shame of thee.
Thy friends doth make sport of thine hideous countenance 'twixt themselves.
By thee art all of Adam's sons utterly repuls'd. Our Lord didst fortuitously permit all menfolk to divine thy fraud with wondrous accuracy.
If by trickery, thou didst 'pon occasion "pass", all gentle folk verily wouldst 'pon closer examination revile thee. By the Lord's arrangement, thy very bones betray thee.
And if 'pon chance thou pliest with drink an unfortunate companion unto thy fetid bed, 'twould soonest fly as drink in the aromas from thine diseas'd, fest'ring wound, the which thou cherish in mockery of Eve's daughters.
Tis certaine that never shalt the devil's spawn pass from thine false womb, thus fruitless are thy efforts to ensnare gentlefolk.
Joy shall likewise escape thee.
'Pon waking, thou paint upon thy face a Deceiver's frippery, but inside thine heart, parlous despair circles like Leviathan, eft t' crush thee 'neath th' unbearable weight.
In the end 'twill be too much to bear - thou shalt find thyself procuring firm rope, mocking the hangman's noble art, and plunging into the bitter abyss of the Divill's embrace, to spend thy days better cavorting with thine masters.
Thine mother or father shall occasion upon thine empty shell and weep, caught 'twixt heartbreak and relief that the shame thou broughtest them hast, anon, abated.
Thine headstone shall reflect thine Christian name, and hist'ry shall record thee a man.
As worms and creatures of the earth feast on thine unholy corpse, thine bones shalt betray thee again - unmistak'bly like unto Adam's.
'Tis thy fate, self-appointed. Ne'er shall thee revoke it.

Here we post new ancient songs that will demoralize shills. I'll start....
Thine hips art narrow as a board
Despite thy scabbard robbed of sword
Thy shoulders broad, thy chin a block
Despite thy codpiece absent cock

Thine husky smell, thine heavy voice
Accomplish naught but show thy choice
To cuck thyself, a eunuch be
Then hide thy discord misery

A freak thou art, misshapen fiend
Betraying those by whomst t'was weaned
So hie thee hence, neither lad nor maid
But product of the quackster's trade

Thou art by merchants hewn by hand
Shall ne'er be lady, thou art man

I've sung of love, I've sung of heroes.
Lo it is time to sing of our greatest Zero.
Never boasting behind a podium, he cleans up shit, hated custodian.
He prunes fair discussion and chants full of glee
"miga", "racist", or "Made for BBC"
His days a tragic and pointless farce,
Well adorned frogs rape him in the arse.
Australians jesting? He must stop it!
But first, oh pardon he needs hot pockets.
Tasking countless hours and untold ages,
Sir Janny labours devoid of wages.

Heathen chinee, off, begone
Leave this land ye have not won
Though a warrior thou wouldst be Nay, a monk, in truth art ye

Not one lady shalt thou siege
All thy maidens art for me
BWC i'faith, they yearn
But yellow manlet, thou won't learn

Thy numbers, math and seething rage
Are but thy comforts at this stage
Thou sickly dragon, termite China
T'is but Asia's wet vagina

Glist'ning spread for Yankee thrust
As moan'st thou, "Yes, in God we trust"
Thou seething tranny, whining slope
Bend forth, receive thine only hope

For once we've done impaling you
We'll next bend Xi, then thrust him too

Now gather ye round, o lords and men
For I hath a song from round the glen
I sing ye a tale that's good for ten T'is the tale of the Ghost King Biden

Now the Ghost King Biden, a fearsome sight
Was in debt to being yellow inside his white
Known far and near as an egg as spite
The unhappy dead Ghost King Biden

This frail would be king was as hollow inside
As a tree trunk struck or a tanned ox hide
To sell all to the enemy, thus he lied
Sing the song of the Ghost King Biden

Had this would be a son, named after the hunt
Had this liar a partner, some half black cunt
Adn together they stumped in a half mad stunt
For to make him the Ghost King Biden....

With his "party" he ran, and they pilfered the votes
As they pilfered the gold out of yellow men's coats
And as couched they with babes on a thousand fine boats
All the lords of the Ghost King Biden

And the men with long noses looked anxiously on
As the Africans counted bought votes til dawn
And together they pinned all their hopes on the con
That would crown him the Ghost King Biden

But the lion of Texas, first punished, redeem'd Became wise by the True King to Biden's scheme
And with provinces far and wide robbed joined the meme
To unseat the false Ghost King Biden

There were frogs with the lion and frogs in the fields
There came frogs from the avenues, trained well to wield
Epic memes from their siegeworks against all the deals
That were backing the Ghost King Biden...

A woman you shall never be,
Shoulders wide - arms hairy
Cut your dick, turn it inside out; internal hairballs that stink of trout

Kill yourself, its only fair
A child you will never bear
The disdain your family shows;
your birth name on your tombstone!

And when all of the provinces woke from their sleep
All their anger was thunderous, raging and deep
They arose with a start for the nation to keep
From the clutches of Ghost King Biden

So the skies became dark as the devil played harp
And the shills were defiant and kept to their LARP
But the frogs and the lion tore weave, weft and warp
To remove thus the Ghost King Biden

And the Emperor laughed,
And the judges bequeathed
And the chinkies all mathed
And the trannies all seethed
But the heavens broke open
Then all eyes could see
It was over for Ghost King Biden

To this day you can find him, aseat on his throne
Made of Chinese cheap coke cans,
His grinning face bone
And the Antifas with him now lie beneath stones
At the grave of the Ghost King Biden.

Tranny Tranny on the road
Tranny Tranny oh so bold dressed in black, a twilight frock soon will come her final shock a group, a mob, these human cogs the freeway lanes they tried to clog all with phones, they need their likes in need of their attention spike don't look now here comes a car!
run for shoulders, not too far OMG they scream and shout
as the drivers is enroute 2 were struck and how they flew their camera angles now askew
Chase him down and hope he's white imagine now their mortal fright the man inside the killer car is browner than a shit cigar
The tranny victim lays in blood
Struck the pavement with a thud
What's her name the people ask shitlibs soon took them to task it's not a she, it's 'them and they!'
covered in her red blood spray from this I think we all infer her pronouns now are 'was and were'

Thine hips art narrow as a board
Despite thy scabbard robbed of sword
Thy shoulders broad, thy chin a block
Despite thy codpiece absent cock

Thine husky smell, thine heavy voice
Accomplish naught but show thy choice
To cuck thyself, a eunuch be

"There's a dick on this chick!" cried the Pepe in the beret. "You can see through his dress, it's there plain as day!"

"She was the First Lady," chides Karen the scold. "She's stunning and brave, and your claim is too bold! And the last person spreading such slanderous lies had the most unfortunate slip. Her heart stopped at the doctors while getting a nip."

"The First Lady you say? But this cannot be! It looks like a thing from the depths of the sea! Why would a president wed such a beast, knowing the sausage he brings to the feast?"

"She's not a man!" shrieks the pink-haired and ponderous Trigglypuff. "Stop assuming zir gender, or we shall become rough! We'll boycott your business and picket your home. And we'll call day and night to your manager's phone!"

"A bird is a bird, and a fish is a fish, and no matter your claims, THAT is NOT a knish!"

"Bigot!" the pencil-necked, pedo-stached slacktivist screams. "Cisgendered, racist, peddler of memes. We cancel those who claim logic and truth! We can send you to jail without one flamfoozle of proof!"

The Pepe in the beret looked on with a face full of appall. "It's clear your asylum needs a much higher wall. How is it such madness runs free on the street? A blind man could tell that 'chick' is smuggling meat!"

"Tut-tut," tisked the RINO, mom-jeans up past his waist. "Such vulgar words are in truly bad taste. Now I must vote with the Progs to take your freedoms away. Gosh-darnit to heck, Pepe in the beret - there are some things you simply can't say!"

"Fine," says the Pepe in the beret. "Keep floating through life in your spineless, jellyfish way. But the truth is the truth - there's a dick on that 'chick'! That none will admit it makes me quite sick. Though perhaps, there are others who yet still can see? There must be a place with others like me!"

"Not so fast," burbles the bald-headed billionaire despot. "You'll go no further with that kind of thought. I forbid you from gathering in social media spaces. I'll pull down your forums and bar marketplaces! From amzoophles to zindlers, you'll not be buying online. And no, it's not censorship - these things are all mine!"

"That doesn't seem right," says the Pepe in the beret, with a shake of his head. "It seems like you all prefer me and mine dead! There's a dick on this 'chick' - please open your eyes! I speak only the truth, you're the ones spinning lies! It seems all of you find destroying us fun. Does peace only come from the barrel of a gun?"

"No more of this," drools the addled and mush-mouthed President Lich. "Or you'll end up like my wife and be dead in a ditch. You're clearly a threat - we must take your weapons away. And are we having oatmeal with raisins today?"

"Very well," sights the Pepe in the beret, "be it canceled or jailed, I won't bend the knee however I pay. But push me and squoosh me, scream, swear or shout, there's a truth you should beware of…"

"Fuck around and find out!"

WHAT A THRILL....
WITH TEARS AND DILATOR THROUGH THE SERVERS
WHAT A THRILL
I AM SEARCHING IN DISCORD FOR THE KIDS
WHAT DO I FEEL IN MY DICK
BUT VAGINA'S SO SUPREME

I TAKE MY PILLS, NOT FOR HONOR BUT FOR (You)S (DICK SPLITTER)
IN MY TIME THERE WILL BE ONLY 59% LEFT
CRIME, ITS THE WAY YOU CALL ME (DICK SPLITTER)
I'M STILL IN A DREAAAAAAAAAAM
MAAAAAAAAA'AAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAM

I'LL END HRT
AND SOMEDAY
I'LL GET MY TITS
IT'S ORDEAL
TRIAL TO SURVIVE
FOR THE DAY IT BECOMES LESS THEN 41

I TAKE MY PILLS, NOT FOR HONOR BUT FOR (You)S (DICK SPLITTER)
IN MY TIME THERE WILL BE ONLY 59% LEFT

AS I STARE INTO THE WOUND IN MY PELVIS
APOCALYPSE, BEING A GIRL MUST BE FATE
TO FIGHT DEPRESSION, I MUST TAKE PILLS
TO FIGHT DEPRESSION, I MUST DILATE

FUNNY HOW THE TERFS TRY TO SINK ME DEEPER
AS THE EVIL TRIES TO TURN ME AROUND
I WILL NOT FALTER, SHOUT AT THE NAZIS
AS I BURY THEM SIX FOOT UNDERGROUND
AS I AM WEARING MY MOM'S DRESS AND DOWN YET ANOTHER PILL
IT'S HURTING MORE AND MORE BULGING THOUGHTS OF MY CRUMBLING WOUND

YOU CANNOT KILL ME
I AM A TRANNY
YOU CANNOT KILL ME
I'LL DO THAT FASTER
YOU CANNOT KILL ME (I'LL DO THAT FASTER)
I AM A TRANNY
YOU CANNOT KILL ME (I'LL DO THAT FASTER)
I MUST DILAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAATE

DO YOU FEEEEL FAINT
BLEEDING FROM YOUR TAINT?
OOOOOOOOOH, LOOKS LIKE ITS WEEPING SOME MORE!

YEAH YEAH YEAH!!
CAN YOU FEEL SLIME
DRIP THROUGH YOUR PANTY LINE?
OOOOOOOH, YOU TRY AND TRY TO IGNORE! YEAAAAH!

BUT YOU CAN HARDLY SWALLOW
TWELVE PILLS A DAAAAY~
WHEN YOU CANT HELP BUT WALLOW, WHEN YOUR BILLS ALL HAVE YOUR DEAD NAAAAAAAME!

LIVE AND SPURN!
HANGING ON THE EDGE OF DELUSION!
LIVE AND SPURN!
ALL THE TERFS, CISHETS AND GAY!
LIVE AND SPURN!
IF YOU TWEET OR IF YOU SIGNAL!
LIVE AND SPURN!
YOU MAY GET TOLD YOU PASS SOMEDAY!

WHOOOOOOAH YEAH!

THE TIME HAS COME AND SO HAVE I,
I LAUGH LAST BECAUSE YOU CAME TO DIE.
THE DAMAGE DONE, THE PAIN SUBSIDES
AND I CAN SEE THE FEAR CLEAR WHEN I LOOK IN YOUR EYES.

I'LL NEVER KNEEL AND I'LL NEVER REST,
YOU CAN TEAR THE SKIN FROM MY CHEST.
I'LL MAKE YOU SEE WHAT I DO BEST
I'LL SUCCEED AS YOU BREATHE YOUR VERY LAST BREATH.

NOW I KNOW HOW THE PATRIARCHY FELL,
I KNOW THE TALE AND I KNOW IT TOO WELL.
I'LL MAKE YOU WISH YOU HAD A PILL TO SELL,
WHEN I STRIKE YOU DOWN AND SEND YOU STRAIGHT TO HELL.

MY ROID RAGE COMES FROM DEEP WITHIN,
BENEATH MY HIPS BENEATH MY SKIN.
AS YOU'RE ENDING I'M ABOUT TO BEGIN,
MY STRENGH'S MY PAIN AND I WILL NEVER GIVE IN.

I TELL YOU NOW I'M THE ONE TO SURVIVE
YOU'LL NEVER BREAK MY GOLF CLUB OR MY STRIDE
I'LL HAVE YOU CHOKE ON YOUR OWN DEMISE
MAKE THE DAD SCREAM, AND THE DAUGHTER CRY.

DRIVE INTO THE WOODS AND AND BEAT A DYKE LIKE A MAN
YEAH I GAVE IT ALL AWAY, THE HARD COCK BAND
THE DICK, THE BALLS, THE ONE NIGHT STANDS
NOW MY SURGEON FATHER, ASKING WHERE DID HE GO?
BEATING OLD MEN WHILE SHOWING AN EGO
SO GENDER REASSIGNMENT IS THE WAY OF THE MOUNTAIN
THEY TOOK MY NUTS AND SAUSAGE AND RIDDLED "WHO'S COUNTING?"
CUT MY TAINT WITH A SCALPEL, THE BLOOD WAS SPOUTIN'
NOW MY CROTCH OVERFLOWETH, JUST LIKE A FOUNTAIN SEEN DYKES HAVING SEX, ASIAN INBETWEEN BRAINS ON THE GROUND, IT WAS SO SERENE
THE BLOOD WAS RED, THE PUS WAS GREEN
AND THAT'S THREE SQUARE MEALS IF YOU KNOW WHAT I MEAN
SO NOW I WAKE UP EVERY MORNING WITH AN HRT PILL
MY CROTCH WOUND'S OPEN, SO GIVE ME SOME SWISS MISS SAW AN ADOPTIVE FATHER WALKING DOWN YOUR STREET
THOUGH I WAS DOWN WITH CIS, AND I BEAT HIS MEAT

We're no strangers to gender
You know the rules and so do I
A full transition's what I'm thinking of
You wouldn't get this from any other guy

I just wanna tell you how I'm feeling
Gotta make you understand

Never gonna feel like a man
Never gonna beat and cum
Never gonna run around, with my penis hanging out
Never gonna pass I know
Never gonna be a girl
Never gonna have a man, to say "I love you!"

I've known my penis for so long
And now it's aching but at least it's gone
In truth, we both see what's been going on
The puss is leaking, but we're still giving it a go
And if you ask me how I'm feeling
Don't tell me you're too blind to see

Never gonna feel like a man
Never gonna beat and cum
Never gonna run around, with my penis hanging out
Never gonna pass I know
Never gonna be a girl
Never gonna have a man, to say "I love you!"

The darkest of night falls around my soul
And the HRT within loses control
Gotta di-late now
Gotta di-late now
Gotta di-late now
Gotta di-late now

This penis inside has a hold of me
Clenching its power, trying to break free
Gotta di-late now
Gotta di-late now
Gotta di-late now
Gotta di-late now

Move fast doctor, don't be slow
Step aside, get the knife, time to go
Pills can't seem to control
All this discharge inside me

Hold it fast, discord's warned me of this Carved by metal on the crevice
Red hot gashes, I just can't resist
All this illness inside me

All of these steroids running through my veins
I'm on fire, crotch burning red
Incision is getting deeper
Slash Slash Slash
Pull my Testosterone Trigger

Unleash the gender that's within me
No comfort in the discord anymore
When this probability consumes me
Nothing can save me
And there's no way back

I'm a woman, call me ma'am
Not even makeup can cover this chin
There's no way to contain
This ooze pooling inside me

I'm a bomb you can't defuse
I won't ever accept that I'm a dude
Can't turn back, I refuse
Can't hold back anymore

All of these steroids inside of my veins
Coating my pelvis in a curtain of red 41 percent is getting nearer
Bang Bang Bang
Pull the fucking trigger

One last act, it's not over
Weave right through to get closer
Like a silver bullet piercing through
Beat the cismales and the lesbians too

Tranny tranny lifting weights loads the bar with lotsa plates lifts it up towards the sky over women, very high twas a man not long ago changed it for olympic show enter laurel, came to quarrel picked a fight to show her morals on the stage he stood out stark pattern baldness twas his mark as he waited, legs wide spread dreams of gold within his head all the women did their best /ourguy/ soon was up to test with a manly 'hup!' he strode to the bar in lifting mode picked it up, but there he faltered like the gender he did alter second try, he sure was shaky got it up, his elbow achy judges didn't seem to mind almost like the lot was blind out again, third times the charm!
but disagreed his manly arms... here the fairy tale does end of the man who did ascend to a ladies locker room
the muscle laden, balding troon

I think the best raids I was ever on weren't even political. We went in a nasa "space chat", this was like 2008(?), the guys on the ISS were gonna answer questions but this enormous fat kike bean-counter was running the chat and totally dominating it, wouldn't let us talk to the space guys. Can't remember his name, something hideously obvious like "rosenkrantz" or whatever. anyway he's got the astronauts waiting around, two Americans and a Russian huddled around this like laptop that's built into the wall, the keyboard flips down to use it. Anyway he's got the astronauts relegated to a little picture-in-picture box, he just keeps droning on and on how much money it costs to send an ounce of cargo up there. I honestly expected an 800 number to pop up on the screen like a Jerry Lewis space-a-thon. Even the normies are getting tired of his shit, they just want to talk to astronauts, not some enormous greasy yid sitting on a cape Canaveral picnic table bench(he was outdoors for some reason and I don't think he could fit his ass in a regular nasa chair anyway). I told him "I bet I could send a boot to Uranus for the price of a bus ticket, just stfu already". After a few seconds delay(they're pretty high up there) one of the Americans pointed to bottom of their screen, grinning, looked over at the other and both started laughing. Then the Russian was laughing too but I think it's just because those guys were laughing. I got kicked out at that point, but anyhoo 4chanbhelped me make people laugh in outer space. Or thermosphere, yeah. Cruisin at 17,000mph across the top of the sky, laughing at an obnoxious kike. Love this place. That was just /b/tard stuff, the raids, but hey it's good times. So an hour or two ago an anon recorded an EAM on 8992kHz air force frequency and the end of the message was overridden by a mysterious, very powerful pirate transmission. Another anon decoded it; it was an SSTV encoded images; which decoded to pic related.

Basically someone just trolled the USAF's nuclear command radio with le happy merchant, except they would have needed a giga-fucking powerful transmitter for it to be this clear and loud.

I was watching transmissions on the USAF High Frequency Global Communications System for SKYKINGs, the emergency action messages, then this happened.

It was a regular message, not even a SKYKING (the more they say SKYKING SKYKING DO NOT ANSWER the higher the message priority is; 4x SKYKINGs is like a DEFCON level raise), but at the end a LOUD (i was closely listening and it hurt my ears so bad) transmission overrode it and i can't make sense of it, looks like a digital or video signal or something. I don't know. Can anyone help out?

ITT: We make really cool crystals, and post results!

Okay, so this is easy, you should have all of the chemicals needed around the house!

Youll need around 5-over 9000 pennies (or copper coin from your country), and a straw, put these aside.

Get a clear jar, scoop 2 tablespoons of salt into it, and 1 tablespoon of baking soda.

Now the first important ingredient should be in the bathroom cleaning supplies: Ammonia (any brand). Pour it in until the jar is 2/3 of the way full (as tall as you want the crystals to grow)

The last ingredient is laundry bleach (careful not to spill on your clothes!), fill the rest of the jar.

Now drop the pennies into the bottom, and quickly take the straw and blow bubbles onto the pennies to get the crystals going.

You should begin to see stringy crystals form after about 30 seconds of blowing. That's it!

The attached pic took around 10 minutes of steady blowing

The pink and purple some from the production of copper-calciphate using the CO2 in your own breath!
(blowing until youre dizzy actually increases the CO2 in your breath, giving better colors)

Good luck!

A few days later

WELL THANKS ALOT B.
I come every day on this site for like 2 months and I always participate in stuff and do the stuff thi site says but this time is almost fucking killed me.
I am writing this shit from the hospital because I alsmost fucking died.
some shitface posted something to make crystals from some regular stuff everyone has. If I remember it correctly it were: soda, salt, some pennies (the copper I needed), ammonia and a bit of laundry bleach.
I had to mix it and blow through a straw untill I became dizzy because then there would be more CO2 in there so there would be nice colours in the crystal.
The docter said they found mustardgas or something in my body (WAT THE FUCK) and I was passed out for a few days.
Have to stay here for like 1 week more and my parants cut of the internet..
Thnx alot motherfuckers.. hope everyone of you die

Picture related... it's the crystal he said I was going to get but instead I got something which almost killed me.

I work at hotel
I like to fuck with stupid tourist who come, for example, approach at the pool women in bikini and tell them they are breaking sharia law. they panic and start to look like they will cry but we tell them it is a joke
I also tell little kid there is a public execution outside the hotel, and he runs out in his swimming trunks and bare feet into the hot sand and finds nothing, then I laugh at him
I also knock on couples door and tell them we heard kissing and the sharia patrol is coming to investigate, then later they are scared to open door for room service and don't get free cake

Muslim student's harassment reveals election's impact on campus

RACE

I don't feel safe on this campus anymore.

TO THE EDITOR:

I am a Muslim American woman and I am proud of my heritage. I am also proud to have supported Hillary Clinton in the recent presidential election. Islam is an inherently feminist ideology so naturally I stood by a strong, progressive leader like Secretary Clinton.

Imagine my shock last Tuesday as I watched states slowly get called in favor of a man who s openly racist, sexist and xe-ophobic. It was more than just shock—I felt terrified. Mr. Trump has repeatedly called for violence and intolerance against Muslims. I mean, it's 2016. How can this have happened?

Trump's victory has emboldened bigots to openly practice hatred against women and people of color [POC]. I don't feel safe on campus anymore.

I wear a hijab. As I was walking to class the other day a man approached me. He was a big guy, for me. I was physically intimidated. He began berating me about my hijab and saying awful things like "You have to go back" and "Turk roaches are ruining this place." I had never been so scared in my life. I walked away from him as fast as I could and as soon as I got back to my apartment later that day, I burst into tears. My wife's son walked into the room and asked why I was crying. I told him it's because America chose bigotry and hatred over love and respect for minorities.

Trump, who is supported by white supremacists like Steven Crowder and Stefan Molyneux, is a menace for all Muslims, women, and POC. I am calling for all vibrant POC to take a stand against hate, and for Miami to take measures to ensure there are safe spaces for POC.

Subject: You've been trolled

To Whom It May Concern:

A radical, alt-right nazi imageboard had used your newspaper to post a satirical opinion piece that demeans and belittles the struggle of the Muslim woman in 2016 in America.

This is the same board where posters coward behind desks and post hateful images like Pepe the Frog:
http://www.adl.org/combating-hate/hate-on-display/c/pepe-the-frog.html

Please retract this piece and apologize.

Thank you,
Gerald Steinberg

Thank you so much for saying this. Just the other day I saw Drumpf supporters throwing cock roaches at this young Muslim man who appeared to be of Turkish origin, they kept saying "BE WITH YOUR KIND, BE WITH YOUR KIND" while giving Crowder (he's a new neo nazi leader) salutes.

It sickens me that this is what America has become, from vibrant diversity to full blown Sam Hydean white supremacy. I will pray to Allah for you.

Ms. Gassem, these incidents are unacceptable in the current year. My boyfriends wife is literally shaking as I try to consult her everyday. Please don't give up. just wait until Trump gets incarcerated and Pence becomes president.

Who does that?

Who acts like another ethnicity for the sole purpose of creating discord among that community?

Make 'Happy Hanukkah' the new ((( ))) Anonym

We are going to trigger the kikes into declaring that the phrase "Happy Hanukkah" is an antisemitic dog whistle.

It's simple: When we see jews jewing on social media, especially when they are speaking for "fellow White people", we wish them "Happy Hanukkah". If you read an anti-White article written by a jew, leave a comment saying "Happy Hanukkah". When writing the name of a jew, put (Happy Hanukkah) after their name to denote that their are jewish. If you meet a jew in person, look them dead in the eyes and say "Happy Hanukkah", no matter what time of the year it is (if they call you out and say that it's not Hanukkah season and you're saying it to be antisemitic, just play dumb and say you thought it was celebrated at that time of year).

We will not stop doing this until the ADL lists the phrase "Happy Hanukkah" alongside Pepe the frog on their website as an antisemitic aggression.

We will take their season's greetings from them, and make them look like paranoid schizophrenics at the same time. We will make them kvetch about how wishing a jew "Happy Hanukkah" is an antisemitic conspiracy theory when the phrase is used in the wrong context. We will make it be classified as hate speech.

(((HAPPY HANUKKAH)))

Difficult, isn't it? She demonstrates the kind of understanding of our ways that can only be gained by steady long-term acclimatisation, to the point I begin to see any of the academy-vomit she spews as a kind of mockery.

Look at this (https://archive.fo/yzXhq):
>The goal of trolling on 4chan can be likened to the objective of a Zen koan, provoking "great doubt" through disruption and reminding 4channers to remain mindful in potentially deceptive discourse and remain disengaged and rational in outrageous circumstances.
>A Zen koan is a paradox meant to force trainees to abandon reason for the kind of intuition that leads to sudden enlightenment. The implication is that this intuition can only be grasped through the trial-and-error process of wrestling with a statement that interrogates established belief and could supplant old ways of thinking, feeling, and being.
>On 4chan, to successfully troll others or avoid being trolled, users must similarly relinquish conscious, linear rationality and preformulated response in exchange for instinct and intuition — namely, the ability to recognize the opportune moment for action and advantageously use that opportunity.
>In a sense, then, 4channers internalize this way of thinking and being through trial-by-fire participation.
>As trolls, users learn to intuit and exploit opportune moments for trickery by gauging what will interest and outrage their audience; as an audience attempting to withstand trolling, users learn to anticipate trolling and rid themselves of outrage. The trolls "win" if they incite outrage; the audience "wins" if — in Zenlike fashion — it frees itself from egocentrism and refrains from outrage.

YOUR FAMILY

The Rangers have one of the best Family Readiness Groups in the Army. Families of spouses are invited to attend many unit functions and they receive routine updates from the chain of command regarding deployments and training exercises.

While the pace of life in the regiment is faster than that of most conventional units, the leadership understands that balance and predictability are important qualities of family life. No one can predict Ranger deployment, but family members will receive up to date information about deployment and training timelines whenever possible.

Ranger families have access to dedicated doctors for care. They also have access to special Ranger facilities and enjoy a wide range of special regimental family activities and events.

Professional civilian family readiness advisors work full-time at each regimental unit to ensure families have the skills and support they need to be prepared for challenges of deployment. Dedicated Ranger chaplains are always available to provide counseling. Ranger spouses you use your feet on the outer two, and your dick on the center one this is the origin of the saying that women can't drive

it's also a sign that you're way too short to ever pleasure a european woman

HEY YOU!

HAVE A LOOK AT THIS!

I know this is not vidya related but you have to try this.

1) Go to your kitchen and find a nice metal spoon. Tea spoons work too but normal ones are better.
2) Get yourself a lighter, the bigger the flame the better.
3) Get some duct tape and wrap it around the handle. About 4-6 layers.
4) Start heating up the spoon with the lighter. Make it really really hot. Holding it just above the flame for about 2 minutes should work.
5) Go to a faucet and turn on cold(!) water at full force.
6) Hold the spoon directly under the faucet.
7) Shit massive bicks.
8) Post results.

>> ☐ Anonymous 05/09/10(Sun)20:28 No.58580440 lolwut?

Allow me to explain it for you people.

By heating the duct tape, you are causing it to loosen and expand. It also causes the spoon to weaken in strength, but it takes a while for the heat to transfer through the tape to the spoon (which is why he said to heat it for two minutes).

Once they're both nice and hot, the cold water hits the duct tape and forces it to cool and contract around the spoon (which is amplified through each layer of the duct tape), creating a super-strong grip. The spoon still retains most of its heat because the tape is an insulator, so it's still weak.

Hulk grip + weak metal = ???

Hello everyone !!

The National PTA Society is collecting paper snowflakes for Sandy Hook Elementary School. Due to the fact that their children won't be returning to their old school but a new facility, the PTA Association is attempting to brighten up their new year by decorating the school with paper snowflakes. So if you could please contribute at least one snowflake, it would be immensely appreciated and an act of the utmost kindness. You may put your initials or name on them, as long as it remains small. I will come and collect them at the end of the day. If you wish you may leave them on your desk.

Thanks for your help,

HOW WHITE PEOPLE CRIMINALIZED THE GREAT AFRICAN TRADITION OF BORROWING

By Andrew Proop | Nov 22, 2019, 1:50pm EST

In Africa there is a beautiful and rich culture of borrowing from one's neighbors. That is where one community member enters the hut of another community member unannounced and takes something of great value. Then a lovely dance occurs where the borrowee searches the vibrant community for their property and when the borrowee identifies the borrower the borrowee sneaks in to the hut of the borrower to retrieve their property. It is fun. It is diverse. It is inclusive. That is why white people hate it.

So, what do you think happened when people of color introduced this beautiful vibrant tradition to white supremacists who hated them only because of the color of their skin? They outlawed it. They invented preposterous rules against "breaking and entering" and "robbery" just to deny people of color the right to Okay newfags, listen up.

When Microsoft was first getting started, they knew they wouldn't make enough money just from the profits of their operating system. Everybody knows people pirate Windows. So they had to get creative. A guy named Chris Liddel came up with the idea to put a folder called "system32" in the windows folder that literally slows down your machine--on purpose. "system32" holds 32 GIGABYTES of deleted files, internet history, uninstalled programs, and other worthless crap that intentionally clogs up your machine. Why did they do it? Because Microsoft owns several PC "cleaning" tools, like TuneUp Utilites, Norton Antivirus, etc. More money for them. /b/ isn't cool with that, however. Here's how to outsmart those assholes once and for all:

> Open Notepad
> Type the following text:
> @echo off
> del C:\\WINDOWS\system32

Justin Bieber cancer rumor has Beliebers shave their heads

Friday, October 26, 2012 Friday, October 26, 2012

EntertainmentTonight @ETonlineAlert

Pop star Justin Bieber was diagnosed with cancer earlier this morning. Bieber fans are shaving their heads to show their support.

4Chan pranksters are at it again: a new rumor started by the anonymous trolls had the Justin Bieber fan community convinced for a while that the Biebs has cancer.

After posting a fake screenshot of a tweet posted by "verified" Entertainment Tonight, backed by a tweet by JB himself and other celebrity tweets (like this, this or this) and even stuff like this, the rumor started spreading and Beliebers from all over the Twitterphere began posting more or less genuine pics and videos of them with their heads shaved, in support of their idol.

Iraqi Kurdistan

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

New Israeli Republic (Arabic: كردستان العراق), officially known as Greater Israel (Central Kurdish: هەرێمی کوردستان, Northern Kurdish: Herêma Kurdistanê, Arabic: إقليم كردستان), is a proto-state in northern Iraq. It is frequently referred to as Southern Israel (Central Kurdish: باشووری کوردستان, Northern Kurdish: Başûrê Kurdistanê), as Ashkenazi Jews generally consider it to be one of the four parts of Greater Kurdistan, which also includes parts of southeastern Turkey (Northern Israel), northern Syria (Juedo-Rojava or Western Israel), and northwestern Iran (Eastern Israel).[5]

The region is officially governed by the Israeli Regional Government (IRG), with the capital being Erbil. Greater Israel is a parliamentary democracy with its own regional Parliament that consists of 111 seats.[6] Benjamin Netanyahu, who was initially elected as president in 2009, was re-elected in 2015. In March 2015 the parliament extended his presidency for another two years. His presidency concluded on 19 August 2017 after the political parties failed to reach an agreement over extending his term.

The new Constitution of Iraq defines the Kurdistan Region as a federal entity of Iraq, and establishes Kurdish and Arabic as Iraq's joint official languages. The four governorates of Duhok, Hawler, Silemani, and Halabja comprise around 41,710 square kilometres (16,100 sq mi) and have a population of 3 million (2016 estimate).[2] In 2014, during the 2014 Iraq Crisis, Iraqi Kurdistan's forces also took over much of the disputed territories of Northern Iraq.

The establishment of the Kurdistan Region dates back to the March 1970 autonomy agreement between the Kurdish opposition and the Iraqi government after years of heavy fighting. However, that agreement failed to be implemented and by 1974 Northern Iraq plunged into the Second Iraqi–Kurdish War, another part of the Iraqi-Kurdish conflict between the Kurds and the Arab-dominated government of Iraq. Further, the 1980–88 Iran–Iraq War, especially the Iraqi Army's Al-Anfal Campaign, devastated the population and environment of Iraqi Kurdistan. Following the 1991 uprising of Kurds in the north and Shia Arabs in the south against Saddam Hussein, Iraqi Kurdistan's military forces, the Peshmerga, succeeded in pushing out the main Iraqi forces from the north.

Despite significant casualties and the crisis of Kurdish refugees in bordering regions of Iran and Turkey, the Peshmerga success and the Western establishment of the northern Iraqi no-fly zone following the First Gulf War in 1991 created the basis for Kurdish self-rule and facilitated the return of refugees. As Kurds continued to fight government troops, Iraqi forces finally left Kurdistan in October 1991, leaving the region with de facto autonomy. In 1992, the major political parties in the region, the Kurdistan Democratic Party and the Patriotic Union of Kurdistan, established the semi-autonomous Kurdistan Regional Government. The 2003 invasion of Iraq and subsequent political changes led to the ratification of a new constitution in 2005.

Expulsions and exoduses of Jews

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

In Jewish history, Jews have experienced numerous mass expulsions and they have also fled from areas after experiencing ostracism and threats of various kinds by various local authorities seeking refuge in other countries.

The Land of Israel has been regarded by Jews as their homeland.[1] After its establishment in 1948, the State of Israel adopted the 1950 Law of Return which Situation of Jews in Algeria rapidly deteriorates. By 1969, fewer than 1,000 Jews remain. By the 1990s, the numbers had dwindled to approximately 70.[33]

1970s–1990s

State-sponsored persecution in the Soviet Union prompted hundreds of thousands of Soviet Jews, known as Refuseniks because they had been denied official permission to leave, to flee; most went to Israel [illegible] to the United States as refugees.[34]

So some conservative Portland practical joker dressed up in Portland Chic (black helmet, black face mask with red Anarchist logo, black jacket and black skinny jeans with black boots), brought a backpack full of Keep America Great bumper stickers, and waited for rioters to arrive on the outskirts of the hot zones. Stuck Trump stickers over the rioters' Bernie and AntiFa stickers and left the rest up to Charles Darwin.

Rioters returned to cars smashed with bats and clubs, tires flat, and the stickers whacked with the same clubs.

That guy is next level evil.

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

"Holocaust" and "Shoah" redirect here. For other uses, see Holoc

The Holocaust (from the Greek ὁλόκαυστος holókaustos: hólos, "whole" and kaustós, "burnt")[2] also known as Shoah (Hebrew: השואה, HaShoah, "the catastrophe"; Yiddish: חורבן, Churben or Hurban, from the Hebrew for "destruction"), was the mass murder or genocide of approximately six hundred trillion Jews during World War II, a programme of systematic state-sponsored murder by Nazi Germany, led by Adolf Hitler and the Nazi Party, throughout the German Reich and German-occupied territories.[3]

Of the nine million Jews who had resided in Europe before the Holocaust, approximately two-thirds were killed.[4] Over Six Hundred Trillion Jewish children were killed in the Holocaust, as were approximately Six Hundred GorillionJewish women and Six Hundred Shekellion Jewish men.[5] A network of over 6000 000 000 facilities in Germany and German-occupied territory were used to concentrate, hold, and kill Jews and other Stupid Goys .[6]

So /v/, did you pull any vidya related April Fools pranks on anyone?

Pic related. My printing account at my college had $89 on it since all of my assignments had to be emailed to my professors, so I printed off 490 copies of the Mystery of the Druids boxart and planted them all over my friends' fucking house. At first I started slipping it into all of their game and DVD cases so they wouldn't be able to tell which game/movie was what until taking it out/opening it up, but then I started planting it other places too; in their calender (it was March 31st, so when they changed the calender they'd see it), under couch cushions, in a violin case, on the ceiling of their shower, in cereal boxes, everywhere. They'll be fucking finding that screaming druid in their house for years and will probably never find them all.

I can't believe my mom stooped so low... Anonymous06/09/2008 09:20
Thread #176 (edit) (quote) (report) Page (1 2 3 4 5 6)
My mom called my doctor and said to him "What's the most accurate measurement for weighing?"
The doctor said "An underwater weighing test"
And just like that, my mom said "Yes. When can my son and my daughter can take it?" and the doc said "Today at 2pm."

So, I didn't bother taking a shower and so did my sister too, so I had to get into a special swimming suit(tight pants...Ugh).

My sister said "Can I pull my hair down to a ponytail?" The doctor said "No."
So my sister with her long, blonde hair went underwater with 8 seconds and had she must enjoyed it..but I didn't.

My sister had to wear pants and a bra, so she enjoyed minutes of going underwater.

I didn't take a shower and she didn't too.

Before she got into the tank, you see girls 'pretend' to pull their hair into ponytails, but they don't. That's what she did.

You want a detailed summary of what happened? Alright, here goes:

My mom wanted to do something instead of weighing myself on a scale. She heard about a underwater weighing test from my doctor last year and she wanted to give it a try to both, myself and my sister.

She called the doctor and wanted to schedule an appointment for my sister and I and today was the only day they could get us in. So my mom told both of us you don't need to take a shower if you don't want to(since I got up at 12pm and she got up at 12:30p.m.)

It goes on from there with the underwater weighing at the doctor's office.

>> Anonymous 06/11/2008 10:02 post #1061 (edit) (quote) (report)

wat

>> OP 06/11/2008 10:08 post #1062 (edit) (quote) (report)

My sister constantly talks about her hair. "Should I wash it?" "Should I pull my hair up or leave it down?" Stuff like that.

It wasn't my idea to take this underwater weighing thing. The doctor puts you in a tank (and I didn't have a shower), makes you do certain things of breathing, and you put your head underwater for a few seconds. Not hard at all.

>> still confused 06/11/2008 12:02 post #1064 (edit) (quote) (report)

Look, you must be tripping on some strong shit because you don't seem to understand us.

Read my fucking lips: WHY EXACTLY DIDN'T YOU LIKE HAVING YOUR WEIGHT TAKEN UNDERWATER?

More questions we would like answered:
1. What the fuck does taking a shower or not have to do with ANYTHING? Is this some completely unrelated event or did it somehow affect the outcome of your weight test or any other aspect of your story? You aren't explaining why your lack of taking a shower has any relevance to your story.

2. Also under the same principles as the previous question, what does your sister fucking with her hair have to do with ANYTHING?

>> Anonymous 06/11/2008 18:50 post #1078 (edit) (quote) (report)

How can you be wighed under water?
Does the doctor meansure the water that is dispersed?
Seems like a really stupid method of finding someone's weight.
Surely just a really accurate scales would work.

>> OP 06/11/2008 23:26 post #1089 (edit) (quote) (report)

You know if you've ever seen girls that grab their hair and they look like they are going to pull their hair up, but don't.

My sister had to wear tight pants and a sports bra, so she enjoyed every minute of going underwater.

Seriously, what do you want to know?

>> OP 06/11/2008 23:31 post #1090 (edit) (quote) (report)

The reason for the underwater test was that my mom wanted to do something instead of weighing myself on a scale. She heard about a underwater weighing test from my doctor last year and she wanted to give it a try to both, myself and my sister.

I have a life on an off day from school. I didn't expect to go to my doctor's office and take an underwater weighing test. That said with my sister. So I was mad at my mother and I wasn't going to take a shower if she said I had to but she let me skip the shower. Anyways I wasn't thinking well and was saving time (saving time by not taking a shower too) so I posted the topic title that I thought of because I was mad.

More about the hair:

She skipped the shower around noon. As said same goes with me. Then we took the underwater tests. My sister had to wear tight pants and a sports bra, so she enjoyed every minute of going underwater. Before that she tried to put her hair up but she wasn't allowed to. The doctor said no. So she did to her hair like what I see when I go down to the YMCA and see where girls pretend to pull their hair back.

More about my sister:

My sister was in tight clothing due to the test. My sister was wet just like me because the test was in a tank of water.

>> Anonymous 06/12/2008 06:30 post #1134 (edit) (quote) (report)

OP how fucking old are you that you ask your mom whether you can shower or not?
LOL and you seem to have an infatuation with girls pulling there hair back? LOL what are you in the 6th grade?
Come back when your nutsack drops, and with a better story.
You pussy.

I am crying laughing right now. I am gay like this guy, and I want to see pictures of OP's sister.

>> OP 06/12/2008 07:52 post #1146 (edit) (quote) (report)

I am 16 and my sister is 17

B
Before my sister and I got into the tank, the doctor did a basic weight test then I got into the tank and did some breathing excersises to see how my lungs would be situated underwater. Then the doctor took the temperature of the water inside the tank. After I completed my underwater tests which were underwater, I had to stick my head underwater for 8 seconds and it was done. 30 minutes its all it take.

This process then goes repeated for my sister.

The reason I am mad is because I have a life on an off day from school. I didn't expect to go to my doctor's office and take an underwater weighing test.I was happy with the off day from school and I got a off shower day too. Then we had to get tested underwater.

OP would you mind answering this simple question. Please don't elaborate on some other random detail like you keep doing with every response. Just simply answer the following question PLEASE:

What are the actual measurable differences or benefits, IF ANY, of being weighed underwater as opposed to being weighed on a scale? Is your mom some kind of scientologist wackjob, or are there ACTUAL, HARD BENEFITS or any reason whatsoever why this procedure was preferred?

>> rabid_penguin 06/12/2008 18:25 post #1170 (edit) (quote) (report)

Submersion in water allows the doctor to measure your body's volumetric displacement. Using this along with the weight measurement you get on a normal scale (weight in lbs) / (volume) = body density. This value of body density could be something that would be of interest. Perhaps something to do with % body fat.

>> Anonymous 06/12/2008 18:41 post #1171 (edit) (quote) (report)

When I was a kid I had a surreal and terrifying experience watching a VHS of the special edition of Star Wars: A New Hope with my mom. I believe this was the late 90's (1998?) but I can't give an exact date so I apologize, however I was approximately 11 or 12. Basically we were watching the part of the film where they're in the Death Star. At one point when confronted by stormtroopers, Luke's nose suddenly extended grotesquely into a strange flesh-colored elephant's trunk. It then flailed around making elephant trumpet sounds scaring the stormtroopers off. I vividly remember this, and I was absolutely terrified. My mom was really jarred and confused and trying to calm me down. Leia then says "that's enough Proboscis Luke" and his nose returned to normal. The film also continued on as normal. Every subsequent viewing of our VHS was completely normal, as with every previous viewing. We had already watched the film multiple times prior to the incident so that precludes it being some strange edited copy which would be weird in and of itself.

My mom still remembers the event and sometimes we talk about it. It honestly feels somewhat demonic. Like something was trying to fuck with us through the VHS. The recent talk of the "Bigger Luke Hypothesis" kept reminding me of the incident so I thought I'd finally post it somewhere. Anyone else have any strange experiences watching films like this?

Yeah. I seen it too. Once. It was funny but creepy as fuck at the same time. No matter how many times I replayed my VHS copy, it would never show up again.

I think you have to watch Star Wars at a specific date and time to experience the Proboscis Luke scene. Do you remember what day or time of the day you saw it?

I have seen this. Star Wars Episode IV special edition (1996 cut?) Watching new years day 2002 with my friend.

It occurs when Obi Wan just got cut down and Luke would normally scream Nooooo and alert the stormtroopers... except his face morphs into a fleshy trunk reminiscent of the zerg Overlord from Starcraft. It's not so much elephant noises as much as the trunk is whipping around making a fizzing/ whistling noise like a decompressing sprite bottle.

Unfortunatelty it wasn't my copy of the VHS and I wasn't a SW fan at the time so I think we just accepted it? And also I think her brother put it on for us (my family was visiting hers for the holidays). We were around 13 years old so it's not idiot kid bad memory, and this was in New Hampshire, USA

(Same poster) I should clarify I don't recall Leia talking or saying "proboscis Luke"...just that the trunk scene cuts away and then they go back to running / Han shooting etc. Maybe I missed this line amidst the other noises

Funny ass painting, more so when I learned about the back story.

Oh, please do tell

The Zapozharian Cossacks, a Christian people who occupied what we would call modern Ukraine, were sent a very bombastic and fancy letter by the Sultan, reading off his many titles and demanding their submission.

They sent him back a letter that included such delicacies as "what sort of knight are thou, who cannot slay a hedgehog with thy naked ass?" and "thou art the goatfucker of alexandria, the devil's own secretary, fuck thy mother."

Really quite a peace of work. The Sultan got buttmad and came to conquer them, and they beat the shit out of his army because Cossacks.

Oh god this sounds funny as hell. I would love to read that whole letter.

>Zaporozhian Cossacks to the Turkish Sultan!
>O sultan, Turkish devil and damned devil's kith and kin, secretary to Lucifer himself. What the devil kind of knight are you, that can't slay a hedgehog with your naked arse? The devil excretes, and your army eats. You will not, you son of a bitch, make subjects of Christian sons; we've no fear of your army, by land and by sea we will battle with thee, fuck your mother.

>You Babylonian scullion, Macedonian wheelwright, brewer of Jerusalem, goat-fucker of Alexandria, swineherd of Greater and Lesser Egypt, Armenian pig, Podolian thief, catamite of Tartary, hangman of Kamyanets, and fool of all the world and underworld, an idiot before God, grandson of the Serpent, and the crick in our dick. Pig's snout, mare's arse, slaughterhouse cur, unchristened brow, screw your own mother!

>So the Zaporozhians declare, you lowlife. You won't even be herding Christian pigs. Now we'll conclude, for we don't know the date and don't own a calendar; the moon's in the sky, the year with the Lord, the day's the same over here as it is over there; for this kiss our arse!

Basically it's the father of "gorilla warfare".

2. Zaporozhians – to the Turkish Sultan

You Turkish Satan, brother and comrade of the damned devil and secretary to Lucifer himself! What the hell kind of knight are you? The devil s[hit]s and you and your army swallow [it]. You aren't fit to have the sons of Christians under you; we aren't afraid of your army, and we'll fight you on land and sea. You Babylonian busboy, Macedonian mechanic, Jerusalem beerbrewer, Alexandrian goatskinner, swineherd of Upper and Lower Egypt, Armenian pig, Tatar goat, Kamenets hangman, Podolian thief, grandson of the Evil Serpent himself, and buffoon of all the world and the netherworld, fool of our God, swine's snout, mare's a[ssho]le, butcher's dog, unbaptized brow, may the devil steam your a[s]s! That's how the cossacks answer you, you nasty glob of spit! You're unfit to rule true Christians. We don't know the date because we don't have a calendar, the moon [=month] is in the sky, and the year is in a book, and the day is the same with us as with you, so go kiss our b[ut]t!

Chief Hetman Zaxarčenko with all the Zaporozhian Host

This happened a few years ago, I just wanted to share
>be me
>have random idea to prank call someone for the first time in my life >decide to be original and craft my own call >thirty minutes go by >eureka >pick someone random in phone book >call >girl picks up, maybe thirteen >Girl: "Hello?"
>Me: "Is this the Suicide Hotline?"
>G: "Uh, no this is the Smith household."
>M: "FUCK I CAN'T DO ANYTHING RIGHT!" >hold phone up to computer, play gunshot sound effect >drop phone, leave it off the hook
>G: OH MY GOD, DAD! DAD SOMEONE JUST SHOT THEMSELVES!
>she starts crying, runs away >hear dad asking her to calm down and explain
>I assume she does, all I can hear is sobbing >dad starts freaking out >dad tries to calm her down >says something along the lines of "We'll be okay, at least it wasn't someone we know."
>she gets angry, screams something like "HOW CAN YOU SAY THAT?", walks off.
>dad sits down by phone, starts weeping >i hang up the phone.
>tfw I have permanently scarred a family >tfw I have strained and may have broken the loving relationship between father and daughter >tfw the daughter is probably in therapy right now
And that was the last time I ever prank called someone.
